(8) Anticipated income. When a household who would normally have the self-employment income annualized experiences a substantial increase or decrease in income, the worker does not calculate self-employment income on the basis of prior earnings, such as income tax returns. Instead, the worker calculates the self-employment income using only the income that can reasonably be anticipated to project future earnings. The worker uses procedures in (b)(7)(B) and (C) of this Section to determine net monthly self-employment income.

(9) Household with income from boarders. A household that operates a commercial boarding house may be considered a food benefit household and self-employed per (7) of this subsection. A household with boarders or roomers that is not a commercial boarding house may receive food benefits per (A) through (C) of this paragraph.

(A) The worker excludes a person paying a reasonable amount for room and board from the household and counts payments from the boarder as self-employment income when determining the household's eligibility and benefit level.

(i) The income from a boarder includes all direct payments to the household for room and meals, including contributions to the household for part of the household shelter expense.

(ii) The worker does not count expenses a boarder pays directly to someone outside the household as income to the household.

(B) The worker excludes 50 percent of the boarder payment as the cost of doing business.

(C) The worker includes the net income from self-employment with other earned income minus the earned income deduction.

(i) The worker computes the shelter cost the household incurs, even when the boarder contributes part of the shelter expense, to determine if the household qualifies for a shelter deduction.

(ii) The shelter and utility cost does not include any expense billed to and directly paid by the boarder to a third party.

(10) Rental income. The worker considers income received from rental property as self-employment income.

(A) The worker treats rental income as earned income when a member of the household actively manages the property an average of at least 20 hours per week.

(B) When a household member does not actively manage the property at least 20 hours each week, the worker considers the income as unearned. The person is eligible for business expenses per (7) of this subsection.

340:50-7-31. Deductions

(a) Deductible expenses. Households are allowed certain deductible expenses from income as described in (1) through (6) of this subsection and per Section 273.9(d) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (7 C.F.R. § 273.9(d)). The household reports current medical, dependent care, legally-binding child support, and shelter expenses at certification, mid-certification renewal, and certification renewal. The household must also report current shelter costs when the household moves.

(1) Standard deduction. All households are allowed a standard deduction, per Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) Appendix C-3, Maximum Food Benefits Allotments and Standards for Income and Deductions.

(2) Earned income deduction. Households with earned income are allowed an earned income deduction, per DHS Appendix C-3, to cover the cost of state and local income taxes, pensions, union dues, and work related expenses. Refer to Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:50-7-30 for information regarding business expenses for self-employed persons.

(3) Medical expense deduction. A medical expense deduction is only allowed for household members meeting the definition of elderly or disabled, per OAC 340:50-5-4. For these household members, medical expenses exceeding $35 per month are deductible when verified. The $35 is subtracted from medical expenses once per household, not per person, when the household has more than one elderly or disabled member.

(A) Allowable medical expenses. Allowable medical expenses must be prescribed or approved by a state licensed or qualified practitioner and include:

(i) medical and dental care, including psychotherapy and rehabilitation services provided by a licensed practitioner or other qualified health professional authorized by state law;

(ii) hospitalization or outpatient treatment, nursing care, and nursing home care, including payments by the household for a person who was a household member immediately prior to entering a hospital or nursing home provided by a facility recognized by the state;

(iii) prescription drugs and other over-the-counter medication including insulin, when approved by a licensed practitioner or other qualified health professional authorized by state law. This does not include the cost of a Schedule I controlled substance under the Controlled Substances Act, Section 801 et. seq. of Title 21 of the United States Code, or any expenses associated with its use;

(iv) costs of medical supplies, sick-room equipment including rentals, or other prescribed equipment;

(v) health, dental, and hospitalization policy premiums;

(vi) Medicare premiums and any cost-sharing or spend-down expenses incurred by Medicare or SoonerCare (Medicaid) recipients;

(vii) dentures, hearing aids, and prosthetics;

(viii) eye glasses prescribed by a licensed practitioner;

(ix) reasonable cost of lodging and transportation to obtain medical treatment or services. Lodging costs are allowed when the elderly or disabled member is required to spend the night away from home to receive medical services. Reasonable transportation costs are based on the type of transportation used. When the elderly or disabled member:

(I) uses his or her vehicle, the state's current mileage reimbursement is allowed;

(II) uses public transportation, the actual cost of the transportation is allowed; or

(III) pays a non-household member for transportation, the amount charged by the person is allowed;

(x) maintaining an attendant, homemaker, home-health aide, child care services, or housekeeper due to age, infirmity, or illness. When this expense also qualifies as a dependent care expense per (4) of this subsection, it is considered a medical expense rather than a dependent care expense.

Additionally, when the household furnishes a majority of the caretaker's meals, an amount equal to one allotment is added to the medical expense for meals provided. The allotment used is the amount in effect at certification; and

(xi) costs associated with all service animals specially trained to serve the needs of elderly or disabled program participants. This includes maintenance costs, such as veterinary bills, food, and other expenses for these service animals.

(B) Medical expenses not allowed. Expenses not allowed include:

- (i) costs associated with special diets;
- (ii) premiums for health and accident insurance policies, such as those payable in lump sum settlements for death or dismemberment;
- (iii) premiums for income maintenance policies, such as those that continue mortgage or loan payments while the beneficiary is disabled;
- (iv) items that can be purchased with food benefits, such as dietary supplements;
- (v) the cost of meals or other incidentals when the person spends the night away from home to receive medical services; and
- (vi) medical marijuana or any expenses associated with its use.

(C) Medical expense verification requirements.

Households are required to report and verify medical expenses at certification and certification renewal.

Households are not required to report changes in medical expenses during the certification period.

- (i) When a household voluntarily reports a reduction in medical expenses that will decrease the food benefit allotment, no verification is needed. However, the change requires notice of adverse action, per OAC 340:50-9-5.
- (ii) When a household voluntarily reports additional medical expenses that will increase the food benefit allotment, the household must verify the additional expenses before the worker changes the medical expense deduction.
- (iii) When the additional medical expenses are one-time expenses, such as hospital costs, dental expenses, or the purchase of prescription eyeglasses, the expense is only allowed when the person reports and verifies the expense before it becomes past due. When a portion of the expense will be paid by a vendor or insurance payment, the worker does not allow the expense until the amount owed by the person is verified. Once verified, the household may choose to:

- (I) deduct the entire expense in the month incurred or when it becomes due;
- (II) average the expense over the remaining months of the certification period; or
- (III) average the expense over the scheduled length of a payment plan.

(iv) When the worker finds out about a change from a source other than the household, the change is acted on when verified upon receipt, such as when the worker is notified via data exchange of a Medicare premium change. The worker does not contact the household for additional information. When the change requires household contact for additional information or verification, the worker does not make the change.

(v) When a household reports but does not verify an anticipated medical expense, the worker informs the household the expense will be allowed when the household provides verification.

(4) Dependent care. Dependent care is payment for the actual cost for the care of a child under 18 years of age or other dependent of any age with disabilities when necessary for a household member to seek, accept, or continue employment or to attend training or education preparatory to employment. Dependent care costs may include activity fees and the cost of transportation to and from the dependent care facility.

(A) The deduction applies regardless of whether the household member is subject to the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program Employment and Training requirements.

(B) When the expense also qualifies as a medical expense per (a)(3) of this Section, it is considered a medical expense rather than a dependent care expense.

(C) There is no maximum dependent care deduction. The total reported by the client is an allowable expense as long as it meets the criteria in this Section.

(D) Dependent care is only verified when the expenses claimed actually result in a deduction and other information available to the worker is inconsistent with the household's claim that it incurs a dependent care expense.

(5) Legally-binding child support. A deduction is allowed for verified legally-binding child support payments paid by a household member to or for a non-household member, including payments made to a third party on behalf of the non-household member.

(6) Shelter costs. A household is allowed a shelter deduction when the monthly shelter cost exceeds 50 percent of the household's income after all other deductions are allowed, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.9(d)(6)(ii). The shelter deduction cannot exceed the maximum amount allowed per DHS Appendix C-3, unless the household includes an elderly or disabled member. Households with an elderly or disabled member receive an excess shelter deduction for the monthly cost exceeding 50 percent of the household's income after the deductions listed in (1) through (6) of this subsection are allowed. When the household includes a non-household member or disqualified member, refer to (b)(5) and (6) of this Section to determine whether to prorate shelter costs.

(A) Allowable rent or mortgage costs. Allowable rent or mortgage costs for the

(i) monthly rent or mortgage payment, or other continuing charges leading to the ownership of the shelter, such as loan repayments for the purchase of a mobile home, including interest on such payments;

(ii) charge for renting or buying the land on which a mobile home is located;

(iii) property taxes, state and local assessments, and insurance on the structure. A mobile home is taxed as part of the property tax when the land is owned or being purchased;

(iv) personal property tax for unregistered mobile homes on rented land; or

(v) standard homeless shelter deduction, per DHS Appendix C-3, or the excess shelter deduction described, per (a)(6) of this Section, whichever results in the most food benefits for the household, when a homeless household incurs or expects to incur a shelter cost.

(B) Expenses not considered as shelter costs. The worker does not consider as shelter costs, the cost for:

(i) insuring furniture or personal belongings when paid separately from the insurance on the home;

(ii) vehicle registration or a tag for a mobile or motor home; or

(iii) personal property tax except as allowed, per (6)(A)(iv) of this subsection.

(C) Allowable utility costs. When the household incurs utility expenses, it is eligible for one of three standard utility allowances based on criteria in (i) through (iii) of this subparagraph. The applicable utility standard amount is specified, per DHS Appendix C-3.

(i) The standard utility allowance (SUA) is based on annual averages that include costs for heating or cooling; and cooking fuel, electricity, basic phone service, water, sewage, and garbage. This includes households that receive Low Income Heat Energy Assistance Payments (LIHEAP).

(I) The household is eligible for the SUA when the household is billed for heating or cooling during the year. Households billed less often than monthly for heating costs, such as butane or propane may continue to use the utility standard between billing months.

(II) When a household reports they no longer incur a heating or cooling expense, but still have a utility expense, the standard must be changed to the basic utility allowance (BUA) or telephone standard.

(III) When a household's heating or cooling expenses are partially reimbursed or paid by an excluded payment, such as a vendor payment, Housing and Urban Development (HUD), or Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) payment, the household remains eligible for the SUA.

(ii) The BUA includes utility charges the household incurs other than for heating and/or cooling, such as cooking fuel, water, sewage, garbage collection, and basic phone service.

(iii) The telephone standard is used when the household is not entitled to use the SUA or BUA, but has a phone cost.

(D) When shelter costs for an unoccupied home are allowed. Shelter costs for an unoccupied home may be allowable when the household is temporarily away from home because of illness, a disaster or casualty loss to the home, or to attend an employment or training opportunity.

(i) For the cost of a vacated home to be included in shelter costs the:

(I) household must intend to return to the home;

(II) current occupants of the home, if any, must not claim the shelter costs during the household's absence; and

(III) home must not be rented or leased during the household's absence.

(ii) A household that has an occupied home and an unoccupied home is only allowed one standard utility deduction.

(b) Expense calculation. The worker calculates a household's expenses based on the expenses the household expects to be billed for during the certification period. The worker anticipates expenses based on the most recent month's bills unless the household is reasonably certain a change will occur.

(1) Billing fluctuations. The household may elect to average expenses when the billed amount fluctuates monthly, is billed less often than monthly, or as in the case of some medical expenses, the expense changes throughout the certification period.

(2) When expenses are owed but not paid. The household is allowed a deduction in the month the expense is billed or otherwise becomes due, regardless of when the household intends to pay the expense. A particular expense may be deducted only once.

(3) Reimbursed expenses. The portion of an expense paid by an excluded reimbursement or vendor payment is not deductible. The amount left after deducting the excluded payment is deductible and includes HUD and Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) rent and utility payments. Expenses are only deductible when the service is provided by someone outside of the household and the household makes a monetary payment for the service.

(4) One-time expenses. The household may choose to average one-time expenses over the entire certification period in which they are billed, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.10(d)(3). When the household reports a one-time expense during the certification period, the household may choose to:

(A) deduct the entire expense for the next effective month; or

(B) average the expense over the remaining months in the certification period beginning with the next effective month. When the household is certified for 24 months and the one-time expense was incurred in the:

(i) first 12 months of the certification period, the household may elect to deduct the expense in one month, average the expense over the remaining months in the first 12 months of the certification period or average the expense over the remaining months in the certification period; or

(ii) the second 12 months of the certification period, the household may elect to have the expense deducted in one month or averaged over the remaining months in the certification period.

(5) When the household includes a disqualified household member. When the household includes a disqualified household member, per OAC 340:50-5-10.1, the worker does not prorate allowable deductions because the disqualified member's income is counted in its entirety, per OAC 340:50-7-29(d).

(6) When the household includes an ineligible household member. When the household includes an ineligible household member, per OAC 340:50-5-10.1, the worker prorates the allowable deductions evenly between the household members, including the ineligible member, with the exception of (A) and (B) of this subparagraph, because the ineligible member's income is also prorated, per OAC 340:50-7-29(d). When the household is:

(A) responsible for utility expenses, the household is allowed the full utility standard deduction for which it qualifies per (a)(6)(C) of this Section; or

(B) homeless and incurs shelter costs, the household is eligible for the full standard homeless shelter deduction or for a prorated share of excess shelter deduction, whichever results in more food benefits for the household.

(7) When the household includes a non-household member. When the household shares deductible expenses with a non-household member, the worker only deducts the amount the household actually pays or contributes toward household expenses with the exception of the utility expenses. When the household pays part of the utility expenses, the household is allowed the full utility standard deduction for which it qualifies, per (a)(6)(C) of this Section. When the payments or contributions cannot be differentiated, the worker prorates the expenses evenly among persons actually paying or contributing to the expense and deducts only the household's pro rata share with the exception of the utility expenses.

340:50-7-45. Income

(a) Household income. The worker counts all income the household expects to receive during the certification period except for income sources excluded per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:50-7-22.

(b) Income verification. The worker verifies the gross, non-exempt income for all households prior to certification. When all attempts to verify income are unsuccessful because the person or organization providing the income fails to cooperate with the household, the worker calculates income based on the best available information.

(1) Method of verifying income. The worker uses documentary evidence as the primary source of verification per Section 273.2(f) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Documentary evidence consists of a written confirmation of a household's circumstances. The household has primary responsibility for providing documentary evidence. The worker must assist the household when requested, when the household is willing, but unable to obtain the documentary evidence.

(A) Documents that verify earned income include, but are not limited to:

- (i) pay stubs;
- (ii) employee W-2 forms;
- (iii) wage tax receipts;
- (iv) state or federal income tax returns;
- (v) self-employed bookkeeping credits;
- (vi) sales or expenditure records;
- (vii) employer wage records;
- (viii) statements from an employer;

(ix) Oklahoma Employment Security Commission statements; or

(x) Oklahoma Tax Commission statements.

(B) Documents that verify unearned income, include, but are not limited to:

(i) award letters;

(ii) benefit payment checks;

(iii) correspondence on benefits;

(iv) income tax records;

(v) support and alimony payments as evidenced by court order;

(vi) divorce or separation papers; or

(vii) contribution checks.

(C) Alternate income verification sources include, but are not limited to:

(i) State Data Exchange (SDX) system screens;

(ii) Beneficiary and Earnings Data Exchange (BENDEX) system screens;

(iii) OESC wage and unemployment compensation screens;

(iv) union records;

(v) workers' compensation records;

(vi) information received from the Department of Veterans Affairs records; or

(vii) tax records.

(2) Unreported income. The worker explores the possibility of unreported income when situations described in this subsection occur.

(A) The household may have unreported income when:

(i) the applicant or recipient is employable and does not report earnings;

(ii) the household reports zero income;

(iii) the household reports household expenses, paid or unpaid that exceeds the amount of income reported. Household expenses may include rent or mortgage payments, utility payments, car payment, or other personal expenses;

(iv) it appears a household member may be eligible for other benefits, such as Social Security, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), unemployment compensation, or public assistance; or

(v) other questionable situations occur.

(B) When the household states someone is loaning the household money to meet expenses, a statement signed by both parties indicating the payment is a loan and must be repaid is sufficient verification. When the household states it receives loans on a recurrent or regular basis from the same source, the provider of the loan must sign a notarized affidavit that states the payments are loans that must be repaid or that payments will be made in accordance with an established repayment schedule.

340:50-7-46. Converting to monthly income

(a) Converting income. When the household receives income more often than monthly, the worker converts the income to a monthly amount as indicated in (1) through (5) of this subsection. When the amounts to be converted differ, such as fluctuating daily, weekly, or biweekly amounts, the worker averages the income per (c) of this Section. The worker carries cents through all steps and then rounds the monthly income amount to the nearest dollar with one cent through 49 cents rounded down and 50 cents through 99 cents rounded up.

(1) Daily. The worker converts income received on a daily basis to a weekly amount. When there is a consistency in days worked each week and a regularity of pay dates, the worker multiplies the weekly income by 4.3. When there is no consistency, refer to (5) of this subsection for irregular income processing.

(2) Weekly. The worker multiplies income received weekly by 4.3.

(3) Twice a month. The worker multiplies income received twice a month by 2.

(4) Biweekly. The worker multiplies income received every two weeks by 2.15.

(5) Irregular income. The worker does not convert income received at irregular intervals by 4.3, 2, or 2.15, when there is no consistency in the work offered or when pay is received. Instead, the worker adds all irregular income received in the calendar month together to arrive at a monthly average. When more than one month of irregular income is available, the worker totals the income and divides it by the number of months used.

(b) Anticipating income. For the purpose of determining the household's eligibility and monthly benefit allotment, the worker takes into account the income already received by the household and any anticipated income the household is reasonably certain to receive during the certification period per Section 273.10(c)(1) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (7 C.F.R. § 273.10).

(1) Application month income. In the application month, the household's anticipated income may be less than a full month's wages. In this case, the worker uses actual or actual anticipated income for the month of application. When the person receives an extra paycheck in the application month due to a third or fifth week and the income is ongoing, the worker converts the income to anticipated income for the application month. For the remaining months of the certification period, the worker averages and converts the income to a monthly amount.

(2) Uncertain income. The worker does not count income when the date and amount to be received is uncertain. Examples of uncertain income include, when a household's anticipated income is from a new job and the date and amount of the first paycheck is not known or when a household member recently applied for public assistance or unemployment benefits and does not know if or when the initial payment may be made.

(A) The worker does not consider the anticipated payment unless there is reasonable certainty concerning the month the payment will be received and the amount of the payment.

(B) When some, but not all, household income is not known, the portion that can be anticipated with reasonable certainty must be considered as income.

(C) When the worker can reasonably anticipate income receipt, but the monthly amount fluctuates, the worker may elect to average the income per (c) of this Section.

(D) Households are advised to report all changes in gross monthly income as required.

(3) Income received in the past 30-calendar days. Income received during the past 30-calendar days may be used as an indicator of income anticipated to be available to the household during the next certification period. Past income is not used to anticipate future income for any month in which an income change occurred, can be anticipated, or terminated.

(4) Regular employment. When the head of the household or other members of the household have regular employment, income from previous months is a good indicator of the amount of income to anticipate for the application month and subsequent months. When the household or collateral contact supplies information indicating future income will differ substantially from the previous month's income, the worker uses the information to make a reasonable estimate of the anticipated income.

(5) Withheld wages. Wages withheld at the request of the employee are considered income to the household in the month the wages would otherwise be paid by the employer. Wages withheld by the employer as a general practice, even when in violation of the law, are not counted as income to the household unless the household anticipates it will ask for and receive an advance, or the household anticipates that it will receive income from previously held wages. Advances on wages are counted as income when they can be reasonably anticipated.

(c) Averaging income. Households, except for destitute and migrant or seasonal farm worker households, may have their income averaged per 7 C.F.R. § 27310(c)(3). To determine the household's eligibility, the worker adds all other income to the averaged monthly income and subtracts applicable income exclusions and deductions in the normal manner.

(1) Fluctuating income. Households with fluctuating income may elect to have the income averaged.

(A) When the household indicates the most recent 30-calendar day's income is representative of anticipated future earnings, the worker uses this income to compute gross monthly income.

(B) When the household indicates the most recent 30-calendar days of income is not representative of anticipated future income, the worker averages additional months of income to compute a representative anticipated monthly gross income.

(C) Income received more often than monthly is converted to a monthly income prior to determining a monthly average. The number of months used to arrive at the average income need not be the same as the number of months in the certification period. For example, when fluctuating income for the past 30-calendar days and the month of application are known and, with reasonable certainty, are representative of the income fluctuations anticipated for the coming months, the income for the two months may be averaged and projected over the certification period.

(2) Employment contract and self-employment. When households derive their annual income by contract or self-employment in a period of time shorter than one year, the worker annualizes the income over a 12-month period. These households may include school employees, sharecroppers, farmers, and other self-employed households. These provisions do not apply to migrant or seasonal farm workers or to contracted employees who receive income on an hourly or piece work basis.

(d) Income from the Social Security Administration (SSA). The Oklahoma Department of Human Services receives income information from SSA regarding SSA and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefit recipients through automated data exchange records. When using the:

(1) Beneficiary and Earnings Data Exchange System (BENDEX) to verify SSA benefits, the worker drops any cents from the gross benefit amount; or

(2) State Data Exchange System (SDX) to verify SSI, the worker rounds any cents to the nearest dollar to determine countable gross income.

SUBCHAPTER 9. ELIGIBILITY AND BENEFIT DETERMINATION PROCEDURES

340:50-9-1. Determining the food benefit allotment

(a) Cases with unverified deductible expenses.

(1) Food benefits without deductions. When a deductible expense that must be verified, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:50-7-31 cannot be verified within the 30-day processing standard for applications, the worker determines the household's benefit level without giving a deduction for the claimed but unverified expense.

(2) When the household is ineligible unless deductible expense is allowed. When a deductible expense cannot be verified before the 30-day processing standard for applications expires and the household is ineligible unless the expense is allowed, the worker:

(A) denies the application on the 30th day when the worker gave the household at least 10-calendar days to verify the expense; or

(B) delays making a decision until the 10-calendar day verification period expires.

(b) Determining household eligibility. The worker determines the household's eligibility based on gross or net monthly income standards per (3) or (4) of this subsection unless the household is considered a categorically eligible household, per OAC OAC 340:50-11-111(b) and (2) of this subsection. When changes in household composition or other circumstances occur, households certified under gross income standards may become subject to net income standards during the certification period or vice versa. The worker changes the income standard when making other changes to the household's eligibility, benefit level, or certification period, or at certification renewal, whichever is earlier.

(1) Income and expense calculation. The worker calculates the household's gross income before subtracting deductible expenses to arrive at the net monthly income for the household.

(A) The worker calculates each source of monthly gross income separately for each person, using dollars and cents, and then rounds cents to the nearest dollar. The worker rounds one cent through 49 cents down and 50 cents through 99 cents up.

(B) The worker uses the same rounding method for each deductible expense. Deductible expenses are subtracted from gross income to arrive at the net monthly household income. Deductible expenses may include dependent care, shelter, legally-binding child support payments, or medical expenses.

(2) Categorically eligible households. Per Section 273.2(j) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations and OAC 340:50-11-111(d), categorically eligible households are not subject to the gross or net income standards per (3) or (4) of this subsection.

(3) Households without elderly or disabled members. Households that do not include an elderly or disabled member and are not considered categorically eligible per (2) of this subsection are not eligible for food benefits when the household's total gross monthly income exceeds the gross monthly income standard by household size on Table I of the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) Appendix C-3, Maximum Food Benefit Allotments and Standards for Income and Deductions. When the household meets the gross income standard and non-financial conditions of eligibility, per OAC 340:50-5, the worker computes the household's net monthly income to determine eligibility. When the net food benefit income does not exceed the net income by household size on the food benefit allotment chart on the Appendix C-3, the household is determined eligible. The worker follows steps (A) through (H) to determine the household's net food benefit monthly income.

(A) Add gross monthly income earned by all household members, per (1) of this subsection including any net self-employment income, per OAC 340:50-7-30 to determine the household's total gross earned income.

(B) Subtract the appropriate earned income deduction per OKDHS Appendix C-3 to determine the net monthly earned income. The household is not eligible for the earned income deduction on any portion of income earned under a work supplementation or support program that is attributable to public assistance.

(C) Add the net monthly earned income and the total monthly unearned income of all household members, minus income exclusions, per OAC 340:50-7-22.

(D) Subtract the standard deduction, per OKDHS Appendix C-3.

(E) Subtract monthly dependent care expenses. A dependent care deduction is not allowed when dependent care expenses are reimbursed or paid for under an employment and training (E&T) program or other source.

(F) Subtract verified legally binding child support payments made to someone outside the food benefit household.

(G) Add together the allowable shelter expenses, including the appropriate utility standard, to determine the household's total shelter costs. Subtract from the total shelter costs 50 percent of the adjusted income, the household's monthly income after all of the deductions given in (A) through (F) of this paragraph are subtracted. The remaining amount, if any, is the excess shelter costs. When there are no excess shelter costs, the net monthly income is determined. When there are excess shelter costs, proceed to the next step.

(H) When the total shelter costs exceed the maximum shelter cost deduction shown in OKDHS Appendix C-3, only the amount not exceeding the maximum shelter cost deduction or the homeless shelter deduction when appropriate per OAC 340:50-7-31(a)(6)(A)(v) is deducted.

(4) Households with an elderly or disabled member. When a household that includes an elderly or disabled member meets the non-financial conditions of eligibility, per OAC 340:50-5, the household's net food benefit monthly income, and household size are the basis for determining eligibility. The worker compares the household's net food benefit monthly income to the Maximum Net Income Standards for the appropriate household size shown on Table II of OKDHS Appendix C-3. When the net food benefit income does not exceed this standard, the household is determined eligible. The worker follows steps (A) through (H) of this paragraph to determine the household's net food benefit income.

(A) Add gross monthly income earned by all household members per (1) of this subsection including any net self-employment income, per procedures at OAC 340:50-7-30, to determine the household's total gross earned income.

(B) Subtract the appropriate earned income deduction, per OKDHS Appendix C-3 to determine the net monthly earned income. The household is not eligible for the earned income deduction on any portion of income earned under a work supplementation or support program that is attributable to public assistance.

(C) Add the net monthly earned income and the total monthly unearned income of all household members, minus income exclusions, per OAC 340:50-7-22.

(E) Subtract medical expenses that exceed $35 for elderly or disabled household members only. The worker subtracts the $35 only once for the household rather than for each household member.

(F) Subtract monthly dependent care expenses. A dependent care deduction is not allowed when dependent care expenses are reimbursed or paid for under an E&T program or other source.

(G) Subtract verified legally binding child support payments made to someone outside the food benefit household.

(H) Add together the allowable shelter expenses, including the appropriate utility standard, to determine the household's total shelter costs. Subtract from the total shelter costs 50 percent of the adjusted income, the household's monthly income after all of the deductions in (A) through (G) of this paragraph are subtracted. The remaining amount, if any, is the excess shelter costs. When the homeless shelter deduction per OAC 340:50-7-31(a)(6)(A)(v) is greater than the excess shelter costs, the household receives the homeless shelter deduction instead of the excess shelter costs.

(i) When there are no excess shelter costs or homeless shelter deduction, the net monthly income is determined.

(ii) When there are excess shelter costs or a homeless shelter deduction, subtract the larger deduction from the adjusted income to determine the net monthly income.

(c) Food benefit allotment.

(1) Initial month proration.

(A) Initial month means the first month the household is certified for food benefits following any period the household was not certified. Food benefit allotments for an initial month are prorated from the date of application.

(i) Migrant and seasonal farm worker's food benefits are not prorated when the household received food benefits in the prior month.

(ii) For the initial month, the worker considers the household's circumstances for the entire application month, even though the food benefit allotment is based on the day of the month the household applies for benefits.

(iii) Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) cash assistance payments are also prorated from the application date, per OAC 340:65-3-5(5). When the worker certifies the household for TANF and food benefits for the same month, the worker uses OKDHS Appendix B, Prorated TANF and Food Benefit Payment, or the formula: (31 minus the application date) x monthly benefit divided by 30 to determine TANF countable income for the initial month.

(B) The prorated benefit is rounded down to the lower dollar. When the prorated food benefit is less than $10, the worker denies food benefits for the application month and certifies the household for the next month.

(C) When the worker certifies the household for the month following the month of initial application because the household failed to furnish necessary information, the worker:

(i) changes the application date to the date the household furnishes the information to OKDHS; and

(ii) prorates benefits from the new application date.

(2) Monthly benefit. The monthly benefit for all months except the initial month is the food benefit allotment listed on OKDHS Appendix C-3 for the appropriate household size and net income.

(A) All one-person and two-person categorically eligible households whose income exceeds gross and net income standards during the certification period must receive the minimum monthly allotment per Appendix C-3.

(B) Categorically eligible households with three or more members are entitled to have the case remain open with no benefits issued when the household's gross or net income exceeds the Appendix C-3 income standards during the certification period.

(d) Certification periods. Certification periods are established for each eligible household to receive benefits. When the certification period ends, the household must complete a new application, be interviewed, and provide required verification, per OAC 340:50-3-2 and 340:50-3-3, before the worker determines continuing eligibility. Under no circumstances are benefits continued beyond the end of a certification period without completion of a certification renewal.

(1) Month of application. The month of application is the first month in the certification period for initial applicants when eligibility is determined within the 30-day period.

(A) Because of anticipated changes, a household may be eligible for the application month but ineligible for the subsequent month. In this situation, the worker certifies the household for the application month only.

(B) When the worker determines a household is ineligible for the application month, but is eligible for subsequent months, a new application is not needed. The worker denies benefits for the application month and certifies food benefits effective the month following the application month.

(2) Missed interview. When a household fails to interview within 10-calendar days of the application date, OKDHS sends the household a Notice of Missed Interview. The household may request an interview through the 30th day following their application date. Refer to OAC 340:50-9-4 to determine the proration date of the food benefit allotment when applications are delayed.

(3) Information furnished after the application is denied.

When the worker denies an application because the household did not provide the requested information and the applicant furnishes the required information to determine eligibility within the second 30-calendar day period, a new application is not required. The worker certifies food benefits using the date the household provides required information or verification as the application, certification, and proration date.

(e) Length of certification periods. The worker assigns the longest certification period possible based on the predictability of the household's circumstances.

(1) One month. The worker assigns a one-month certification to:

- (A) households eligible only for the application month;
- (B) migrant farm worker households in the work stream, who apply before the 16th of the month; and
- (C) households eligible for expedited services per OAC 340:50-11-1(b) who apply before the 16th of the month and verification is postponed.

(2) Two months. The worker assigns a two-month certification to:

- (A) households eligible only for the certification month and subsequent month; and
- (B) migrant farm worker households in the work stream, who apply after the 15th of the month; and
- (C) households eligible for expedited services per OAC 340:50-11-1(b) who apply after the 15th of the month and verification is postponed.

(3) Three or four months. The worker assigns a three- or four-month certification period to households that include an able-bodied adult without dependents (ABAWD) member who is not meeting the work requirement or is not otherwise exempt, per OAC 340:50-5-100. This occurs when an ABAWD:

- (A) is eligible to receive his or her initial three or four countable months of benefits; or
- (B) regains eligibility for three-consecutive countable months and is not meeting work requirements.

(4) Twelve months.

- (A) The worker assigns a 12-month certification period to households at certification unless the household meets criteria in (1), (2), (3), or (5) of this subsection.
- (B) These households complete a mid-certification renewal at six-month intervals and are semi-annual reporting households.

(5) Twenty-four months. The worker assigns a 24-month certification period to households when all adult members are elderly or disabled with no earned income. These households complete a mid-certification renewal at 12-month intervals and are annual reporting households.

340:50-9-3. Certification and denial notice information

(a) Time limit for providing notice. The applicant household is entitled to receive a certification or denial notice no later than 30 calendar days after the initial application date. Refer to OAC 340:50-9-4 when a processing delay occurs.

(b) Notices. A computer-generated notice is sent to applicant households immediately following eligibility determination and worker action to approve or deny benefits.

(1) Certification notice. The certification notice informs the household of:

(A) the beginning date and length of the certification period;

(B) the benefit amount of the allotment and any variation in the benefit level based on:

(i) changes anticipated at the time of certification; or

(ii) differences caused because retroactive benefits are calculated using different income or the initial month's benefits are prorated; and

(iii) its right to a fair hearing.

(2) Expedited certification and expiration notice.

When the worker approves food benefits on an expedited basis because ongoing eligibility has not been determined, in addition to information contained in (b)(1) of this Section, the notice:

(A) explains that certain information was postponed because the household qualifies for expedited eligibility processing;

(B) includes the expiration date; and

(C) the conditions for making timely reapplication.

(3) Denial notice. The denial notice informs the household of:

(A) the reason for the denial; and

(B) its right to request a fair hearing.

340:50-9-4. Delayed applications

(a) Delayed applications. When applications are not approved or denied by the 30th-calendar day, they are considered delayed applications. On the 30th-calendar day following the application date, every delayed application is assessed to determine whether Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) or the household caused the delay. The purpose of this assessment is to determine:

- (1) whether to immediately deny the application or leave it pending in application status; and
- (2) what date to certify benefits if the household is determined eligible at a later date.

(b) Delay caused by OKDHS. When OKDHS causes the processing delay, the application remains in pending status. At the end of the first 30-calendar days, the worker sends the household Form 08MP038E, Client Notice of Action Taken, explaining why the application is still pending. If the household is later determined eligible, food benefits are approved back to the date of application. OKDHS caused delays include, but are not limited to, the circumstances in (1) through (6) of this subsection.

- (1) The household did not complete an interview within 30-calendar days of the application date, and OKDHS did not send Form 08AD091E, Interview Notice, and the Notice of Missed Interview to the household on or before the 20th-calendar day following the date of application.
- (2) OKDHS interviewed the household, but the household subsequently failed to provide the required verification. During the interview process, the worker did not provide Form 08AD092E, Client Contact and Information Request, to the household and explain:
 - (A) what factors must be verified;
 - (B) what is considered acceptable verification; and
 - (C) the date verification must be supplied.
- (3) The worker did not offer to assist the household in obtaining the verification or offered assistance but failed to follow through on collateral contacts or release of information.
- (4) The worker discovered that additional information was required after the interview, but the household did not have 10-calendar days between the verification request and the 30th-calendar day of the application to provide the verification.
- (5) OKDHS failed to interview the household when the household requested an interview during business hours.
- (6) The household provided all the required verification on or before the 30th-calendar day and the application was not approved or denied timely.

(c) Delay caused by the household. When the household causes the processing delay, the application must be denied by the 30th-calendar day. The household receives a computer-generated denial notice. When the household provides the required verification in the second 30-calendar days, a new application is not required. If the household is determined eligible, the food benefit allotment is prorated from the date the household provided the verification. Household caused delays include, but are not limited to, the circumstances in (1) through

(3) of this subsection.

(1) OKDHS sent Form 08AD091E and the Notice of Missed Interview on or before the 20th-calendar day following the application date . The household was interviewed and subsequently failed to provide the required verification. The worker provided the household with Form 08AD092E showing required verification, offered to assist the household in obtaining the verification, and allowed the household 10-calendar days to provide the verification.

(2) The household received Form 08AD091E and the Notice of Missed Interview on or before the 20th-calendar day, and a worker interviewed the household after the 20th-calendar day but on or before the 30th-calendar day. The household did not provide all the required verification by the 30th-calendar day.

(3) OKDHS sent Form 08AD091E and the Notice of Missed Interview on or before the 20th-calendar day following the application date, but household did not complete an interview over the telephone within 30-calendar days of the application date.

340:50-9-5. Changes after application and during the certification period

(a) Change reporting requirements. Section 273.12 of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (7 C.F.R. § 273.12) contains change reporting requirements after application and during the certification period described in (a) through (j) of this Section.

(b) Applicant households. Applicant households must report all changes related to their food benefit eligibility and benefit amount. Households must report changes that occur after the interview but before the date of the notice of eligibility, within 10-calendar days of the date of the notice.

(c) Annual reporting households. Annual reporting households are households in which all adult members are elderly or disabled with no earned income.

(1) Certification period. A 24-month certification period is automatically assigned to annual reporting households. Annual reporting households must complete a mid-certification renewal between certification periods to report current household circumstances.

(2) Change reporting between renewal periods. Between the mid-certification renewal and certification renewal reporting months, the household must report gross income changes when the household's income exceeds the maximum gross income scale for household size shown on Form 08MP006E, Information for Benefit Renewal, and when the household wins substantial lottery or gambling winnings as defined, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.11(r) and Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:50-7-1, within 10-calendar days of receipt of the first payment attributable to the change. The maximum gross income scale is based on 130 percent of the monthly poverty income guidelines.

(3) Action taken on reported changes. The worker must act on all changes reported by households.

(A) The computer system determines if the change results in an increase, decrease, or no change in benefits.

(B) Between the mid-certification renewal and certification renewal months, the changes the worker makes do not decrease or close benefits until the mid-certification renewal is due unless the:

- (i) household's income increase exceeds the maximum gross income scale for household size shown on Form 08MP006E;
- (ii) household requested benefit closure;
- (iii) worker has information about the household's circumstances considered verified upon receipt, per (h) of this Section;
- (iv) a household member is identified as a disqualified or ineligible person, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.12(a)(5)(vi) and OAC 340:50-5-10.1; or
- (v) the worker verifies the household won substantial lottery or gambling winnings as defined, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.11(r) and OAC 340:50-7-1(b). When this occurs, refer to (j) of this Section, and OAC 340:50-7-1(b) and 340:50-7-6, for information regarding actions that are taken.

(C) The computer system applies all changes that increase benefits. Before entering a change that increases benefits, verification supporting the change must be provided, when required.

(d) Mid-certification renewal for annual reporting households.

Annual reporting households are sent notification in the 11th month of certification that the mid-certification renewal is due. The notice explains methods the household may choose to complete the renewal and required verification needed. An interview is not required.

(1) When the mid-certification renewal is due. The household must complete the benefit renewal and provide required verification by the last day of the 12th month of certification.

(2) Completion of mid-certification renewal. The worker reviews benefit renewal information and verification provided to determine completeness and continued eligibility.

(A) When the renewal is complete and the household remains eligible, the worker acts on all reported changes and the computer system applies any increase or decrease in benefits.

- (i) When the household fails to provide sufficient information regarding a deductible expense requiring verification, the worker processes the mid-certification renewal without regard to the deduction.

(ii) When benefits are decreased, an advance notice is sent, per Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) Appendix B-2, Deadlines for Case Actions.

(iii) When a categorically eligible household as defined in OAC 340:50-11-11(b)(1) has income that now exceeds the maximum gross income standards for household size per Appendix C-3, Maximum Food Benefit Allotments and Standards for Income and Deductions, the worker uses the procedures in (k) of this Section.

(B) When the household is no longer eligible, the worker closes food benefits effective the next advance-notice deadline date, per (OKDHS) Appendix B-2.

