The following words and terms, when used in this Chapter, shall have the following meaning, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

"Allowable expenses" means:

- (A) charges incurred for needed products, services and accommodations, including, but not limited to, medical care, wage loss, rehabilitation, rehabilitative occupational training, and other remedial treatment and care.

- (C) reasonable costs for counseling family members of a homicide victim, and
- (D) reasonable costs associated with crime scene clean up.
- (E) reasonable cost of vehicle impound fees associated with the collection and security of crime scene evidence.

"Board" means the Oklahoma Crime Victims Compensation Board, hereinafter referred to as the Board.

"Claimant" means any of the following persons applying for compensation under this act:

- (A) a victim,
- (B) a dependent of a victim who has died because of criminally injurious conduct, or
- (C) a person authorized to act on behalf of any of the persons listed above. The Board has the discretion to require sufficient proof of authority to act on behalf of a victim.

"Collateral source" means a source of benefits or advantages for economic loss for which the claimant would otherwise be eligible to receive compensation under this Act which the claimant has received, or which is readily available to the claimant from the sources identified by statute.

"Criminally injurious conduct" means a misdemeanor or felony which occurs or is attempted in Oklahoma, or against a resident of this state in a state that does not have an eligible crime victims compensation program, as such term is defined in the Federal Victims of Crime Act of 1984, Public Law 98-473; that results in bodily injury, threat of bodily injury or death to a victim.

- (A) "Criminally injurious conduct" results in personal injury or death to a victim which is:
 - (i) punishable by fine, imprisonment or death, or
 - (ii) if the act is committed by a child, could result in such child being adjudicated a delinquent child.
- (B) Pursuant to 21 O.S. 142.11, an award may be made whether or not any person is prosecuted or convicted as an adult offender or adjudicated a delinquent child. Proof of conviction of a person whose acts give rise to a claim or a copy of the adjudication order for a delinquent child whose acts give rise to a claim is conclusive evidence that the crime was committed. The Board or administrator may continue a claim pending disposition of a criminal prosecution or delinquent child adjudication that has been commenced or is imminent, but may make a tentative award.

(C) The term "criminally injurious conduct" shall not include acts arising out of the negligent maintenance or use of a motor vehicle unless the vehicle was:

- (i) operated or driven by the offender while under the influence of alcohol, with a blood alcohol level in excess of the legal limit, or any other intoxicating substance or,

- (iv) one or more vehicles that results in the death of the victim due to the reckless disregard for the safety of others by the offender. As used in this division, reckless disregard for the safety of others is defined as the omission to do something which a reasonably careful person would do, or the lack of the usual and ordinary care and caution

(D) The term "criminally injurious conduct" shall include an act of terrorism, as defined in Section 2331 of Title 18, United States Code, committed outside the United States.

"Dependent" means a natural person wholly or partially dependent upon the victim for care or support, and includes a child of a victim born after the death of the victim where the death occurred as a result of criminally injurious conduct.

"Economic loss" means monetary detriment consisting only of allowable expense, work loss, replacement services loss and, if injury causes death, economic loss and replacement services loss of a dependent, but shall not include non economic loss.

"Replacement services loss of a dependent" means the loss reasonably incurred by dependents after death of the victim in obtaining ordinary and necessary services in lieu of those the deceased victim would have performed for their benefit had the deceased victim not suffered the fatal injury, less expenses of the dependent avoided by reason of death of the victim and not subtracted in calculating the economic loss of the dependent.

185:10-1-4. Eligibility criteria for compensation

(a) The criminally injurious conduct leading to the filing of the compensation claim must have occurred in Oklahoma. Beginning November 1, 1989, residents of Oklahoma who are victimized in states without eligible crime victims compensation programs, as such term is defined in the federal Victims of Crime Act of 1984, Public Law 98-473, will be eligible claimants under the Oklahoma Crime Victims Compensation Act. Proof of conviction of the person causing the criminally injurious injury to the victim is conclusive evidence that the crime was committed.

(b) The incident must have occurred on or after October 19, 1981.

(c) The incident must have been reported to law enforcement officials within 72 hours, unless the Board finds there was good cause, as permitted by 21 O.S.142.10.

(d) The claim for compensation must be filed in the Oklahoma City office within one (1) year of the incident date or death of the victim. The Board or administrator may waive this requirement in certain situations, as permitted by 21 O.S. § 142.10.

(e) The victim must have suffered physical or psychological injury or death as a result of the criminal action of another.

(f) The claimant and/or victim must have cooperated with law enforcement officials, the District Attorney's office, and the Crime Victims Compensation Board during entire investigation. In the event the Board or administrator finds the claimant and/or victim was not cooperative, a claim may be denied, withdrawn, or reduced.

(g) The net amount of compensation requested in the claim must not have been paid by a collateral source, however, the Board or administrator shall not require any claimant to seek or accept any collateral source contribution, unless the claimant was receiving such benefits prior to the occurrence giving rise to the claim under the provisions of the Act.