(C) When the renewal is incomplete, the computer system closes food benefits effective the next advance-notice deadline date, per (OKDHS) Appendix B-2.

(3) When benefits may be reopened. Food benefits may be reopened following closure when criteria is met per (l) of this Section.

(e) Semi-annual reporting households. Food benefit households are considered semi-annual reporting households unless they meet criteria per (b), (c), or (g) of this Section.

(1) Certification period. A 12-month certification period is automatically assigned to semi-annual reporting households.

(2) Change reporting between renewal periods. Between the mid-certification renewal and certification renewal reporting months, the household must report when:

(A) the household's gross income exceeds the maximum gross income scale for household size shown on Form 08MP006E and when the household wins substantial lottery or gambling winnings as defined, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.11(r) and OAC 340:50-7-1, within 10-calendar days of receiving the first payment attributable to the change.

The maximum gross income scale is based on 130 percent of the monthly poverty income guidelines; and

(B) a decrease in work hours below an average of 20 hours per week or 80 hours per month occurs for any household member meeting the able-bodied adults without dependents (ABAWD) work rules, per OAC 340:50-5-100, by the 10th of the following month.

(3) Action taken on reported changes. The worker must act on all changes reported by households.

(A) The computer system determines if the change results in an increase, decrease, or in no change in benefits.

(B) Between mid-certification renewal and certification renewal months, the changes the worker makes do not decrease or close food benefits until the mid-certification renewal is due unless:

(i) the household's income increase exceeds the maximum gross income scale for household size shown on Form 08MP006E;

(ii) the household requested benefit closure;
(iii) the worker has information about the household's circumstances considered verified upon receipt, per (h) of this Section;
(iv) an ABAWD must be removed from the food benefit household because he or she does not meet the ABAWD work rule, per OAC 340:50-5-100;
(v) a household member is identified as a disqualified or ineligible person, per 7 C.F.R. § 27312(a)(5)(vi) and OAC 340:50-5-10.1;
(vi) a household member is identified as failing to meet work registration requirements, per OAC 340:50-5-85 through OAC 340:50-5-87; or
(vii) the worker verifies the household won substantial lottery or gambling winnings as defined, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.11(r) and OAC 340:50-7-1(b). When this occurs, refer to (j) of this Section, and OAC 340:50-7-1(b) and 340:50-7-6, for information regarding actions that are taken.

(C) The computer system applies all changes that increase benefits. Before entering a change that increases benefits, verification supporting the change must be provided, when required.

(f) Mid-certification renewal for semi-annual reporting households. Semi-annual reporting households are sent notification in the fifth month of certification that the mid-certification renewal is due. An interview is not required.

(1) When the mid-certification renewal is due. The household must complete the benefit renewal and provide required verification by the last day of the sixth month of certification.

(2) Completion of mid-certification renewal. The worker reviews benefit renewal information and verification provided to determine completeness and continued eligibility.

(A) When the renewal is complete and the household remains eligible, the worker acts on all reported changes and the computer system applies any increase or decrease in benefits.

(i) When the household fails to provide sufficient information regarding a deductible expense requiring verification, the worker processes the mid-certification renewal without regard to the deduction.

(ii) When benefits are decreased, the worker sends an advance notice, per OKDHS Appendix B-2, Deadlines for Case Actions, deadline dates.

(iii) When a categorically eligible household as defined in OAC 340:50-11-11(b)(1) has income that now exceeds the maximum gross or net income standards for household size per Appendix C-3, the worker uses the procedures in (k) of this Section.

(B) When the household is no longer eligible, the worker closes food benefits effective the next advance-notice deadline date, per OKDHS Appendix B-2.

(C) When the renewal is incomplete, the computer system closes food benefits effective the next advance-notice deadline date, per OKDHS Appendix B-2.

(3) When benefits may be reopened. Food benefits may be reopened following closure when criteria is met, per (l) of this Section.

(g) Change reporting households. Change reporting households are assigned a certification period other than 12 or 24 months. These households are required to report changes within 10-calendar days of when the change occurred.

(1) Household characteristics. Households not approved for a 12- or 24-month certification period include households approved for:

(A) expedited services for one or two months because verification was postponed, per OAC 340:50-3-2; and

(B) a three- or four-month certification period because the household includes one or more ABAWDs that do not meet the work rule, per OAC 340:50-5-100.

(2) Required change reporting. These households must report changes in:

(A) sources of income;

(B) unearned and earned income of the income reporting threshold, per Appendix C-3;

(C) household composition, such as an addition or loss of a household member;

(D) residence and shelter costs;

(E) the legal obligation to pay child support;

(F) the work hours of an ABAWD subject to benefit time limits, per OAC 340:50-5-100 when they fall below 20 hours per week; and

(G) resources when the household wins substantial lottery or gambling winnings as defined, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.11(r) and OAC 340:50-7-1(b). When this occurs, refer to (j) of this Section, and OAC 340:50-7-1(b) and 340:50-7-6, for information regarding actions that are taken.

(3) Action taken on case changes. The worker must act on changes reported by the household within 10-calendar days of the date the household reported the change and provided necessary verification.

(A) When the household fails to report a change within the 10-calendar day period and, as a result, receives benefits to which it is not entitled, an overpayment claim is referred to Adult and Family Services (AFS) Benefit Integrity and Recovery, per OAC 340:50-15.

(B) When the worker fails to take timely action on a reported change and benefits are lost, the worker supplements the household's food benefits.

(4) Changes that increase benefits. When the household reports a change that increases benefits the household must verify the information before the worker makes the change. The worker gives the household 10-calendar days to verify the information.

(5) Changes that decrease or close benefits. When the household reports a change in household circumstances that decreases or closes food benefits, the worker gives or sends the household Form 08AD092E, Client Contact and Information Request, giving the household 10-calendar days to provide verification of the change. When the household provides required verification, the worker reduces or closes food benefits based on the verification provided. When the household does not provide required verification, the worker closes the food benefits based on the household's failure or refusal to provide verification.

(A) When a household's benefit decreases or closes, an advance notice of adverse action is required unless exempt from such notice for a reason listed in (i) or (ii) of this subparagraph. Per 7 C.F.R. § 273.13, advance notice of adverse action is considered timely when the notice is mailed at least 10-calendar days before the action becomes effective. The household retains its right to a fair hearing and continuation of benefits when a fair hearing is requested within 10-calendar days of the change notice. An adverse action notice may be mailed just prior to the date the household receives or would have received benefits when the:

(i) OKDHS receives a clear written statement signed by a responsible household member:

(I) stating the household no longer wishes to receive food benefits; or

(II) giving information that requires closure or reduction of food benefits and stating that the household understands the food benefit will be reduced or closed; or

(ii) worker closes or reduces food benefits per notice requirements at (m)(3)(A) of this Section.

(B) When an advance notice is required, the benefit decrease or closure is effective the next advance notice deadline date, per OKDHS Appendix B-2. When the household reports a change:

(i) 10-calendar days or more before the advance-notice deadline, per OKDHS Appendix B-2, the worker decreases or closes the food benefit effective the first of the following month; or

(ii) less than 10-calendar days before the advance-notice deadline, per OKDHS Appendix B-2, the worker must take action before the advance-notice deadline the following month.

(C) When a reported change increases food benefits, the worker makes the change by the non-advance-notice deadline date, per OKDHS Appendix B-2.

(h) Changes considered verified upon receipt. Verified upon receipt means the information is not questionable and the provider is the primary source of the information. For example, when OKDHS receives Social Security and Supplemental Security Income verification through data exchange with the Social Security Administration (SSA), it is considered verified upon receipt because SSA is the primary source. When the worker receives information considered verified upon receipt, he or she makes the change within 10-calendar days of notification using OKDHS Appendix B-2 deadline dates.

(i) Required action on unclear information. During the certification period, the worker may obtain unclear information about a household's circumstances that may affect the household's continued eligibility or benefit amounts. The worker may receive the unclear information from a third party, such as a data exchange discrepancy, an employer, or a person claiming knowledge of the household's circumstances. Unclear information is information that is not verified or is verified but the worker needs additional information before acting on the change.

(1) Per 7 C.F.R. § 273.12(c)(3)(i), when the worker receives unclear information in a non-report month for semi-annual or annual reporting households or any month for change reporters, he or she sends Form 08AD092E to the household to verify its circumstances within 10-calendar days only when the unclear information:

(A) significantly conflicts with the information used at the time of the certification, indicating the household may have failed to report eligibility information at application;
or

(B) is fewer than 60-calendar days old, relative to the current participation month and, when true, must be reported under the household's reporting responsibilities.

(2) When the household provides the requested verification in a non-report month, the worker determines what action to take per requirements at (c)(3) and (e)(3) of this Section.

(3) When the worker sends Form 08AD092E, per (i)(1)(A) or (B) of this Section, and the household does not respond or responds but refuses to provide sufficient information to clarify its circumstances, the worker closes the household's food benefits effective the next advance-notice deadline date, per OKDHS Appendix B-2;

(4) Per 7 C.F. R. § 273.12(c)(3)(iii), when the worker receives a data match that indicates a household member may have died or may be incarcerated for more than 30-calendar days, the worker sends Form 08AD092E to the household notifying it of the discrepancy and requesting information regarding the household member.

(A) When the household is a change reporting household and:

(i) fails to respond to Form 08AD092E or responds but refuses to provide sufficient information to clarify the person's household status, the worker closes the household's food benefits;

(ii) responds and verifies the person is not dead or incarcerated, no action is taken; or
(iii) responds and confirms the accuracy of the data exchange information, the worker removes the person from the food benefit and determines if an overpayment referral is needed, per OAC 340:50-15.

(B) When the household is an annual or semi-annual reporting household and:

(i) fails to respond to Form 08AD092E or responds but refuses to provide sufficient information to clarify the person's household status, the worker removes the person and his or her income from the household and adjusts the food benefits;
(ii) responds and verifies that the person did not die or is not incarcerated, no action is taken; or
(iii) responds and confirms the accuracy of the data exchange information, the worker removes the person and his or her income from the household, adjusts the food benefits, and determines if an overpayment referral is needed, per OAC 340:50-15.

(j) Required action on substantial lottery or gambling winnings.

The worker must take prompt action to verify receipt of substantial lottery or gambling winnings and begin closure procedures when the household or a third party reports the household received substantial lottery or gambling winnings, per OAC 340:50-7-1(b), for all types of reporting households.

(1) When the household reports substantial winnings, verification of the winnings is required. The worker closes the SNAP food benefit for the entire household when verification is received even when the household states all of the winnings were spent, per 7 C.F. R. § 273.11(r). The worker also closes the SNAP food benefit when the household fails to provide verification after being given 10-calendar days to do so.

(2) When the worker receives information from a data match or other third party regarding the household's receipt of substantial lottery or gambling winnings, the action required depends on whether the information is unclear, per (i) of this Section.

(A) When the worker receives a direct match from a lottery or gambling entity and there is no question regarding which client received the winnings, the worker closes the SNAP food benefit effective the next advance notice deadline date, per OKDHS Appendix B-2.

(B) When the worker receives the information from a third party data match or another third party, the worker follows unclear information procedures per (i) of this Section.

(3) When the worker closes the SNAP food benefit due to substantial lottery or gambling winnings, the household must reapply and may not be considered categorically eligible the first time it reapplies, per 7 C.F. R. § 273.11(r), OAC 340:50-7-1(a)(2) and 340:50-11-111(d). To regain eligibility, the household must meet non-categorical resource requirements, per 7 § C.F.R. 273.8 and OAC 340:50-7-6, and verify how the winnings were spent down below the appropriate resource standard, per OKDHS Appendix C-3. This applies to all households, including households receiving Supplemental Security Income or Temporary Assistance for Needy Families. When the household meets non-categorical resource requirements and is certified, it regains categorical eligibility for future applications and renewals unless the household contains a sponsored alien or may not be considered categorically eligible, per OAC 340:50-7-1(a)(2) and 340:50-11-111(d).

(k) Categorically eligible household changes. When categorically eligible households, per OAC 340:50-11-111(b), report changes in income, workers do not close the SNAP case due to the household exceeding the gross or net income standards for the household size per Appendix C-3. The worker updates the system with the new income information. When the categorically eligible household exceeds the income standard, the system:

- (1) reduces the monthly allotment to the minimum benefit for one- and two- person households; and
- (2) does not issue a benefit for three or more person households. The SNAP case remains open with no benefit.

(l) When benefits may be reopened following closure. The food benefit may be reopened following closure using current eligibility information, when:

- (1) OKDHS did not administer policy and procedures correctly. The food benefit is reopened effective the first day of the month of closure;
- (2) the household fails to complete the mid-certification renewal timely but provides all required verification by the first day of the month of closure. The food benefit is reopened effective the first day of the month of closure; or
- (3) the household fails to complete the mid-certification renewal timely but provides all required verification by the last day of the month of closure. The food benefit is reopened and prorated from the date the household completes the mid-certification renewal and provides all required verification.

(m) Notice requirements. OKDHS is required to send a notice to the household when food benefits increase, reduce, or close.

(1) Advance notice of adverse action required. Prior to reducing or closing food benefits during the certification period, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.13, the worker must provide timely advance notice unless circumstances described in (m)(2) or (3) of this Section occur.

(A) Advance notice of adverse action is considered timely when the notice is mailed at least 10-calendar days before the action becomes effective. Refer to OKDHS Appendix B-2 for advance notice processing deadlines.

(B) When the household reports a change:

(i) 10-calendar days or more before the advance notice of adverse action deadline, the worker decreases or closes the food benefit effective the first of the following month. For example, when the household reports a change on May 18th, the effective date of the change is June 1st; or

(ii) less than 10-calendar days before the advance notice of adverse action deadline, per OKDHS Appendix B-2, the worker decreases or closes the food benefit effective the first of the month after the following month. For example, when the household reports a change on May 25th, the effective date of the change action is July 1st.

(2) Notice requirement when benefits increase. When a reported change increases food benefits, the worker makes the change by the non-advance notice deadline date, per OKDHS Appendix B-2. When the change is reported after the non-advance notice deadline, the worker supplements food benefits.

(3) Advance notice of adverse action not required. Advance notice of adverse action is not required for actions (A) through (H) of this paragraph, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.12(e) and 7 C.F.R. § 273.13(b).

(A) Mass changes. When OKDHS initiates mass changes because of changes or requirements in federal or state law, the computer system closes benefits by the non-advance-notice deadline, per OKDHS Appendix B-2. In these situations, the individual notification requirement is waived and AFS mails generic notices to the affected households informing them of the changes that are about to be made.

(B) Deceased household members. When the worker determines, based on reliable information, that all members of the household are deceased, the worker closes benefits by the non-advance-notice deadline, per OKDHS Appendix B-2.

(C) Moved out of state. When the worker determines, based on reliable information, the household moved out of state, the worker closes benefits by the non-advance-notice deadline, per OKDHS Appendix B-2.

(D) Unfinished issuance certification. When the unfinished issuance process is used at certification, the worker adjusts the benefit to account for changes anticipated at the time of certification. The certification notice informs the household of all benefit changes included in this process.

(E) Disqualified household member. When the only household member is disqualified for an intentional program violation or fraud, per OAC 340:50-15-25, food benefits are closed by the non-advance-notice deadline, per OKDHS Appendix B-2. When there is more than one person in the household, the remaining household members' benefits are reduced or closed because of that household member's disqualification by the non-advance-notice deadline, per OKDHS Appendix B-2.

(F) Facility loses approval. When a household's food benefit closes because the drug or alcohol treatment center or group home facility where the household resides is no longer approved, the worker closes benefits by the non-advance-notice deadline, per OKDHS Appendix B-2.

(G) Household provides written statement. The worker closes or reduces benefits by the non-advance-notice deadline, per OKDHS Appendix B-2, when the household provides a written statement:

- (i) stating the household no longer wants to receive food benefits; or
- (ii) requesting closure or reduction in food benefits to avoid or repay an overpayment.

(H) Case transfer. When closing and transferring food benefits from one case to another case without a decrease or disruption in benefits, the worker closes food benefits by the non-advance-notice deadline, per OKDHS Appendix B-2.

(n) Action on changes when fair hearings are requested. When a household requests a fair hearing within 10-calendar days of the date shown on an adverse action notice, the worker must reopen or restore food benefits to the previous level pending the outcome of the hearing unless the household specifically waives continuation of benefits, per 7 § C.F.R. 273.15(k). Refer to OAC 340:2-5 for fair hearing procedures.

340:50-9-6. Procedures relating to food benefit certification renewals

(a) Worker action. The worker completes the application process and approves or denies applications for certification renewal in a timely manner, per §273.14 of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The worker does not continue Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) food benefits to the household beyond the certification period until he or she determines continued eligibility and recertifies the household. Refer to Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:50-3-3(i) for information regarding verification required at certification renewal.

(b) Notice of expiration.

(1) A computer-generated expiration notice titled, Continue My SNAP Benefit, is sent after deadline the month prior to the last month of the certification period. The notice informs households:

- (A) of the date their certification period ends;
- (B) by what date they must submit their certification renewal and provide required information in order to receive uninterrupted food benefits;
- (C) of methods the household may use to submit the certification renewal information including, but not limited to:

- (i) online at okdhslive.org;
- (ii) phoning Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) at the phone number listed on the notice;
- (iii) mailing a completed and signed paper renewal form to the address listed on the notice; or
- (iv) faxing or hand delivering a completed and signed paper renewal form to a local OKDHS office;

(D) of their right to request an application and file an incomplete application as long as it includes a signature and a legible name and address;

(E) how to obtain a paper renewal form;

(F) OKDHS staff contacts the household when an interview is required. The notice also advises that when an interview is required, failure to attend the scheduled interview or to reschedule a missed interview may result in a delay or denial of food benefits;

(G) proof of household income must be provided;

(H) proof of certain expenses is required before an expense deduction is given;

(I) they may submit proof of income and expenses by mail, fax, email, or by uploading documents through OKDHSLive; and

(J) of their right to file a fair hearing if they disagree with any action taken on their case.

(c) Timely certification renewals.

(1) Timely certification renewals are processed within the periods described in (A) through (B) of this paragraph.

(A) A household with a prior certification period of fewer than three months who applies by the 15th day of the last month of the certification period is provided the opportunity to participate, when eligible, no later than 30-calendar days after the date the household last received its food benefits.

(B) A household with a prior certification period of three or more months, who applies on or before the 15th day of the last month of the certification period are considered timely. When the household meets all requirements, the worker certifies or denies the application prior to the end of the certification period.

(i) Any eligible household who renews SNAP food benefits timely is provided an opportunity to participate by their normal issuance date in the month following the end of the current certification period.

(ii) To retain this right to uninterrupted benefits, the household must complete an interview, when required, and provide required verification due on or after the deadline for filing timely certification renewals.

(iii) Although a household loses its right to uninterrupted benefits, it retains its right to complete the process and receive benefits, when eligible, within 30-calendar days of the application date.

(2) A household that timely renews, but due to worker error, is not timely determined eligible is certified immediately upon being determined eligible. When the delay in certification renewal extends into the following month, the worker certifies the household back to the first day of the month following expiration of the certification period.

(3) A household applying for certification renewal in the last month of its certification period is not entitled to expedited services. When the certification renewal is certified on or before the last day of the previous certification period, the subsequent month's benefit issues on the second working day of the month.

(d) Untimely certification renewal. A household that submits an untimely certification renewal, without good cause, loses its right to uninterrupted benefits. When this occurs, the worker has 30-calendar days to certify or deny the application. When a certification renewal is not received until after the certification period expires, the application is considered an initial application and benefits for that month are prorated. When eligible, the household is entitled to expedited service, per OAC 340:50-11-1.

(e) Good cause for failure to timely renew food benefits. When the household has a good cause reason for failing to submit a timely certification renewal or completing the certification process timely and does not receive food benefits in the month following benefit expiration, it is entitled to restoration of lost benefits, per OAC 340:50-11-4. Good cause may include reasons, such as failure to receive timely notice of expiration or personal illness.

SUBCHAPTER 10. ELECTRONIC BENEFIT TRANSFER (EBT)

340:50-10-1. Scope and applicability

(a) Benefit delivery and access. Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) uses an online electronic benefit transfer (EBT) system to deliver Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) food benefits. SNAP food benefits are stored in a central computer database and electronically accessed by eligible households at the point of sale via plastic EBT cards, called Access Oklahoma, and personal identification numbers (PIN).

(1) Upon initial certification, OKDHS issues a notice to eligible households informing them of the date they can access their SNAP food benefits.

(2) The EBT system credits food benefits to eligible households' food benefit account each month they are certified.

(3) Households use their Access Oklahoma card and enter their PIN to purchase food from a business approved by the United States Department of Agriculture to accept food benefits.

(b) Benefit expungement. OKDHS expunges SNAP food benefits after 274-calendar days of inactivity, per Section 274.2(i) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Inactivity occurs when the household does not take an action that affects the balance of the household's SNAP EBT account within this time period, such as making a purchase or a return. OKDHS provides an expungement notice to the household at least 30-calendar days before expunging the benefit.

(c) Moved to another state. When a household moves to another state and has food benefits remaining in their account, the household must use the food benefits in Oklahoma prior to leaving the state or find a retailer in another state that accepts the Access Oklahoma card. The Access Oklahoma card can be used in most states as most major retailers accept the Access Oklahoma card.

340:50-10-3. Initial issuance of Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) card

An Access Oklahoma electronic benefit transfer (EBT) card is issued to the payee of the eligible household. A second Access Oklahoma EBT card may be issued to an authorized representative designated in writing by the household. When a Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) and Child Care Subsidy benefits are included in the same case, the household may choose a different authorized representative for each program. Refer to Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:50-3-1 for information regarding SNAP authorized representatives. The payee and authorized representative:

(1) obtain their initial EBT cards in the county office after viewing a training video and providing proof of their identity; and

- (2) select a personal identification number in the county office or by calling the number on the back of the EBT card.
- (b) An EBT card is considered an initial card, when a:
- (1) client applies for SNAP benefits for the first time;
 - (2) client is given a new case number;
 - (3) change in payee or authorized representative occurs; or
 - (4) payee or authorized representative makes a new application and never had an initial EBT card printed.

340:50-10-5. Replacement of lost, stolen, or destroyed Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards

When the client or authorized representative requests replacement of a lost, stolen, or destroyed Access Oklahoma electronic benefit transfer (EBT) card, staff advises the person to phone the EBT contractor at 1-888-328-6551 or to go online at www.connectebt.com/ to cancel the current card and request a replacement.

- (1) Local EBT specialists cannot issue initial or replacement EBT cards containing Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) food benefits.
- (2) The worker requests the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) Financial Services Electronic Payment Services (EPS) Unit assistance in issuing a replacement card, when:
 - (A) SNAP expedited services are approved for the month the replacement is requested;
 - (B) an EBT card was previously issued, but the applicant never received benefits or has not received SNAP food benefits for at least 24 months;
 - (C) an EBT card containing SNAP food benefits is returned to the county office because it is demagnetized or in an unusable condition;
 - (D) the EBT card contains food and child care benefits in application or open status; or
 - (E) the county director approves requesting EPS assistance because of special circumstances, such as when a homeless person uses the county office as a mailing address, when a treatment center client leaves the treatment center, or other limited circumstances.
- (3) The EBT contractor mails replacement EBT cards by the next business day after the client requests a replacement card. Replacement cards take seven- to 10-calendar days to receive. EPS staff remotely print EBT cards to the local county office's embosser the date they receive replacement requests.

(a) Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) expunges Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) food benefits after:

- (1) 12 months of inactivity until September 22, 2021; or
- (2) 274-calendar days of inactivity beginning September 22, 2021.

(b) Inactivity occurs when the household does not take action that affects the balance of the household's SNAP electronic benefit transfer account, such as making a purchase or return.

(c) Beginning September 22, 2021, OKDHS must provide an expungement notice to the household at least 30-calendar days before expunging the benefit.

SUBCHAPTER 11. SPECIAL PROCEDURES

PART 1. HOUSEHOLDS ENTITLED TO EXPEDITED SERVICE

340:50-11-1. Expedited service screening, criteria, and time limits

(a) Expedited service screening. Oklahoma Human Services Adult and Family Services staff designated by the county director or field manager must screen every initial Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program application, including those received from residents of approved drug and alcohol treatment centers and group homes, on the day it is received in the county office or support center to determine if the household is entitled to expedited services. When an initial application indicates the household is eligible for expedited service, action is taken immediately to begin processing the application.

(1) Applications, other than certification renewals, are considered initial applications. Certification renewals are applications received before the household's certification period expires or on the first day of the month following expiration of the certification period. Certification renewals are not screened for expedited service.

(2) When an application is received on the second day of the month following expiration of the certification period or any day thereafter, it is considered an initial application and is subject to prorated benefits and expedited screening.

(b) Expedited service criteria. Per 273.2(i) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations, households entitled to expedited services include households:

(1) with less than $150 gross income when liquid resources do not exceed $100;

(2) with migrant or seasonal farm workers considered destitute when liquid resources do not exceed $100; and

(3) whose combined monthly gross income and liquid resources are less than the household's monthly rent or mortgage and/or applicable utility standard per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:50-7-31(a)(6)(C).

(c) Expedited service time limits. When a household is eligible for expedited service, food benefit eligibility must be determined and food benefits issued no later than seven calendar days from the application date. Refer to OAC 340:50-3-1(b)(1) for right to same day filing processes. When the seventh-calendar day falls on a non-business day, the application must be processed by the last business day prior to the seventh-calendar day. When a household is determined ineligible for food benefits because it does not meet non-financial eligibility criteria, the worker must deny the application no later than 30-calendar days after the application date.

(d) Late entitlement determination. When expedited service screening fails to identify a household as being entitled to expedited service and the worker subsequently discovers the household is entitled to expedited service, the worker provides such service within seven-calendar days of discovery.

340:50-11-3. Expedited service for migrant or seasonal farm laborers

Migrant or seasonal farm laborer households qualify for expedited service when their liquid resources do not exceed $100 at the time of interview, and their gross monthly income is less than $150 or they are destitute per Section 273.2(i) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (7 C.F.R. § 273.2(i)).

(1) Definition of destitute migrant or seasonal farm laborers. This definition may only be applied to migrant or seasonal farm laborer households.

(A) Per 7 C.F.R. § 273.10(e)(3), a destitute household means the household's only income for the application month:

(i) was received prior to application date and was from a terminated source.

(I) Income received on a monthly or more frequent basis is considered as coming from a terminated source when it will not be received again from the same source during the balance of the application month or the following month.

(II) Income received less often than monthly is considered as coming from a terminated source when it will not be received in the month the next payment would normally be received; or

(ii) is from a new source and income of more than $25 from the new source will not be received by the 10th calendar day after the application date.

(I) Income normally received on a monthly or more frequent basis is considered to be from a new source when income of more than $25 was not received from the source within 30-calendar days prior to the application date.

(II) Income normally received less often than monthly is considered to be from a new source when income of more than $25 was not received within the last normal interval between payments.

(B) Households may receive income from a terminated source and income from a new source and be considered destitute when they received no other income in the application month.

(C) When a household's income must be averaged on an annual basis or averaged over the period income is intended to cover, the worker must average and assign the income to the appropriate months of the certification period before determining if the household is destitute. When the averaged income is assigned to the application month and does not come from a new or terminated source, the household is not considered destitute.

(2) Calculating income from destitute migrant or seasonal farm laborers. Destitute households must have their eligibility and benefit level calculated for the application month by considering only income received between the first of the month and the application date. Any income from a new source that is anticipated after the application date is disregarded.

(3) Proration of benefits. Migrant and seasonal farm workers are issued a full allotment for the application month when the household received Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) food benefits within 30-calendar days prior to the application date. When the household has not received SNAP food benefits within the prior 30-calendar days, the allotment is prorated from the application date, the same as any other household.

(4) Procedures for expedited service for migrant or seasonal farm laborers. Refer to Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:50-11-5 for expedited service procedures for migrant or seasonal farm laborer households. These households:

(A) must provide required verification for in-state and out-of-state income sources before the worker certifies the household for the third month of benefits; and

(B) are entitled to postpone out-of-state verification only once each season.

340:50-11-5. Expedited services procedures and benefit issuance

To expedite the certification process, the worker must verify the applicant's identity and conduct the household's interview as soon as possible to ensure the household, when eligible, receives timely expedited service.

(1) Reasonable verification pursuit. The worker makes reasonable efforts to verify, within the seven-calendar day expedited processing standard, the household's residency, income statement, and all other eligibility factors before certification, per Section 273.2(i) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations. This effort includes evaluating the household's explanation of how the household meets its needs when declared expenses exceed reported income or when the household reports no household income.

(A) The worker verifies eligibility factors through documentary evidence or, when documentary evidence is not readily available, through a collateral contact.

(B) The worker may postpone verifying eligibility factors other than identity that could not be verified within the expedited service processing time limit. In most instances, it is expected that the applicant verify at least residence and income, within the time limit.

(C) The worker must not delay certification up to, or beyond the time limit, solely because factors other than identity were not verified. When the household is unlikely to be able to provide the required verification within the expedited service timeframe, the worker must postpone verification.

(2) Postponed verification. When verification is postponed, the worker gives or sends the household Form 08AD092E, Client Contact and Information Request, to request the postponed verification before further benefits are approved.

(A) When a household member, who is not a newborn, needs to provide a Social Security number (SSN) that was postponed, the household must furnish the SSN or proof that an application was filed with the Social Security Administration before the second full month of participation.

(B) When verification is postponed, the worker certifies the household for a one- or two-month expedited certification period, per (3) of this Section. To avoid a break in benefits, when the household is certified for:

(i) one month, the household must furnish the postponed verification within 30-calendar days of the application date; or

(ii) two months, the household must furnish the postponed verification by the last day of the expedited certification period.

(C) When the household does not provide the verification within 30-calendar days of the application date for a one month certification, or by the last day of the expedited certification period for a two month certification, but does provide it within 60-calendar days of the application date, benefits are prorated from the date the verification is provided. The household must complete a new application to receive further benefits when the verification is not received within 60-calendar days of the application date.

(D) When the household provides postponed verification timely, the worker approves the household, when eligible, for a normal certification period within seven-calendar days of receiving the verification.

(3) Expedited certification period. When the household is eligible for expedited services and verification is postponed, the worker certifies the household for a one- or two-month expedited certification period.

- (A) When the household applies between the:
- (i) first and 15th of the month, the worker certifies the household for one month; or
 - (ii) 16th and 31st of the month, the worker certifies the household for two months.

(B) The worker prorates the initial month's benefits when the household applies later than the first day of the month.

(C) When proration causes the household to be ineligible for the application month, the worker denies the application for the application month and certifies the household for expedited food benefits for the following month.

(D) The initial month's food benefits issue immediately. When the household is assigned a two-month certification period, the second month's benefits issue on the first day of the second month.

(4) Normal certification period. When the household is eligible for expedited services and verification is not postponed, the worker certifies the household for a normal certification period.

(5) Multiple expedited services certifications. There is no limit to the number of times a household may be certified using expedited procedures when the household provides the postponed verification before reapplying for food benefits. When the household does not provide the postponed verification, it is not eligible for expedited processing until it is certified using normal processing standards, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:50-3-1.

PART 3. SIMPLIFIED SUPPLEMENTAL NUTRITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (SSNAP) FOR TEMPORARY ASSISTANCE FOR NEEDY FAMILIES (TANF) AND COMPANION STATE SUPPLEMENTAL PAYMENT (SSP) RECIPIENT(S)

340:50-11-20. Scope and application processing

(a) Simplified Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SSNAP). Per Section 273.25 of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations, SSNAP rules in this Subchapter apply when ALL food benefit household members are included in:

- (1) Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) cash assistance; or
- (2) TANF cash assistance and a companion State Supplemental Payment (SSP) case.

(b) When SSNAP procedures do not apply. SSNAP procedures do not apply when:

- (1) no household member receives TANF cash assistance;
- (2) all household members receive SSP; or
- (3) any household member is a disqualified or ineligible food benefit household member, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:50-5-10.1.

(c) Household definition. Food benefit household members are determined using Part 1 of Subchapter 5 of this Chapter.

(d) TANF applicants. When the household applies for TANF, the worker determines if the applicant wants to receive or is currently receiving food benefits.

- (1) When the household currently receives non-public assistance (non-PA) food benefits, the food benefits remain non-PA until TANF is certified.
- (2) When the household does not receive food benefits and applies for TANF and food benefits at the same time, SSNAP rules are not used to determine food benefit eligibility when the:
 - (A) household qualifies for expedited service and the TANF application will not be certified within seven-calendar days;
 - (B) TANF application eligibility determination process will take longer than 30-calendar days;
 - (C) TANF application will not be certified for the application month and food benefits must be issued for the initial month; or
 - (D) worker denies the TANF application and the food benefit application is pending.

340:50-11-23. Eligibility determination for households within the Simplified Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SSNAP)

(a) SSNAP eligibility determination. All households within the SSNAP scope meet applicable Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) eligibility rules, per Sections 273.23 and 273.25 of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations and Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:50-11-20.

(1) Income determination. SSNAP uses TANF income definitions to determine food benefit income. When there is a TANF case and a companion State Supplemental Payment (SSP) case for the aged, blind, or disabled, income definitions for TANF and SSP apply. Income amounts converted from the TANF and SSP cases to food benefit income are classified as unearned income. Food benefit unearned income is computed for:

(A) TANF cash assistance only. The worker subtracts the non-fraud related recoupment from the exempt earned income and adds the remaining exempt earned income to the payment standard for the household size, per Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) Appendix C-1, Maximum Income, Resource, and Payment Standards, Schedule IX; or

(B) TANF with companion SSP case(s). The companion case's total countable income is added to the primary food benefit case's countable income.

(2) Resource determination. SSNAP households are considered resource eligible when they meet resource requirements for TANF and, when applicable, SSP.

(3) Non-financial eligibility criteria. SSNAP households must fulfill all applicable SNAP nonfinancial eligibility requirements, per Subchapter 5 of this Chapter.

(4) Deduction determination. The allowable deductions for SSNAP, when applicable, are shelter, utilities, medical expenses, and dependent care as determined and verified, per OAC 340:50-7-31. Medical expenses are verified only when allowing the medical expense deduction increases the food benefit amount.

(b) Food benefit allotments. Food benefit allotments are determined, per Sections 2012 and 2017 of Title 7 of the United States Code. Refer to OKDHS Appendix C-3, Maximum Food Benefit Allotments and Standards, for Income and Deductions for food benefit allotment amounts.

(c) Food benefit proration. Food benefit allotments for an initial month are prorated from the date of application. Initial month means the first month the household is certified for food benefits following any time period during which the household was not certified. Food benefits are not prorated when benefits change from non-PA to SSNAP if there is no break in service.

340:50-11-27. Changes after application and during the certification period

Households are required to report changes per OAC 340:65-5. At each application or renewal, the worker advises households of their reporting responsibilities, gives them Form 08FB038E, Changes in Household Circumstances, and advises them to contact their worker to request additional forms as needed.

(1) Reported change in household members' eligibility for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) cash assistance. The computer converts the food benefits to non-public assistance (non-PA) Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) food benefits when the household reports one or more household members is not receiving TANF cash assistance. This may occur when:

- (A) one or more persons not eligible to receive TANF or State Supplemental Payment (SSP) income moves into the home;
- (B) a child included in the TANF cash assistance turns 18 or 19 years of age and is no longer eligible for inclusion in the TANF cash assistance; or
- (C) the adult parent or needy caretaker included in the TANF cash assistance tests positive for the illegal use of a controlled substance or substances per OAC 340:10-4-1 and is removed from the TANF cash assistance.

(2) Reported change results in closure of TANF. When the worker closes the TANF cash assistance and the household is receiving SSNAP food benefits, one of the actions described in (A) through (C) are taken.

- (A) The worker closes the food benefits the same effective date as the TANF cash assistance closure when TANF is closed as a result of the:

- (i) payee's death;
- (ii) failure or refusal to participate in TANF Work;
- (iii) household moving out-of-state; or
- (iv) household requesting closure of the TANF cash assistance and food benefits.

(B) The computer converts the SSNAP food benefits to five months of transitional food benefits (TFB) when the TANF cash assistance is closed for reasons other than those listed in (A) or (C) of this paragraph and:

- (i) there is no companion SSP case; or
- (ii) the TANF case is the primary food benefit case, and the companion SSP case remains open.

(C) The computer converts the food benefits to non-PA Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) food benefits when the TANF cash assistance is closed:

- (i) for reasons other than those listed in (A) of this paragraph and the companion SSP case, which is the primary food benefit case, remains open; or
- (ii) because the adult parent or needy caretaker refuses to comply or fails to follow through with screening for the illegal use of a controlled substance or substances requirements per OAC 340:10-4-1.

(3) Reported changes during the TFB certification period.

The household is not required to report changes while receiving TFB. When changes are reported, the TFB benefit remains the same unless:

- (A) the household applies for TANF while in TFB status. Food benefits are converted to SSNAP at TANF certification as long as all household members are receiving cash assistance; or
- (B) a household member leaves the home and applies for food benefits in another household.

(4) Notifications. When requested, the worker gives the TANF applicant a copy of the signed and dated application that informs the applicant food benefit eligibility is determined using information contained in the application. A computer-generated notice is sent to the household at certification and any time the food benefit amount changes.

PART 5. RESTORATION OF LOST BENEFITS

340:50-11-45. Transfers [REVOKED]

[Source: Amended at 9 Ok Reg 3843, eff 8-24-92 (emergency); Amended at 10 Ok Reg 1821, eff 5-13-93 ; Revoked at 18 Ok Reg 2079, eff 7-1-01]

340:50-11-46. Restoration of lost benefits

(a) Worker responsibility. A worker is responsible for restoring lost Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) food benefits to the household when food benefits were lost because of an Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) error, per Section 273.17 of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (7 C.F.R. § 273.17). SNAP food benefits are restored for not more than 12 months prior to the:

- (1) month the worker receives a request to restore lost food benefits from the household in writing or verbally;
- (2) month the worker is notified or discovers the loss occurred in the normal course of business;
- (3) date the household requested a fair hearing to contest the adverse action that resulted in the loss; or
- (4) date the household initiated court action.

(b) Disputed benefits.

(1) When the worker determines a household is entitled to restoration of lost food benefits but the household does not agree with the amount to be restored, the household may request a fair hearing. When the household requests a fair hearing:

- (A) prior to or at the time lost food benefits are restored, the amount restored to the household is the amount determined by the worker pending results of the fair hearing; and
- (B) the worker restores the lost food benefits in accordance with the fair hearing decision, when the decision is favorable to the household.

(2) When the household notifies the worker that it is entitled to restoration of lost benefits and the worker, after reviewing the case record does not agree, the household has 90-calendar days from the date the worker notifies the household of his or her decision to request a fair hearing. The worker restores lost benefits to the household only when the fair hearing decision is favorable to the household.

(c) Computing amount to be restored. After correcting the loss for future months and excluding the months benefits may have been lost prior to the 12-month time limit, the worker calculates the amount to be restored. The worker computes lost food benefits beginning with the month the loss initially occurred and ending with the first month the error is corrected or the first month the household is determined to be ineligible.

- (1) When the household was determined eligible, but received an incorrect food benefit allotment, the worker calculates the lost food benefits only for the months the household participated in SNAP.

(2) When an eligible household's application was erroneously denied, the month the loss initially occurred is the application month. For a timely filed certification renewal, the initial loss occurs the month following the expiration of its certification period.

(3) When an eligible household's application is delayed, the worker calculates lost food benefits, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:50-9-4.

(4) When a household's benefits were incorrectly closed, the month the loss initially occurred is the first month benefits were not received because of the incorrect closure.

(5) When there is not enough information in the household's case record to determine the correct benefit amount, the worker requests information from the household to determine eligibility for those months. When the household cannot provide the information needed to determine eligibility, the household is considered ineligible for the lost food benefits.

(d) Offsetting claims. When the household has an unpaid overpayment or an overpayment held in suspense, the amount to be restored is offset against the overpayment amount. The balance, if any, is restored to the household. Benefits received at initial certification or because of retroactive certification are not used to offset claims against a household.

(e) Lost benefits to persons disqualified for an intentional program violation (IPV). The worker restores lost food benefits for months the person was disqualified for an IPV only when the disqualification decision is subsequently overturned or reversed, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.17(e). A person is not entitled to restoration of lost benefits for the disqualification period based solely on the fact that a criminal conviction could not be obtained, unless the person successfully challenged the disqualification in a separate court action.

(1) For each month the person was disqualified, the amount to be restored, if any, is the difference between the food benefit allotment the household received and the food benefit allotment the household would have received if the disqualified member was allowed to participate in SNAP.

(2) The lost benefit restoration period cannot exceed 12 months prior to the date DHS was notified or discovered a loss occurred.

(f) Method of restoration. The worker restores benefits equal to the amount of benefits that were lost even when the household is not currently eligible for food benefits. The amount issued is in addition to the food benefit allotment currently eligible households are entitled to receive.

340:50-11-64. Destroyed food purchased with benefits

(a) In households where food purchased with benefits is destroyed in a household misfortune such as a fire, tornado, or flood, a replacement of the actual value of loss, not to exceed the household's monthly allotment, may be made if the loss is reported within 10 calendar days of the loss and the loss is verified. Food loss through loss of electricity or malfunction of appliances unless caused by a household misfortune, does not qualify for a Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) replacement.

(b) Prior to issuing the replacement, a household member must complete Form 08FB0012E, Request for Replacement of Destroyed Food, attesting to the loss within ten days of the report of the loss. When the Oklahoma Department of Human Services is not open for business on the 10th calendar day, the form must be received by the next business day. The worker must issue the replacement within 10 calendar days of the reported loss or within two business days of receiving the completed form, whichever is later.

340:50-11-86. Emergency food benefit assistance in disasters declared by Food and Nutrition Service (FNS)

The Oklahoma Department of Human Services is responsible for operating a Disaster Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (DSNAP).

- (1) When a major or lesser disaster is declared by Food and Nutrition Services (FNS), Adult and Family Services (AFS) Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program staff notifies the counties involved in the disaster and issues policy and procedures to be followed.
- (2) Maximum income limits, benefit allotments, and application procedures are followed for FNS declared disasters. Emergency benefit allotments are equal to the maximum monthly food benefit allotment for the household size.
- (3) Once benefits are issued they must be used no later than 90-calendar days from certification. Benefits not used within 90-calendar days of certification are expunged and cannot be put back into the client's account.

340:50-11-88. Mechanical disaster

The definition of mechanical disaster means the halting for at least 15 consecutive calendar days of the operation of all equipment available to the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) for food benefit issuance. To be eligible for benefits under the mechanical disaster provisions, a household must already be certified as eligible to participate in the program as of the month in which the disaster occurred. In the event of a mechanical disaster, all current food benefit recipients are notified that a mechanical disaster has occurred through announcements in the mass media. Steps are taken to issue benefits by an alternate system. Persons who apply for food benefits after the breakdown of equipment are handled in the same manner.

340:50-11-89. Disaster reporting

During periods of a disaster, the State Office contacts the local offices affected by the disaster daily to obtain the number of households, the number of persons, and the number of pending applications in both Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) emergency declared and non-emergency declared disasters. The State Office is responsible for following FNS guidelines for reporting information.

PART 11. SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR JOINT PROCESSING OF SUPPLEMENTAL NUTRITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (SNAP) AND SUPPLEMENTAL SECURITY INCOME (SSI) APPLICANTS

340:50-11-105. Joint Social Security Income and Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) Application procedures

(a) Eligible persons. Per Section 273.2(k) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (7 C.F.R. § 273.2(k)), the Social Security Administration (SSA) accepts Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program applications for Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS). To apply with SSA, the SNAP household may only include Supplemental Security Income (SSI) applicants or recipients. SSA also does not accept applications when the household:

- (1) currently receives SNAP and is not due for a certification renewal; or
- (2) has already applied for SNAP in the past 60-calendar days.

(b) Application Procedures. SSA informs SSI applicants and recipients of their right to apply for SNAP with SSA or OKDHS.

(1) When the SSI applicant or recipient accepts the offer to apply with SSA, SSA:

(A) follows the instructions in the SSA Program Operations Manual System to complete the SNAP application and interview;

(B) provides the SNAP application to OKDHS;

(C) prescreens the application for expedited service and indicates potential expedited service eligibility on the SSA-4233 form;

(D) suggests the household may receive quicker service by applying in person at an OKDHS office when the household qualifies for expedited service;

(E) accepts any available verification the household has and provides it to OKDHS; and

(F) completes the SSA-4233 form to record eligibility information revealed by the SSA interview and any potential missing verification and provides this form to OKDHS.

(2) When an SSI applicant or recipient declines to apply with SSA or does not meet the criteria in (a) of this Section, SSA refers them to www.okdhslive.org, www.okbenefits.org, or the nearest OKDHS office.

(c) OKDHS procedures. When SSA submits a SNAP application to OKDHS, the OKDHS worker:

(1) screens the application for expedited service on the date OKDHS receives the application;

(2) calculates expedited service from the day OKDHS receives the application online or in the OKDHS office;

(3) processes the application within 30-calendar days of when SSA received the signed application;

(4) uses the interview completed and eligibility information provided on the SSA-4233 to determine the household's eligibility;

(5) does not contact the household or request additional information or verification unless the application is incomplete, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:50-3-1, missing mandatory verification, per OAC 340:50-3-3(b), or contains questionable information, per OAC 340:50-3-3(f);

(6) completes an incomplete application or obtains any missing or needed verification without requiring a household to come to an OKDHS office;

(7) applies OAC 50-11-111 to determine if a household is categorically eligible;

(8) identifies applications from SSA Prerelease Program for the Institutionalized and follows the procedures in (d) of this Section; and

(9) employs ordinary SNAP procedures except for the requirements of this subsection.

(d) SSA Prerelease Program for the Institutionalized. Per 7 C.F.R. 273.11(i), public institution residents may apply for SSI and SNAP before their release from the institution through the SSA Prerelease Program for the Institutionalized. The OKDHS worker uses the resident's release date as the application date for these applications. Expedited service and the 30-calendar day processing timeframes begin on the release date.

PART 12. CATEGORICALLY ELIGIBLE HOUSEHOLDS

340:50-11-111. Categorically eligible household

(a) Purpose. This Part includes the requirements for establishing categorically eligible households for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), per Section 273.2(j)(2) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (7 C.F.R. § 273.2(j)).

(b) Definitions. The following words and terms, when used in this Part, shall have the following meaning unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

- (1) "Categorically eligible household" means any household:
 - (A) as defined, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:50-11-20, in which all members receive or are authorized to receive:
 - (i) Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) cash assistance; or
 - (ii) a combination of Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and TANF cash assistance;

(B) in which all members receive or are authorized to receive SSI; or

(C) in which members receive or are authorized to receive services through 2-1-1 Oklahoma, except as excluded in (f) of this Section.

(2) "Authorized to receive" means the person was determined eligible for benefits and was notified of this determination even if the benefits have not yet been received, authorized but not accessed, suspended or recouped, or not paid because they are less than a minimum amount.

(c) When to classify categorically eligible households. Food benefit households are categorically eligible households upon certification unless the households meet the criteria defined in (f) of this Section. Households remain categorically eligible until the next certification.

(d) Financial eligibility factors. When all household members meet categorical eligibility per (b)(1) of this Section, they do not have to meet either the gross or net income eligibility standards of SNAP. Income for the household must be verified to determine benefit allotment.

(e) Non-financial eligibility factors.

(1) All household members must meet the citizenship requirements per OAC 340:50-5-67. If a person's status as a United States (U.S.) citizen or non-citizen national is questionable and was verified for another program, the worker accepts participation in that program as proof of citizenship or lawful alien status.

(2) Aliens who are otherwise ineligible for food benefits are not automatically eligible for food benefits because they receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI). The citizenship requirements supersede the categorical eligibility requirements.

(3) A categorically eligible household receiving SSI or Temporary Assistance for Needy Families is considered as having met the Social Security number (SSN) information, sponsored alien information, and residency requirements for food benefit purposes.

(f) Non-categorical households. Non-categorical households are subject to income limits per OAC 340:50-9-1(b). A household is not classified as a categorically eligible household, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.2(j)(2) (vii):

(1) the first time the household applies after SNAP benefits close because of substantial lottery and gambling winning, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.11(r), OAC 340-50-7-1, and 340:50-9-5(j);

(2) when any household member is disqualified for an intentional program violation, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.16 and OAC 340:50-15-25;

(3) when any household member is disqualified for being a fleeing felon or probation or parole violator, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.11(n);

(4) when any household member is disqualified for being convicted of certain crimes as an adult after February 7, 2014, and is not in compliance with the terms of the sentence or the restrictions under 7 C.F.R. § 273.11(n), per 7 C.F.R. § 273.11(s);

or

(5) the head of household is disqualified for failing to comply with work requirements per OAC 340:50-5-85 through 340:50-5-89.

Refer to OAC 340:50-3-1(b)(2) for head of household information.

(g) Excluded individuals from non-categorical households. When a household is otherwise categorically eligible, individuals excluded from the household, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.2(j)(2)(ix), include:

(1) an ineligible alien, per 7 C.F.R § 273.4 and OAC 340:50-5-67(c);

(2) an ineligible student, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.5 and OAC 340:50-5-45;

(3) a resident of an institution that is not exempt, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.1(b)(7)(vi) and OAC 340:50-5-7.1; or

(4) an individual failing to comply with a work requirement, per OAC 340:50-5-85 through OAC 340:50-5-89.

[Source: Amended at 25 Ok Reg 937, eff 6-1-08 ; Revoked at 35 Ok Reg 1659, eff 9-17-18]

340:50-13-2. Hearing based on any action relating to a food benefit or case

(a) Client rights. Every applicant and participating household has the right to appeal any action that affects the household's participation in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), per Section 273.15(a) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (7 C.F.R. § 273.15(a)). Applicants and recipients are advised verbally and in writing of their right to a fair hearing and of the procedures for appealing any decision.

(b) Hearing request. A hearing request may be made verbally or in writing.

(1) When the client contacts the county office to request a fair hearing, the client is given an opportunity to review the situation with a supervisory or administrative staff member in the local county office. When the situation is not resolved in the review or the client does not wish to review the situation with local supervisory or administrative staff, the worker explains hearing procedures to the client, completes the first page of Form 13MP001E, Request for a Fair Hearing, and gives or mails the form to the client to complete the rest of the form.

(2) Households wanting to contest a denial of expedited service must be given an opportunity to have an Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) conference scheduled within two-business days unless the household requests it be scheduled later or states it does not wish to have a DHS conference, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.15(d). A fair hearing must be held if the issue is not resolved or the household does not withdraw its request for a fair hearing by signing Form 13MP004E, Withdrawal of Request for Hearing.

(3) When a fair hearing is requested by a household that plans to move to another state before a hearing decision would normally be reached, such as a migrant farmworker household, DHS expedites processing the hearing before the household plans to leave the state, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.15(i) and Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:2-5-65.

(c) Participation during appeal. When a household requests a fair hearing during the 10-calendar day advance notice period, the household's food benefits are continued at the same level as authorized immediately prior to the notice of adverse action, unless the household specifically waives continuation of benefits, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.15(k). Benefits are not continued when the certification period expires prior to the fair hearing request.

(1) When the household chooses:

(A) to continue food benefits at the previous level until the hearing decision is reached and the hearing decision is not in the household's favor, the household is required to reimburse the ineligibly received benefits; and

(B) not to continue food benefits at the previous level until the hearing decision is reached and the hearing decision is in the household's favor, the household is entitled to the retroactive benefits lost during the appeal period.

(2) When the household fails to request continuation of benefits within the advance notice period and later establishes there was good cause for the failure, the worker reinstates the benefits to the prior basis.

(3) When benefits are reduced or closed because of a mass change without individual notice of adverse action, per OAC 340:50-9-5(k)(3)(A), the worker only reinstates benefits to the previous level when the issue being appealed is that eligibility or benefits were improperly computed or federal law or regulation is being misapplied or misinterpreted by DHS.

(4) When a household requests a hearing and continuation of benefits as a result of an action taken by DHS at initial certification or on a subsequent application, benefits are not reinstated or continued except as authorized at such initial or subsequent certification.

(d) Reduction or closure prior to hearing decision. Once continued, benefits are not reduced or closed prior to a hearing decision unless:

(1) the certification period expires. When this occurs, the household may reapply and be determined eligible for a new certification period and benefit amount as determined by DHS;

(2) the hearing officer makes a preliminary decision, in writing and at the hearing, that the sole issue is one of federal law or regulation and that the household's claim that DHS improperly computed benefits or misinterpreted or misapplied the federal law or regulation is invalid;

(3) a change in circumstances occurs that affects the household's eligibility or basis of issuance while the hearing decision is pending and the household does not request an additional hearing and continuation of benefits after the notice of adverse action.

The benefit allotment must be based on any income the household had prior to the first notice of adverse action; or

(4) the household or its authorized representative verbally withdraws the fair hearing request and does not inform DHS of its desire to reinstate the fair hearing within 10-calendar days of receiving written notice from DHS confirming the withdrawal request.

(e) Hearing decision. Hearing decisions are made by the Appeals Committee, per OAC 340:2-5-76.

(1) The hearing is conducted, a decision is reached, and the household and county office are notified of the decision within 60-calendar days of receipt of the fair hearing request per 7 C.F.R. § 273.15(c). The notice also informs the household of any further appeal rights.

(2) When the decision is:

(A) in the household's favor and results in an increase in household benefits, the benefit increase is reflected in the household's electronic benefit transfer account within 10-calendar days of receipt of the hearing decision unless the hearing decision effective date corresponds with the next benefit issuance date; or

(B) not in the household's favor and results in a benefit decrease, the worker decreases the household's food benefits effective the next scheduled benefit issuance date.

340:50-13-3. Quality control

(a) Legal authority. The Oklahoma Department of Human Services federal and state legal authority for providing a systematic Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) quality control (QC) process and administrative operation to assure state accountability is vested in Sections 241 through 244 of Title 56 of the Oklahoma Statutes. SNAP QC reviews are conducted per Sections 275.10 through 275.14 of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations, 7 C.F.R. § 275.10 through 275.14, and the United States Department of Agriculture Food and Nutrition Services (FNS) FNS 310 Quality Control Handbook. The USDA mandates parameters for the QC process including but not limited to conducting household interviews, type of reviewer inquiries, method of verification, and appropriateness of collateral contacts.

(b) Sampling plan. The annual sampling plan is developed by the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) Office of Performance Outcomes and Accountability (OPOA) in compliance with federal regulations at 7 C.F.R. § 275.11. Methodologies are outlined in detail and submitted to USDA for approval.

(c) Random sample. A random sample of SNAP applications, reapplications, and other case actions is generated monthly by the Oklahoma Office of Management and Enterprise Services Information Services Division.

(d) Case assignment. The cases in the monthly random sample are assigned to and reviewed by an Adult and Family Services (AFS) SNAP QC reviewer for verification of conditions of eligibility and for procedural errors related to denials and terminations. All errors are referred to SNAP program field representative staff, who notifies county offices and support centers of errors found on sampled cases.

(e) Refusal to cooperate. When, at any point in the SNAP QC review process, a household refuses to cooperate with the AFS SNAP QC reviewer, the SNAP QC administrator sends the Notice of Refusal to Cooperate with Quality Control to SNAP program field representative staff to notify them of the household's refusal.

(1) AFS SNAP program field representative staff closes the food benefits on refusal to cooperate with the SNAP QC review for the next advance-notice effective date per DHS Appendix B-2, Deadlines for Case Actions.

(2) A household closed for refusal to cooperate with a SNAP QC review may reapply and be certified for SNAP participation only after the household cooperates fully and completely with SNAP QC in the completion of the QC review or when the penalty period ends per Section 273.2(d)(2) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The penalty period ends 125-calendar days from the end of the SNAP QC review period, October 1 through September 30th. Refer to OAC 340:50-3-2(g) for more information.

SUBCHAPTER 15. OVERPAYMENTS AND FRAUD

PART 1. OVERPAYMENTS

340:50-15-1. Scope and applicability

(a) Scope and applicability. The scope and applicability of overpayment procedures contained in this Subchapter apply to Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) food benefit issuance. Section 273.16 of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (7 C.F.R. § 273.16) contains federal requirements regarding disqualification for intentional program violations and 7 C.F.R. § 273.18 contains federal requirements regarding overpayment claims against households.

(b) Overpayment claim definition. A SNAP food benefit overpayment occurs when a household receives more food benefits than it is entitled to receive or when benefits are trafficked.

(c) Persons responsible for repaying an established overpayment claim. Refer to Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:50-15-6 for repayment procedures. Persons responsible for repaying an established overpayment claim include:

- (1) every adult included in the food benefit allotment, when the overpayment or benefit trafficking occurred; and
- (2) a person connected to the household, such as an authorized representative or other individual, when the person trafficked benefits or caused the overpayment.

(d) Overpayment referral. When the worker determines an overpayment occurred, the worker sends an overpayment referral to Adult and Family Services (AFS) Benefit Integrity and Recovery (BIR) Unit for overpayment classification and establishment. The overpayment referral consists of a completed Form 08OP005E, Report of Food Benefit (FB) Overissuance, and supporting documents. Reasons to submit an overpayment referral to AFS BIR Unit include, but are not limited to, when:

- (1) the household:
 - (A) failed to provide Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) with correct or complete information;
 - (B) failed to report changes in household circumstances, per OAC 340:50-9-5;

- (C) chose to continue to receive benefits pending a fair hearing decision and the:
 - (i) fair hearing decision finds the household ineligible or eligible for fewer benefits; or
 - (ii) household withdraws the fair hearing request after food benefits were reopened or increased, pending the outcome of the hearing; or
- (D) trafficked SNAP food benefits, per OAC 340:50-15-25;
- (2) the worker:
 - (A) incorrectly computed the household's income or deductions or otherwise issued an excess benefit allotment;
 - (B) failed to take prompt action on a change reported by the household resulting in an over-issuance;
 - (C) incorrectly applied rules that resulted in an over-issuance or issuing benefits to an ineligible household;
 - (D) incorrectly issued or renewed food benefits to an ineligible household; or
 - (E) failed to reduce food benefits because the household's public assistance benefits changed;
- (3) the computer system incorrectly issued benefits to a household;
- (4) AFS SNAP Quality Control staff discovered the over-issuance during a quality control review; or
- (5) the Oklahoma Inspector General Investigative Unit discovered an over-issuance.

(e) Overpayment classification and claim establishment. AFS BIR Unit staff classifies an overpayment as an inadvertent household error, intentional program violation, or agency error, per OAC 340:50-15-4, and establishes the overpayment claim, per OAC 340:50-15-3. Per 7 C.F.R. § 273.18(e)(2)(ii), AFS BIR Unit staff does not establish an overpayment claim when the error causing the overpayment is classified as inadvertent client error or agency error and the:

- (1) overpayment is less than $250;
- (2) household is not participating in SNAP when the overpayment is discovered; and
- (3) overpayment was not discovered in an AFS Quality Control Review Unit review.

(f) Repayment plan development. AFS BIR Unit staff verifies and calculates the overpayment claim, and establishes the claim by notifying the debtor household of the overpayment debt. Once established, AFS BIR Unit staff develops a repayment plan with the household, per OAC 340:50-15-6.

(g) Disqualification penalty. When a person commits an intentional program violation, in addition to being responsible for repaying the overpayment debt, the person is disqualified from receiving food benefits for a time period, per OAC 340:50-15-25.

(h) Fair hearing rights. When the household disagrees with the overpayment decision, the household may request a fair hearing within 90-calendar days of the date on the Notification of Food Benefit Overpayment notice, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.15(g). When OKDHS Legal Services Appeals Unit or county staff notifies AFS BIR Unit staff that the household requested a timely fair hearing, AFS BIR Unit staff ceases all collection efforts, including allotment reduction, pending the hearing decision. An item mailed by OKDHS is presumed to be received on the second day mail is delivered, following the date on the notice, per OAC 340:2-5-63.

340:50-15-3. Overpayment claim procedures

(a) Overpayment determination. Adult and Family Services (AFS) local office staff calculates overpayments and refers it to AFS Benefit Integrity and Recovery (BIR) for final determination.

(1) When the household failed to report earned income timely , per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:50-9-5, the worker does not subtract an earned income deduction from gross earnings when calculating the overpayment amount.

(2) AFS local office staff documents the circumstances causing the overpayment and the calculations used to determine the over-issuance amount on Form 08OP005E, Report of Food Benefit (FB) Overissuance and sends Form 08OP005E and supporting documentation to AFS BIR staff for claim establishment.

(3) If Office of Inspector General (OIG) staff determines a trafficking-related offense occurred, AFS BIR staff bases the overpayment amount on the value of the trafficked benefits. Per Section 273.18(c) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the value of the trafficked benefits is determined by:

(A) the household member or authorized representative's admission;

(B) adjudication; or

(C) OIG documentation that formed the basis for the trafficking determination.

(b) Overpayment claim establishment. AFS BIR staff is responsible for evaluating overpayment referrals, establishing overpayment claims, and referring overpayment claims to OIG when fraudulent intent is suspected. An overpayment claim is considered established on the date

AFS BIR staff sends the overpayment notice to the household.

- (1) When fraudulent intent is not suspected, AFS BIR staff:
 - (A) establishes the overpayment claim and classifies it as an inadvertent household or agency error, per OAC 340:50-15-4;
 - (B) notifies the household and worker, per (d) and (e) of this Section; and
 - (C) sets up a repayment plan with the household, per OAC 340:50-15-6.

(2) When fraudulent intent is suspected, AFS BIR staff sends the overpayment referral to OIG to determine whether fraudulent intent occurred. The overpayment claim is not established and notices are not sent until OIG completes its investigation and releases the claim back to AFS BIR. Refer to OAC 340:50-15-25 for procedures when overpayments are referred for an intentional program violation determination.

(c) Claim establishment time frame. The amount of time included in an overpayment claim varies.

- (1) From when Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) learned of the overpayment AFS BIR calculates all overpayment claims back at least 12 months but no more than six years.
- (2) When AFS BIR classifies an overpayment as an intentional program violation, the overpayment claim begins with the month the first intentional program violation occurred, subject to paragraph (1).
- (3) OKDHS complies with court orders that require a household to pay restitution.

(d) Household notification. AFS BIR staff sends the household:

- (1) the Notification of Food Benefit Overpayment notice;
- (2) page one of Form 08OP005E showing the overpayment over-issuance amount; and
- (3) Form 08OP118E, Food Benefit Repayment Agreement.

(e) Local office notification. After claim establishment, AFS BIR staff sends the local office:

- (1) a copy of the Notification of Food Benefit Overpayment notice sent to the client;
- (2) the completed Form 08OP005E; and
- (3) the County Notification of Overpayment notice.

340:50-15-4. Overpayments by classification

(a) Overpayment claim classified as inadvertent household error.

Adult and Family Services (AFS) Benefit Integrity and Recovery (BIR) staff classifies an overpayment claim as an inadvertent household error when the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) food benefit over-issuance was caused by a misunderstanding or unintended error on the part of the household. Instances of inadvertent household error that may result in an established overpayment claim include, but are not limited to, when the household inadvertently:

- (1) failed to provide the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) with correct or complete information;
- (2) failed to report changes in household circumstances per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:50-9-5; or
- (3) received benefits or more benefits than it was entitled to receive pending a fair hearing decision.

(b) Overpayment claim classified as agency error. AFS BIR staff classifies an overpayment claim as an agency error when the DHS action or failure to take action caused the over-issuance. Instances of agency errors that may result in an overpayment include, but are not limited to, when:

- (1) AFS staff:
 - (A) failed to take prompt action on a change reported by the household that resulted in an over-issuance;
 - (B) incorrectly computed the household's income or deductions, or otherwise issued an excess benefit allotment;
 - (C) incorrectly issued or renewed food benefits to an ineligible household;
 - (D) incorrectly applied policy or procedure that resulted in an over-issuance or issuing benefits to an ineligible household; or
 - (E) failed to reduce food benefits because the household's public assistance benefits changed; or
- (2) the computer system incorrectly issued benefits to a household.

(c) Overpayment claim classified as intentional program violation. An overpayment claim is classified as an intentional program violation when it is determined that a person intentionally gave false information or withheld facts in order to receive food benefits or trafficked benefits for cash or non-food items.

- (1) An intentional program violation is determined through:
 - (A) an administrative disqualification hearing conducted by DHS Legal Services Appeals Unit staff;
 - (B) the accused person signing Form 08OP016E, Administrative Disqualification Hearing Waiver; or
 - (C) a court decision. When the court decision is a deferment, the prosecutor asks the accused person to sign Form 19MP002E, Disqualification Consent Agreement.
- (2) Instances of intentional program violation that may result in an overpayment claim include, but are not limited to, when an adult household member:
 - (A) made a false or misleading statement, or misrepresented, concealed, or withheld facts; or
 - (B) committed an act that constitutes a violation of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, relative to the use, presentation, transfer, acquisition, receipt, or possession of food benefits.

340:50-15-6. Development of repayment

(a) Repayment of established overpayment claims. Households must make repayment on all established Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) food benefit overpayment claims regardless of the reason or classification for the overpayment. Adult and Family Services (AFS) Benefit Integrity and Recovery (BIR) staff initiates collection efforts against all adult household members included in SNAP food benefits during the overpayment time.

(1) AFS BIR staff may initiate collection efforts from two separate households for the same claim.

(2) AFS BIR staff may use any repayment option per (c) of this Section to collect the overpayment claim from any adult:

(A) who was in the household at the time of the overpayment and who is not currently a member of a household undergoing allotment reduction; or

(B) connected to the household, such as an authorized representative or other individual when the person trafficked benefits or caused the overpayment.

(b) Repayment plan time frames. After AFS BIR staff establishes the overpayment, he or she mails the household the Notification of Food Benefit Overpayment notice and Form 08OP118E, Food Benefit Repayment Agreement. Form 08OP118E informs the household of the responsibility to repay the overpayment and explains the acceptable debt repayment methods. The household is responsible for completing and returning Form 08OP118E within the appropriate time frame.

(1) The SNAP food benefit overpayment claim is considered delinquent when, within 30-calendar days of the date shown on the Notification of Food Benefit Overpayment notice, the household does not:

(A) pay the claim in full; or

(B) complete and return Form 08OP118E. AFS BIR staff must approve the repayment plan proposed by the household.

(2) The SNAP overpayment claim is not considered delinquent when, within 30-calendar days of the date shown on the Notification of Food Benefit Overpayment notice, the:

- (A) household's food benefit allotment reduction begins; or
- (B) household is undergoing recoupment to repay a previous SNAP overpayment claim at the time AFS BIR staff mails the Notification of Overpayment notice.

(3) When allotment reduction stops because the SNAP food benefit closes for any reason, the household must repay the debt in full or contact AFS BIR to request a repayment arrangement within 30-calendar days of benefit closure, unless food benefits are reopened.

(c) Repayment options. Form 08OP118E informs the client of available repayment options and advises the client not to send cash through the mail. Repayment options include repaying the overpayment claim:

- (1) in one lump sum by personal check, money order, cashier's check, or Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) debit with a signed statement;
- (2) in regular monthly installments, when he or she has an approved repayment agreement on file with AFS BIR. Payment may be made by personal check, money order, cashier's check, or approved EBT debit with a signed statement;
- (3) by applying any lost benefit due the household toward the food benefit overpayment claim per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:50-11-46;
- (4) by authorizing a voluntary payment through a debit from the EBT Access account. The client or the household's authorized representative must mail, fax, or email a signed statement to AFS BIR giving permission for the debit before BIR staff debits the account;
- (5) by allotment reduction. Allotment reduction is an involuntary method of collecting SNAP overpayment claims by reducing the monthly benefit amount a household receives. AFS BIR staff does not reduce benefits for the initial month of certification or use other involuntary collection methods against household members while the benefit allotment is reduced. When AFS BIR staff establishes an:

- (A) agency error or inadvertent household error overpayment claim, he or she reduces the household's monthly benefit allotment by 10 percent or $10, whichever is greater. The client may request a higher reduction up to its monthly allotment; or

- (B) intentional program violation overpayment claim, he or she reduces the household's monthly benefit allotment by 20 percent or $20, whichever is greater. The household may request a higher reduction up to its monthly allotment; or

(6) by court ordered restitution.

(d) Recalculation of debt. AFS BIR staff recalculates the household's overpayment claim balance, when staff becomes aware that some or all of the issued benefits within the overpayment period were expunged. Financial Services Payment Services staff expunges food benefits remaining in a household's EBT account when the household has not accessed the account for one year.

(e) Monthly statement. A monthly statement computer-generates to the household around the 20th day of each month, informing the household of the remaining debt obligation.

(f) Reconsideration of repayment plan. The client may request reconsideration of the repayment plan by submitting information regarding changes in family and financial circumstances directly to AFS BIR. AFS BIR staff makes adjustments to the repayment plan when circumstances warrant.

(g) Consequences of a delinquent claim. When an overpayment claim becomes delinquent, AFS BIR staff must refer it to the Treasury Offset Program (TOP) for collection per (g) of this Section or use other involuntary collection actions including, but not limited to:

- (1) referrals to collection and/or other similar private and public sector agencies;
- (2) state tax refund and lottery offsets;
- (3) wage garnishments;
- (4) property liens; and
- (5) small claims court.

(h) Referrals for TOP. AFS BIR staff refers delinquent overpayment claims to TOP for collection when criteria in (1) of this subsection are met. Debts are collected in TOP through interception of federal monies including, but not limited to, federal income tax refunds, Social Security Administration benefits, and federal employee wages. The client may be responsible for paying any collection or processing fees charged by the federal government.

(1) TOP criteria are, the:

- (A) amount owed must be at least $25;
- (B) claim is delinquent by 120-or more calendar days and legally enforceable;
- (C) claim is not part of a bankruptcy stay, under litigation, or under review per (3) of this subsection; and
- (D) the debtor is not a current SNAP recipient in Oklahoma whose claim is being collected through allotment reduction or under an approved repayment plan.

(2) At least 60-calendar days before referring an overpayment claim to TOP, AFS BIR staff notifies the person of the intended referral. AFS BIR staff mails the 60-calendar day notice to the address provided by TOP. Information contained in the notice includes:

- (A) the debtor's Social Security number;
- (B) the citation of the statutory authority for the offset;
- (C) instructions on how to avoid the TOP referral;
- (D) the right to request a review of the intended action per (3) of this subsection;
- (E) information regarding all TOP exemptions and restrictions;
- (F) information regarding spousal protection from the offset; and
- (G) the debtor's right to review applicable records.

(3) Request for review of intended action. To consider a request timely, the person being referred to TOP must request a review of the intended action in writing, within 60-calendar days of the date AFS BIR staff sends the 60-calendar day letter. The person's contention that the claim is not past due or legally enforceable is the basis for the review.

(A) A claim is not past due and legally enforceable when the person provides proof:

- (i) the claim is paid in full;
- (ii) the person cited for the offset is not the person who owes the claim;
- (iii) that substantiates bankruptcy action; or
- (iv) the household's benefit allotment is currently being reduced to repay the debt.

(B) AFS BIR staff conducts the requested review and sends the person written notification of the review decision within 30-calendar days of the request. The review decision notice informs the person requesting the review:

- (i) if the debt is past due and legally enforceable;
- (ii) if the overpayment is, or is not being referred to TOP; and
- (iii) of his or her right to appeal the decision by requesting another review from the Food and Nutrition Services (FNS) Regional Office within 30-calendar days of the date on the review decision letter. The notice includes the FNS Regional Office address and the contact person's name.

(C) When, after review, AFS BIR staff finds the debt is past due and legally enforceable, the person may avoid referral to TOP by paying the overpayment claim in full or setting up an acceptable repayment agreement with AFS BIR staff.

(i) Case record retention. The Oklahoma Department of Human Services is mandated to retain case records containing overpayments for three years from the date:

- (1) the overpayment debt is paid in full; or
- (2) no further action is taken to collect the debt because of reasons, such as the client dies or files bankruptcy that discharges the debt.

Editor's Note: ¹*The agency filed these amendments for publication in The Oklahoma Register as finally adopted amendments with a scheduled* effective date of 6-1-08. However, the agency had previously withdrawn the proposed amendments from the gubernatorial/legislative review process [see Notice of Withdrawn Rules published at 25 Ok Reg 795]. After the amendments were published in the Register, the agency discovered the error and notified the Office of Administrative Rules. The text of the Section, as was last amended by permanent action on 4-26-04, was restored in the OAC, and an Editor's Notice explaining the error was published at 25 Ok Reg 2135.

340:50-15-7. Collection effort suspension or termination

(a) Collection effort suspension. The Adult and Family Services (AFS) Benefit Integrity and Recovery (BIR) Unit:

(1) suspends collection action on cases no longer receiving Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) food benefits when the:

- (A) primary responsible household member is deceased and there are no remaining adult household members responsible for the overpayment;
- (B) household cannot be located; or
- (C) cost of further collection action is likely to exceed the amount that can be recovered.

(2) AFS BIR Unit may:

- (A) reopen debts held in suspension based on changes in household circumstances; or
- (B) initiate food benefit reduction if the client reapplies and becomes eligible in the future.

(b) Termination of overpayment claims. Per Section 273.18(e)(8) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (7 C.F.R. § 273.18(e)(8):

- (1) a terminated overpayment claim is a claim in which all collection action has ceased;
- (2) a written-off claim is a claim no longer considered a receivable subject to continued federal and state collection and reporting requirements;
- (3) when an overpayment claim is paid in full, the household is notified the debt was satisfied.
- (4) AFS BIR Unit staff may terminate and write off SNAP overpayment claim(s) when:

- (A) all adult household members die;
- (B) the claim balance is $25 or less and the claim has been delinquent for 90-calendar days or more unless other claims exist against this household resulting in an aggregate claim total of greater than $25;
- (C) the claim is delinquent for three years or more unless AFS BIR Unit is pursuing the claim through the Treasury Offset Program, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.18(n) and Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:50-15-6(h);
- (D) the household cannot be located for three or more years;
- (E) the claim is determined invalid unless it is appropriate to pursue a different claim type; or

- (F) it is not cost effective to pursue the claim any further, per FNS approved cost-effectiveness criteria.
- (5) AFS BIR may reinstate a terminated and written-off claim when a new collection method or specific event, such as lottery winnings, substantially increases the likelihood of further collections.

PART 3. INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

340:50-15-25. Cases referred for intentional program violation (IPV) determination

(a) IPV definition. Per Section 273.16(c) of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (7 C.F.R. § 273.16(c)), an IPV is defined as intentionally:

- (1) making a false or misleading statement, or misrepresenting, concealing, or withholding facts; or
- (2) committing any act that constitutes a violation of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), SNAP regulations, or of any Oklahoma State statute for the purpose of using, presenting, transferring, acquiring, receiving, possessing or trafficking of SNAP benefits or electronic benefit transfer (EBT) cards.

(b) Cases referred for an administrative disqualification hearing (ADH). Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) Office of Inspector General (OIG) staff refers cases to the OKDHS Legal Services Appeals Unit to conduct an ADH to determine when the client committed an IPV. The referred cases contain documentary evidence of an IPV, but do not warrant civil or criminal prosecution.

(c) Waiving ADH. OIG staff gives a client suspected of an IPV the option to waive his or her rights to an ADH. The client must complete and sign Form 08OP016E, Administrative Disqualification Hearing Waiver, to request a waiver. A hearing waiver subjects the client to the same penalties as if the hearing process determined the client committed an IPV.

(d) Penalties for an IPV. Persons found to have committed an IPV through an ADH, a federal, state, or local court, an ADH waiver, or, when referred for prosecution, a disqualification agreement, are ineligible to participate in SNAP, per 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(b).

(1) Cases determined by ADH or ADH waiver. When the ADH results in an IPV determination or the client waives his or her right to the hearing process, Adult and Family Services (AFS) Benefit Integrity and Recovery (BIR) Unit staff imposes a disqualification penalty.

(A) AFS BIR Unit staff sends Form 08AD019E, Program Penalty/Disqualification Notice, to the disqualified member. Form 08AD019E includes information regarding the remaining household members' eligibility.

(B) Unless (ii) of this subparagraph applies, the disqualification period for a person is one year for the first violation, two years for the second violation, and permanently for the third violation.

(i) Any person disqualified for an IPV prior to April 1, 1983, is considered to have one previous disqualification, regardless of the number of previous disqualifications.

(ii) A person found to have made a fraudulent statement or representation with respect to the person's identity or place of residence in order to receive multiple SNAP benefits simultaneously is disqualified for a period of 10 years or permanently for a third violation.

(iii) The disqualification period begins the first possible effective month following the date AFS BIR Unit staff mails Form 08AD019E. Once the disqualification period begins, it runs continuously until the end of the period imposed, regardless of whether the household remains eligible for food benefits during the person's disqualification period.

(iv) AFS BIR Unit staff removes the disqualified person from the household size or, for a one-person household, closes the SNAP food benefit based on an IPV. When determining the remaining household members' SNAP eligibility, the worker counts the disqualified person's total gross income and allows all applicable deductions, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:50-7-29(d)(1).

(v) A household must repay the SNAP overpayment claim regardless of any disqualification penalty imposed. AFS BIR Unit staff sends Form 08OP118E, Food Benefit Repayment Agreement, to notify the household of the need to make a repayment plan and the repayment options available to the client, per OAC 340:50-15-6.

(2) Cases determined by a court. AFS BIR Unit staff refers all cases suspected of an IPV to OIG to determine if court action is feasible.

(A) When OIG staff refers the person for court action, AFS BIR Unit staff must not discuss the overpayment claim with the household until court action is complete or AFS BIR Unit staff notifies the worker of needed action. County staff forwards further information or directs client inquiries regarding the overpayment to AFS BIR Unit staff.

(B) A court of appropriate jurisdiction may find one or more persons in the household guilty of obtaining food benefits by fraudulent means. The court may charge the person with either a misdemeanor or a felony.