(h) The claimant and/or victim was not the offender or an accomplice of the offender, and, the compensation award shall not be used to benefit the offender or accomplice. Number one through four below were developed in accordance with Section 7129 of the Victims of Crime Act.

(1) In determining whether a compensation award can be made without unjustly enriching an offender, the Board or administrator shall evaluate whether the victim has reported the crime and is cooperating with the criminal justice system in the investigation and prosecution of the crime, and whether the victim will do what is possible to prevent access by the offender to compensation paid to the victim. If the victim is cooperating fully, and if the offender will not benefit from or have access to a substantial portion of any cash award made by the Board to the victim, then the award shall not be declined on the basis that the award would benefit the offender.

(2) A determination that the award would benefit the offender shall not be based solely on the presence of the offender in the household at the time of the award. The presence of the offender in the household is only one factor to be considered in determining that he/she would benefit from the award; a determination of whether the offender will benefit from an award shall be made in each case, based on the totality of the circumstances.

(3) In determining whether an award would benefit the offender, the Board must weigh whether the benefit to the offender is substantial or inconsequential. Factors to be considered include the amount of the award and whether a substantial portion of the compensation award will be used directly by or on behalf of the offender. If the offender has direct access to a cash award and/or if a substantial portion of it will be used to pay for his/her living expenses, that portion of the award that will substantially benefit the offender may be reduced or denied. When enrichment is inconsequential or minimal, the award may not be reduced or denied.

(4) Collateral resources available to the victim from the offender shall be examined. Collateral resources may include court-ordered restitution, an offending spouse's medical insurance, or other resources of the offender available to cover the victim's expenses. In evaluating the availability of collateral resources, a determination shall be made first as to whether the offender has a legal responsibility to pay; second, whether the offender has resources to pay; and third, whether payment is likely. The victim shall not be penalized for the failure of an offender to meet legal obligations to pay for the costs of the victim's recovery. If the offender fails to meet legal responsibilities to pay restitution or provide for the medical and support needs of a spouse or child, or if the offender impedes payment of insurance that may be available to cover a spouse's or child's expenses, the Board will attempt to meet the victim's needs to the extent allowed, and may pursue whatever actions are appropriate to seek reimbursement from the offender. The Board is subrogated to any restitution the offender may owe the victim if an award is made. Donations from individuals on behalf of the victim are not collateral sources, as defined in 21 O.S. 142.3.

(i) The claim must not have been the result of negligent maintenance or use of a motor vehicle by the offender, unless the vehicle was operated or driven by the offender while under the influence of alcohol or any other intoxicating substance or, unless the vehicle was operated or driven by the offender with the intent to injure or kill the victim or in a manner imminently dangerous to another person and evincing a depraved mind, although without any premeditated design to injure or effect the death of any particular person or the offense involved willful, malicious or felonious failure to stop after being involved in a personal injury accident to avoid detection or prosecution, provided the victim of the accident was a pedestrian or was operating a vehicle moved solely by human power or a mobility device at the time of contact.

(j) Compensation otherwise payable to a claimant shall be diminished by the Board or Administrator in certain circumstances, pursuant to 21 O.S. 142.10.

(k) The offense involving one or more vehicles results in the death of the victim due to the reckless disregard for the safety of others by the offender. As used in this division, reckless disregard for the safety of others is defined as the omission to do something which a reasonably careful person would do, or the lack of the usual and ordinary care and caution in the performance of an act usually and ordinarily exercised by a person under similar circumstances and conditions.

(e) An award payable in installments for future economic loss may be made only for a period that the Board can reasonably determine future economic loss and may be modified by the Board provided there is a finding that a significant change in circumstances has occurred.

(f) The Board may review claims in the order in which they appear on the docket. Claim payments will be made in the same manner. Once the Crime Victims Compensation Fund has been depleted, all remaining claims on the docket may be continued and placed on the next docket when funds become available.

(g) Mental health treatment for the victim is a compensable loss. The Board may, at any time, refer a claim to a Mental Health Review Panel for review and advice regarding length and relevance of treatment being provided, and whether the treatment was as a direct result of the crime. Panel members agree to provide this service to the Board at no cost. Panel members may create documents to assist them in their review of the claims with the guidance and support of the Victims Compensation division staff. After the Mental Health Review Panel reports their findings, the claim will be set on a future Board docket for review and decision.

(h) When a person files a claim, all health care providers that have been given notice of a pending claim, shall refrain from all debt collection activities relating to medical treatment received by the person in connection with such claim until an award is made on the claim or until a claim is determined to be noncompensable pursuant to the provisions of this act. The statute of limitations for collection of such debt shall be tolled during the period in which the applicable health care provider is required to refrain from debt collection activities under this subsection. For the purposes of this section, debt collection activities means repeatedly calling or writing to the claimant and threatening either to turn the matter over to a debt collection agency or to an attorney for collection, enforcement, or filing of other process. The term shall not include routine billing about the status of the claim. This requirement will pertain to all claims pending and all claims filed after the time of the enactment of 21 OS 142.9 H.