(C) Disqualification penalty procedures for court and ADH determined cases are the same, except for (i) through (iii) of this subparagraph.

(i) The court may specify the length of the disqualification. Court-specified periods of disqualification may supersede (c)(2) of this Section.

(ii) A person is subject to disqualification when a federal, state, or local court determines the person committed an IPV of trading SNAP food benefits for firearms, ammunition, explosives, or controlled substances:

(I) for two years for the first offense and permanently for the second offense involving the sale of a controlled substance for SNAP food benefits; and

(II) permanently for the first offense involving the sale of firearms, ammunition, or explosives for SNAP food benefits.

(iii) A person is permanently disqualified from SNAP participation when a federal, state, or local court convicts the person of trafficking SNAP food benefits for an aggregate amount of $500 or more. Per 7 C.F.R. § 271.2 and Section 243 of Title 56 of the Oklahoma Statutes (56 O.S. § 243), the definition of trafficking means:

(I) the buying, selling, stealing, or otherwise exchanging SNAP benefits issued and accessed via EBT cards, card numbers, personal identification numbers (PINs), or by manual voucher and signature, for cash or consideration other than eligible food, either directly, indirectly, in complicity or collusion with others, or acting alone;

(II) the exchange of firearms, ammunition, explosives, or controlled substances, per Section 802 of Title 21 of the United States Code, for SNAP benefits;

(III) purchasing a product with SNAP benefits that has a container requiring a return deposit with the intent of obtaining cash by discarding the product and returning the container for the deposit amount, intentionally discarding the product, and intentionally returning the container for the deposit amount;

(IV) purchasing a product with SNAP benefits with the intent of obtaining cash or consideration other than eligible food by reselling the product, and subsequently intentionally reselling the product purchased with SNAP benefits, in exchange for cash or consideration other than eligible food;

(V) intentionally purchasing products originally purchased with SNAP benefits in exchange for cash or consideration other than eligible food;

(VI) attempting to buy, sell, steal, or otherwise exchanging SNAP benefits issued and accessed via EBT cards, card numbers, PINs, or by manual voucher and signatures, for cash or consideration other than eligible food, either directly, indirectly, in complicity or collusion with others, or acting alone; or

(VII) the possession of stolen SNAP EBT cards.

(D) The court may also stipulate a repayment plan. The repayment plan cannot be renegotiated. AFS BIR Unit staff may refer the case back to the district attorney's office when the client fails to comply with the repayment plan.

(E) If a court fails to impose a disqualification or a disqualification period for an IPV, OKDHS must impose the appropriate disqualification penalty specified in this Section unless it is contrary to the court order.

(3) Disqualification consent agreement. Per 56 O.S. § 243(B) (5), any district attorney who enters into a deferred adjudication or who negotiates for a deferred sentence with a defendant charged with fraud must present the defendant with a disqualification consent agreement as part of the deferred adjudication or sentence.

340:50-15-26. Reporting incidences of abuse in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program

In addition to submitting overpayments involving suspected household fraud, the worker is also responsible for submitting any incidence of reported abuse on the part of any person or a participating food store. Other incidences of reported fraud are submitted by memorandum to the Adult and Family Services (AFS) Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP).

(1) In the memorandum, the worker outlines the complaint in sufficient detail to facilitate a follow-up investigation. Further action is not taken by local county office staff pending investigation, and suspected ineligible continue to participate in SNAP during the investigation.

(2) AFS SNAP staff refers the complaint to the Office of Inspector General (OIG) for investigation and determination of whether to pursue administrative and/or court action against the household.

(3) In addition, OIG staff, on behalf of the Oklahoma Department of Human Services Director, may refer instances of misrepresentation or fraudulent acts on the part of a participating merchant to the United States Department of Agriculture.

(b) Legal basis and funding availability. The Refugee Act of 1980 (Public Law 96-212) provides assistance to refugees, regardless of national origin, to be administered by the states, with up to 100 percent reimbursement from federal funds. Provision of RRP benefits is based on federal fund availability. If federal funding is reduced or terminated, RRP benefits are reduced or terminated accordingly.

(c) Refugee documentation. A refugee applying for RRP must provide United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) documentation to verify the person's refugee status. Acceptable documentation includes, but is not limited to:

Humanitarian parolees paroled into the U.S. between July 31, 2021, through December 16, 2022 are eligible for refugee cash assistance (RCA) and refugee medical assistance (RMA) benefits for 12 months beginning October 1, 2021, or the date the parolee "enters the community" in the U.S., such as when they leave a military base, whichever is later. The latest date humanitarian parolees may receive RCA and RMA benefits is March 31, 2023 or the end of their parole term, whichever is later; or

340:60-1-6. Program eligibility and procedures

(a) Refugee Resettlement Program components. The federal Office of Refugee Resettlement provides funding to states for time-limited cash and medical assistance and resettlement case management and support services for new arrivals to the United States (U.S.) who meet refugee status, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:60-1-3.

(1) A contracted service provider is responsible for providing resettlement case management and support services to newly arriving refugees and asylees in Oklahoma.

(2) Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) is responsible for determining financial eligibility for refugee medical benefits (RMA), and a contracted provider determines financial eligibility for refugee cash assistance (RCA) throughout Oklahoma. Refer to Appendix C-9, Refugee Resettlement Program Benefit and Service Providers, to determine which contracted provider serves a specific county.

(b) Refugee support services. Refugee support services are provided for up to five-calendar years after the arrival date by OKDHS-contracted providers, per Sections 400.147 through 155 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations (45 C.F.R. §§ 400.147 through 155). Support services promote economic self-sufficiency through employability services, English language instruction, and social adjustment services.

(c) Cash assistance. Refugees and asylees must be afforded an opportunity to apply for cash assistance, per 45 C.F.R. § 400.50.

Eligibility is determined according to Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) or State Supplement Payment (SSP) program rules. When the refugee or asylee does not meet TANF or SSP cash assistance eligibility requirements, an RCA application is made. When the refugee or asylee is 65 years of age and older, blind, or disabled, the refugee is referred to the Social Security Administration to apply for Supplemental Security Income .

(1) Eligibility requirements for RCA. RCA eligibility requirements are included in (A) through (H) of this paragraph, per 45 C.F.R. §§ 400.25, 400.53, 400.54, 400.59, 400.75 through 400.79, and 400.81 through 400.83.

(A) Limited eligibility period. A refugee or asylee may only receive RCA for the first 12-calendar months the refugee resides in the U.S.

(B) Refugee documentation and status requirements. Refugees and asylees must meet documentation and status requirements, per OAC 340:60-1-3.

(C) Residence requirement. The refugee or asylee must be an Oklahoma resident and not receiving cash assistance in another state. There is no durational requirement. OKDHS and contracted service providers accept the refugee's or asylee's statement that the refugee or asylee resides in Oklahoma unless it is inconsistent with other known facts.

(D) Student status. A refugee or asylee must not be a full-time student in a higher education institution.

(E) Household composition. Household composition may consist of a family unit that includes:

(i) a single adult. Adults living alone or with other adults are considered as single or separate family units; or

(ii) an adult and the adult's spouse and all minor children, 17 years of age and younger, for whom the family assumes financial responsibility.

Spouses living together must be considered in the same family unit.

(F) Income requirements. Maximum countable earned and unearned income for all family unit members must be less than the payment standard for the number of eligible members per Appendix C-1, Maximum Income, Resource, and Payment Standards, Schedule XIV.A. When income is reduced due to overpayment or garnishment recoupment, the gross income before recoupment or garnishment is counted.

(i) Reporting requirements. Family unit members are responsible for reporting all income at application and within 10-calendar days of when :

(I) a family unit member begins employment or starts receiving unearned income; or

(II) the income source, amount, or dates received changes.

(ii) Earned income. Earned income is income a family unit member receives in the form of wages, salary, commission, in-kind benefits received in lieu of wages or in conjunction with wages from an employer, or self-employment for which a person puts forth physical labor. In-kind benefits are earned income only when an employee and employer relationship is established.

(I) Earned income is not counted against the payment standard for the first six months of the 12-month eligibility period.

(II) When the person works for an employer, gross earnings for the fifth-calendar month are determined by averaging gross earnings for the most recent 30-calendar day period and converting the earnings to a monthly amount. Gross earnings from an employer are counted dollar-for-dollar against the payment standard.

(III) When the person is self-employed, gross earnings for the fifth-calendar month are determined by averaging income over the number of months the business was in operation and subtracting verified business expenses.

(iii) Unearned income. Income other than earned income is unearned income. All unearned income received during a month is counted dollar-for-dollar against the payment standard unless disregarded per (iv) of this subparagraph.

Unearned income includes, but is not limited to:

(I) dividends and interest;

(II) cash contributions;

(III) retirement, disability, or unemployment benefits;

(IV) worker's compensation;

(V) child support or alimony; or

(VI) rental income.

(iv) Income disregards. Income disregarded when determining income eligibility includes:

(I) earnings received during the first six-calendar months of the refugee's arrival in the U.S.;

(III) loans;

- (IV) money received from the sale of personal property, unless it is self-employment income;

- (XI) housing and utility assistance;
- (XII) income or resources remaining in the country of origin; or
- (XIII) matching grant benefits from a resettlement agency.

(v) Verification requirements. Income is verified at application, when a family unit member begins employment or starts receiving unearned income, and as changes occur. The verification process must be explained to the refugee or asylee at application and as new verification is needed, including what verification must be submitted by a certain date. Assistance in obtaining the required verification must be offered, when needed.

(I) Earned income may be verified by paystubs, an employer statement, or, when self-employed, business records. Self-employed persons must provide expense receipts before business expenses are subtracted from earnings. In-kind benefits' cash value is verified by an employer statement.

(II) Unearned income may be verified by an award letter, a written letter from or verbal contact with the person or agency providing the income, a check stub or a copy of a check, a court order, financial institution statements, or data exchange screens, per OAC 340:65-3-4.

(III) When the family unit fails to provide required verification or fails to ask for assistance to obtain verification, the application may be denied or cash assistance closed.

(G) Resource requirements. Refer to Appendix C-1, Schedule XIV.A(B) for the maximum allowable resource amount per family unit. Countable resources refer to real and personal property that have a monetary value and are available or can be converted to cash for current use.

(VIII) The total number of days and hours the person is expected to work must not exceed those customary to the occupation.

(IX) The refugee or asylee is not required to accept work when the position is available due to a strike, lockout, or other bona fide labor dispute or when the work is contrary to the refugee's or asylee's union membership.

 - (X) racial, ethnic, religious, sexual, physical or mental disability, or age discrimination or harassment by an employer or other employees; or
 - (XI) crisis intervention needed due to domestic violence issues.

(2) Incentive bonuses. Incentive bonuses are available to eligible individuals; however, the maximum total benefit amount, RCA plus incentive bonuses, that any family unit may receive is the payment standard amount times the 12-month eligibility period . When the maximum benefit amount is reached, the family unit is no longer eligible for RCA or incentive bonuses even when the family unit has been in the U.S. less than 12-calendar months.

(A) Early job acceptance bonus. When the refugee or asylee obtains employment within the first 150-calendar days of the U.S. arrival date , the refugee or asylee may be eligible to receive an early job acceptance bonus of up to $750 to assist the refugee with work-related expenses. To receive the bonus, the refugee or asylee must:

- (i) request the bonus within 60-calendar days of the employment start date; and

- or
- (B) abide by program terms, such as failing to:
 - (i) provide required verification;
 - (ii) keep scheduled appointments; or
 - (iii) follow employment plans.

(4) Notice requirement. Written notice is sent or provided to a recipient at least 10-calendar days before the date RCA is reduced, suspended, or closed. The contracted provider sends or provides notices to refugees.

(5) Fair hearing requirement. RCA applicants and recipients may request a fair hearing when they disagree with an adverse action. The contracted provider conducts the fair hearings statewide.

(d) Medical assistance. Refugees and asylees must be afforded an opportunity to apply for medical assistance, per 45 C.F.R. § 400.93.

(1) The refugee's eligibility for SoonerCare (Medicaid) must be determined before approving a refugee or asylee for RMA.

SoonerCare (Medicaid) eligibility is determined per OAC 317:35 rules.

(2) When the refugee or asylee is not eligible for SoonerCare (Medicaid), RMA eligibility is determined per (e) of this Section.

(3) When a refugee or asylee receiving SoonerCare (Medicaid) becomes ineligible because of earnings and has resided in the U.S. for less than 12-calendar months, the refugee or asylee is transferred to RMA for the remaining months.

(e) RMA. A refugee or asylee is not required to meet categorical relationship rules per OAC 317:35 for the first 12-calendar months from the date of entry into the U.S. Per 45 C.F.R. §§ 400.100 through 400.104, RMA eligibility requirements are listed in (1) through (5) of this subsection.

(1) Limited eligibility period. RMA is limited to the first 12-calendar months the refugee or asylee resides in the U.S. After the first 12-calendar months, the refugee or asylee is referred to the Oklahoma Health Care Authority's online enrollment process to apply for SoonerCare (Medicaid), and Medicaid rules, per OAC 317:35 apply.

(2) Refugee documentation and status requirements. Refugees and asylees must meet documentation and status requirements, per OAC 340:60-1-3.

(3) Student status. A refugee or asylee must not be a full-time student in a higher education institution unless OKDHS approves enrollment as part of the refugee's employability plan.

(4) RCA eligibility. All RCA recipients are eligible for RMA when not eligible for SoonerCare (Medicaid). However, the refugee or asylee is not required to apply for or receive RCA to qualify for RMA.

(5) Income and resource requirements. For RMA, only income and resources available on the application date are considered. Refer to OKDHS Appendix C-1, Schedule XIV for income standards per household size and the resource standard per family unit. No consideration is given to:

(A) in-kind services and shelter provided by a sponsor or a local resettlement agency;

(B) cash assistance payments; or

(C) earnings that start after RMA approval.

(f) Application processing time limit. RCA and RMA applications must be processed within 30-calendar days of the application date to be considered timely. When the application cannot be processed timely, the applicant is notified in writing of the reason for the delay and the right to request a fair hearing, per OAC 340:2-5.

(g) Food benefits. A food benefit application is completed at the same time as the RCA and RMA application and processed using food benefit eligibility rules, per OAC 340:50.

340:61-1-2. Purpose, legal basis, and fund availability

(a) Purpose. The purpose of this Chapter is to describe the rules governing the Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) Repatriation Program (RP).

(b) Legal basis. The legal basis of the United States (U.S.) RP was established in 1935 by Section 1113 of Title XI of the Social Security Act (Section 1113 of Title 42 of the United States Code) to provide temporary assistance to U.S. citizens and their dependents who the U.S. Department of State identifies as having returned, or been brought from a foreign country to the U.S. because of destitution, illness, war, threat of war, or a similar crisis, and are without available resources to meet their needs. The total amount of temporary assistance provided under this Section must not exceed $1,000,000 during any fiscal year except fiscal year 2010.

(c) Program management and funding. The Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), Office of Human Services Emergency Preparedness and Response (OHSEPR) manages this program. The RP is administered by the state in which the repatriated citizen chooses to relocate, with up to 100 percent reimbursement claimed from federal funds.

(d) Non-emergency repatriation. Non-emergency repatriation for individuals and their dependents is coordinated by OKDHS per agreement dated October 9, 1980 with the DHHS Social Security Administration Office of Family Assistance.

[Source: Added at 30 Ok Reg 1356, eff 7-1-13 ; Amended at 39 Ok Reg 1784, eff 9-15-22]

340:61-1-3. Program eligibility and responsibilities

(a) Applicant eligibility. The Office of Human Services Emergency Preparedness and Response (OHSEPR) or contracted agency staff determines the repatriated individual's eligibility for the Repatriation Program (RP). To determine RP eligibility, it is necessary to assess the repatriate's available resources and to identify the services or assistance the repatriate receives or is able to receive.

(1) Temporary assistance is not an entitlement.

(2) The RP is voluntary and the repatriate may refuse to accept services.

(3) The repatriate may be eligible for temporary assistance for up to 90-calendar days from the date the repatriate re-enters the United States (U.S.) . The temporary assistance is considered a loan and the repatriate must sign a repayment agreement before receiving the assistance.

(4) Minors and adults found not competent to make decisions are not obligated to sign a repayment agreement.

(5) The repatriate is not eligible for repatriation assistance when he or she has access to necessary services or assistance through alternative resources.

(6) Certain temporary assistance may be furnished after the 90-calendar day period ends when the:

(A) repatriate submits an extension request with supporting documentation included prior to the end of the 90-calendar day eligibility period; and

(B) OHSEPR finds that the circumstances involved necessitate or justify furnishing such assistance beyond the 90-calendar day limit.

(7) The repatriate must notify the repatriation coordinator of address changes during the time period the repatriation case is open. The repatriate is expected to continue to notify OHSEPR of address changes after case closure until the repatriation loan is paid in full.

(8) The repatriate's case may be closed before the 90-calendar day period expires when the:

(A) repatriate's case contains an unaccompanied child and the child enters foster care upon arrival in the U.S. or is released to a parent or relative not requesting services;

(B) repatriate becomes self-sufficient and has access to necessary benefits, housing, and other services and no longer needs the temporary assistance;

(C) OHSEPR discovers the repatriate has access to other income sources;

(D) repatriate dies upon arrival in the U.S.; or

(E) repatriate, who was destitute or without available resources in the foreign country, is able to regain access to financial resources such as Social Security or Supplemental Security Income benefits or is staying in a hospital or nursing facility.

(b) Referral information packet. OHSEPR emails a referral information packet to the Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS), Adult and Family Services (AFS) Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Unit for processing. The referral information packet contains documents for the repatriate and OKDHS. Items in the packet include:

(1) a welcome letter that informs the repatriate:

(A) any funds issued are considered a loan that must be repaid by the repatriate;

(B) upon request, OKDHS or other appropriate agency staff explains the documents included in the welcome packet;

(C) OKDHS or other appropriate agency staff refers the repatriate for services available within the community or gives the repatriate information about available services;

and

(D) when needed and requested, the repatriation coordinator coordinates other service requests for the repatriate;

- (2) a welcome letter for the State;
- (3) the repatriate's rights and obligations;
- (4) a repatriation brochure;
- (5) documents requiring the repatriate's signature prior to funds being issued;
- (6) an International Social Services-USA contact list;
- (7) assessment information regarding the repatriate and his or her service needs; and
- (8) procedural information and sample letters for OKDHS staff.

(c) OKDHS responsibilities regarding the RP. Upon receipt of the referral information packet, the repatriation coordinator in the OKDHS AFS TANF Unit is responsible for:

- (1) confirming the repatriate's arrival date and time and arranging for OKDHS or other appropriate agency staff to meet the repatriate at the airport;
- (2) being the contact person for the repatriate and OHSEPR or its contracted agency staff;
- (3) coordinating services for the repatriate during the 90-calendar day temporary assistance period;
- (4) coordinating form and document completion necessary to issue funds and receive reimbursement from the OHSEPR or its contracted agency;
- (5) monitoring the repatriate's case at different intervals to ensure the repatriate continues to meet eligibility requirements and determine if further assistance is needed;
- (6) providing periodic updates regarding the repatriate to OHSEPR or its contracted agency staff;
- (7) submitting extension requests as quickly as possible;
- (8) maintaining all records concerning the repatriate for at least three years from the date the final expenditure report is submitted; and
- (9) upon case closure, completing a survey and submitting a closing summary to OHSEPR that includes information about the funds expended and services provided to the repatriate and the repatriate's current address.

340:61-1-4. Repatriation Program (RP) services provisions

(a) Temporary assistance. The RP defines temporary assistance as cash payments, medical care that includes counseling, temporary or permanent housing, transportation, and other goods and services necessary for the repatriate's health or welfare.

- (1) All funds are issued as a loan that must be repaid to the United States Government.

(2) The repatriate may request a waiver or repayment deferral for funds expended on his or her behalf within 30-calendar days of receiving a demand for payment letter from the Office of Human Services Emergency Preparedness and Response (OHSEPR) or its contracted agency. The letter advises the repatriate who to contact to request the waiver or repayment deferral.

(b) Cash assistance. The repatriate is eligible to receive a cash assistance loan equivalent to three months of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) for the same family size as shown on Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) Appendix C-1, Maximum Income, Resource, and Payment Standards, Schedule IX. The cash assistance is issued after the repatriate signs the repayment agreement.

(c) Social services. Upon receipt of the information referral packet, the Adult and Family Services (AFS) repatriation coordinator reviews the assessment information provided regarding the repatriate and his or her dependents to determine the repatriate's identified social service needs.

(1) In addition to or instead of cash assistance, the assessment information may indicate the repatriate needs other types of temporary assistance.

(2) The repatriation coordinator and local county staff develop a tentative plan to meet the repatriate's social service needs prior to the repatriate's arrival. This plan is presented to the repatriate at the airport. The repatriate is free to accept or reject any part of the service plan. Refer to Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:61-1-3 regarding minors and mentally incompetent adults.

(3) The service plan includes helping the repatriate apply for all public assistance he or she appears eligible to receive including programs administered by OKDHS and other local agencies. RP funds are not expended when the services are available free of charge.

(A) Public assistance benefit programs administered by AFS include TANF, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program food benefits, Child Care Subsidy Program, and SoonerCare (Medicaid) medical benefits.

(B) Depending on the repatriate's circumstances, he or she may also be eligible for services administered by other divisions within OKDHS including the Developmental Disability Services, Community Living, Aging and Protective Services, and Child Support Services.

(C) Public assistance available through other local agencies may include housing assistance, benefits from the Social Security Administration, food banks, help finding a job, transportation, clothing closets, or medical clinics.

(4) OKDHS or other appropriate agency staff meeting the repatriate at the airport presents all available options to the repatriate prior to signing a repayment agreement. This allows the repatriate to make an informed decision about accepting an RP loan.

(d) Medical assistance. When the repatriate needs immediate medical attention, the repatriation coordinator locates a medical provider willing to treat the repatriate upon arrival. OHSEPR reimburses the medical provider reasonable, allowable, and allocable expenses that are not covered by an outside source such as insurance or SoonerCare (Medicaid).

(a) Purpose. The purpose of this Chapter is to describe rules for the comprehensive management of Adult and Family Services (AFS) cases.

(b) Legal basis. Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) maintains the confidentiality of all applications, information, and records concerning applicants and recipients, per the Oklahoma Social Security Act located in Sections 161-260 of Title 56 of the Oklahoma Statutes (56 O.S. §§ 161-260) and the Federal Social Security Act.

(ii) responsible for:

(I) taking reasonable precautions to ensure the confidentiality and proper use of client case information; and

(II) ensuring employees know OKDHS rules regarding safeguarding client case information and when and to whom information may be released.

(B) Per OKDHS:2-1-301, alternate work locations must be capable of safeguarding case information. When an alternate work location does not meet safeguarding standards, case information is not received, stored, or processed at that location.

(C) Practices for safeguarding information include:

- (i) secure records storage in locked buildings, rooms, and containers;
- (ii) securely storing OKDHS-owned electronic equipment;

- (vii) all data items available on computer screens. Disclosure to any unauthorized person is a federal and state regulation violation. Authorized persons are:

- (I) the client;
- (II) the client's authorized representative;
- (III) OKDHS employees;
- (IV) authorized volunteers; and
- (V) other agencies' employees with a contract or agreement that allows access to specific data.

(3) Safeguarding federal tax information (FTI). Per Section 6103 of Title 26 of the United States Code (26 U.S.C. § 6103), OKDHS safeguards and restricts access to FTI to persons whose duties or responsibilities require access.

(A) FTI information that is safeguarded includes:

- (i) the client's name;
- (ii) the client's Social Security number;
- (iii) Internal Revenue Service (IRS) reporting firm, company, and political subdivision;
- (iv) state agency account number;
- (v) income type; and
- (vi) the amount of income or resources.

(B) AFS restricts FTI access to designated AFS FTI specialists who complete a favorably adjudicated suitability or security background investigation prior to handling FTI and annually thereafter. At a minimum, the background investigation must be at a tier-two level as designated by federal investigative standards and include:

- (i) the results of a Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) fingerprint check using Form FD-258, FBI Applicant Fingerprint Card, from the state identification bureau. In Oklahoma, the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation Criminal Identification Section is the agency authorized to conduct FBI fingerprinting. The fingerprint results check the employee's criminal history in all 50 states;
- (ii) a check of local law enforcement agencies where the employee lived, worked, or attended school within the last five years to identify trends of misbehavior and any identified arrests;
- (iii) validating the employee's identity and eligibility to legally work in the United States (U.S.). New employees must complete the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification, and be processed through E-Verify within three-business days of completing the form to assist with verifying the employee's employment status and the documents provided with Form I-9; and
- (iv) completing another background investigation every five years following the previous background investigation's completion.

(C) AFS Information Security (IS) manager reviews a person's background investigation to determine if AFS should hire a job seeker, discipline or terminate an existing employee, and permit or terminate access to FTI. To evaluate past criminal offenses, felonies and misdemeanors, the AFS IS manager considers:

- (i) whether OKDHS learned about the offense during the application or a subsequent reinvestigation;

- (ii) what the position's duties and FTI access requirements are;
- (iii) how much time has passed without a subsequent charge or conviction relating to a new offense;
- (iv) whether the offender complied or is complying with any probation or parole terms;
- (v) whether the offender has paid restitution; and
- (vi) how any extenuating circumstances the offender offers mitigate the offense.

(D) Information safeguarding practices include:

- (i) securing FTI, such as any written, typed, photocopied, or printed information from the Income Eligibility Verification System-Internal Revenue Service (IEVS-IRS), and Beneficiary and Earnings Data Exchange System (BENDEX) in a storage area, such as in a locked desk or file cabinet;
- (ii) not viewing or storing FTI on any electronic device that is not OKDHS or state of Oklahoma property;
- (iii) not printing or maintaining FTI in a non-electronic format;
- (iv) not emailing FTI;
- (v) not faxing FTI;
- (vi) not sharing FTI in unapproved applications, such as Microsoft Office 365 applications including, but not limited to, Outlook, Yammer, Teams, SharePoint, OneDrive, and Planner; and
- (vii) not bypassing access controls to enter a restricted area that contains FTI.

(E) FTI disclosure in violation of the guidelines specified in IRS Publication 1075, is a felony punishable by a fine in an amount not exceeding $5,000 or imprisonment of not more than five years, or both, together with the prosecution costs. Further, an AFS FTI specialist may lose access to FTI and be subject to disciplinary action, per OKDHS:2-1-7, when the specialist:

- (i) does not properly safeguard FTI;
- (ii) does not complete or pass the annual favorably adjudicated suitability or security background investigation; or
- (iii) releases FTI to an unauthorized person(s), per 26 U.S.C. § 7213.

(4) Nature of information to be made available. General information not identified with any particular person or group of persons, such as total expenditures made, number of recipients, and other statistical information and social data contained in reports or surveys do not fall within the material to be safeguarded.

(A) Requested information is released to representatives of other agencies that are authorized by federal law or Oklahoma Statutes to have the information. Information may be released to other agencies only when they give assurance that the:

- (i) confidential character of the information is preserved;
- (ii) information is used only for purposes related to administering the assistance program and the inquiring agency's functionality; and
- (iii) protection standards their agency establishes are equal to those OKDHS establishes, regarding both how their employees use the information and their protective procedures provisions.

(B) Client addresses may be disclosed to federal, state, and local law enforcement officers who furnish the client's name, Social Security number, and notify OKDHS that the location or apprehension of the client is within their official duties and that the client is:

- (i) a fugitive felon who is fleeing to avoid prosecution, custody, or confinement after conviction; or
- (ii) violating a probation or parole condition.

(C) The days and hours a child is approved for the Child Care Subsidy Program may be disclosed to a child care provider.

(D) Upon written request, information used to establish eligibility that is not otherwise legally protected is made available to the client or the client's representative during normal business hours. Confidential information, including the names of persons who have disclosed information about the client without the client's knowledge, and the nature or status of pending criminal prosecutions, is withheld.

(E) Information the employee obtains from collateral sources, other than public records or the employee's written evaluation of the client's situation, is not made available to the client or to any other person without the consent of the person who gave the information.

(F) Prior to a fair hearing, the designated OKDHS field employee is responsible for providing the client with a copy of the completed hearing summary and documents or other records the employee plans to present at the hearing.

(5) Information release at client request. Upon the client's, or the client representative's, written request, OKDHS may release client-provided information to the client or the authorized representative. When an OKDHS employee receives a written inquiry from an interested person, another agency, or the courts, and the client's written permission accompanies the inquiry, the employee may furnish the information when the written release specifies what client-provided information to release and to whom it may be released.

(6) Information release to courts. OKDHS employees may only release case information about the client in court proceedings upon subpoena, except upon a court official's request in cases of child abandonment and desertion, child neglect, or restitution when OKDHS referred such cases to the court. In these situations, OKDHS employees' testimony is limited to material affecting the administration of public assistance law except when participating in a case the client or the client's representative requested and in which the client's personal interests are at stake.

(A) When a court subpoenas an OKDHS employee to give testimony based upon OKDHS records, the field manager confers with OKDHS Legal Services (LS) regarding the proper way to convey to the court the confidential character of information made available to OKDHS in the process of administering assistance and OKDHS's duty, per 43A O.S. § 10-110, to protect its records.

(B) When there is reason to believe the court will not respect the confidential character of OKDHS records, the field manager communicates immediately with OKDHS LS to determine the best course of action to take.

(7) Information release to the District Attorney (DA).

OKDHS employees may release information to the DA as necessary, to carry out OKDHS rules regarding child support pursuit from a non-custodial parent. When child support pursuit is required in order for a client to receive Temporary Assistance for Needy Families benefits or SoonerCare (Medicaid), AFS employees inform the client of this requirement.

(8) Medical information release. Medical information OKDHS or the Oklahoma Health Care Authority pays for may be released at the request of the person to whom it pertains, as well as to another agency to which the person applied for services with the objective to protect or advance the person's welfare. There is nothing in federal law or Oklahoma Statutes to prevent a physician from releasing medical information to the physician's patient or a patient's authorized representative. In such instances, the physician-patient relationship governs the physician.

(A) OKDHS LS is responsible for determining if the requested medical information may be released under federal regulations and OKDHS rules.

(B) AFS employees do not release information obtained from the U. S. Department of Veterans Affairs or from the Social Security Administration to anyone outside of OKDHS.

(C) When a client requests a fair hearing on a medical decision, all medical records or reports considered in establishing a medical decision are provided to the client or the client's authorized representative at a reasonable

(a) Record destruction. Quarterly, the Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) Records Management Coordinator sends an administrative memorandum authorizing county offices to pull cases that have been inactive for three years and send them to the OKDHS Supply Warehouse for destruction. Before sending the memorandum, the OKDHS Records Center receives destruction authorization from the State Records Administrator, per Section 204 of Title 67 of the Oklahoma Statutes (67 O.S. § 204), and notification from the appropriate federal agency that the audit for that year was completed.

(b) Information and referral only destruction. The county office may destroy Information and referral only material concerning a particular person when there has been no activity regarding the person for three calendar years. Special authorization from the OKDHS Records Management Coordinator is not required prior to destroying this material, per 67 O.S. § 211.

(b) Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) responsibilities. When OKDHS operates as a federal award pass-through entity, per 31 U.S.C. § 7502(f)(2), OKDHS must:

- (1) provide its federal award subrecipients with the federal requirements that govern the award's use and the program name and any identifying numbers from which such assistance is derived;
- (2) supply the OKDHS Office of Inspector General with an updated list of all subrecipients quarterly;
- (3) monitor the award's use through site visits, limited scope inspections, and other means;

- (4) review the audits to ensure prompt and appropriate corrective action occurred with respect to audit findings; and
- (5) require each subrecipient to allow any OKDHS independent auditor access to the subrecipient's records and financial statements.

SUBCHAPTER 3. ELIGIBILITY FOR BENEFITS

340:65-3-1. Eligibility determination

(a) Eligibility determination. The eligibility determination process includes the applicant filing a signed application, the worker certifying or denying benefits, and all subsequent activities required to receive continuous benefits. The applicant has the right and responsibility to participate in the eligibility determination process and is relied on as the first source of information.

(1) Someone acting on the applicant's behalf, such as an authorized representative or a person with power-of-attorney, may complete the application for all programs except for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF). The applicant must complete and sign a TANF application.

(2) For another person to apply on the applicant's behalf, the applicant must designate the person as the authorized representative on the signed application or the person provides a completed Form 08MP008E, Authorized Representative Request, or a statement signed by the applicant giving the person permission to act on his or her behalf. The SoonerCare (Medicaid) programs allow others to apply for the applicant without a written designation.

(b) Filing an application. A household must complete an application to apply for the Child Care Subsidy Program, Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP), SoonerCare (Medicaid) Program, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), State Supplemental Payment (SSP), TANF, or Diversion Assistance (DA). The applicant may request one or more benefits on the same application except for LIHEAP because it is not an ongoing benefit.

(1) The applicant may apply for benefits online , with a worker in an Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) office or an embedded work location, or by downloading a paper application and bringing or mailing or faxing it to an OKDHS office or an embedded work location. .

(3) An applicant who is:

(A) eligible for Medicare signs the application using the name on his or her Medicare Health Insurance Benefits (HIB) card; or

(B) not eligible for Medicare signs the application using the name shown on his or her Social Security card.

(d) Interview requirements. Interview requirements vary by program.

(1) Per Section 206.10 of Title 45 of the Code of Regulations, OKDHS staff must complete a face-to-face TANF certification renewal interview every 12 months. The face-to-face interview may occur in the OKDHS office, at a home visit, or through a virtual video conference.

(2) The applicant must complete a phone or face-to-face interview that may be a virtual video conference interview, for the:

(G) TANF, except for the certification renewal every 12 months.

(3) An interview is not required when a person applies for:

(A) LIHEAP; or

(B) SoonerCare (Medicaid), when the Oklahoma Health Care Authority is responsible for determining eligibility, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 317:35-5-63.

(e) Worker responsibilities. During the eligibility determination process, the worker is responsible for:

(1) informing the applicant of the:

(A) OKDHS responsibility for reaching a decision and notifying the applicant of eligibility or ineligibility within the appropriate time limits, per OAC 340:65-3-5;

(B) applicant's right to request a fair hearing and obtain representation from any person the applicant chooses, per OAC 340:2-5. The applicant may request a fair hearing when there is a:

- (i) delay beyond the established time limits for determining eligibility, per OAC 340:65-3-5; or
- (ii) disagreement with any action taken on the case;

- (C) applicant's legal responsibility to report all facts pertinent to eligibility;
- (D) types of changes the applicant must report within 10-calendar days;
- (E) penalty for failing to report changes;
- (F) program requirements and information needed to establish eligibility for each program for which the applicant applied. The worker uses Form 08AD092E, Client Contact and Information Request, to request verification and gives the applicant at least 10-calendar days to comply, per OAC 340:65-3-2.1;
- (G) type of assistance OKDHS provides in establishing eligibility;
- (H) permission the applicant gives OKDHS to obtain information from sources other than the applicant by signing the application; and
- (I) applicant's responsibility to cooperate with federal and state officials when his or her case is selected for a Quality Control review;

(2) collecting information necessary for determining the applicant's initial and continuing eligibility. Information is verified when not questionable or inconsistent with known facts, and the information provider is the primary source of the information. Unless questionable, the worker accepts, without further verification, the:

- (A) applicant's statement concerning:
 - (i) residency;
 - (ii) relationship;
 - (iii) age;
 - (iv) living in the home of a relative payee;
 - (v) a minor parent living in the home of a relative;

 - (iii) Unemployment Insurance Benefits (UIB), from the Oklahoma Employment Security Commission; and

- (6) denying the application when sufficient facts are available to substantiate ineligibility or the applicant fails to cooperate in determining eligibility.

(f) SSN requirement. The applicant must provide a verifiable SSN or a pending SSN application for every person requesting food benefits, SSP, SSI-DCP, LIHEAP, or TANF benefits. The requirement for a verifiable SSN also applies to all persons whose needs are included for SoonerCare (Medicaid) benefits, except newborn children deemed eligible, per OAC 317:35-6-60, and undocumented aliens requesting emergency medical services, per OAC 317:35-5-25.

(1) The applicant's statement regarding each household member's SSN is sufficient unless the information is inconsistent or other facts or observations cause the worker to question the statement.

(A) The OKDHS worker refers persons for whom an SSN is required, but not available, to the appropriate SSA office for SSN enumeration using Form 08AD101E, SSN Enumeration Referral. The return of Form 08AD101E to OKDHS validates the application(s) or indicates which persons have not provided SSA-appropriate original evidence of age, identity, and citizenship.

(B) Parents of newborns who participate in Enumeration at Birth receive Form SSA-2853-OP3, Message From Social Security, from hospital personnel. This receipt form is verification the newborn was enumerated at birth.

(2) When the person fails or refuses to furnish or to apply for an SSN, the worker takes action per (A) and (B) of this paragraph.

(A) For TANF purposes, the person's needs are included; however, the worker imposes a 25 percent payment standard reduction penalty until an application for or an SSN is provided.

(B) For SNAP, LIHEAP, and SoonerCare (Medicaid) purposes, only the person's needs for whom an SSN is not provided or applied for are not included.

(g) Citizenship requirement. All persons applying for federal or state public assistance benefits, such as Child Care Subsidy, SNAP food benefits, LIHEAP, SoonerCare (Medicaid), SSP, or TANF must declare the citizenship or alien status for each household member applying for such benefits on the application or benefit renewal. When the payee requests benefits for additional household members between application and benefit renewal, the payee completes and signs Form 08MP022E, Declaration of Citizenship Status, to declare the citizenship or alien status of the additional household members. Refer to OAC 317:35-5-25 for citizenship and alien status requirements for persons applying for SoonerCare (Medicaid) benefits.

- (1) When the applicant declares that some or all the household members applying for benefits are aliens, the worker follows SAVE procedures, per OAC 340:65-3-4, to determine the validity of documents provided to verify legal alien status.
- (2) The worker follows each program's rules regarding citizenship and alien status requirements to determine benefit eligibility, per:
 - (A) OAC 340:40-7-5 for Child Care Subsidy benefits;
 - (B) OAC 340:50-5-67 for SNAP food benefits;
 - (C) OAC 340:20-1-8, 340:20-1-10, and 340:50-5-67 for LIHEAP;
 - (D) OAC 317:35-5-25 for SSP; and
 - (E) OAC 340:10-15-1 for TANF.
- (3) The citizenship requirements per (g)(3)(A) through (C) and (g)(4) of this Section are pursuant to Section 71 of Title 56 of the Oklahoma Statutes (56 O.S. § 71) and 74 O.S. § 20j.
 - (A) Lawful status in the United States (U.S.) is verified when:
 - (i) the person applying for benefits provides an SSN or SSA completed Form 08AD101E indicating SSA accepted the person's SSN application; and
 - (ii) OKDHS, through the automated SSN enumeration data exchange transaction with SSA, is able to verify the person's SSN.
 - (B) Prior to receiving benefits, when OKDHS is unable to verify the SSN with SSA for a person 14 years of age or older, the person must provide a:
 - (i) signed and notarized Form 08MP005E, Citizenship Affidavit, attesting to his or her U.S. citizenship or alien status; or
 - (ii) U.S. birth certificate, U.S. passport, a Certificate of Naturalization or other acceptable document, per OAC 317:35-5-25 to verify lawful status.
 - (C) When the person fails or refuses to provide a signed and notarized Form 08MP005E or one of the documents per (g)(3)B(ii) of this Section, the worker denies or closes benefits for that person.
- (4) The application, benefit renewal, and Form 08MP022E contain a statement informing the applicant that OKDHS reports fraudulent claims of citizenship or lawful alien status to the U.S. Attorney and, when a fraudulent claim is made, the person may be subject to criminal prosecution.
- (5) When the worker discovers a person who signed Form 08MP005E attesting to U.S. citizenship or legal alien status made a false claim:
 - (A) the worker sends a memo and supporting documentation to the appropriate AFS Program. The memo must include:

- (i) the time frame, benefit type, and amount the person fraudulently applied for or obtained; and
 - (ii) how the worker discovered the claim was false;
- (B) AFS Program staff, in consultation with Legal Services (LS) staff, reviews the memo and supporting documentation to determine if the person made a false claim. LS staff files a complaint with the U.S. Attorney for the applicable district based upon the venue in which the affidavit was executed when appropriate.

(h) Eligibility determination. The worker determines eligibility after the applicant or other authorized person signs the application, completes an interview, when required, and provides required proof.

340:65-3-2. Definitions

The following words and terms when used in this Subchapter shall have the following meanings, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

"Applicant" means a person who directly or through a person acting responsibly on the applicant's behalf, requests a formal eligibility determination for one or more programs administered by Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) Adult and Family Services .

"Application process" means the process by which the applicant requests benefits, completes program requirements, and provides necessary proof, and the worker determines eligibility. Any person who fraudulently represents facts, acts without authority, or exceeds his or her authority to perform a transaction may be prosecuted under all applicable criminal and civil laws.

"Client" means a person applying for or receiving services, cash assistance, or other benefits.

"Date of application" means:

(A) the Child Care Subsidy Program does not define the application date, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:40-3-1.

(i) "Request date" is the date the applicant requests subsidized child care benefits verbally or in writing.

(ii) "Certification date" is the date the applicant or the applicant's authorized representative completes the child care interview and provides all necessary verification to the OKDHS office, including the name of the child care provider the client chooses to use;

(B) for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) food benefits, SoonerCare (Medicaid), State Supplemental Payment (SSP), and the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP), the application date is the date the applicant or a person acting on the applicant's behalf signs the application.

(i) When the application is initiated outside of OKDHS, the application date is the date the application is stamped in the OKDHS office or received electronically .

(ii) Receipt of Form 08MA005E, Notification of Needed Medical Services, preserves the date of application for SoonerCare (Medicaid) eligibility groups for which OKDHS is responsible for determining eligibility, per OAC 317:35-5-63;

(C) when OKDHS staff receives a verbal request prior to the signature date on the application, staff enters the verbal request date in red above the signature date. The verbal request date is the application date for TANF, SSP, and SoonerCare (Medicaid) eligibility groups for which OKDHS determines eligibility.

(i) Per OAC 340:50-3-1, a verbal request for food benefits does not preserve the application date unless the applicant informs staff a hardship exists that prevents him or her from signing a request on that date. A hardship may exist when the applicant states no one can come to an OKDHS office because of a situation beyond the applicant's control, such as illness, disability, or lack of transportation; and the applicant is unable to submit the application online or by phoning an OKDHS office or the phone number on the www.okdhslive.org website to obtain help in submitting the application.

(ii) A verbal request for LIHEAP does not preserve the application date as funding for the program is limited.

(iii) The verbal request date preserves the application date only when the applicant signs the application within 30-calendar days.

(I) When the applicant fails to sign the application within 30-calendar days, no application request is made.

(II) When the applicant subsequently contacts OKDHS after 30-calendar days and completes the application process, the application date is the date the applicant completes and signs the application; and

(D) when the applicant comes to an OKDHS office to request benefits and cannot stay to complete the application with a worker or no appointment times are available that day, the applicant must submit a completed and signed Form 08MP001E, Request for Benefits, to preserve the application date. When the applicant does not leave a completed and signed Form 08MP001E, an application date is not preserved .

"Inquiry" means a request for information but does not imply a request for assistance.

"Payee" means the person in the household in whose name benefits are issued. The person considered the payee varies depending on the requested programs. The payee may or may not be included in the benefit.

(A) For the Child Care Subsidy Program, the payee must be the person responsible for the child for whom benefits are requested. The payee is not required to be related to the child. When the parent of the child is in the home, the parent is the payee, per OAC 340:40-3-1(a)(2).

(B) For the TANF Program, the payee must have a certain degree of relationship to the child for whom benefits are requested, per OAC 340:10-3-56 and 340:10-9-1.

(C) For SNAP, the payee may be any responsible adult living in the home, per OAC 340:50-3-1.

(D) For the SoonerCare (Medicaid) Program, the payee is the person for whom benefits are requested or the person responsible for the minor child for whom benefits are requested. The payee is not required to be related to the child. When the parent of the child is in the home, the parent must be the payee.

(E) For the SSP Program, the payee is the person for whom benefits are requested. When the person for whom benefits are requested is a minor child, the child is coded as a payee with a guardian.

(F) For LIHEAP, the payee may be any responsible adult living in the home. When the household receives other benefits, the payee is the same person shown as payee for the other benefits.

"Recipient" means a person who receives services, cash assistance, or other benefits.

340:65-3-2.1. Counting days for providing proof, interview dates, and application time limits

When counting days for providing proof, interview dates, and application time limits, the worker does not count the first day in the time period. The worker counts the last day in the time period unless Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) is not open for business on that date. When OKDHS is not open on the last day of the time period, the client has until the next business day to comply with eligibility requirements.

(1) Providing proof. When proof is required to determine eligibility, the worker gives the client at least 10-calendar days to provide it. The worker assists the client in obtaining necessary proof, when requested. The worker's assistance may range from explaining how or where to obtain proof to obtaining the proof when the client is unable to do so. The worker is not required to obtain proof for a client who is able, but unwilling to do so.

(2) Interview . OKDHS offers all applicants for Child Care Subsidy, Soonercare (Medicaid), Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), and Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) the right to interview at any time during operating hours. The client must contact OKDHS via telephone or in person unless the household qualifies for an interview waiver or the program does not require an interview.

(A) When the client must interview and does not interview while submitting the application, the worker calls the household to conduct an on demand interview within two-calendar days of the application date.

(i) When the client answers, the worker offers to complete the interview.

(ii) When the client does not answer or refuses to interview, OKDHS sends Form 08AD091E, Interview Notice, to inform the client of the interview requirement.

(B) When the client does not interview within 10-calendar days of the application date, the worker again calls the household to conduct an on demand interview.

(i) When the client answers, the worker offers to complete the interview .

(ii) When the client does not answer or refuses to interview, the worker:

(I) denies a Child Care Subsidy, Soonercare (Medicaid), or TANF application; and

(II) uses the FDENY transaction with reason "59" for a SNAP application.

(C) The OKDHS worker does not schedule an interview unless the applicant refuses the immediate interview options and requests a scheduled interview.

(D) The worker uses Form 08AD092E, Client Contact and Information Request, when a scheduled interview is necessary.

(3) Application time limits. Refer to Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:65-3-5 for application processing time limits. To be timely, the worker must certify or deny an application:

(A) no later than the last business day of the time limit; or

(B) when OKDHS is closed on the last day of the time limit, the next open business day.

340:65-3-4. Investigation of eligibility conditions and services planning

The worker is responsible for collecting information necessary to determine the client's benefit eligibility and address the client's social service needs. When proof is necessary to determine eligibility, the worker uses sources described in this Section.

(1) Home visits. Home visits are sometimes necessary for Adult and Family Services (AFS) staff to provide services and benefits and promote safety and stability for families. Workers plan all home visits with the client in advance.

(A) AFS staff makes home visits or other client contacts during normal work hours whenever possible. Home visits may occur outside of normal business hours when the client's needs dictate and a supervisor, field manager, or field manager's designee approves the home visit.

(B) The AFS worker makes a home visit when:

- (i) he or she is unable to obtain necessary documentation from other sources;
- (ii) a face-to-face interview is required and an office visit creates a hardship for the household;
- (iii) a Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) benefit closes due to failure to cooperate, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:10-2-2;
- (iv) it is the best method to complete or review the TANF employability plan;
- (v) the client needs protective services ; or
- (vi) the worker deems it necessary for another reason and the supervisor concurs.

(2) Collateral contact. A collateral contact is a person outside of the household that confirms the household's circumstances. The collateral contact may occur in person or over the phone.

(A) A collateral contact is not restricted to a particular person, but may be anyone able to provide an accurate third party confirmation of the household's circumstances. Examples of acceptable collateral contacts are:

- (i) employers;
- (ii) agencies, businesses, or community action groups;
- (iii) migrant service agencies;
- (iv) the household's neighbors ;
- (v) landlords; or
- (vi) other persons outside of the household with knowledge of the household's circumstances.

(B) The client's signature on the application or renewal authorizes the worker to secure the required information or verification from collateral contacts. When the collateral contact requires additional written authorization before supplying information to Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) the client or the affected adult household member signs Form 08AD060E, Request for Release of Information, to give authorization.

(C) The worker informs the person contacted for information how OKDHS plans to use the requested information and why OKDHS needs it .

- (i) When the collateral contact requests anonymity, the worker does not record the person's name in the case record or reveal the person's name to the client.
- (ii) When the collateral contact requests anonymity, the worker may not use information obtained from the collateral contact to reduce or close benefits unless the worker is able to verify the information by another source.

(D) When the collateral contact provides information related to the client's eligibility that conflicts with information the client provides, the worker gives the client the opportunity to resolve the inconsistency.

(3) Public records. The worker may obtain information from public records that affects the person's eligibility without obtaining the person's consent.

(4) Data exchange. Automated data exchange provides household members' benefit status, wages, income, taxes, Social Security numbers, incarceration status, current address, and death information to OKDHS. Data matches allow eligibility staff to consult this information when making an eligibility decision during an application or renewal or to identify unreported changes . Refer to OAC 340:65-1-2 for information regarding practices for safeguarding case information and raw tax data.

The worker :

(A) reviews data exchange information at application and eligibility renewal. Available data exchange information screens include:

- (i) Beneficiary and Earnings Data Exchange System (BENDEX);
 - (ii) Buy-In Data Exchange (BIL);
 - (iii) New Hire Employee lists (including the State New Hire (SNH) and National New Hire (NNH) list;
 - (iv) Social Security Administration (SSA) Death Master File Data Exchange (DOD);
 - (v) SSA Prisoner Data Exchange (PRS);
 - (vi) Social Security Number (SSN) Verification - SSN Enumeration;
 - (vii) Supplemental Security Income (SSI)/State Data Exchange System (SDX);
 - (viii) Unemployment compensation (UIB);
 - (ix) Unearned Income Eligibility Verification System (IEVS) income report (IEVS-IRS) and resource data from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS); and
 - (x) Wage Data Exchange; and
- (B) initiates appropriate queries; and
- (C) resolves data exchange discrepancy messages within:
- (i) "verified upon receipt" processing timeframes;
 - (ii) the unclear information timeframes per 340:50-9-5(i) for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) cases; and
 - (iii) 45-calendar days of the date on the data exchange inquiry screen.

(5) Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlement (SAVE). All applicants and recipients of the TANF, SoonerCare (Medicaid), SNAP, Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program, State Supplemental Payment, and Child Care Subsidy Program benefits are required to declare their citizenship status. Persons who declare themselves or their minor child non-citizens must present documentation of their legal alien status from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) or other acceptable source. The status, as determined from the documentation, must be verified through the USCIS Alien Status Verification Index (ASVI).

(6) Workers' compensation. AFS staff reviews copies of all Workers' Compensation Commission documents by matching SSNs with OKDHS records. Any court action that appears to potentially impact eligibility is forwarded to the applicable OKDHS office for clearance.

(7) Birth verification. For persons born in Oklahoma, OKDHS has an agreement with the Oklahoma State Department of Health to electronically verify birth for persons with an open SoonerCare (Medicaid) benefit.

(8) Food stamp disqualification (FSD). When a client is disqualified for SNAP food benefits due to fraud, the FSD screen shows the date the disqualification began and the length of the disqualification period.

(9) Asset Verification System (AVS). Per Section 1396w of Title 42 of the United States Code, an applicant or recipient, a spouse, if applicable, a parent or guardian, or other person whose resources or assets OKDHS must verify for Soonercare (Medicaid) for a person who relates to the aged, blind, or disabled (ABD) categories must authorize OKDHS to access their financial assets and resources through an AVS.

(A) Before entering a person's information into AVS, the worker obtains a signed authorization using Form 08MP001E, Rights, Responsibilities, and Signature for Benefits, an online application, or Form 08MA014E, Asset Verification System Authorization, before entering a person's information into AVS.

(B) When asking for an AVS authorization, the worker explains the authorization remains effective until:

- (i) OKDHS denies or closes the ABD Soonercare (Medicaid) application; or
- (ii) the signer notifies OKDHS in writing that the signer wishes to revoke the authorization.

(C) When a person who must sign refuses, the worker denies or closes the ABD Soonercare (Medicaid).

340:65-3-5. Application process

The worker certifies or denies applications received online or in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) offices within time limits specified in (1) of this Section.

(1) Application processing time limits. OKDHS workers process applications within program specific time limits. Refer to Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:65-3-2.1, when the time limit's last day occurs on a day OKDHS is not open for business. The time limits are:

(A) Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) - 30-calendar days;

(B) Title IV-E Foster Care - 30-calendar days;

(C) Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program - 30-calendar days unless the household is eligible for expedited service. When the household is eligible for expedited service, OKDHS workers must complete the application within seven-calendar days, per OAC 340:50-11-1;

(D) State Supplemental Payment (SSP) for persons:

- (i) categorically related to Aid to the Aged - 30-calendar days; and
- (ii) categorically related to Aid to the Blind or Disabled - 60-calendar days; and
- (E) SoonerCare (Medicaid) benefits for:
 - (i) persons categorically related to Aid to the Aged - 30-calendar days;
 - (ii) persons categorically related to Aid to the Blind or Disabled - 60-calendar days;
 - (iii) Optional Tuberculosis (TB) Coverage group - 45-calendar days; and
 - (iv) persons requesting long-term care services - 45-calendar days; and
- (F) TANF Emergency Assistance - five-working days;
- (G) Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program , per OAC 340:20-1-14:
 - (i) 60-calendar days of the application date for winter heating and summer cooling; or
 - (ii) no later than 18 hours of the application date for an Energy Crisis Assistance Program (ECAP) application involving a life-threatening medical situation or 48 hours for all other ECAP applications; and
- (H) Refugee Medical Assistance - 30-calendar days;
- (I) Child Care subsidy benefits – two-business days from the interview date and required proof is provided or, when not provided, within 30-calendar days; and
- (J) Diversion Assistance – seven-working days

(2) Delayed applications. When it is not possible to process the application timely, the worker sends the applicant Form 08MP038E, Client Notice of Action Taken, to inform the applicant of the reason for the delay and the applicant's hearing rights. An application is not denied when it cannot be processed timely due to:

- (A) the applicant's failure or delay in providing needed information because of circumstances beyond the applicant's control;
- (B) an examining physician's failure or delay in supplying needed information;
- (C) the Social Security Administration's failure or delay in making a disability decision; or
- (D) the worker's failure to take timely action.

(3) Certification for cash assistance. When TANF eligibility is established for the application month, certification is effective from the application date and benefits are prorated per (5) of this Section. When SSP eligibility is established for the application month, certification is effective from the first day of the month and the SSP is not prorated.

- (A) When a TANF applicant requests benefits for an additional person after the application date, but before certification, the worker approves benefits for the additional person effective on the same date as the rest of the assistance unit.

(B) When a TANF recipient requests benefits for an additional person after certification, the recipient must complete a new application before adding the additional person to the TANF benefit. When eligible, the worker prorates benefits for the additional person from the application date per (5) of this Section.

(C) A retroactive payment may be authorized for any month the worker establishes eligibility prior to the current month. An application denied in error must have payment authorized for the period eligibility is established.

(D) A certification is valid even when a month of ineligibility is determined between application and the date the certification action is taken. An applicant who is ineligible for the month of application and eligible for a subsequent month is certified effective the first day of the subsequent month.

(4) Notice of ineligibility. When an applicant is ineligible, a computer-generated denial notice is sent to the applicant explaining the reason. The applicant may request a fair hearing within the time period specified in the notice.

(5) Proration of TANF benefits. When eligible, the worker certifies a TANF application from the application date and prorates the initial month's benefit, unless the applicant applied on the first day of the month or received a TANF benefit for the previous month and is eligible to be reopened, per OAC 340:65-5-6. Proration also applies for the first month the worker adds an additional person to an open TANF cash assistance benefit. The family is eligible for the full TANF benefit effective the following month, when applicable.

(A) The worker refers to OKDHS Appendix C-1, Maximum Income, Resource, and Payment Standards, Schedule IX to determine the full monthly TANF benefit before computing the prorated benefit.

(B) The worker uses Appendix B, Prorated TANF and Food Benefit Payment, to compute the prorated benefit amount or the formula: $31 - \text{application date} \times \text{full monthly TANF benefit} \div 30 = \text{the prorated payment}$. The prorated payment is rounded down to the lower dollar amount.

(i) When the prorated benefit is less than $10, the family is not eligible for a money payment, but is eligible for SoonerCare (Medicaid) benefits for the entire month.

(ii) When the worker certifies food benefits in the TANF case at the same time or after the TANF certification for the month the TANF payment is prorated, the food benefit unearned income shows the TANF benefit before proration.

(iii) The computer-generated client notice shows the benefit amount for the initial month and following month.

340:65-3-6. Cash assistance payment procedures

(a) Payment method choices. The Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) issues cash assistance benefits through a contractor on a debit card or by direct deposit. DHS initially issues the benefit on a debit card.

(1) After the first benefit issues, the recipient may continue to receive benefits by debit card or change the payment method to direct deposit.

(2) The recipient may switch between direct deposit and debit card as needed.

(b) Debit card procedures. Debit card procedures are listed in (1) through (6) of this subsection.

(1) Unless the applicant was previously issued a debit card, it is issued to the applicant after the application is placed in application status or after benefits are approved.

(A) A debit card issues after the application is placed in application status when the applicant was previously issued a client number. DHS assigns a client number to a person after he or she is approved for a DHS benefit or when the person has an open child support case with DHS Child Support Services (CSS).

(B) When the applicant does not have a client number, the debit card issues after the worker certifies the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) or State Supplemental Payment (SSP) benefit.

(C) DHS does not issue a debit card to an applicant when he or she was previously issued a debit card. When the applicant states he or she no longer has the debit card, the applicant must call 1-888-401-9843, the contractor's customer service phone number, to obtain a replacement card.

(2) Once the applicant receives the debit card, he or she must call the customer service phone number located on the back of the debit card to activate the card and choose a personal identification number (PIN).

(3) Initial and replacement debit cards are mailed to the applicant or recipient's mailing address along with information regarding

(A) the customer service phone number the applicant must call to activate the debit card or to report a lost or stolen card;

(B) how to make purchases using the debit card or get cash from participating automated teller machine (ATM) locations;

(C) free services, including two free ATM withdrawals per calendar month from MoneyPass ATMs, and fees;

(D) how to request a companion cardholder or switch to direct deposit; and

(E) the website address where the applicant may access his or her account balance and transaction information.

(4) The recipient is eligible for a free replacement card once every 12 months upon request. The recipient is charged a fee when he or she requests a replacement card more than once every 12 months. The debit card expires every three years and a free replacement is sent to recipients with open benefits.

(5) The recipient may request one or more companion cards. The companion card(s) may only be ordered online.

(A) The companion card is sent to the recipient's address.

(B) Once the companion cardholder receives the companion card, he or she must call the customer service phone number located on the back of the debit card to activate the card and choose a PIN.

(C) Funds are placed on the companion card by the recipient. The recipient may:

(i) choose to transfer funds to the companion card by amount or by a percentage of benefits received for the month;

(ii) set up the transfer on a recurring basis or as a one-time occurrence; and

(iii) move money back and forth between the primary account and the companion card as he or she chooses.

(D) The same fees apply to companion cards as they do for the recipient's card.

(6) When the recipient informs the worker that he or she did not receive the debit card, the worker checks to see if the recipient's address changed. When the address changed, the worker updates the system with the correct address. The recipient must call the customer service phone number to request a replacement card.

(7) When the recipient fails or refuses to activate his or her debit card within 90-calendar days, the benefits are expunged from the debit card and returned to DHS.

(A) Upon notification of expunged benefits, the worker contacts the recipient to offer assistance in pinning the debit card.

(i) When the worker is unable to reach the recipient by phone, he or she sends Form 08AD092E, Client Contact and Information Request, and gives the recipient 10-calendar days to contact the worker.

(ii) When the worker talks to the recipient, he or she determines why the recipient did not choose a PIN for the debit card and offers assistance. The worker advises the recipient to choose a PIN for the debit card within 10-calendar days and let the worker know when it is pinned so he or she can restore expunged benefits to the debit card. When the client does not contact the worker within 10-calendar days to reissue the expunged benefits, the worker sends Form 08AD092E and gives the client 10- calendar days to respond.

(B) The funds may be reloaded on the recipient's debit card if he or she chooses a PIN for the debit card and requests DHS reissuance within 365-calendar days of the issuance date.

(C) When the recipient fails or refuses to choose a PIN for the debit card within 10-calendar days of issuing Form 08AD092E, the worker closes the cash assistance benefit due to non-cooperation. When the:

- (i) TANF cash assistance benefit closes due to non-cooperation, the assistance unit's SoonerCare (Medicaid) benefit closes. When the recipient wants to continue to receive SoonerCare (Medicaid) benefits, he or she must reapply through the Oklahoma Health Care Authority's online enrollment system; or
- (ii) State Supplemental Payment cash assistance benefit closes due to non-cooperation, the recipient's SoonerCare (Medicaid) benefit remains open.

(D) The recipient's cash assistance benefit may be reopened when the recipient chooses a PIN for the debit card and notifies the worker within 30-calendar days of closure.

(c) Electronic benefit transfer (EBT) transaction restrictions. EBT transaction means the use of a credit or debit card service, automated teller machine, point-of-sale terminal, or access to an online system for the withdrawal of funds or the processing of a payment for merchandise or service. Per Section 4004 of the Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012, Section 608(a) of Title 42 of the United States Code (42 U.S.C. § 608(a)(12)), and Section 241.4 of Title 56 of Oklahoma Statutes, no debit or EBT card containing state or federal funds from programs including, but not limited to, TANF may be used in any transaction in any:

- (1) liquor store. The term liquor store means any establishment that sells exclusively or primarily intoxicating liquor. The term does not include a grocery store that sells both intoxicating liquor and groceries, including staple foods, per Section 3(r) of the Food and Nutrition Act;
- (2) casino, gambling casino, or gaming establishment except for:

- (A) a grocery store that sells groceries, including staple foods, per 7 U.S.C. § 2012, and also offers, or is located within the same building or complex as an establishment offering casino, gambling, or gaming activities; or
- (B) any other establishment offering casino, gambling, or gaming activities incidental to the principal purpose of the business;

(3) retail establishment that provides adult-oriented entertainment in which performers disrobe or perform in an unclad state for entertainment; or

(4) retail establishment whose principal business is that of selling cigarettes, cigars, or tobacco products.

(d) Direct deposit procedures. When the recipient prefers to receive benefits through direct deposit, he or she goes online to www.goprogram.com or phones 1-888-401-9843 to set up a bank transfer.

(1) When the recipient chooses direct deposit, he or she may decide to transfer 100 percent of the benefit to a designated bank account or may choose to transfer a percentage of the benefits to a bank account and keep the rest of the funds on the debit card.

(2) Benefits are transferred to direct deposit for the next payment due after direct deposit information is entered in the system.

(3) The recipient may transfer funds from a debit card to a bank account on a one-time basis. There is a fee associated with the transfer.

(e) Benefit issuance. After the initial issuance, the recipient's cash assistance benefit is deposited in the recipient's checking or savings account or loaded on the recipient's debit card each month.

(1) The funds are available for withdrawal after deposit.

(2) After the monthly benefit is deposited in the recipient's account or loaded on the debit card, DHS is not responsible if someone other than the payee withdraws the funds. Banking regulations govern withdrawals.

(3) Recipients are encouraged to be prudent about giving withdrawal privileges or debit card access to other people.

(f) Issuance problem procedures. When problems occur with direct deposit or debit card deposits, procedures for dealing with these problems are listed in (1) through (5) of this subsection.

(1) When the recipient provides incorrect account information, the cash assistance benefit cannot be deposited in the recipient's bank account. When this occurs, the contractor converts the payment method to a debit card. When the recipient wants direct deposit, he or she must request direct deposit again, per (d) of this Section.

(2) When a deposit is not made to the recipient's direct deposit account or loaded on the debit card, the recipient must report the problem to the contractor's customer service phone number. The contractor handles any communication with banking institutions or debit card vendors and then contacts the recipient regarding resolution.

(3) When the recipient dies while receiving benefits, questions may arise concerning unspent funds in the recipient's bank account or on his or her debit card.

(A) When the client is not eligible for a payment made after death to the recipient's debit card or bank account, an overpayment may be established against the estate.

(i) DHS notifies the debit card contractor to expunge the funds from the debit card, when possible.

(ii) Payments made by direct deposit, cannot be expunged or retrieved.

(B) When there are unused benefits on the debit card at the time of death for which the recipient was entitled and someone contacts DHS to request these benefits, he or she is advised to contact the customer service phone number located on the back of the recipient's debit card to request the funds. When unused funds remain in a bank account, the person must contact the financial institution to request the funds.

(4) When the recipient's cash assistance benefit closes due to transfer of eligibility to another cash assistance case, the payment method is automatically transferred to the new case provided the client number of the payee in the closed and new case is the same. When the recipient's cash assistance benefit closes and he or she later reapplies and is approved with the same client number, the previously chosen payment method is used to issue the cash assistance benefit. The recipient must call the contractor's customer service phone number to change the payment method or to update bank account information.

(5) When the payee for the cash assistance benefit changes for any reason, the new payee is assigned a new client number unless one was previously issued to him or her.

(A) The new payee is considered an applicant. Refer to (a) and (b) of this Section regarding payment methods and initial payments.

(B) The new payee does not have access to benefits issued prior to the payee change.

340:65-3-7. Application denial

(a) When the applicant is unwilling to cooperate in establishing eligibility, or when eligibility cannot be established, the worker denies the application. A computer-generated denial notice is sent to the applicant or his or her representative .

(1) Refer to Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:65-3-2 for the definition of what constitutes an application for each program.

(2) Before denying an application with incomplete documentation, the worker must provide the applicant Form 08AD092E, Client Contact and Information Request, giving him or her at least 10-calendar days to provide the missing proof. When requested, the worker provides assistance in obtaining necessary proof. The worker's assistance may range from explaining how or where to obtain proof to the worker obtaining the proof when the client is unable to do so. The worker is not required to obtain proof for a client who is able but unwilling to do so.

(3) When an applicant verbally asks to withdraw the application before the worker determines eligibility, the worker asks the applicant to put the withdrawal request in writing. The worker denies the application based on the reason given by the applicant.

(4) When the worker is unable to locate the applicant to complete the application, he or she denies the application.

(5) The applicant may request a fair hearing within the specified time of the notice when he or she disagrees with the action taken. Refer to OAC 340:2-5 for fair hearing procedures.

(b) A new application is not required when, after denial, the household completes the application process and is determined eligible within 60-calendar days of the initial application date. When the household does not complete the application process by the 30th-calendar day following denial, when specified by the program, benefits are prorated from the date eligibility is determined.

340:65-3-8. Continuing eligibility determination

(a) Continuing eligibility determination. The worker determines continued eligibility at appropriate intervals, per (b) of this Section. The worker is responsible for:

(1) informing the recipient of his or her change reporting responsibilities, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:65-5-1, at each contact;

(2) contacting the recipient when possible changes are indicated to ensure continuing eligibility;

(3) synchronizing renewal dates for all benefits received by the household when possible; and

(4) determining continuing eligibility.

(b) Benefit renewal time frames. The periodic renewal time frame varies depending on the program.

(1) A benefit renewal is completed at six-month intervals with a:

(A) Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) recipient due to:

- (i) pending required immunizations, per OAC 340:10-14-1;
- (ii) payment standard reductions because of program violations, per OAC 340:10-3-57(g) or (h);
- (iii) hardship extension approvals, per OAC 340:10-3-56(a)(2)(E);
- (iv) earned income, per OAC 340:10-3-31 through 340:10-3-40; or
- (v) a work eligible person's exemption from TANF Work activities because of his or her incapacity or to care for a disabled family member living in the household, per OAC 340:10-2-1; or

(B) food benefit recipient subject to a mid-certification renewal, per OAC 340:50-9-5(d) and (e).

(2) A benefit renewal is completed at 12-month intervals, unless an earlier renewal date is warranted, with a:

- (A) TANF recipient unless (b)(1)(A) of this Section applies;
- (B) State Supplemental Payment (SSP) recipient who does not receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI). When the recipient receives SSI, the system passively renews the SSP and SoonerCare (Medicaid) benefit;
- (C) Child Care Subsidy recipient, per OAC 340:40-9-1;
- (D) food benefit household subject to an annual mid-certification renewal, per OAC 340:50-9-5(b) and (c);
- (E) food benefit household whose Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) certification renewal is completed at 12-month intervals, per OAC 340:50-9-6; or
- (F) SoonerCare (Medicaid) recipient, per OAC 317:35, when the recipient does not receive SSI. When the recipient receives SSI, the system passively renews the SoonerCare (Medicaid) benefit.

(3) The worker completes a SNAP certification renewal at 24-month intervals for households subject to an annual mid-certification renewal, per OAC 340:50-9-5(b) and (c).

(c) Benefit renewal notification. The recipient receives a notice when the benefit renewal is due, informing the recipient he or she must complete the benefit renewal within a specified time frame to continue receiving benefits.

(1) The worker sends Form 08AD092E, Client Contact and Information Request, to TANF recipients.

(2) A computer-generated notice is sent to:

- (A) child care recipients;
- (B) food benefit recipients due for mid-certification renewal and certification renewal; and
- (C) SSP and SoonerCare (Medicaid) recipients who do not receive SSI.

(3) Since SoonerCare (Medicaid) and SSP recipients who receive SSI are passively renewed, they receive a notice informing them that their benefits were renewed. The renewal notice includes the income used to renew their benefit(s). Recipients are asked to sign and return the renewal notice if the income shown on the notice is incorrect. When the notice is signed and returned, the worker contacts the recipient to obtain current information.

(d) Signature requirements. The recipient, guardian, or a person acting on the recipient's behalf, such as an authorized representative or a person with power-of-attorney, signs the benefit renewal for all programs except TANF. The recipient signs TANF renewals. When the recipient lives with his or her a spouse, both must sign the TANF renewal.

(e) Interview requirements. Benefit renewal interview requirements vary depending on the program.

(1) Per Section 206.10 of Title 45 of the Code of Regulations, the TANF program requires a face-to-face certification renewal interview every 12 months. The face-to-face interview may be conducted in the OKDHS office, at a home visit, or through a virtual video conference.

(2) A phone or face-to-face interview is required for a:

(A) SNAP certification renewal, except for (e)(3)(C) of this Section, per OAC 340:50-3-1; or

(B) Supplemental Security Income-Disabled Children's Program service plan renewal, per OAC 340:15-3-1.

(3) An interview is not required for:

(A) any of the SoonerCare (Medicaid) programs when the client signs and completes the renewal, provides all required proof, and none of the information is questionable. When necessary, the worker contacts the recipient to complete the renewal;

(B) passive renewals completed for SoonerCare (Medicaid) or SSP recipients;

(C) Child Care Subsidy program renewals; or

(D) food benefit households completing a:

(i) mid-certification renewal, at six- or 12-month intervals; or

(ii) SNAP certification renewal when all household members are elderly or disabled and there is no earned income in the household, per OAC 340:50-3-2(a)(2).

(f) Eligibility determination. The worker determines eligibility after the benefit renewal is signed, all required proof is provided, an interview, if required, is conducted, and all information evaluated.

(1) The worker may:

(A) complete the benefit renewal without changes;

(B) complete the benefit renewal with changes; or

(C) close the benefit or benefits.

(2) When benefits close and the recipient provides required proof by the last day of the closure month, benefits may be reopened.

SUBCHAPTER 5. PROCEDURES RELATING TO CASE CHANGES

PART 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

340:65-5-1. Case changes

(a) Change reporting requirement for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), State Supplemental Payment (SSP), and SoonerCare (Medicaid). Recipients of TANF, SSP, and SoonerCare (Medicaid) for the aged, blind, and disabled must report any changes in circumstances that increases, reduces, or closes benefits within 10-calendar days.

(1) The worker:

(A) gives the client 10-calendar days to provide proof to verify the reported change

(B) acts on changes that increase, reduce, or close benefits within 10-calendar days of the date the change is reported and required proof is received, per (d) of this Section.

(2) Failure to report changes timely may result in a client error overpayment.

(3) Examples of changes the client must report include:

(A) household income;

(B) household resources;

(C) household composition;

(D) the client's address or phone number;

(E) legal alien status of non-citizens;

(F) insurance coverage, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 317:35-5-43; and

(G) in addition, for TANF program:

(i) deprivation of parental support, per OAC 340:10-10-1 through 340:10-10-4;

(ii) when a TANF Work activity stops or starts, per OAC 340:10-2-1 through 340:10-2-8; and

(iii) when a child in the assistance unit stops attending school, per OAC 340:10-13-1.

(b) Change reporting for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). SNAP has three household categories with different change reporting responsibilities; annual reporters, semi-annual reporters, and change reporters. Refer to OAC 340:50-9-5 for change reporting requirements.

(c) Change reporting for the Child Care Subsidy Program. Child Care Subsidy recipients must report income changes within 10-calendar days when the household's gross income exceeds federal income eligibility threshold for the household size, per OAC 340:40-9-2(a) and Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) Appendix C-4, Child Care Eligibility/Copayment Chart.

(d) Changes in cash benefits. When a change of circumstances occurs after certification that requires an increase or a reduction in the SSP or TANF cash benefit amount, the worker processes the change to be effective the first day of the month following the next advance notice or non-advance notice deadline date, per OKDHS Appendix B-2, Deadlines for Case Actions. When the change:

(1) increases the cash benefit, the worker makes the change by the next non-advance deadline date. The worker also determines if a supplement is due for the current month. When one is due, the worker issues the supplement within 10-calendar days of the date the change is reported and required proof is received; or

(2) reduces the cash benefit, the worker makes the change within 10-calendar days of the date the change is reported and verified to be effective by the next advance notice deadline date. The worker also evaluates whether prior benefits were properly issued. When more benefits were issued than the household was entitled to, the worker completes an overpayment, per each program's overpayment rules.

(e) Notices. A computer-generated notice is sent to the client when the action taken increases, reduces, suspends, or closes benefits. A computer-generated notice is not sent when the action taken does not affect the benefit level.

(1) Advance notice is required when the action taken reduces, closes, or suspends benefits for a reason other than those listed per (2) of this subsection. Refer to OKDHS Appendix B-2 for advance notice deadline dates.

(2) When advance notice is not required, refer to OKDHS Appendix B-2 non-advance notice deadline dates. Advance notice is not required when the action taken does not suspend, close, or reduce benefits, or when:

(A) all members included in the benefit die;

- (B) the TANF payee dies and there is not a relative available to serve as a new payee;
- (C) benefits are transferred from one assistance category to another without a resulting reduction or interruption in benefits;
- (D) care is approved in a skilled nursing facility or an intermediate nursing care facility that requires closure of the person's SSP benefit or the SoonerCare (Medicaid) Qualifying Individuals - group 1 benefit;
- (E) the household moves out-of-state;
- (F) an automatic increase in income occurs because of federal legislation, such as a cost-of-living increase to all Social Security, Supplemental Security Income, Railroad Retirement, or Veterans' benefits beneficiaries;
- (G) the client is admitted to a public institution where his or her needs are fully supplied;
- (H) the client provides a signed, written statement:
 - (i) stating he or she no longer chooses to receive assistance; or
 - (ii) requesting benefit closure or reduction to avoid or repay an overpayment;
- (I) the client's whereabouts are unknown. This may occur when the post office returns the client's OKDHS mail and indicates no known forwarding address. SNAP and Child Care Subsidy benefits are not closed for this reason. Refer to OAC 317:35-5-67 to review the SoonerCare (Medicaid) return mail rule;
- (J) a TANF child is removed from the home because of a judicial determination or because the legal guardian voluntarily placed the child in foster care for more than 30-calendar days;
- (K) a change occurs in federal or state law;
- (L) SSP benefits must be reduced to comply with federal law pertaining to maintenance of effort or a state mandate; or
- (M) the client requests a reduction in or closure of the child care benefit or a change in child care provider for the Child Care Subsidy program, per OAC 340:40-9-2 and 340:40-9-3.

(f) Closing benefits. The worker closes a Child Care Subsidy, SoonerCare (Medicaid), SSP, SNAP, or TANF benefit only at the household's request or after ineligibility is established, per each program's eligibility rules.

(g) Reinstating or reopening benefits. Within 30-calendar days of notice issuance, the client may request reduced benefits be reinstated or closed benefits be reopened at the previous benefit level due to an incorrect action or a change in circumstances.

(1) When benefits were reduced and the worker determines the client remains eligible at:

(A) the previous benefit level, the worker restores benefits to the previous benefit level for all Adult and Family

Services (AFS) programs;
(B) an increased benefit level, benefits are increased based on specific program rules; or
(C) a reduced level than the last action taken, the worker reduces benefits further:

(i) effective the next advance notice deadline date for TANF, SSP, and SoonerCare (Medicaid);
(ii) when the renewal is due for Child Care Subsidy and SNAP. When the renewal is not due, benefits are:

(I) not reduced for Child Care Subsidy, per OAC 340:40-9-2(a); or

(II) reduced in limited circumstances for SNAP. Refer to OAC 340:50-9-5 for appropriate circumstances.

(2) For TANF, SSP, and SoonerCare (Medicaid), when benefits were closed or suspended and the client remains eligible, but at a reduced benefit level, benefits are reopened using current eligibility information.

(3) When Child Care Subsidy benefits are reopened and the renewal is not due, benefits are not reduced below the benefit level at closure. Child care benefits may only be reduced at renewal, per OAC 340:40-9-2(a).

(4) When SNAP benefits are reopened and the benefit renewal is not due, benefits may only be reduced in limited circumstances. Refer to OAC 340:50-9-5 for appropriate circumstances.

(h) Fair hearing information. When the client requests a fair hearing within 90-calendar days of the date action is taken for SNAP, or 30-calendar days for all other AFS programs, the worker follows fair hearing procedures, per OAC 340:2-5.

(1) When the client requests a fair hearing within 10-calendar days following the notice issuance date and requests, pending the hearing's outcome, that benefits be continued at the same benefit level as authorized immediately prior to the adverse action notice, the worker reopens or reinstates benefits to the previous benefit level.

(A) For SNAP, the client is not required to request benefits be continued at the same level when he or she requests a fair hearing within 10-calendar days. Benefits are continued at the previous level unless the client waives benefit continuation.

(B) For all AFS programs, the worker explains to the client when benefits are continued at the previous level and the appeal is not decided in the client's favor, he or she is expected to repay the benefits.

(C) Benefits remain open at the previous level unless another change occurs before a hearing decision is made that requires benefits be reduced or closed.

(2) When the client does not request the fair hearing within 10-calendar days of the notice date, the worker does not restore benefits unless the client provides information verifying the client remains eligible at the previous benefit level, the worker determines an incorrect action was taken, or the hearing is decided in the client's favor.

(3) Per OAC 340:2-5, the OKDHS Legal Services Appeals Unit makes a decision regarding the fair hearing and sends a decision letter to the client and the OKDHS office.

(A) The worker is responsible for taking the action needed to carry out the hearing decision and, when appropriate, sending an overpayment referral to the AFS Benefit Integrity Unit.

(B) When benefits were reinstated or reopened and the hearing decision is not in the client's favor, the worker reduces or closes benefits effective the first of the month following the month the final hearing decision is reached.

340:65-5-3. Benefit suspension and resolution

(a) State Supplemental Payment (SSP) and SoonerCare (Medicaid) benefits may be suspended when the Social Security Administration (SSA) suspends the recipient's Supplemental Security Income (SSI) until the SSI benefit is reinstated or closed.

(b) Sooner Care (Medicaid) may be suspended when:

(1) SSA suspends the recipient's SSI until the SSI benefit is reinstated or closed;

(2) the recipient is incarcerated, for the duration of the incarceration period, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 317:35-6-45; or

(3) the Oklahoma Health Care Authority initiates an administrative sanction until the sanction is removed, per OAC 317:35-13-7; or

(4) Form 08TA018E, Continued Medical Benefit Reply Form, is not received timely for households who are eligible for a continued medical benefit (CMB) following a Temporary Assistance for Needy Families benefit closure due to earnings. When the worker does not reinstate CMB by the suspension month's advance notice deadline, per OKDHS Appendix B-2, Deadlines for Case Actions, CMB automatically closes effective the next month, per OAC 340:10-3-75.

(c) Following suspension, when the recipient is determined:

- (1) eligible, the worker reinstates the benefit effective the month the benefit was suspended;
- (2) eligible for the month following the suspension month, the worker recertifies the benefit effective the next month; or
- (3) ineligible for the benefit, the worker closes the benefit effective the next month.

340:65-5-6. Administrative action reconsideration

(a) Administrative action reconsideration. An administrative action reconsideration is required when Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) or State Supplemental Payment (SSP) benefits are denied or closed in error or the benefit amount received by the client was incorrect.  - (C) recipient was underpaid.

(b) Administrative action decision. When the worker reconsiders a TANF or SSP:

- (1) closure and finds the benefit was closed in error, the worker reopens the benefit for the current month and any prior months, when applicable. The worker issues a retroactive payment when the benefit is reopened farther back than the immediate prior month;
- (2) application denial and finds the application was denied in error, the worker certifies the application for the time period the applicant is determined eligible from the application date. The worker issues a retroactive payment to certify the applicant for any months farther back than the immediate prior month;
- (3) benefit reduction and finds that the benefit was reduced in error, the worker issues a supplement for each month the benefit was reduced in error; or

(4) benefit action and finds that the client received a higher benefit that he or she was eligible, the worker completes an overpayment referral for the overpaid months, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:65-9.

PART 7. GUARDIANSHIPS, CONSERVATORSHIPS, AND SUBSTITUTE PAYEES

340:65-5-60. Circumstances when a guardian or conservator may be needed

(a) Definitions. The following words and terms, when used in this Section, have the following meanings unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

(1) "Incapacitated adult" means, per Section 1-111 of Title 30 of the Oklahoma Statutes (30 O.S. § 1-111), a person 18 years of age or older:

(A) who is impaired by reason of:

- (i) mental illness as defined, per 43A O.S. § 1-103;
- (ii) intellectual or developmental disability as defined, per 10 O.S. § 1430.2;
- (iii) physical illness or disability;
- (iv) drug or alcohol dependency as defined, per 43A O.S. § 3-403; or
- (v) another similar cause, and

(B) whose ability to receive and evaluate information effectively or to make and to communicate responsible decisions is impaired to such an extent the person:

- (i) lacks the capacity to meet essential requirements for his or her physical health or safety, or
- (ii) is unable to manage his or her financial resources.

(2) "Partially incapacitated person" means, per 30 O.S. § 1-111, a person:

(A) whose impairment is such that without a limited guardian's assistance the person is unable to:

- (i) meet the essential requirements for his or her physical health or safety; or
- (ii) manage or engage in all of the activities necessary to effectively manage his or her financial resources; or

(B) who is considered to be legally competent in all areas not specified by a court in its dispositional or subsequent orders. The person retains all legal rights and abilities other than those expressly limited or curtailed in the orders.

(3) "Natural guardian" Parents are natural guardians of their minor child(ren) regardless of whether they live in the same household, unless a legal guardianship or custody transfer supersedes natural guardianship. Persons other than the parents may be considered natural guardians when they have, over a continuing period, had custody of the child(ren) and have held themselves responsible for care, support, and maintenance.

(4) "Guardian" means, per 30 O.S. § 1-111, a guardian may be general, limited, or special.

(A) A general guardian is a court appointed person who serves as the incapacitated person's guardian to ensure that the essential requirements for the person's health and safety are met, to manage the person's estate, or both.

(B) A limited guardian is a court appointed person who serves as the partially incapacitated person's guardian and who is court authorized to exercise only certain guardianship powers over the person, his or her or estate or financial resources, or both.

(C) A special guardian is a court appointed person who exercises certain specified powers to alleviate a situation threatening serious impairment to the incapacitated or partially incapacitated person's health or safety, or a situation when the person's financial resources will be seriously damaged or dissipated unless immediate action is taken.

(5) "Conservator" means a conservator has the same powers and duties as a guardian or limited guardian of an incapacitated or partially incapacitated person's property, per 30 O.S. § 3-215. This includes the investment, management, sale or mortgage of the person's property and his or her debt payment. The conservator is not responsible for ensuring that the essential requirements for the incapacitated or partially incapacitated person's health and safety are met.

(6) "Manage financial resources" means to manage financial resources or the estate means those actions necessary to obtain, administer, and dispose of real property, business property, benefits and income, and to otherwise manage personal financial or business affairs, per 30 O.S. § 1-111.

(7) "Meet the essential requirements for physical health or safety" means to meet the essential requirements for physical health or safety means those actions necessary to provide the health care, food, shelter, clothing, personal hygiene and other care without which serious physical injury is more likely than not to occur, per 30 O.S. § 1-111.

(b) When a guardian or conservator may be needed. An applicant or recipient who meets the definition of an incapacitated or partially incapacitated adult, per (a) of this Section, may need the protection afforded by a guardian or conservator. When assistance is needed to select a guardian or conservator, a referral may be made to Adult Protective Services.

- (1) For State Supplemental Payment (SSP) recipients who are:
 - (A) blind or 65 years of age and older, legal guardianship or conservatorship is the only method the SSP payment may be made to a person other than the recipient, per 56 O.S. § 172;
 - (B) under 65 years of age, OKDHS may make the SSP payment to the incapacitated or partially incapacitated person's legal guardian or conservator when needed for his or her protection adult; or
 - (C) under 16 years of age, SSP payment is made to a natural guardian, when available, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:15-1-6(c)(3) unless he or she is not competent to transact his or her own business or is otherwise unsuitable or legally disqualified to serve as the natural guardian, per 30 O.S. § 2-106. When the minor reaches 14 years of age, the minor may nominate his or her own guardian, when court approved, per 30 O.S. § 2-103.

(2) For Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) benefits, when the child does not live with his or her parent(s), the relative payee who lives with the dependent child need not be appointed as guardian to receive benefits on the child's behalf. . When the eligible relative the child resides with has a guardian or conservator, the payment is made to the eligible relative's guardian.

(c) Guardian or conservator responsibilities. The guardian or conservator is responsible for managing the applicant or recipient's financial matters. This includes signing the SSP or TANF application or renewal and any other necessary forms and providing required verification to determine the person's SSP or TANF eligibility, per 56 O.S. § 166. When a guardian or conservator is appointed after an application is made, but before the application is approved or denied, the guardian or conservator signs and completes a new application using the same application date as the original application.

(d) Court costs. The court clerk and the associate or district judge may not charge court costs in cases involving the guardianship of persons who are applicants for or who are receiving Social Security benefits or assistance or veterans disability compensation of pension, per 56 O.S. §192.

SUBCHAPTER 9. OVERPAYMENT CLAIMS AND FRAUD IN TEMPORARY ASSISTANCE FOR NEEDY FAMILIES AND STATE SUPPLEMENTAL PAYMENT BENEFITS

340:65-9-1. Scope and applicability

(a) Scope and applicability. The scope and applicability of overpayment procedures contained in this Subchapter apply to Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) and State Supplemental Payment (SSP) recipients.

(b) Overpayment claim definition. An overpayment claim occurs when a household receives more benefits than it is entitled to receive. Overpayments may be classified as inadvertent household errors (IHE), agency error (AE), willful misrepresentation, intentional program violation, or fraud.

(c) Overpayment referral. When Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) staff suspects an overpayment occurred, he or she sends an overpayment referral to the Adult and Family Services (AFS) Benefit Integrity and Recovery (BIR) Unit for an overpayment determination and claim establishment.

(1) Reasons OKDHS staff may send an overpayment referral to the AFS BIR Unit for an overpayment determination include, but are not limited to, when the:

(A) household:

- (i) failed to provide OKDHS with correct or complete information;
- (ii) failed to report changes in its circumstances; or
- (iii) elected to receive benefits pending a fair hearing decision that subsequently found the family ineligible or eligible for fewer benefits;

(B) worker:

- (i) failed to take prompt action on a change reported by the household;
- (ii) incorrectly computed the household's income, deductions, or both; or

(iii) incorrectly authorized benefit issuance to a household; or

(C) overpayment is discovered during an audit or benefit renewal.

(2) The worker includes in the overpayment referral, the circumstances leading to the overpayment, if the overpayment occurred because of household or agency error, and how he or she computed the overpayment amount. When applicable, the overpayment referral may cover up to six years prior to the date the worker discovers the over-issuance.

(A) For TANF, when an overpayment occurs because the client does not report earned income within 10-calendar days, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:65-5-1, the worker calculates the overpayment based on the client's gross earned income without the earned income deduction, per OAC 340:10-3-33.

(B) For SSP, the client is allowed the earned income deduction, per OAC 317:35-5-42(d) even when the earned income is reported untimely.

(d) Overpayment claim establishment. AFS BIR Unit staff evaluates overpayment referrals, establishes overpayment claims, and refers overpayment claims to the OKDHS Office of the Inspector General (OIG) when appropriate, per OAC 340:65-9-2 and OAC 340:65-9-4. An overpayment claim is considered established on the date AFS BIR Unit staff sends the overpayment notice to the household.

(1) When AFS BIR Unit staff determines an OIG referral is not appropriate, AFS BIR Unit staff:

(A) establishes the overpayment claim;

(B) classifies the overpayment claim as an IHE, AE, or willful misrepresentation, per OAC 340:65-9-2;

(C) sends the:

(i) Notification of Overpayment, Form 08OP011E, Repayment Agreement and, when appropriate, Form 08OP025E, Chart of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families and State Supplemental Payment Overpayments, to the debtor(s); and

(ii) Notification of Overpayment with supporting documentation to the OKDHS county office; and

(D) assigns overpayment recoupment, per OAC 340:65-9-6.

(2) When the worker suspects fraudulent intent, but has insufficient information to complete an overpayment referral, he or she sends Form 19MP001E, Referral Form, to OIG.

(A) When OIG staff suspects an overpayment occurred, but a fraud determination is not needed, OIG staff sends the findings to the AFS BIR Unit to calculate and establish the claim.

(B) When OIG staff determines fraud occurred, OIG staff may:

(i) refer a TANF or SSP overpayment claim for a court decision regarding fraud, per OAC 340:65-9-4;

(ii) for TANF overpayment claims, make a referral to the Legal Services Appeals Unit for an administrative disqualification hearing instead of a court referral; or

(iii) for SSP, send the findings to the AFS BIR Unit calculate and establish the overpayment based on willful misrepresentation.

(e) Right to appeal. When the household disagrees with the overpayment decision, the household may request a fair hearing within 30-calendar days of the date on the Notification of Overpayment. An OKDHS mailed item is presumed received on the second day mail is delivered following the date on the notice, per OAC 340:2-5-63.

(f) Case record retention. OKDHS is mandated to retain case records containing overpayments for three years from the date:

(1) the overpayment debt is paid in full; or

(2) AFS BIR Unit staff determines the debt to be uncollectable.

This may occur when the debtor(s) dies or files bankruptcy and discharges the debt.

340:65-9-2. Overpayments by classification

(a) Overpayments classified as inadvertent household error (IHE).

Adult and Family Services (AFS) Benefit Integrity and Recovery (BIR) staff classifies a State Supplemental Payment (SSP) or Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) overpayment as IHE when intent to misrepresent cannot be established. Instances of IHE that may result in an overpayment claim include, but are not limited to, when the household:

(1) failed to provide the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) with correct or complete information;

(2) failed to report changes in household circumstances; or

(3) elected to receive benefits pending a fair hearing decision and the fair hearing decision found the family ineligible or eligible for fewer benefits.

(b) Overpayments classified as agency error (AE). AFS BIR staff classifies a SSP or TANF overpayment as an AE when DHS action or failure to take action causes the over-issuance. Instances of AE that may result in an overpayment include, but are not limited to, when:

(1) AFS staff failed to take prompt action on a change reported by the household;

(2) AFS staff incorrectly calculated the household's income or deductions, or otherwise issued an incorrect benefit amount or benefits to an ineligible household;

(3) the computer system incorrectly applied benefits to a household during an overall update or because of other system problems; or

(4) AFS staff incorrectly applied policy or procedures.

(c) Overpayments classified as willful misrepresentation. AFS BIR staff classifies a SSP or TANF overpayment as willful misrepresentation when the household deliberately conceals information that, had the household reported the information, would have initiated case closure or benefit reduction. Willful misrepresentation may be verbal or written and may include under reporting the amount of income or resources or other pertinent information. Debts classified as willful misrepresentation may change in the event they are referred for judicial prosecution or an administrative disqualification hearing (ADH).

(1) When non-exempt resources are known and a debt is classified as willful misrepresentation, but not referred to the Office of Inspector General (OIG), DHS staff requests the client voluntarily sign Form 08OP002E, Affidavit of Acknowledgment of Indebtedness. Refusal to sign Form 08OP002E does not affect the client's eligibility.

(2) When the client voluntarily signs Form 08OP002E and owns real property other than the declared home property, the worker files the signed form with the county clerk of the county in which the real property is located. Filing Form 08OP002E with the county clerk places a lien on the real property.

(d) TANF overpayments classified as intentional program violation (IPV). A TANF debt classified as IHE, AE, or willful misrepresentation may change to IPV following an ADH decision, signing Form 08OP016E, Administrative Disqualification Hearing Waiver, or by court decision.

(e) SSP overpayments classified as fraud. A SSP debt classified as IHE, AE, or willful misrepresentation may change to fraud only after a judicial court decision. Refer to Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:65-9-4 for additional fraud information.

340:65-9-4. Fraud

(a) Fraud definition. Per Section 185 of Title 56 of the Oklahoma Statutes (56 O.S. § 185), fraud in obtaining public assistance occurs when a person:

(1) obtains or attempts to obtain, or aids, abets, or assists any person to obtain, by means of a false statement or representation, by false impersonation, by a fictitious transfer, conveyance or encumbrance of property or income, by a knowing and willful failure to report to the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) income, personal property, real property, household members, or other material eligibility factors at the time of application or during the receipt of assistance, or by other fraudulent device, assistance to which an applicant is not entitled or assistance greater than that to which an applicant is justly entitled; or

(2) by sale, barter, purchase, theft, acquisition, possession or use of any electronic benefits or debit card or any other device authorizing participation in the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) or other DHS program, knowingly obtains, aids, abets, or assists any person to obtain or attempt to obtain assistance to which a person is not entitled.

(b) Fraud penalty. The penalty for fraud is set forth in 56 O.S. § 185. Per statutes, only courts can determine guilt and impose a legal penalty for fraud.

(c) Office of Inspector General (OIG) referral by AFS BIR staff. Adult and Family Services (AFS) Benefit Integrity and Recovery (BIR) staff may refer household error overpayments of $500 or more to OIG to determine if a referral for judicial court action is warranted.

(d) OIG referrals by workers. Workers use Form 19MP001E, Referral Form, to make an investigative referral to OIG when they suspect fraudulent intent, but there is insufficient information to calculate an overpayment or the referral involves a state employee and/or his or her relatives.

(e) OIG findings. OIG staff submits findings to AFS BIR for final overpayment calculation and establishment of the overpayment. When OIG returns the overpayment to AFS BIR and a fraud determination is not made per (f) or (g) of this Section, the AFS BIR staff proceeds to collect the debt.

(f) Fraud determination for State Supplemental Payment (SSP) overpayments. For SSP, a fraud determination is made when the local, state, or federal court official agrees to pursue judicial prosecution and the court finds the debtor(s) guilty of fraud. The debtor(s) is not subject to disqualification when the court determines fraud occurred; however, he or she may be subject to some or all of the fraud penalties in (b) of this Section.

(g) Intentional program violation (IPV) determination for TANF overpayments. For TANF, an IPV determination is made, when:

- (1) the local, state, or federal court official agrees to pursue judicial prosecution and the court finds the debtor(s) guilty of fraud. When the court decision is a deferment, the prosecutor asks the accused person to sign Form 19MP002E, Disqualification Consent Agreement;
- (2) Legal Services Appeals Unit staff holds an administrative disqualification hearing and determines intentional program violation; or
- (3) the debtor(s) signs Form 08OP016E, Administrative Disqualification Hearing Waiver.

(h) TANF program penalty for overpayments classified as an IPV. Debtor(s) with TANF overpayments classified as an IPV may be subject to a 25 percent payment standard reduction penalty per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:10-3-57(g) in addition to the requirement to repay the overpayment.

(1) AFS BIR staff applies the 25 percent payment standard reduction penalty period for:

- (A) 12 months for the first violation;

- (B) 24 months for the second violation; and
 - (C) permanently for the third violation.
- (2) AFS BIR mails the Program Penalty/Disqualification Notice to the debtor(s). The notice informs the debtor(s) of the:
- (A) IPV determination;
 - (B) 25 percent payment standard reduction penalty; and
 - (C) date the penalty period starts and ends.
- (3) The 25 percent payment standard reduction penalty begins on the date shown on the notice. Once the payment standard reduction penalty begins, it runs continuously until the end of the period imposed regardless of whether the debtor(s) receives TANF benefits during the penalty period.

(i) When a court finds the debtor(s) guilty of fraud. When the court finds the debtor(s) guilty of SSP or TANF fraud, the court may order a fine, restitution, imprisonment, or any combination of the three per (b) of this Section. DHS abides by the court decision.

- (1) Court-ordered restitution does not relieve the debtor(s) of any overpayment amount in excess of the judgment.
- (2) When the court stipulates a repayment plan, DHS does not renegotiate the repayment plan with the debtor(s) unless the debtor(s) sentence expired and the court has no action pending against the debtor(s).
- (3) When the debtor(s) defaults on court-ordered restitution, the court may accelerate the sentence, which may include the debtor(s) serving a prison term. Serving a prison term does not satisfy the debtor(s)' responsibility to repay the monetary portion of the debt. At that point the debt may be subject to civil prosecution.
- (4) The fact that a client is making restitution payments does not relieve the client of the obligation to sign Form 08OP002E, Affidavit of Acknowledgment of Indebtedness. Home property and personal property are exempt from this process. A lien may also be filed on declared real property when Form 08OP002E indicates property is owned.

340:65-9-6. Development of repayment

(a) Repayment of established overpayments. Households must make repayment on all established overpayments regardless of the reason for the overpayment.

- (1) Adult and Family Services (AFS) Benefit Integrity and Recovery (BIR) staff initiates collection efforts against all adult household members included in the benefit at the time the overpayment occurred except members who filed bankruptcy or are deceased.

(2) Collection may be received from more than one household for the same claim when responsible debtors separate. AFS BIR staff sends the debtor(s) the Notification of Overpayment that explains the acceptable methods of repayment for the debt classification.

(3) When the debtor(s) requests a fair hearing regarding the overpayment within 30-calendar days of the Notification of Overpayment issuance date, collection is suspended until after the hearing decision is made.

(b) Repayment options. The debtor(s) may repay an overpayment:

(1) in one lump sum by personal check, money order, or cashier's check;

(2) in regular monthly installments by personal check, money order, or cashier's check; or

(3) by benefit reduction, also known as recoupment. When the debtor(s) continues to receive State Supplemental Payment or Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), AFS BIR staff recoups the debtor(s)' monthly benefit by 10 percent, rounded up to the nearest dollar, for all overpayment classifications. When a TANF overpayment is due to an intentional program violation, in addition to recoupment, AFS BIR staff also applies a 25 percent, rounded up to the nearest dollar, payment standard reduction penalty per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:10-3-57(g).

(c) Monthly statement. When the debtor(s) does not repay the overpayment in full, a monthly statement is computer-generated around the 20th of each month and sent to the debtor(s) when appropriate.

(d) Recoupment rate changes. The recoupment rate cannot be changed unless the overpayment or the benefit received by the client is less than the recoupment amount.

(1) When the benefit amount is equal to the specified percentage recoupment amount, the full benefit is recouped and the case remains active. When the client requests a fair hearing regarding the overpayment within 30-calendar days of the issuance date of the Notification of Overpayment, recoupment is suspended until a hearing decision is made.

(2) When AFS BIR staff initiates or terminates recoupment, a computer-generated notice is sent to the client stating the new benefit amount and its effective date.

(d) Repayment plan reconsideration. The debtor(s) may request reconsideration of the repayment plan by submitting changes in family and financial circumstances directly to AFS BIR. AFS BIR staff makes adjustments to the repayment plan when circumstances warrant.

340:65-9-7. Collection effort suspension or termination

(a) The Adult and Family Services (AFS) Benefit Integrity and Recovery (BIR) Unit staff suspends collection efforts on cases no longer receiving benefits, when the:

- (1) head of household is deceased and there are no remaining debtors responsible for the overpayment;
 - (2) household cannot be located;
 - (3) cost of further collection action is likely to exceed the amount that can be recovered;
 - (4) debtor(s) provides verification to the AFS BIR Unit that bankruptcy proceedings initiated; or
 - (5) debtor(s) requests a fair hearing.
- (b) AFS BIR Unit staff may begin collection actions held in suspension when changes in household circumstances occur, such as:
- (1) AFS BIR Unit staff locates the household when the client reapplies and becomes eligible in the future;
 - (2) the court dismisses instead of discharging the debt through bankruptcy; or
 - (3) the fair hearing decision is not in the debtor(s)' favor.
- (c) When the household pays an overpayment in full, AFS BIR Unit staff sends the household the monthly overpayment account statement showing a zero balance to notify the household that the debt is satisfied.

SUBCHAPTER 11. VOTER REGISTRATION

340:65-11-1. Purpose, legal authority, and criminal penalties

(a) Purpose. The purpose of this Subchapter is to describe voter registration rules as Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) is a designated voter registration agency.

(b) Legal authority. The National Voter Registration Act of 1993 [Public Law 103-31] and Section 109.2 of Title 26 of the Oklahoma Statutes requires state agencies providing public assistance, such as Child Care Subsidy, SoonerCare (Medicaid), State Supplemental Payment, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, or state-funded programs primarily engaged in providing services to persons with disabilities to offer voter registration services. Voter registration procedures comply with procedures issued by the Oklahoma State Election Board.

(c) Criminal penalties. Criminal penalties for improper voter registration are included in Section 1973gg-10 of Title 42 of the United States Code and the cautions portion of the State Election Board's Procedure for Voter Registration.

340:65-11-3. Voter registration services

(a) Voter registration offer. Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) Adult and Family Services (AFS) staff is federally mandated to offer voter registration services to applicants and recipients for qualifying events included in (1) through (3) of this subsection. Qualifying events include when persons:

- (1) apply for AFS benefits, such as Child Care Subsidy, Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program, SoonerCare (Medicaid), State Supplemental Payment, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), and Temporary Assistance for Needy Families;
- (2) complete a mid-certification benefit renewal, annual benefit renewal, or SNAP certification renewal; or
- (3) report an address or name change.

(b) Voter registration forms. Voter registration forms include Form 08MP007E, Voter Registration Statement, and the Oklahoma State Election Board's, Oklahoma Voter Registration Application.

- (1) The applicant, recipient, or the worker records the applicant's or recipient's decision to apply or decline to register to vote.
- (2) When the applicant or recipient wants to apply to register to vote or does not want to answer the question: "If you are not registered to vote where you live now, would you like to apply to register to vote here today?" on Form 08MP007E, Voter Registration Statement, AFS staff gives or mails the Oklahoma Voter Registration Application to the applicant or recipient.
- (3) When the applicant or recipient declines to apply to register to vote in writing, AFS staff does not give or mail an Oklahoma Voter Registration Application to the applicant or recipient.

(c) Assistance completing the Oklahoma Voter Registration Application. AFS staff offers the same degree of assistance to applicants and recipients completing the Oklahoma Voter Registration Application as staff provides when completing an AFS application and renewal.

(d) Confidentiality. AFS staff keeps the applicant's or recipient's decision to register or not to register to vote and all voter registration materials confidential.

(e) Prohibitions. AFS staff must not:

- (1) seek to influence an applicant's or recipient's political preference or party registration;
- (2) display political preference or party allegiance;
- (3) make statements or take action that has the purpose or effect of discouraging the applicant or recipient from registering to vote; or
- (4) make statements or take action that has the purpose or effect of leading the applicant or recipient to believe that a decision to apply to register or a decision not to register to vote has any bearing on service or benefit availability.

(f) Record retention. AFS staff images and files a completed Form 08MP007E in the applicant's or recipient's case record. Completed Form 08MP007Es are retained until the case record is destroyed, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:65-1-5.

(g) Training. AFS staff are required to view voter registration training within 30 calendar days of their enter on duty date and annually thereafter.

(h) Voter registration site coordinators. Each county director and field manager is responsible for assigning voter registration site coordinators for the counties they manage. Site coordinator duties include:

- (1) maintaining a sufficient supply of Oklahoma Voter Registration Application forms;
- (2) compiling completed and partially completed Oklahoma Voter Registration Application forms daily and mailing them to the Oklahoma State Election Board at the close of each business week in the preaddressed, prepaid, postage envelopes the Oklahoma State Election Board provides;
- (3) maintaining a weekly count of Oklahoma Voter Registration Application forms mailed to the Oklahoma State Election Board and sending a monthly total to the AFS regional office.
- (4) being the contact person for applicants, recipients, the public, or staff inquiries regarding the voter registration process for the counties they serve;
- (5) maintaining all voter registration posters as required;
- (6) monitoring staff compliance with standard voter registration procedures included in this Section; and
- (7) monitoring the staff's completion of annual voter registration training.

(i) Data collection. OKDHS produces a statewide monthly report regarding voter registration activity based on weekly data collection.

SUBCHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS OF CHILD WELFARE SERVICES

PART 1. SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY

340:75-1-1. Purpose [REVOKED]

[Source: Revoked at 23 Ok Reg 1024, eff 5-11-06]

340:75-1-2. Child Welfare Services mission, purpose, scope, and legal base

(a) Mission. The Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) Child Welfare Services (CWS) mission is, with the aid and support of community partners, to promote safety, permanency, and well-being for Oklahoma families whose children are abused or neglected.

(b) Purpose and legislative intent. The CWS purpose is to identify, treat, and prevent child abuse and neglect ensuring reasonable efforts are made to maintain and protect the child in the child's own home. When this is not feasible, CWS provides a placement that meets the child's needs. Per Section 1-1-102 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes, for the purposes of the Oklahoma Children's Code, the Legislature recognizes that:

(1) parents have a natural, legal, and moral right as well as a duty, to care for and support their children and such rights are protected by state and federal laws as well as the Constitution. To that end, it is presumed that the best interests of a child are ordinarily served by leaving the child in the custody of the parents, who are expected to have the strongest bond of love and affection and to be best able to provide a child those needed qualities that make a child's life safe and secure. Nevertheless, this presumption may be rebutted where there is evidence of abuse and neglect or threat of harm;

(2) a child has a right to be raised by the mother and father of the child as well as a right to be raised free from physical and emotional abuse or neglect. When it is necessary to remove a child from a parent, the child is entitled to a permanent home and to be placed in the least restrictive environment to meet the needs of the child; and

(3) because the state has an interest in its present and future citizens as well as a duty to protect those who, because of age, are unable to protect themselves, it is the policy of this state to provide for the protection of children who have been abused or neglected and who may be further threatened by the conduct of persons responsible for the health, safety, and welfare of such children. To this end, where family circumstances threaten the safety of a child, the state's interest in the welfare of the child takes precedence over the natural right and authority of the parent to the extent that it is necessary to protect the child and assure that the best interests of the child are met.

(c) Scope. OKDHS is the designated state agency mandated to protect the child who is alleged or adjudicated deprived. Child welfare services:

- (1) are directed toward child safety, permanency, and well-being;
- (2) focus on the family, defined as one or more adults and child related by blood or law residing in the same household, as an integral part of the child's well-being; and
- (3) are provided to assist the parent develop protective capacities and ability to care for the child.

(d) Legal base.

- (1) The Social Security Act of 1935 requires:
 - (A) each state make welfare services available to children; and
 - (B) child welfare agencies to provide for the protection and care of homeless, dependent, neglected, and potentially delinquent children.
- (2) Oklahoma's Social Security Act enacted in 1936, authorized the Division of Child Welfare.

340:75-1-9.1. Programs and services design, evaluation, and reports

(a) Program planning and evaluation. The Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) defines the purpose, population served, and performance expectations of its children and youth programs. Planning for new programs and services and major modifications to existing ones must include evaluations of their effect on other programs and services, as well as communication and coordination with other public and private children and youth service providers to assure successful and cost-effective implementation. Evaluation that includes monitoring and evaluation of client outcomes must be incorporated into all DHS children and youth programs and services provided by DHS directly or by contract.

(b) Five-year plan. DHS is to develop a five-year plan for children and youth services that includes:

- (1) an analysis and evaluation of programs and services continued, established, and discontinued during the reporting period;
- (2) a description of programs and services to implement;
- (3) statutory changes, when needed;
- (4) information about the number of children in DHS custody during the reporting period; and
- (5) other information that demonstrates the effectiveness of DHS programs and services.

(c) Legislative placement report. Each year on or before January 31, DHS submits a report to the Governor, President Pro Tempore of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Oklahoma Supreme Court that includes information on:

- (1) the number of children in DHS custody placed in non-family-like placements including, but not limited to, the placement types used and the duration of children's stays in such placements;
- (2) the number of approved foster homes, the number of children placed in them, and a comparative review of foster home room-and-board rates; and
- (3) child welfare staff workloads and comparative salaries.

- (1) individuals receiving services from DHS;
- (2) placement providers; or
- (3) children in DHS custody.

(b) Grievance subjects. Grievances may regard:

340:75-1-12.6. Fair hearings

(a) The primary purpose of the fair hearing is to safeguard the rights of clients and provide recourse to address infractions of individual rights and interests. An administrative fair hearing may be granted to the:

(1) foster parent when Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS):

(A) denies the foster parent's claim for foster care maintenance payment;

(B) pays foster care maintenance payment to the foster parent in a sum lower than the amount claimed;

(C) does not pay foster care maintenance payment to the foster parent in a timely manner;

(D) closes the foster parent's home as indicated on Form 04FC008E, Notice of Closure to OKDHS Foster Parents, unless the court has ordered children removed from the foster home or has upheld an OKDHS decision removing children from the foster home following a hearing;

(E) does not return a child in OKDHS custody removed from the foster parent's home due to a child abuse or neglect investigation and:

(i) the foster parent was not provided notice of the foster parent's right to be heard during proceedings before the court; or

(ii) the foster parent received the notice, attempted to have the court hear the question but was denied a right to be heard by the court regarding the decision not to return the child during a hearing, and the court never heard the question about whether the child should be returned; or

(F) notifies the foster parent of an overpayment the foster parent disputes; or

(2) adoptive parent when OKDHS:

(A) denies the adoptive parent's application for an adoption assistance payment as indicated on Form 04AN011E, Request for Review of Denial;

(B) approves the adoptive parent's application for an adoption assistance payment in an amount less than requested; or

(C) delays or denies an authorized adoptive placement out-of-state with the adoptive parent, per OAC 340:75-15-47; or

(D) notifies the adoptive parent of an overpayment the adoptive parent disputes; or

(3) kinship guardian when OKDHS:

(A) denies a kinship guardianship assistance payment as indicated on Form 04AN011E, Request for Review of Denial;

(B) approves the kinship guardianship payment in an amount less than requested; or

(C) delays or denies an authorized kinship guardian placement out-of-state with the kinship guardian; or

(D) notifies the kinship guardian of an overpayment the kinship guardian disputes.

(b) Fair hearing requests regarding:

(1) adverse decisions on adoption assistance payments are filed within 30 days of the date of the written notice of the adverse action per OAC 340:75-15-128; or

(2) closures of approved OKDHS foster homes are processed per OAC 340:75-7-94 and OAC 340:2-5-94.

(c) The appellant is given access, prior to the date of the hearing, to any information to be used in the hearing. Any information acquired after the notice of the adverse decision and after the request for the fair hearing may be used in the hearing process provided the appellant is notified of this information and of the intent to use it. Such information is made available to the appellant ten days prior to the hearing date.

(d) Rulings and issues resulting from findings made by the court are not appealable in the fair hearing process.

(e) Findings made pursuant to a Child Protective Services (CPS) appeal process are not subject to review in the fair hearing process.

340:75-1-14. Legal system related to child welfare services

(a) Enforcement authority. Pursuant to Section 1-1-104 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-1-104), the Attorney General, the district attorney of the appropriate district, and any other law enforcement official having jurisdiction has the authority to bring civil actions against any person, officer or department, board, commission, or other entity, to enforce the provisions of the Oklahoma Children's Code, or to enforce any of the laws of this state protecting or applying in any way to a child removed from the custody of the lawful parent of the child by a disposition order of the court.

(b) Legal considerations. When a child requires legal protection, a judge responsible for deprived cases is assigned to the case. When criminal prosecution of the perpetrator of child abuse or neglect is warranted, a judge responsible for criminal matters is assigned to the case.

(c) Deprived proceedings. The focus of the court in cases of child abuse and neglect is the welfare of the child in the total context of the family. This focus requires social service professionals and the court to work closely with one another toward the goal of protecting the child and determining the appropriate response. The court has a range of choices available to rehabilitate the family and protect the child. The court may enter orders in cases of child abuse or neglect:

- (1) returning the child home under Oklahoma Department of Human Services protective supervision;
- (2) temporarily ordering the child placed out of the home until the behaviors of the parent or legal guardian provide safety for the child; or
- (3) permanently removing the child from the home and terminating parental rights when:
 - (A) the parent is unwilling or unable to provide care and protection for the child; or
 - (B) when certain circumstances exist indicating the child cannot safely return to the home.

340:75-1-16. Custody hearings, placement hearings, and court orders

(a) Pre-petition emergency custody order. Section 1-4-201 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-201) directs that the court may not enter a pre-petition, emergency custody order removing a child from the child's home unless the court makes a determination:

- (1) that an imminent safety threat exists and continuation in the child's home is contrary to the child's welfare; and
- (2) whether reasonable efforts have been made to prevent the child's removal from the child's home; or
- (3) an absence of efforts to prevent the removal of the child from the child's home is reasonable because the removal is due to an emergency and provides for the child's safety and welfare.

(b) Emergency custody hearing. 10A O.S. § 1-4-203 requires that within two judicial days after a child is taken into emergency or protective custody as an alleged deprived child, the child's parent, legal guardian, or custodian is entitled to an emergency custody hearing, and thereafter at such intervals as determined by the court.

(c) Due diligence to identify relatives. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-203, within 30 calendar days of the child's removal, the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) exercises due diligence to identify the child's relatives. DHS provides notice to all grandparents and to other relatives as the court directs. Relatives are not notified when notification would not be in the child's best interests, due to past or current family or domestic violence. The notice advises the relatives:

- (1) the child was or will be removed from the custody of the parent or parents;
- (2) of the options under applicable law to participate in the care and placement of the child, including any options that may be lost by failing to respond to the notice; and
- (3) of the requirements to become a foster family home and the additional services and supports available for the child placed in the home.

(d) Pre-adjudicatory emergency custody order extension. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-601, the child is released from emergency custody when the adjudication hearing is delayed beyond 90 calendar days from the date the petition is filed unless the court extends the emergency order up to an additional 90 calendar days by a written order with findings of fact supporting a determination that:

- (1) reasonable suspicion exists that the health, safety, or welfare of the child would be in imminent danger if the child were returned to the home; and
- (2) an exceptional circumstance exists to support the continuance of the child in emergency custody; or
- (3) an agreement by the parents and the guardian ad litem, if any, exists to the continuance.

(e) Emergency custody order expiration. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-601, when the adjudicatory hearing is delayed, the emergency custody order expires, unless the hearing on the merits of the petition is held within 180 calendar days after the actual removal of the child. Custody is determined by the court. However, the expiration of the emergency custody order does not cause the court to lose jurisdiction over the parties, including the child, and the court may enter other orders the court deems necessary to provide for the health, safety, and welfare of the child pending hearing on the petition.

(f) Post-petition emergency hearing. Once a child is the subject of a deprived child proceeding, any party may file a verified application for an emergency hearing that demonstrates harm or threatened harm to the health, safety, or welfare of the child. The court must hold an emergency hearing within 72 hours after receipt of the application. The court may issue an emergency order to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the child ending the emergency hearing per 10A O.S. §1-4-807.1.

(g) Opportunity for DHS and others to be heard in placement and custody decisions.

(1) Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-802, at any hearing under the Oklahoma Children's Code for the purpose of determining placement of the child in DHS custody, or whether the child in DHS custody, whether protective, emergency, temporary, or permanent is released from DHS custody, the court must provide an opportunity for a DHS representative, the current foster parent, a group home representative where the child is currently placed, the guardian ad litem, and child, when of sufficient age, to present sworn testimony regarding the placement or release.

(2) When the Oklahoma Commission on Children and Youth (OCCY), Office of Juvenile System Oversight has conducted an investigation regarding placement of a child or release of a child from state custody and determines there is a serious risk of danger to the health or safety of the child, OCCY provides the court and the parties a written report of the investigation and recommendation for placement of the child. The OCCY report is provided to the court and the parties no less than five judicial days prior to the hearing. The court, upon motion of any party, orders attendance of any person preparing the OCCY report when it appears there is a substantial likelihood that material evidence not contained in the report may be produced by the testimony of the person who prepared the report. The court considers the report when making the decision regarding placement of the child or release of the child from DHS custody.

(h) Objection by district attorney or child's attorney to child's release from DHS custody and review of court order. Per 10A O.S. §

1-8-103, at any hearing where a child's release from DHS custody, whether protective, emergency, temporary, or permanent custody, creates a serious risk of danger to the health or safety of the child, the district attorney or the attorney for the child may give verbal notice to the court of an objection to the court's order and an intention to seek review of the order releasing the child from DHS custody.

(1) Upon receiving notice, the court issuing the custody order in question stays the custody order pending the filing of an application and completion of the review. The district attorney or attorney for the child files a written application for review within three judicial days from the custody order with the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district. When a written application for review is not filed within the required time period, or when a written notice to the trial court withdrawing the objection is filed within the time period, the objection is deemed abandoned and the stay expires.

(2) Each application for review is assigned by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district to a judge with juvenile docket responsibilities within that administrative judicial district.

(A) The review is completed within five judicial days of the filing of the written application for review and addresses the question of whether releasing the child from DHS custody creates a serious risk of danger to the health or safety of the child.

(B) The reviewing court reviews the hearing record and any other evidence the reviewing court deems relevant and issues a findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(i) Directed placement not allowed. When the court determines it would be in the best interests of the child, the court may place the child in DHS legal custody. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-803, when the child is placed in DHS custody, the court does not have the authority to order a specific placement, but has the authority to approve or disapprove a specific placement when the placement does not conform to statutory requirements and the child's best interests.

(j) Right to be heard and hearing notification to placement providers. DHS provides notice of the hearing per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-1-16.1.

(k) Telephonic or teleconference hearings. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-503 any proceeding held pursuant to the Oklahoma Children's Code may be conducted via teleconference communication when authorized by the court; provided, that when a parent or child appears for a proceeding via teleconference, the attorney representing the parent or child must personally appear at the hearing. Teleconference communication means participation in the hearing by interactive telecommunication, including telephonic communication, by the absent party, parties present in court, the attorneys, and others deemed to be necessary participants to the proceeding including, but not limited to, foster parents and facility staff where a child may be receiving care or treatment.

340:75-1-16.1. Right to be heard and hearing notification to placement providers

(a) Per Section 1-4-807 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-807), a foster parent, group home, pre-adoptive parent, or relative providing care for the child in the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody has a right to notice of court proceedings regarding the child and the right to be heard at all proceedings. Except when allowed to intervene, the foster parent, group home, pre-adoptive parent, or relative providing care for the child is not considered a party to the juvenile court proceeding solely because of the right to notice and the right to be heard at the proceeding.

(b) Per 10A O.S. § 1-9-119, the foster parent:

- (1) receives a notification of any court hearing including the date and time, the judge or hearing officer's name, the hearing's location, and the case's court docket number; and
- (2) is kept informed of decisions concerning the child made by the court, DHS, or the child-placing agency.

340:75-1-17. Adjudication hearing

The adjudication hearing is a proceeding in which the district attorney representing the State, must prove the allegations of the deprived petition are supported by a preponderance of the evidence and as a result, the child is adjudicated to be deprived and made a ward of the court. The hearing is held per Section 1-4-601 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes. The order of adjudication must include a statement advising the parent that failure to appear at any subsequent hearing, or to comply with the requirements of the court may result in the loss of custody of the child or termination of parental rights.

340:75-1-18. Dispositional hearing and options, and placement guidelines

(a) Dispositional hearing purpose. The purpose of the dispositional hearing is to determine the individualized needs of the child and family, and custody of the child during the deprived case. The court considers all helpful evidence in determining the disposition that is in the child's best interests.

(b) Dispositional hearing. After a child is adjudicated to be deprived, the court holds a dispositional hearing, per Section 1-4-706 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-706).

(1) When the child is removed from the parent's custody, the court or the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) considers concurrent permanency immediately and throughout the case.

When appropriate, a concurrent plan is developed to ensure permanency for the child occurs at the earliest opportunity in the event reunification fails or is delayed. Appropriate in-state and out-of-state placement options are identified and the placement selected is the best available placement to provide permanency for the child.

(2) At the hearing, a DHS recommended, individualized service plan is presented to the court. The judge makes the final decision regarding if the proposed individualized service plan is accepted and if any or all recommendations are ordered by the court.

(c) Court orders regarding custody or guardianship. Every effort is made to place a child with a member of the child's family in a safe and appropriate home, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-706. When a child is removed from the custodial parent and the court, in the child's best interests, is unable to release the child to the noncustodial parent, a placement preference is given to relatives and persons who have a kinship relationship with the child. DHS reports to the court, the diligent efforts made to secure the placement per 10A O.S. § 1-4-204 and Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-6-85.2. In cases when the Indian Child Welfare Act applies, the placement preferences of the Act are followed per OAC 340:75-19-14.

(d) Placement prohibitions. A potential foster or adoptive parent is not approved as placement for a child when the potential foster or adoptive parent or any other person residing in the home of the potential foster or adoptive parent was convicted of any of the criminal offenses specified in 10A O.S. § 1-4-705 and OAC 340:75-7-15 or when the potential foster or adoptive parent is subject to, or is married to, or living with someone subject to the Oklahoma Sex Offender Registration Act.

(e) Dispositional options. 10A O.S. § 1-4-707 permits the court to enter dispositional orders including, but not limited to:

(1) placing the child under DHS protective supervision in the child's own home, with the child's parent or legal guardian with whom the child was residing at the time the events or conditions arose that brought the child within the court's jurisdiction, subject to conditions as prescribed by the court that would reasonably prevent the child from continued deprivation. DHS supervision remains in effect for one year unless extended or reduced in appropriate circumstances by the court per 10A O.S. § 1-4-707;

(2) placing custody of the child with the non-custodial parent under DHS protective supervision; and ordering:

(A) reunification services for the parent or legal guardian from whom the child was, or is being removed;

(B) services for the parent, who is assuming physical custody of the child to allow the parent to later obtain legal custody without court supervision; or

(C) services for both parents, with the court determining at a subsequent review hearing which parent, if either, will have legal custody of the child;

(3) placing the child in the home of a parent. The court gives a preference for placing temporary custody of the child with a relative, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-204, subject to the child's best interests and the conditions and restrictions specified in 10A O.S. § 1-4-705. In determining whether to place temporary custody of the child with a relative, the court may consider:

(A) the child's physical, psychological, educational, medical, and emotional needs;

(B) the wishes of the parent, the relative, and child, when appropriate;

(C) when placement of the siblings and half-siblings can be made in the same home, if that placement is found to be in the best interest of each child;

(D) the background information of the relative and any other person living in the home, including whether any such person has a prior history of violence, acts of child abuse or neglect, or any other background that would render the home unsuitable;

(E) the nature and duration of the relationship between the child and the relative, and the relative's desire to care for and to provide long-term permanency for the child when reunification is unsuccessful; and

(F) the ability of the relative to:

(i) provide a safe, secure, and stable environment for the child;

(ii) exercise proper and effective care and control of the child;

(iii) provide a home and the necessities of life for the child;

(iv) protect the child from his or her parents;

(v) facilitate court-ordered reunification efforts with the parent;

(vi) facilitate visitation with the child's siblings and other relatives; and

(vii) arrange for appropriate and safe child care, when necessary;

(4) placing the child in the custody of a private institution or agency, including any institution established and operated by the county, authorized to care for children or to place them in family homes.

(A) In placing a child in a private institution or agency, the court selects one that is licensed by DHS or another state agency supervising or licensing private institutions and agencies; or, when such institution or agency is in another state, by the analogous department of that state.

- (B) Whenever the court places a child in an institution or agency, it transmits with the order of commitment a summary of its information concerning the child, and the institution or agency gives to the court such information concerning the child as the court may at any time require;
 - (5) placing the child in DHS custody. DHS makes an individualized determination when selecting a placement for the child based upon the child's best interests and permanency plan, utilizing:
 - (A) a home or facility meeting the preferences specified by the federal and state Indian Child Welfare Acts, when applicable;
 - (B) a non-custodial parent's home;
 - (C) a DHS-approved relative's home;
 - (D) a DHS-approved non-relative's, kinship family home;
 - (E) an approved foster home where the child was previously placed;
 - (F) a DHS-approved suitable, non-kinship, foster family home;
 - (G) a suitable licensed group home for children; or
 - (H) an independent living program;
 - (6) ordering that any person residing in the home follow specific conduct the court determines is in the child's best interests that reasonably prevents the child from continued deprivation;
 - (7) ordering establishment of a permanent guardianship per 10A O.S. § 1-4-709; and
 - (8) dismissing the petition and terminating the court's jurisdiction at any time for good cause when it is in the child's best interests.
- (f) Additional court determinations. The court makes a determination whether:
- (1) reasonable efforts:
 - (A) were made to reunite the child with his or her family; however, the period for reunification services may not exceed 17 months from the date the child was initially removed from the child's home, unless the court finds compelling reasons to the contrary;
 - (B) to reunite the child with his or her family are inconsistent with the child's permanency plan;
 - (C) were taken to finalize the child's permanent placement including, when appropriate, through an interstate placement; or
 - (D) to reunite the child with the family are not required, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-809 and OAC 340:75-1-18.4;
 - (2) services provided to assist any youth, 16 years of age or older, in the transition from out-of-home care to independent living are appropriate; and
 - (3) to place siblings, who were removed, together in the same foster care, guardianship, or adoptive placement and provide for frequent visitation or other ongoing interaction for siblings, who were removed, and are not placed together. Guidance on when siblings may be separated is found in OAC 340:75-6-85.

(g) Notification of hearing. DHS provides notice of the hearing per OAC 340:75-1-16.1.

340:75-1-18.1. Permanency hearings

(a) Permanency hearing. A permanency hearing is held for the child alleged or adjudicated to be deprived. State and federal law establish the requirements for permanency hearings.

(1) Per Section 1-4-810 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-810), when a child has been in out-of-home care for 12 months or longer, the court may require the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) to facilitate a meeting, held no later than 30 calendar days prior to the permanency hearing, to discuss recommendations regarding the child's permanency plan that are reported to, and reviewed by, the court. The court may direct the assigned guardian ad litem, if any, who may be a court-appointed special advocate, a judicial case manager, or DHS to make meeting arrangements. The child's foster parents, the child's parents, or the parents' attorney, a post-adjudication review board member, the guardian ad litem appointed to the case, the child, the child's attorney, and others as appropriate are contacted to assist in the preparation of the report.

(2) The judge conducts the permanency hearing and makes determinations, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-811. DHS Child Welfare (CW) specialists provide the court with the necessary information to conduct the hearing. The initial and subsequent permanency hearings may be held earlier or more frequently at the request of a party, DHS, or the court, but initially no later than:

(A) six months from the date of the child's placement in out-of-home care and every six months thereafter; and

(B) 30 calendar days after a determination that reasonable efforts are not required to reunite the child with the family, and every six months thereafter.

(b) Notification of hearing and right to be heard. DHS provides notice of the hearing per OAC 340:75-1-16.1.

(c) Court jurisdiction to finalize child's permanent plan. The judge presiding over the deprived case has authority to make final determination in the matter and preside over any separate action necessary to finalize a child's permanency plan, including an adoption, guardianship, or other custody proceeding per 10A O.S. § 1-4-101.

340:75-1-18.4. Reasonable efforts not required determination

(a) At any time prior to or following the adjudicatory hearing, the court, on its own motion, or upon the motion of a party, may find that reasonable efforts to prevent the removal of a child from home or to reunite the child with the family are not required, when the court determines, per Section 1-4-809 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes, that the:

- (1) parent or legal guardian of the child who is an infant 12 months of age or younger has abandoned the child;
- (2) child's parent or legal guardian has:
 - (A) committed murder or manslaughter of any child;
 - (B) aided or abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit voluntary manslaughter of any child;
 - (C) committed a felony assault upon any child that resulted in the child receiving serious bodily injury; or
 - (D) subjected any child to aggravated circumstances including, but not limited to, heinous and shocking abuse, or heinous and shocking neglect; or
- (3) the parental rights of a parent to the child's sibling have been terminated involuntarily;
- (4) parent has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have committed sexual abuse against the child or another child of the parent; or
- (5) parent is required to register with a sex offender registry pursuant to Section 113(a) of the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006, 42 U.S.C., Section 16913(a).

(b) The court conducts a permanency hearing within 30 calendar days of the court's determination that any of the conditions specified in 10A O.S. § 1-4-809 exist. Reasonable efforts are required to place the child in a timely manner in accordance with the permanency plan.

340:75-1-20. Judicial review hearings

(a) Six-month review hearing requirement. Section 1-4-807 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-807) requires the court to review every case regarding a child alleged or adjudicated deprived no later than six months after the date of the child's removal from the home and at least once every six months thereafter until permanency is achieved or the court otherwise terminates jurisdiction.

(1) At the review hearing, Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) provides information similar to that offered at the dispositional hearing, with special emphasis on the parent or legal guardian's progress on the court-ordered treatment and service plan.

(2) The court reviews all evidence that assists in decision-making including, but not limited to, oral and written reports presented by DHS and others involved in the case.

(b) Ninety-day review requirement. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-807, when DHS documents a compelling reason why a petition to terminate parental rights to the child is not in the child's best interests, based upon a consideration that the child is not presently capable of functioning in a family setting, the child's status is re-evaluated by the court every 90 calendar days until a final determination is made that the child cannot be placed in a family setting.

(c) Requesting review hearing and concurrent review and permanency hearings.

(1) At any time during the pendency of the case, any party may request the court to review the case. When a review is granted, the requesting party provides notice to all parties of the date and time of the hearing, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-807.

(2) A review hearing may be held concurrently with a permanency hearing, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-807.

(d) Review hearing report. DHS prepares the review hearing report for the court when the child is in DHS legal custody or when DHS has court-ordered protective supervision of the child. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-808, the report includes, but is not limited to:

- (1) a summary of the child's physical, mental, and emotional condition, the conditions existing in the out-of-home placement where the child has been placed, and the child's adjustment;
- (2) a report on the child's progress in school and, when the child has been placed outside of the child's home, the visitation exercised by the child's parents or other persons authorized by the court;
- (3) services provided to the child 16 years of age or older that assist the child in the transition from out-of-home care or other community placement to independent living;
- (4) a description of:

- (A) each parent's progress to correct the conditions or change behaviors that caused the child to be adjudicated deprived;
 - (B) changes that still need to occur and the specific actions the parent must take to make the changes; and
 - (C) services and assistance offered or provided to each parent since the previous hearing and the services that are needed in the future;
- (5) a description of the child's placements:
- (A) by number and type with dates of entry and exit;
 - (B) reasons for the placement or change in placement; and
 - (C) a statement regarding the success or lack of success of each placement;
- (6) DHS efforts to locate and involve each parent in the planning for the child, when the parent is not currently communicating with DHS;
- (7) compliance by DHS, as applicable, and each parent with the court's orders concerning the individualized service plans, previous court orders, and DHS recommendations;
- (8) whether the current placement is appropriate for the child, its distance from the child's home and if it is the least restrictive, most family-like placement available;
- (9) a proposed timetable for the child's return to his or her home or other permanent placement; and
- (10) specific recommendations, giving reasons whether:
- (A) trial reunification should be approved by the court;
 - (B) trial reunification should be continued to a certain date as specified by the court;
 - (C) the child should remain in, or be placed outside of the child's parent or legal guardian's home; or
 - (D) the child should remain in the current placement when the permanency plan is other than reunification with the child's parent or legal guardian.
- (e) Notice of hearing. DHS provides notice of the hearing per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-1-16.1.

340:75-1-21. Post-adjudication review board

Section 1116.2 et seq. of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes mandates the establishment of review boards for each judicial district to review the case of each child alleged or adjudicated deprived.

(1) The child's court file is reviewed by the local post adjudication review board (PARB) at least once every six months until the court case is dismissed.

(2) PARB reviews the case of each child adjudicated deprived pursuant to the laws of another state or territory, when the child resides in Oklahoma and OKDHS has agreed to provide services to the child pursuant to the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC) or other agreement concerning the child.

(3) The PARB's findings and recommendations are submitted to the court within ten days of any review hearing.

(4) PARB reports its findings to OKDHS and may report these findings to the agency or court in the state having jurisdiction.

(5) A person employed by OKDHS may be appointed to a board and may participate in any court hearing concerning the case of any child subject to review by PARB; however, the OKDHS member may not participate as a board member, in a hearing in which he or she is a party or is professionally involved.

340:75-1-22. Administrative review and procedures

(a) Administrative review. Title IV of the Social Security Act requires that a case review, either judicial or administrative, occur at least each six months following the date of placement for each child in out-of-home care. An administrative review may not substitute for the statutorily required hearings. An administrative review is held when a case involving a child placed in out-of-home care, or a youth age 18 to 21 in voluntary placement with Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) is not reviewed after a six-month interval by the court of jurisdiction or the post adjudication review board (PARB). Child Welfare staff is responsible for providing an administrative review in these situations. Each parent and child, when of appropriate age or ability, is given the opportunity to participate in the review.

(b) Case review system. Section 475(6) of the Social Security Act defines the administrative review as ... a review open to the participation of the parents of the child, conducted by a panel of appropriate persons at least one of whom is not responsible for the case management of, or the delivery of services to, either the child or the parents who are the subject of the review. The case review system ensures:

(1) each adjudicated-deprived child in OKDHS custody living in out-of-home placement has a case plan designed to achieve placement in a safe setting that is least restrictive, in close proximity to the parent(s)' home, and is consistent with the child's best interests and special needs;

- (2) the child's status is reviewed at least every six months by a court or by administrative review to determine:
- (A) the child's safety;
 - (B) the continuing need for and appropriateness of the child's placement;
 - (C) the extent of progress made on the case plan toward alleviating the conditions that caused the child's placement in out-of-home care; and
 - (D) a likely date the child can be returned home or will obtain permanency through adoption, guardianship, or other placement, as applicable; and
- (3) procedural safeguards, such as a permanency hearing, are made available to the child and family, as required by Section 1-4-807 of Title 10-A of the Oklahoma Statutes, per OAC 340:75-1-18.1

340:75-1-23. Termination of parental rights

Motion or petition for termination of parental rights. A petition or motion for termination of parental rights may be filed by either the district attorney or the attorney of the child alleged to be or adjudicated deprived. Refer to OAC 340:75-6-40.7 for additional information regarding termination of parental rights.

PART 3. CHILD WELFARE CONFIDENTIALITY

340:75-1-42. Client Information confidentiality

(a) Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) records. Per Section 1-6-101 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-6-101) and Part 1340 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations (45 CFR Part 1340), Child Welfare (CW) records and information are confidential. These statutes mandate that records prepared, obtained, or maintained by OKDHS are confidential with regard to the child who is or has been under OKDHS care, custody, or supervision or to a family member or other person living in the home of the child.

(1) Any record made in the course of a referral, assessment, investigation, or inquiry by OKDHS to determine whether a child is or may be deprived is confidential and not open to public inspection.

(2) The term "record" means any written or printed document, paper, form, log, report, file, or note and any film, photograph, audio tape recording, visual tape recording, or computer tape or disk, or information entered into and maintained in an automated or computerized information system.

(3) Confidential CW records include any study, plan, recommendation, assessment, report, or other information describing the history, diagnosis, condition, care, treatment, or custody regarding a child, or safety analysis records that have been prepared and obtained in response to a report of alleged child abuse or neglect and include assessment reports and reports to the District Attorney with all supporting documentation attached and any addendums.

(4) The contents of OKDHS records cannot be disclosed without a court order except to certain persons or entities authorized by statute. CW case-specific information is not subject to the Oklahoma Open Records Act. Child Welfare neither confirms nor denies that a specific child abuse or neglect investigation is in process or that CW services are provided to a specific child or family member unless the criteria specified per OAC 340:75-1-44(e) is met regarding the death or near death of a child.

(b) Adoption records. All papers and records pertaining to adoption are confidential as required by 10 O.S. § 7505-1.1. When the adoptive placement is authorized, the child's case file and the adoptive home file become part of the adoption record, per OAC 340:75-15-103. Records regarding adoption subsidy assistance are confidential. When required after finalization of the adoption of a child in OKDHS custody, Post Adoption Services Section releases social and medical history that does not identify the adoptive family.

(c) HIV/AIDS information. Refer to OAC 340:75-1-113 through 340:75-1-114 for rules regarding Human Immunodeficiency Virus and Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (HIV/AIDS) confidentiality and the release of confidential information.

(d) Disclosure of information to persons or agencies providing professional services.

(1) Pursuant to 10A O.S. § 1-2-107, OKDHS may provide information to a person or agency providing professional services such as a medical examination of or therapeutic intervention with a victim of abuse or neglect. This information may include, but is not limited to:

(A) the investigative determination; or

(B) the services offered and provided.

(2) OKDHS provides information including the investigative determination, the services offered or provided, and such other information deemed necessary by OKDHS, to any hospital or any physician, including, but not limited to, doctors of medicine and dentistry, licensed osteopathic physicians, residents and interns, reporting the abuse or neglect of a child pursuant to 10A O.S. § 1-2-101. 340:75-1-46. Transfer and release of confidential information with the standard Consent for Release of Information form

(a) As mandated in 10 O.S. § 620.1 - 620.4, a uniform form, Form 04MP001E, Consent for Release of Information, was developed by the agencies listed in paragraph (1) of this subsection to be utilized when requesting confidential information from each of these agencies.

(1) Agencies mandated to develop and use the uniform Consent for Release of Information are the:

- (A) Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS);
- (B) Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services;
- (C) State Department of Health;
- (D) State Department of Education;
- (E) State Department of Vocational and Technical Education;
- (F) Oklahoma Commission on Children and Youth;

- (G) J.D. McCarty Center for Children with Developmental Disabilities;
- (H) Department of Corrections; and
- (I) Office of Juvenile Affairs.

(2) The agencies in (1) of this subsection adopted the release form and its guidelines for use when agencies need information maintained by another of the participating agencies to provide services to a child and his or her family.

(A) The release does not allow information to be obtained from or released to a participating agency when the information is not otherwise subject to release by written consent.

(B) Confidential information maintained by OKDHS is only released in compliance with state and federal law and agency policy per OAC 340:75-1-42 through 340:75-1-45. Signed Form 04MP001E does not require or further allow release of information except to the extent allowed by OKDHS policy. In most circumstances, when OKDHS receives Form 04MP001E from a participating agency it is treated as a request for disclosure of relevant case information by an authorized service provider entitled to such information without a court order under one or more specific provisions per OAC 340:75-1-42 through 340:75-1-45.

(C) Form 04MP001E is not required for an otherwise authorized disclosure, nor does the form alone authorize any disclosure which would be unauthorized per OAC 340:75-1-42 through 340:75-1-45.

(b) When completing Form 04MP001E, note that state law allows for medical and/or mental health treatment, with certain exceptions, of some minors without parental consent as provided in Section 2602 of Title 63 of the Oklahoma Statutes (63 O.S. § 2602). When a minor is legally competent to consent to his or her own treatment, no other person, including a parent, may consent to the release of records relating to such treatment. Minors who cannot consent for treatment cannot release treatment records. Consent may only be given by the parent, guardian, or legal custodian.

(c) Appropriate authorizing persons may sign a release for the transfer of a copy of confidential records from one state agency to another. The release is dated and notarized or bear the appropriate agency staff signature and is only valid for a period of one year. Form 04MP001E is used in such situations. The release is available for use only when release of the confidential information is not otherwise prohibited by state or federal law. Rules and policy of each participating agency should be consulted to ascertain whether certain restrictions on transfer may apply to specific types of records maintained by various agencies.

PART 7. INTERSTATE COMPACT ON THE PLACEMENT OF CHILDREN

340:75-1-86. Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children

(a) Purpose. The Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC) is a means to ensure protection and services to children who are placed across state lines. The ICPC establishes orderly procedures for the interstate placement of children and fixes responsibility for those involved in placing the child.

(b) Legal base. The ICPC is an agreement adopted by all state legislatures and is consistent with constitutional law. The legal basis for the compact is found in Article I, Section 10, Clause 3 of the United States Constitution and Section 571 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes. Oklahoma is one of 50 states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. Virgin Islands that adopted the ICPC and agreed to follow the Articles and Regulations of the ICPC when placing children out-of-state and when children are placed in Oklahoma from another state.

(c) Sending or requesting agency. The sending or requesting agency is:

- (1) a party state, officer, or employee thereof;
- (2) a subdivision of a party state, officer, or employee thereof;
- (3) a court of a party state;
- (4) a person, corporation, association, or charitable agency; or
- (5) an entity that sends, brings, or causes to be sent or brought any child to another party state.

(d) Receiving state. The receiving state is the state to which a child is sent or brought or caused to be sent or brought, whether:

- (1) by public authorities or private persons or agencies; and
- (2) for placement with state or local public authorities, private agencies, or persons.

(e) Types of Placements. ICPC applies to placement of a child:

- (1) preliminary to adoption;
- (2) into foster care, including foster homes, group homes, residential treatment facilities, and child caring institutions for treatment of chronic or long-term conditions;

(3) with the parent, stepparent, grandparent, adult brother or sister, or adult aunt or uncle when any such relative is not making the placement; and
(4) adjudicated delinquent and placed in institutions in other states.

(f) Exceptions to ICPC. ICPC does not apply to:

- (1) placement of a child in a hospital, medical facility, or mental health facility for the primary purpose of treating an acute or short-term medical or emotional problem;
- (2) placement of a child in any institution primarily educational in character;
- (3) placement of a child by the parent, stepparent, grandparent, adult brother or sister, adult uncle or aunt, or child's non-state agency guardian with any such relative or non-state agency guardian in the receiving state;
- (4) visits in another state;
- (5) a child's placement with a non-offending, noncustodial biological parent when the court does not:
 - (A) have evidence that such parent is unfit;
 - (B) seek such evidence; and
 - (C) retain jurisdiction over the child after the court transfers custody;
- (6) placement of a child in or from another country; and
- (7) interstate supervision of a parent's treatment and service plan.

(g) Oklahoma as the sending agency or state. For an out-of-state placement request, the child must be under Oklahoma court jurisdiction but is not required to be in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) custody.

(h) Home study time requirements. Home studies requested by other states to assess the safety and suitability of placement are conducted, and a report addressing the extent to which the proposed placement meets the needs of the child is completed.

- (1) The report is provided to the requesting state within 60 calendar days after receipt of the request.
- (2) When the home study is not completed and provided to the requesting state within 60 calendar days, the specific reasons it is not completed are documented in an email to the Oklahoma ICPC compact administrator.
- (3) The requesting state must accept the receiving state's home study as meeting the requirements of the receiving state unless, within 14 calendar days of receiving the study, the requesting state determines that making a decision in reliance on the study would be contrary to the welfare of the child.
- (4) A completed home study does not require the requesting state to place the child.

(1) Per 63 O.S. § 1-502.2, except as otherwise provided by law, all information and records concerning any person who may have a communicable or noncommunicable disease required to be reported by Oklahoma statute are confidential. 10A O.S. §1-6-101 defines agency records as records prepared, obtained, or maintained by the agency and would include the medical records of a child in OKDHS custody, including information regarding any communicable or sexually transmitted disease, pertaining to a child. 10A O.S. § 1-6-103 provides OKDHS records may be inspected and contents disclosed without a court order to certain persons showing proper credentials and pursuant to their lawful duties. HIV-related information about the child, or any person who is a member of the child's case record, may be disclosed to:

- (A) the court having the child currently before it in any proceeding pursuant to Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes;
- (B) a district attorney (DA) or employee of the DA's office in the course of his or her official duties pursuant to Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes;
- (C) the attorney representing a child who is the subject of a proceeding pursuant to Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes;
- (D) others entitled to access CW records without a court order, per 10A O.S. §1-6-103; and
- (E) per 10A O.S. §1-7-104, the placement provider, if this information is known to OKDHS.

(2) Disclosure of the child's HIV serological status is limited to the child's placement provider, court, DA, and child's attorney. OKDHS consults with the judge and DA to determine the appropriate method of disclosure of HIV-related information to the court and DA to prevent inadvertent disclosure by inclusion of the information in the court file regarding the child. Others entitled to access to CW records without a court order, per OAC 340:75-1-44, are provided communicable disease information on a need-to-know basis.

(3) A person advised of another person's HIV status, with the exception of the court, DA, or child's attorney, signs and dates a statement similar to the statement of confidentiality in (A) of this paragraph.

(A) This information is disclosed to you from confidential records that are protected by state law. State law prohibits you from making any further disclosure of this information without obtaining specific written authorization, per Part 9 of OAC 340:75-1, or as otherwise permitted by law. Any unauthorized further disclosure is in violation of state law and may result in civil or criminal sanctions as provided by Oklahoma Statutes.

(B) A general authorization for release of medical or other information is not sufficient authorization for further disclosure of a person's HIV status.

(g) Early identification of communicable disease. Per 10A O.S. § 1-7-103, OKDHS provides medical care as is necessary to preserve the child's health and protect the health of others in contact with the child.

(h) Placement provider's request for HIV test. When requested by the placement provider, OKDHS provides for the HIV examinations or tests on the child based on the Centers for Disease Control guidelines for time and frequency of testing. Per 10A O.S. §1-7-104 OKDHS provides the child's placement provider with sufficient medical information to enable the placement provider to care for the child safely and appropriately. The medical information includes, but is not limited to:

- (1) any medical or psychological conditions;
- (2) diseases, illnesses, accidents, allergies, and congenital defects;

(3) the child's Medicaid card or information on any other third-party insurer, if any; and

(4) Immunization history.

(i) Authorization for HIV testing. When requested by the child's placement provider, per 10A O.S. § 1-7-104, OKDHS obtains authorization for an HIV test for the child and release of the test results to the placement provider. Authorization for HIV testing or release of HIV test results may be obtained by informed written consent of the child's parent or legal guardian or court order.

340:75-1-114. Placement provider and residential care contractor requirements related to Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV)

(a) Residential care and foster parent requirements related to Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) and Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS). Placement providers and contractors of residential care are advised regarding possible placement of a child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) custody who is HIV or AIDS infected.

(1) Residential care contractors. OKDHS requires residential care contractors to have policy and procedures that prohibit discrimination toward the child with HIV infection. Per Section 1-502.1 of Title 63 of the Oklahoma Statutes (63 O.S. § 1-502.1), private providers of residential care for children, excluding foster parents, must establish written policy and procedures for addressing the medical and security needs of children who are at risk for HIV infection, HIV seropositive, or medically diagnosed with AIDS. Required written policy and procedures include, but are not limited to:

- (A) universal precautions for preventing transmission of communicable diseases;
- (B) staff education and training regarding AIDS and HIV infection;
- (C) nondiscrimination clause for the child who has any contagious disease, including HIV infection;
- (D) statement of confidentiality and procedures for obtaining informed written consent for testing and release of HIV test results, including disclosure to others, consistent with Part 9 of OAC 340:75-1;
- (E) guidelines for determining when the child is offered serologic testing;
- (F) guidelines to educate the child about the transmission of HIV infection and precautions to prevent transmission; and
- (G) procedure for separate and confidential case records on the health status of the child who is:
 - (i) tested for HIV;

- (ii) HIV seropositive; or
- (iii) medically diagnosed with AIDS.

(2) Foster parents. Foster parents utilize universal precautions to prevent transmission of communicable diseases.

(b) Release of HIV-related information from a contracted placement provider or other third party. When a source other than the child, child's parent, legal guardian, or custodian provides HIV/AIDS-related information to OKDHS, OKDHS obtains informed written consent from the child's parent or legal guardian or custodian for the release of information. When the parent or legal guardian or custodian:

- (1) refuses to provide written consent for the release of the HIV/AIDS-related information from the third party, OKDHS considers the information false; or
- (2) provides written consent for the release of HIV/AIDS-related information from a third party, OKDHS proceeds with case management for the child at risk for HIV infection.

(c) The child's disclosure of HIV/AIDS status and HIV risk exposure behaviors. When a child in OKDHS custody disclosed his or her HIV/AIDS status or engages in HIV risk exposure behaviors, the child is counseled regarding consequences that may result from the child's deliberate disclosure and behaviors.

340:75-3-100. Child protective services purpose, philosophy, legal authority, and scope

(a) Child protective services purpose. Child protective services (CPS) is a child welfare services provision that focuses on preventing, identifying, and treating child abuse and neglect and ensuring child safety. Efforts are made to maintain and protect the child in the child's own home when safety threats can be managed and controlled. The primary purpose of CPS intervention is to:

- (1) protect the child;
- (2) assess family strengths and needs; and
- (3) provide services to remedy the conditions and behaviors that cause abuse, neglect, or safety threats.

(b) Child protective services philosophy. The child welfare (CW) program emphasizes child safety and family preservation when the child is safely maintained within the family. While family reunification or rehabilitation is an optimum means for protecting the child, the right to family integrity is limited by the child's right to be protected from abuse and neglect, per Section 1-1-102 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-1-102).

- (1) Consistent with federal and state requirements:
 - (A) reasonable efforts are made when possible to prevent or eliminate the need for the child's removal; or
 - (B) intervention is directed toward child and family reunification when the child will be safe in the home.
- (2) When the child cannot be safely maintained in the home, court intervention and the child's removal from the home may be necessary.
- (3) Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) recognizes that when the child is removed from the home, timely achievement of the child's permanency plan is in the child's best interests.

(c) Legal authority for child protective services.

(1) 10A O.S. §§ 1-2-101 through 1-2-110 requires that suspected abuse and neglect be reported to OKDHS. OKDHS conducts a safety analysis and forwards the assessment conclusions or investigation findings to the appropriate district attorney's (DA's) office.

(2) 10A O.S. § 1-2-108 requires that OKDHS maintain an information system of the assessment conclusions or investigation findings in addition to other child abuse and neglect related information.

(3) 10A O.S. § 1-4-201 sets forth methods by which custody of a child may be assumed. Law enforcement officers or designated employees of the court are authorized to assume protective custody without a court order in defined circumstances, or the court may issue an order for emergency custody after an application, supported by an affidavit, is submitted by the DA to the court.

(d) Scope of child protective services.

(1) CPS intervention is mandated by 10A O.S. § 1-1-102 when a child is abused, neglected, drug-endangered, or at risk of significant harm because of willful acts, intent to act, or omissions by the person responsible for the child's (PRFC) health, safety, or welfare. CPS addresses intra-familial abuse or neglect and assesses or investigates allegations of abuse or neglect when the perpetrator is identified as:

(A) the child's custodial or noncustodial parent;

(B) the child's legal guardian or custodian;

(C) an adult residing in the child's home including an adult who is cohabitating with the child's parent; or

(D) a person other than a PRFC when it is necessary to determine whether the PRFC's actions contributed to the child's abuse or neglect and reflects the PRFC's unwillingness or inability to protect the child.

(2) OKDHS is mandated per 10A O.S. § 1-2-105 to investigate alleged abuse or neglect by a PRFC as defined in 10A O.S. § 1-1-105 that includes:

(A) a foster parent per OAC 340:75-3-410;

(B) an owner, operator, or employee of a child care facility, child care center, or child care home, as defined in 10 O.S. § 402, whether licensed or unlicensed per OAC 340:75-3-110 and 340:75-3-420; and

(C) an agent or employee of a public or private residential home institution facility or day treatment program as defined by 10 O.S. § 175.20.

(3) Except when employed in a child care facility, school teachers and officials, OKDHS employees, and other persons providing services to the child are not PRFCs.

(4) Reports alleging child abuse or neglect in settings above the foster care level are investigated by the Office of Client Advocacy per OAC 340:2-3-32.

340:75-3-110. Child protective services (CPS) relationship to other entities involved in child abuse and neglect investigations and deprived cases

(a) Other entities' responsibilities for, or regarding child abuse or neglect investigations.

(1) Office of Client Advocacy (OCA).

(A) The Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS), OCA, per Section 1-9-112 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-9-112), is responsible for investigations of allegations of child abuse:

(i) or neglect of the child placed in a DHS facility, or in a public or private residential facility including, but not limited to, jails or detention centers, hospitals, psychiatric facilities and treatment programs, day treatment programs, and licensed or unlicensed residential child care facilities; and

(ii) neglect, sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation by a community services worker, per 56 O.S. § 1025.1.

(B) Reports of suspected abuse or neglect of a child are made to the DHS Child Abuse and Neglect Hotline (Hotline) as prescribed in Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:2-3-33.

(C) OCA does not investigate allegations of abuse or neglect of the child in foster homes, specialized community homes, therapeutic foster homes, or kinship home placements.

(2) Child Care Services (CCS). DHS CCS is responsible for implementing the Oklahoma Child Care Facilities Licensing Act, per 10 O.S. §§ 401 through 441 designed to ensure child safety. CCS has concurrent responsibilities with CPS in investigations of alleged physical abuse, sexual abuse, or serious neglect in child care centers and homes. Whenever possible, investigations are conducted jointly by CCS and CPS. This does not include violations of CCS licensing requirements that are referred to CCS.

(3) Office of Juvenile Affairs (OJA). OJA investigates allegations of child abuse or neglect in facilities operated per the Oklahoma Juvenile Code.

(b) CPS and inter-agency relationships. CPS functions as a component of the multi-faceted system established to protect children from abuse and neglect that includes law enforcement, the court system, other social services agencies and organizations. CPS is a component of the child welfare (CW) services continuum that includes preventive and protective services, voluntary family-centered services, foster care and placement services, and adoption services.

(c) CPS role. CPS evaluates reports of child abuse or neglect, assesses child safety and the risk of future maltreatment and the need for protective services, and provides and coordinates services.

(d) Law enforcement role. Law enforcement investigates a report of child abuse or neglect as a crime.

(1) Reports that require joint involvement by CPS and law enforcement are conducted as CPS investigations rather than assessments.

(2) Law enforcement identifies and arrests the offender, gathers court-admissible evidence, and protects the integrity of the evidence so the offender can be prosecuted in criminal court.

(3) Law enforcement may:

(A) provide protection to the child, other family members, and the CW specialist during crisis intervention;

(B) place the child into protective custody and authorize immediate medical or behavioral health treatment, when necessary, to protect the child's health, safety, or welfare, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-201; and

(C) release the child to a person designated by the parent when the person responsible for the child (PRFC) was arrested on a charge or warrant for a crime other than child endangerment or child abuse or neglect, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-201.

(e) Child Welfare Services (CWS) joint response with law enforcement. When law enforcement takes a child into protective custody due to abuse or neglect allegations, CWS is contacted in accordance with the joint response protocol developed, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-201. When possible, CWS responds to the scene where the child's protective custody was assumed.

(1) CWS conducts a safety evaluation at the scene to determine if the child faces a safety threat and, when so, if the child can be protected through placement with relatives or others instead of a DHS foster care placement.

(2) When a determination is made at the scene that the child cannot safely remain in the home, law enforcement and CWS coordinate transportation of the child to a location where DHS believes the child can be protected. DHS utilizes a shelter when other placement options are unavailable or inappropriate.

(3) When CWS is unable to respond to the scene where a child was placed in protective custody, the child is taken by law enforcement to the law enforcement office, the local CWS office, or other location as agreed to by the team.

(4) A child taken into protective custody by law enforcement is not by virtue of a standing order, considered to be in DHS emergency custody upon the child's admission to a shelter. A child cannot be placed in DHS emergency custody until:

(A) CWS has completed a safety evaluation and concluded the child faces an imminent safety threat; and

(B) the court has issued a child-specific emergency custody order.

(f) Restoration of custody to the parent, legal guardian, or custodian when child is in protective custody. When the safety evaluation conducted by CWS indicates the child does not face an imminent safety threat, DHS restores the child to the custody and control of the parent, legal guardian, or custodian, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-201. Specific county procedures are followed when a child is released from protective custody by the court.

(g) DHS relationship with law enforcement and Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI).

(1) DHS coordinates the child abuse and neglect investigation with law enforcement, when appropriate. DHS does not relinquish investigative responsibility when law enforcement requests that DHS not interview certain persons or delay the DHS investigation. Instead, DHS develops a plan with law enforcement to ensure the DHS child safety responsibilities are fulfilled without interfering with the criminal investigation.

(2) The DHS Director or designee has the authority to request a criminal investigation by OSBI or another law enforcement agency, per 10A O.S. § 1-2-105, when it is reasonably believed that criminally injurious conduct including, but not limited to, physical or sexual abuse of a child occurred.

(h) District attorney's (DA) role in deprived matters. It is the DA's responsibility to determine if the information obtained during the CPS investigation warrants filing a petition alleging the child to be deprived.

(i) The DA's role in criminal prosecutions. DHS makes recommendations to the DA regarding deprived proceedings but not for criminal prosecution. The DA has the responsibility to decide if criminal charges are filed against the alleged perpetrator of child abuse and neglect. The CPS investigation recommendation is limited to the action necessary for child safety.

(j) Child's attorney's role. In deprived proceedings, the attorney appointed for the child is independent of and not selected by the DA, the child's parent, legal guardian, or custodian, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-306. In criminal actions brought under Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes, the child victim may be appointed an attorney, per 21 O.S. § 843.7.

(1) The child's attorney represents the child's expressed interests unless the child is very young, unable to express an interest, or incapable of judgment and meaningful communication. When the child is unable to express an interest or lacks judgment, the attorney formulates and presents a position that serves the best interests of the child using objective criteria outlined in 10A O.S. § 1-4-306, rather than relying solely on the attorney's life experience or instinct.

(2) The child's attorney meets with the child as soon as possible after appointment and, except for good cause, prior to any hearing in the deprived proceeding. DHS provides the child's attorney access to reports, records, information relevant to the case, and the child's parent, legal guardian, or custodian's examination reports. Per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-6-48.1, the attorney is advised of the child's location and the best way to contact the child.

(k) Guardian ad litem's role. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-306, the court appoints, after a deprived petition is filed and upon the request of the child, child's attorney, DHS, or another party to the deprived action, a guardian ad litem or court-appointed special advocate (CASA) to objectively advocate for, and investigate matters concerning the child's best interests. The guardian ad litem or CASA makes reports and recommendations to the court and conducts interviews with parents, legal guardian, custodian, foster parents, providers, CW specialists, and others with case knowledge.

(l) Judge's role in deprived matters. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-102, the judge may, upon application by the DA, issue a court order to place the child in emergency custody when the child is in need of immediate protection due to an imminent safety threat. After a deprived petition is filed, the judge hears the evidence presented during the adjudication hearing and decides if the child is adjudicated a deprived child. When the child is adjudicated deprived, the judge decides if the child is placed in the custody of the PRFC, a relative, DHS, or another agency, and may order the PRFC and child to participate in a court-ordered individualized service plan.

(m) Judge's role in child custody or visitation proceedings. When a judge, during a proceeding concerning child custody or visitation, determines there is evidence of abuse or neglect of the child, 10A O.S. § 1-4-102 requires the court to refer the allegations to DHS for an assessment or investigation. The referring court may also enter an order to have the child taken into emergency custody when evidence indicates the child is in surroundings that endanger his or her health, safety, or welfare.

This includes infants who are diagnosed with neonatal abstinence syndrome or fetal alcohol spectrum disorder (FASD).

(C) Whenever OKDHS determines that a child meets the definition of a "drug-endangered child" or was diagnosed with neonatal abstinence syndrome or FASD, and the referral is assigned, OKDHS conducts an investigation of the allegations and does not limit the evaluation of the circumstances to an assessment, per 10A O.S. § 1-2-102.

340:75-3-130. Child Abuse and Neglect Hotline

(a) Child Abuse and Neglect Hotline (Hotline). Per Section 1-2-101 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-2-101), Oklahoma

Human Services (OKDHS) established a statewide, centralized Hotline that operates 24 hours per day to receive child abuse or neglect reports , and reports made by any person subject to the provisions of the Sex Offenders Registration Act who resides with a minor child, per 57 O.S. § 584. An allegation of child abuse or neglect reported in any manner to an OKDHS county office is immediately referred to the Hotline.

(b) Hotline tracking system. Per 10A O.S. § 1-2-101, OKDHS maintains a system to track the number of calls the Hotline received and the number of:

- (1) calls screened out;
- (2) referrals assigned;
- (3) calls received by persons unwilling to disclose basic personal information including, but not limited to, first and last names; and
- (4) unsubstantiated or ruled out allegations.

(c) Screening Hotline reports. Each report received at the Hotline is screened to determine whether the allegations meet the definition of child abuse or neglect and are within the scope of child protective services (CPS) assessment or investigation, per 10A O.S. §§ 1-1-101 et seq. and Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-3. When the allegations are not appropriate for CPS, the reporter may be provided an explanation as to why an assessment or investigation will not be conducted and, when appropriate, where a referral may be made to assist the family.

(d) Time limitations for accepting reports for assessment or investigation. CPS intervention is limited to current situations as the CPS focuses on identifying and protecting children presently at risk or who will be at risk when safety measures are not put in place.

(1) When a report is received that alleges abuse or neglect that is not recent, information is obtained to determine if there is reason to believe the child or other children may presently be at risk or in present danger.

(2) When information does not indicate a child is presently at risk or in present danger, CPS intervention may not be warranted.

(e) Disposition of the screened-out report. When a report is received that is not appropriate for CPS, however, services are needed, OKDHS may make a referral to an OKDHS or outside resource for emergency food, shelter, medical services, or counseling.

(f) Response to reporter concerning a screened-out report. The reporter may be informed of the decision to screen out the referral and the reason for the decision.

(g) OKDHS response to reports of child abuse or neglect. Per 10A O.S. § 1-2-105, OKDHS responds to an accepted report of child abuse or neglect by initiating an assessment of the family or an investigation of the report in accordance with priority guidelines. The primary purpose of the assessment or investigation is the protection of the child. For assessments or investigations, OKDHS gives special consideration to the risks of any minor child, including a child with a disability, who is vulnerable due to his or her inability to communicate effectively about abuse, neglect, or any safety threat.

(h) Prioritization of child abuse and neglect reports. Per 10A O.S. § 1-2-105, OKDHS prioritizes reports of alleged child abuse or neglect based on the severity and immediacy of the alleged harm to the child and assigns a response time.

(1) Priority I reports. A Priority I report indicates the child is in present danger and at risk of serious harm or injury. Allegations of abuse and neglect may be severe and conditions extreme. The situation is responded to immediately, the same day the report is received.

(2) Priority II reports. Priority II is assigned to all other reports. The response time is established based on the vulnerability and risk of harm to the child. Priority II assessments or investigations are initiated within two-to 10-calendar days from the date the report is accepted for assessment or investigation.

(i) Accepted report assigned as assessment or investigation.

(1) An assessment is conducted when a report meets the abuse or neglect guidelines but does not constitute a serious and immediate safety threat to a child.

(2) An investigation is conducted when:

(A) a report meets the abuse or neglect guidelines and constitutes a serious and immediate threat to the safety of a child, per 10A O.S. § 1-1-105;

(B) three or more reports were previously accepted for assessment or investigation regarding the family, per 10A O.S. § 1-2-102;

(C) the family has been the subject of a deprived petition, per 10A O.S. § 1-2-102; or

(D) the child was diagnosed with fetal alcohol syndrome or OKDHS determines the child meets the definition of "drug-endangered child," per 10A O.S. § 1-1-105 and OAC 340:75-3-450.

(j) Referral recordings. Per 10A O.S. § 1-2-101(A)(5), OKDHS electronically records each referral received by the Hotline and retains the recordings securely for 12 months. The recordings are confidential and subject to disclosure only when the court orders the disclosure of the referral. OKDHS redacts any information identifying the reporting party unless otherwise ordered by the court.

340:75-3-140. Child Abuse and Neglect Information System (CANIS)

(a) Legal basis for CANIS. The Child Abuse and Neglect Information System is a permanent, computerized record-keeping system Child Welfare Services maintains, per Section 1-2-108 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-2-108) that requires the maintenance of all reports of child abuse, sexual abuse, and neglect made pursuant to the provisions of the Oklahoma Children's Code. Only authorized Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) staff may inquire and report to the information system.

(b) Fees for CANIS search. OKDHS may charge a fee, up to $35.00, for each CANIS search conducted for a prospective guardian of a child not in OKDHS custody and all other household members 18 years of age and older. The court receives a background check for a prospective guardian and all other household members 18 years of age and older, consisting of a review of a national fingerprint-based criminal background check, a search of the Oklahoma Department of Corrections' files maintained per the Sex Offenders Registration Act, and a search of the child abuse and neglect information system maintained for review by authorized entities by the OKDHS, per 30 O.S. § 2-101.

(c) CANIS search for court-appointed special advocate (CASA) volunteers. OKDHS conducts a CANIS search for any person making application to become a CASA volunteer or to be employed by the local CASA program, per 10A O.S. § 1-8-102.

(d) CANIS search for private adoptive applicants. OKDHS conducts a CANIS search for private adoptive applicants and all other adult household members 18 years of age and older, per 10 O.S. § 7505-5.3.

PART 2. INVESTIGATIVE PROTOCOLS

340:75-3-200. General protocols for Child Protective Services (CPS) assessments and investigations

(a) Assessment and investigation process. The CPS safety assessment and investigation process allows Child Welfare Services (CWS) to have direct involvement with a family to identify problems and provide services, either directly or indirectly, that protect children and assist the family. Per Section 1-2-105 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-2-105), Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) responds promptly to a report of child abuse or neglect by initiating an assessment of the family or an investigation of the report per OKDHS priority guidelines. The process includes gathering information:

- (1) regarding the reported allegations and family dynamics that jeopardize the child's safety; and
- (2) to assess the person responsible for the child's health, safety, or welfare (PRFC) protective capacities.

(b) Assessment and investigation protocols. Protocols provide:

- (1) continuity when addressing allegations of abuse or neglect;
- (2) a family functioning assessment of possible safety threats; and
- (3) continuity related to CWS contact with the family.

(c) Multidisciplinary investigation protocol. Investigations regarding physical abuse, serious neglect, and sexual abuse are conducted utilizing a multidisciplinary approach when possible per the Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-3-440. Each child sexual abuse, physical abuse, or neglect investigation and child victim interviews are conducted by appropriate personnel using the protocols and procedures per 10A O.S. § 1-9-102. The investigation may proceed without full participation of all personnel:

- (1) when trained personnel are not available timely and, in the judgment of the law enforcement officer or OKDHS, there is reasonable cause to believe a delay in investigation or interview of the child victim could place the child in jeopardy of harm or threatened harm to the child's health or welfare; and
- (2) for only as long as reasonable danger to the child exists.

(d) Assessment and investigation requirements.

(1) Per 10A O.S. § 1-2-105, the assessment or investigation requires:

- (A) a visit to the child's home, unless:
 - (i) there is reason to believe an extreme safety risk to the child or OKDHS employee exists; or
 - (ii) it appears the referral was made in bad faith;

- (B) an interview with, and examination of, the child;
- (C) the visit to be conducted at any reasonable time and at any place including, but not limited to, the child's school; and
- (D) when a child is interviewed at school that OKDHS notify the PRFC that the child was interviewed at school.

(2) The assessment or investigation may include:

- (A) an interview with, and examination of, any child in the home; and
- (B) interviews with the child's parents or any other PRFC.

(e) Disclosure of specific complaint or allegation to PRFC. At the initial contact with the PRFC, who is the subject of the investigation pursuant to the Oklahoma Children's Code, OKDHS advises the person of the specific complaint or allegation made against the PRFC per 10A O.S. § 1-2-106.

(f) Description of the investigation process provided to the PRFC. Per 10A O.S. § 1-2-106, OKDHS provides a brief and easily understood written description of the investigation process. The notice includes a statement that:

- (1) OKDHS is undertaking the investigation pursuant to Oklahoma Children's Code requirements in response to a report of child abuse or neglect;
- (2) the identity of the person who reported the incident of abuse or neglect is confidential and may not be known to OKDHS since the report may have been made anonymously;
- (3) the investigation is required by law to be conducted enabling OKDHS to identify incidents of abuse or neglect in order to provide social services to the family in need of protective or preventive services;
- (4) upon completion of the investigation, OKDHS sends the PRFC a letter stating:
 - (A) OKDHS found insufficient evidence of abuse or neglect; or
 - (B) there appears to be probable cause to suspect the existence of child abuse or neglect in the judgment of OKDHS;
- (5) the procedures OKDHS uses to conduct an investigation of alleged child abuse or neglect, include:
 - (A) a description of the circumstances that would cause OKDHS to seek judicial approval to remove the child from the home; and
 - (B) an explanation that the law requires OKDHS to refer all reports of child abuse or neglect to a law enforcement agency for a separate determination of whether a criminal violation occurred;
- (6) the procedures to follow when:
 - (A) there is a complaint regarding OKDHS actions; or
 - (B) requesting a review of the findings OKDHS made during or at the conclusion of an investigation;
- (7) the PRFC has a right to review unsealed records filed with the court in the event an action is filed;

- (8) the PRFC has a right to seek legal counsel;
- (9) the PRFC may obtain copies of the statutory and regulatory provisions governing child abuse and neglect and an explanation of how to obtain copies of the provisions;
- (10) the PRFC may request visitation or family time and an explanation of the process to use to acquire visitation or family time with the child when the child is removed from the home; and
- (11) failure to appear for court proceedings may result in the termination of the person's parental rights to the child.

(g) Assessment or investigation report forwarded to district attorney (DA). OKDHS, per 10A O.S. § 1-2-102, forwards the completed assessment or investigation report and findings to any DA office that may have jurisdiction to file a petition per 10A O.S. § 1-4-902.

(h) Referral to law enforcement.

(1) Per 10A O.S. 1-2-102, OKDHS immediately makes a referral, either verbally or in writing, to the appropriate local law enforcement agency for the purpose of conducting a possible criminal investigation when, upon receipt of a report alleging abuse, neglect, or during the assessment or investigation, OKDHS determines the alleged:

- (A) perpetrator is someone other than a PRFC; and
- (B) abuse or neglect of the child does not appear attributable to failure on the part of a PRFC to provide protection for the child.

(2) OKDHS, after making the referral to law enforcement, is not responsible for further investigation unless:

- (A) OKDHS has reason to believe the alleged perpetrator is a parent of another child, not the subject of the criminal investigation, or is otherwise a PRFC of another child;
- (B) notice is received from a law enforcement agency that has determined the alleged perpetrator is a parent or PRFC of another child, not the subject of the criminal investigation; or
- (C) the appropriate law enforcement agency requests OKDHS, in writing, to participate in the investigation. When funds and personnel are available, as determined by the OKDHS Director or designee, OKDHS may assist law enforcement in interviewing children alleged to be victims of physical or sexual abuse.

(i) Court order for access to or examination of child. The assessment or investigation may include a medical, psychological, or psychiatric examination of any child in the home. When the PRFC refuses to cooperate with arranging an examination, or when admission to the home, school, or any place where the child may be located cannot be obtained, OKDHS may request the DA apply, per 10A O.S. § 1-2-105 for a court order to compel access or examination of the child. The court may order that a child be transported to a court-approved location for the interview or examination and designate an appropriate person or persons to transport the child. The persons may include, but are not limited to: a relative of the child, a PRFC, law enforcement, an OKDHS employee, or an Office of Juvenile Affairs (OJA) employee if the child is in OJA custody.

The court will consider safety protocols based on the child's gender. It is the PRFC's responsibility to secure medical examinations that may be necessary due to abuse or neglect of the child by a third party.

(j) Obtaining the child's medical records. As necessary in the course of conducting an assessment or investigation, OKDHS may request and obtain, without a court order, copies of a child's current and prior medical records including, but not limited to, hospital, medical, and dental records. The physician-patient privilege does not constitute grounds for failure to produce the requested records, per 10A O.S. § 1-2-105.

(k) Requests for the child or PRFC's behavioral health records relevant to the assessment or investigation. Per 10A O.S. §§ 1-2-105 and 1-6-103, the assessment or investigation may include an inquiry into the possibility the child or PRFC has a history of mental illness. When the PRFC denies OKDHS access to their personal behavioral health records or treatment plans requested by OKDHS that may be relevant to the alleged abuse or neglect, OKDHS requests the DA apply for a court order allowing OKDHS access to the records pursuant to terms and conditions prescribed by the court.

(l) Failure to report child abuse or neglect. Per 10A O.S. § 1-2-101, any person who knowingly and willfully fails to promptly report suspected child abuse or neglect, or who interferes with the prompt reporting of suspected child abuse or neglect, may be reported to local law enforcement for criminal investigation, and upon conviction, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(m) False reports of abuse or neglect made knowingly and willfully. Any person who knowingly and willfully makes a false report of child abuse or neglect, per 10A O.S. § 1-2-101, or who makes a report the person knows lacks factual foundation, may be reported to local law enforcement for criminal investigation, and upon conviction is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(n) Restraining order prohibiting child's removal from Oklahoma. Per 10A O.S. § 1-2-105, when OKDHS has reason to believe the PRFC may remove the child from Oklahoma before the investigation is completed, OKDHS may request the DA file an application for a temporary restraining order in any district court in Oklahoma without regard to continuing jurisdiction of the child. Upon cause shown, the court may enter a temporary restraining order prohibiting the parent or other person from removing the child from Oklahoma pending completion of the assessment or investigation.

340:75-3-220. Investigation protocol

Purpose of investigation. The purpose of Child Protective Services (CPS) is to protect children and provide services to the family, as opposed to a focus on criminal prosecution and punishment. The CPS investigation provides for direct involvement with the family, problem identification, service provision, and the development of a helping relationship. Pursuant to Section 1-2-105 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-2-105), Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) responds promptly to a report of child abuse or neglect by initiating an assessment of the family or investigation of the report per OKDHS priority guidelines. The investigation process includes gathering information:

- (1) about the reported allegations and family dynamics that jeopardize the child's safety; and
- (2) to assess the protective capacity of the family.

PART 3. CHILD SAFETY EVALUATION CRITERIA AND PROCEDURE

340:75-3-300. Child safety evaluation

(a) Evaluating child safety. Evaluating child safety is a primary child protective services (CPS) function. Safety refers to the child's present security and well-being when the child is assessed to be at risk of abuse or neglect. The safety evaluation is an adaptable and continuous process that is not complete until the child is safe and the case is closed.

(b) Determining the need for protective or emergency custody. Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) evaluates whether to recommend emergency OKDHS custody of a child based on the seriousness of the child's abuse or neglect and if the child is in need of immediate protection due to an imminent safety threat. A child taken into protective custody by law enforcement is not considered in OKDHS emergency custody. A child cannot be placed in OKDHS emergency custody, per Section 1-4-201 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-201) until:

- (1) the court issues a child-specific emergency custody order; or
- (2) OKDHS completes a safety evaluation, concludes the child faces an imminent safety threat, and the court issues a child-specific emergency custody order.

(c) Protective custody for victims of human trafficking. Any peace officer, district court, juvenile bureau, or Office of Juvenile Affairs employee, who has reasonable suspicion that a minor may be a victim of human trafficking and is in need of immediate protection, assumes protective custody over the minor and immediately notifies OKDHS. A child believed to be a victim of human trafficking is not considered in OKDHS emergency custody solely upon identification, but is transferred to OKDHS emergency custody, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-201.

(d) Child safety meeting. A child safety meeting is a collaborative decision-making process conducted to address each child's needs related to safety and to determine if the child's condition warrants a safety intervention including, but not limited to, a change in placement, and:

- (1) includes, at a minimum, appropriate OKDHS staff, the child's parents and, when the parent requests, an advocate or representative, as participants; and
- (2) to protect the safety of those involved and to promote efficiency, OKDHS may limit participants as determined to be in the child's best interests.

(e) Alternatives to protective or emergency custody in cases of serious abuse or neglect. When an alternative to protective or emergency custody is determined appropriate in circumstances where serious neglect or abuse is documented, an OKDHS form for a Safety Plan, is completed and implemented when the person responsible for the child's (PRFC) health, safety, or welfare agrees to cooperate with OKDHS efforts to ensure the child's safety. The Safety Plan describes the present danger the child welfare (CW) specialist identifies and addresses actions to take to ensure the child's safety until a thorough safety evaluation is completed. The PRFC and identified safety monitors sign the Safety Plan and agree to cooperate with OKDHS oversight to ensure the child's safety.

(f) Safety planning without court involvement in cases of serious abuse or neglect. In circumstances where serious neglect or abuse is documented, upon completion of a thorough safety evaluation, and when an alternative to OKDHS custody is appropriate, an OKDHS form for a Safety Plan is completed and implemented, when the PRFC agrees to cooperate with OKDHS efforts to ensure the child's safety.

(1) The Safety Plan is developed and implemented by agreement without court intervention and describes the impending danger the CW specialist identified and addresses actions to take to control or eliminate any identified safety threat.

(2) The implementation of a short-term Safety Plan does not preclude OKDHS from recommending court involvement.

(3) When the parent of a child in a Safety Plan is unavailable, the Safety Plan monitor may authorize medical or dental treatment or examinations if necessary for the child's well-being, per 10A O.S. § 1-3-104.

(g) Removal of a child from the home. A recommendation to remove a child from the home is made when, upon evaluating relevant conditions, a determination is made that:

(1) in-home safety responses are not available or acceptable;

(2) the PRFC appears unable or unwilling to protect the child;

(3) an emergency exists that prohibits the timely arrangement of resources or services to reduce risk and threats of abuse or neglect, or such resources or services are unavailable; or

(4) continued placement in the home is contrary to the child's health, safety, and welfare.

(h) Placement considerations when the child is removed from the home. When a child is removed from his or her home, placement preference is given to relatives and persons who have a kinship relationship with the child, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-204.

(1) Siblings are placed together in the same home when appropriate and possible.

(2) Placement decisions are made with the child's long-term best interests in mind.

(i) Restoration of custody to the parent, legal guardian, or custodian when the child is in protective custody. When the OKDHS safety evaluation indicates the child does not face an imminent safety threat, OKDHS restores the child to the custody and control of the parent, legal guardian, or custodian, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-201. Specific county procedures are followed with a request to release the child from protective custody.

(j) Emergency removal of a child not in OKDHS custody.

(1) Reasonable efforts are made to prevent the pre-petition removal of a child from the home unless a documented emergency exists that requires immediate removal. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-201 and Section 671 of Title 42 of the United States Code, a child is removed from the home prior to filing a petition only when there is reasonable suspicion the:

(A) child is in need of immediate protection due to an imminent safety threat; or

(B) child's circumstances or surroundings are such that continuation in the child's home or in the care or custody of the parent, legal guardian, or custodian would present an imminent safety threat to the child and is contrary to his or her welfare.

(2) Law enforcement may remove a child from the home without a court order when the child is in surroundings that pose an immediate threat to the child. When law enforcement declines to remove the child, or when OKDHS is responding to a referral without law enforcement involvement, and the child is believed to be in need of immediate protection due to an imminent safety threat, OKDHS prepares an affidavit to present to the district attorney (DA) to request that the DA consider filing an application with the court to obtain an emergency custody order, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-201.

(k) OKDHS authority to execute a pre-petition emergency custody order. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-201, when the district court issues a pre-petition order placing the child in OKDHS emergency custody pending further hearing, an OKDHS employee may execute the emergency order and physically take the child into custody in limited circumstances, when:

- (1) the child is located in a hospital, school, or child care program; and
- (2) it is believed assuming custody of the child from the hospital, school, or child care program can occur without risk to the child or the OKDHS employee.

(l) Medical care for child in protective custody.

(1) When the child in protective custody is in need of emergency medical care prior to the emergency custody hearing, a peace officer, court employee, or the court may authorize such treatment as necessary to safeguard the child's health or life, when the:

- (A) treatment is related to the suspected abuse or neglect; or
- (B) parent or legal guardian is unavailable or unwilling to consent to physician-recommended treatment. Before a peace officer, court employee, or the court authorizes treatment based on the unavailability of the parent or legal guardian, law enforcement exercises diligence to locate the parent or guardian, when known, per 10A O.S. § 1-3-102.

(2) When law enforcement, the parent, or guardian is unwilling to consent to emergency medical care, the DA is contacted to obtain a court order for the child's treatment.

(m) Notification, disposition, and release of the child in pre-petition emergency custody.

(1) The court may provide for the disposition of the child taken into custody and notification to the court of the assumption of custody in an administrative order or rule issued, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-201. The administrative order or rule may include a process for the child's release prior to an emergency custody hearing. Specific county procedures are followed when the child is released from emergency custody prior to the emergency hearing.

(2) The court may order the child released to the parent, legal guardian, custodian, or to any responsible adult without conditions or under conditions the court finds necessary to ensure the child's safety, health, or welfare.

(n) Post-petition removal of the child in OKDHS custody. OKDHS may remove the child in OKDHS custody directly from the child's home when continued placement in the home is contrary to the child's health, safety, or welfare. OKDHS notifies the court prior to removal, or when an emergency exists, as soon as possible, following the child's removal.

(1) To ensure the safety of the child and the OKDHS employee, law enforcement assistance is requested in these situations.

(2) Refer to 10A O.S. § 1-4-806 when the child is in trial reunification status.

(o) Child who left Oklahoma. When the child who is the subject of an emergency custody or a pick-up order left Oklahoma prior to the order's execution, the other state enforces the emergency custody or pick-up order and recognizes Oklahoma's jurisdiction to return the child to Oklahoma. Each circumstance is managed according to the laws and procedures in the state where the child is located.

(p) Standardized assessment. Every child taken into OKDHS custody is given a standardized assessment evaluating his or her physical, developmental, medical, mental health, and educational needs within 21-calendar days of entering OKDHS custody, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-208. The assessment is updated on a consistent basis and is considered when making placement and service plans.

PART 4. SPECIALIZED INVESTIGATIVE PROTOCOLS, CHILD DEATH, OR NEAR-DEATH REPORTING PROTOCOLS

340:75-3-400. Reports of child abuse and neglect with specialized protocols

Reports of child abuse and neglect with specialized protocols considered for acceptance for assessment or investigation include, but are not limited to, reports:

- (1) from Child Protective Services (CPS) regarding an Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) employee;
- (2) of abuse or neglect of a child in an active permanency planning or family-centered services (FCS) case;
- (3) regarding a child whose address is confidential per the Address Confidentiality Program (ACP) per Section 60.14 of Title 22 of the Oklahoma Statutes (22 O.S. § 60.14);
- (4) regarding Indian children;

(5) regarding children in out-of-home care;
(6) of abuse or neglect in a child care program or home;
(7) of abuse or neglect by someone other than the person responsible for the child's (PRFC) health, safety, or welfare per 10A O.S. § 1-2-102.

(A) OKDHS makes a referral, verbally or in writing, to the appropriate law enforcement jurisdiction for the purpose of conducting a possible criminal investigation when, upon receipt of a report alleging abuse or neglect, or during the assessment or investigation, OKDHS determines the alleged:

- (i) perpetrator is someone other than a PRFC; and
- (ii) abuse or neglect of the child does not appear to be attributable to failure on the part of a PRFC to provide protection for the child.

(B) After making the referral to the appropriate law enforcement jurisdiction, OKDHS is not responsible for further investigation unless:

- (i) OKDHS has reason to believe the alleged perpetrator is a parent or PRFC of another child, not the subject of the criminal investigation;
- (ii) notice is received from an appropriate law enforcement jurisdiction that it determined the alleged perpetrator is a parent or PRFC of another child, not the subject of the criminal investigation;
- or
- (iii) the appropriate law enforcement jurisdiction requests OKDHS participate in the investigation. When funds and personnel are available, as determined by the OKDHS Director or designee, OKDHS may assist law enforcement in interviewing children alleged to be victims of physical or sexual abuse;

(8) resulting from judicial proceedings.

(A) When a report of child abuse or neglect resulting from court proceedings concerning child custody, visitation, or family time is received, the CPS assessment or investigation protocol and the provisions of 10A O.S. § 1-4-102 are followed. The assessment or investigation is completed within 30-calendar days of the referral date. Upon completion, OKDHS:

- (i) submits an assessment or investigation report to the district attorney's office;
- (ii) provides a copy of the report to the referring court; and
- (iii) notifies the parties to the proceeding of the report's submission to the court.

(B) When the evidence in a court proceeding concerning child custody, visitation, or family time results in placing the child into OKDHS emergency custody by the referring court, the provisions of 10A O.S. § 1-4-203 apply.

(C) Per 22 O.S. § 20, when a judge finds a defendant subject to incarceration is the sole custodian of a minor child and has not made safe and appropriate arrangements for the child's care, the court makes a referral to OKDHS. The report is assigned for assessment or investigation;

(9) of relinquishment of a child 30-calendar days of age and younger to OKDHS.

(A) OKDHS, without court order, takes possession of a child 30-calendar days of age and younger, when a parent voluntarily delivers and relinquishes a child to the child protective services agency, and expresses an intent not to return for the child, per 10A O.S. § 1-2-109. At the parent's request, OKDHS respects the parent's desire to remain anonymous. OKDHS may:

(i) request, but not demand, information the parent is willing to share about the child, including details of the child's or parent's relevant medical histories; and

(ii) provide the parent with printed information regarding the parent's rights with respect to reunification with the child and counseling sources for the parents.

(B) When a child is relinquished to OKDHS, OKDHS:

(i) performs, or provides for the performance of, any act necessary to protect the child's health or safety; and

(ii) immediately checks with the appropriate law enforcement jurisdiction to determine if a child was reported missing and if the missing child is the relinquished child;

(10) involving child victims of human trafficking. Per 21 O.S. § 748.2, when law enforcement determines a child may be a victim of human trafficking, OKDHS initiates a joint investigation with law enforcement. A law enforcement entity, or district court, juvenile bureau, or the Office of Juvenile Affairs employee, who has reasonable suspicion that a child may be a victim of human trafficking and is in need of immediate protection, assumes protective custody over the child and immediately notifies OKDHS. The child victim is transferred to OKDHS emergency custody, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-201; and

(11) involving children of active duty military parent(s) or legal guardian(s), per 10A O.S. § 1-2-102.

(A) OKDHS inquires, during the course of an assessment or an investigation, if a child's parent or legal guardian is an active duty service member of the military or the spouse of an active duty service member.

(B) OKDHS notifies the designated federal authorities at the federal military installation where the active duty service member is assigned when OKDHS receives a report that a child may be abused, neglected, or drug-endangered.

(C) Upon completion of the assessment or the investigation, OKDHS forwards Form 04KI003E, Report to District Attorney, or Form 04KI030E, Assessment of Child Safety, to the appropriate military law enforcement entity.

(DHS) custody in a foster or trial adoptive home

(a) Purpose of foster or trial adoptive home investigations. A child in DHS care or custody requires ongoing protection from subsequent abuse or neglect while in therapeutic, specialized community home, emergency, Developmental Disabilities Services (DDS), tribal, kinship, and foster family care or trial adoptive placement.

(b) Foster or trial adoptive home investigation protocol. The investigation protocol used during a foster or trial adoptive home investigation is the same protocol used when an investigation is conducted in the child's own home, but includes additional interviews and the evaluation of case records relating to the foster or trial adoptive home.

(c) Abuse or neglect investigation when the child is in DHS custody in a tribal foster home. The protocols used during a tribal foster home investigation are the same used when an investigation is conducted in the child's own home and the protocol regarding the Indian child, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-19-10.

(d) Contracted therapeutic, specialized community, or emergency foster home investigation protocol. The protocol used during a contracted therapeutic, specialized community, or emergency foster home investigation is the same protocol used when an investigation is conducted in the child's own home, but includes additional interviews and evaluation of case records relating to the placement.

(e) Foster or trial adoptive home investigation findings. Upon completion of the foster or trial adoptive home investigation, a finding is made, per OAC 340:75-3-500.

(f) Evaluation to determine continued use or closure of the foster or trial adoptive home. The results of the foster or trial adoptive home investigation are evaluated to determine whether to continue to use or to close the foster or trial adoptive home.

(g) Office of Client Advocacy (OCA) investigates allegations of abuse or neglect in above foster care level settings. OCA investigates reports of child abuse or neglect of a child in DHS custody when the child is placed in an above foster care level setting.

340:75-3-430. Protocol for investigating alleged medical neglect of infants born alive and infants born with disabilities

Withholding needed medical treatment from an infant born alive at any stage of development or an infant born with disabilities is prohibited by state and federal statutes and regulations. Withholding medical treatment is the failure to respond in any manner to an infant born alive and failure to respond to the infant's life-threatening conditions by providing treatment that, in the treating physician's reasonable medical judgment, will most likely improve or correct such conditions.

(1) When treatment is not required. Providing treatment to the infant born with disabilities is not required when, in the physician's reasonable medical judgment, any of the following circumstances exist:

- (A) the infant is chronically and irreversibly comatose;
- (B) provision of treatment would merely prolong dying; or
- (C) provision of treatment would be virtually futile in terms of the infant's survival and the treatment itself would be inhumane.

(2) Reports of medical neglect of the infant born alive and of the infant born with disabilities. Reports alleging the person responsible for the child (PRFC) has denied the infant born alive or the infant with disabilities medically beneficial treatment, including nutrition and hydration are investigated by OKDHS.

(3) Reports of medical neglect of the infant born alive or of the infant born with disabilities by a medical provider.

Reports alleging the medical provider has denied medically beneficial treatment to a child or infant born alive or an infant born with disabilities is investigated by the Office of Client Advocacy.

(4) Protocol for investigating alleged medical neglect of infants born alive and infants with disabilities. The protocol for investigating reports of alleged medical neglect of an infant born alive or an infant born with disabilities is the same as other investigations of reported child abuse or neglect by a person responsible for the child.

340:75-3-440. Multidisciplinary child abuse team (MDT)

(a) Multidisciplinary child abuse team MDT purpose. It is the primary responsibility of the district attorney (DA) to develop an MDT in the DA's county or contiguous group of counties, per Section 1-9-102 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-9-102). The MDT approach is:

- (1) used whenever feasible for investigations and service planning involving cases of child sexual abuse, serious physical abuse, and serious neglect;
- (2) used to enhance the investigative process and maximize services provided to the affected children and families; and
- (3) not required when there is reasonable cause to believe a delay in investigation or interview of a child victim could place the child at risk of harm or threatened harm.

(b) MDT members. The MDT members include, but are not limited to:

- (1) mental health professionals;
- (2) law enforcement;
- (3) medical personnel;
- (4) Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) Child Welfare Services (CWS) personnel;
- (5) MDT coordinators or child advocacy centers personnel; and
- (6) the county DA or assistant DA.

(c) MDT functions. The MDT function is dependent upon available resources and includes, but is not limited to:

- (1) joint investigations of child abuse reports by law enforcement and CWS personnel whenever possible;
- (2) development of written protocol for investigations and for interviewing children;
- (3) identification, improvement, and delivery of services to the child victim and the child's family;
- (4) training in the multidisciplinary team approach; and
- (5) formalized case reviews.

(d) Child abuse multidisciplinary team account (CAMA). Monies appropriated and funds collected from criminal cases filed in Oklahoma district courts are deposited with DHS and designated as CAMA monies, per 10A O.S. §§ 1-9-103 and 1-9-104.

- (1) DHS distributes CAMA monies to functioning freestanding MDTs approved by the Oklahoma Commission on Children and Youth (OCCY) and to child advocacy centers (CACs) accredited by the National Children's Alliance (NCA).
- (2) CAMA monies are:
 - (A) provided for the maintenance of eligible MDTs and CACs;
 - (B) distributed each calendar year to MDTs and CACs by a weighted formula;
 - (C) made available to:
 - (i) one functioning MDT per county;

- (ii) one hospital team; and
 - (iii) one accredited CAC per DA's district.
- (3) After the NCA's five-year accreditation, the CAC must secure a third-year interim review to continue eligibility for CAMA monies.
- (A) The Children's Advocacy Centers of Oklahoma, Inc. (CACO) administers the review by procuring an NCA site reviewer who resides outside of Oklahoma and has no conflict of interest. The CAC submits to the reviewer, 60 calendar days prior to the on-site review:
 - (i) the current interagency agreement;
 - (ii) the current MDT Protocol;
 - (iii) the current financial audit;
 - (iv) the current program budget;
 - (v) proof of general and professional liability coverage for the CAC board of directors and officers;
 - (vi) the Internal Revenue Service letter of 501(c)(3) status or government affiliation statement letter;
 - (vii) the demographic information for the community;
 - (viii) statistical data; and
 - (ix) NCA accreditation standards certifying documents.
 - (B) The site reviewer makes one half-day on-site visit to the CAC and administers the review in accordance with the NCA accreditation process.
 - (C) The CAC demonstrates performance of the essential components of the NCA accreditation process with full cooperation and availability of requested personnel.
- (4) Failure of the third-year review requires a fourth-year review, but does not make the CAC ineligible for CAMA monies. If the CAC fails the fourth-year review:
- (A) the CAC may submit, within 10 business days from the site reviewer's written notice of failure:
 - (i) a written request for further review by the CACO board of directors; and
 - (ii) documents pertaining only to the CAC's understanding of the compliance issues.
Information for the purposes of improvement or change of practice is not considered; and
 - (B) the CACO board of directors secures three additional NCA site reviewers from outside of Oklahoma to review the written findings.
- (5) When the review failure is upheld or when the CAC does not request further review of a failure notice, the CAC is no longer eligible for CAMA monies until reaccredited by the NCA.

340:75-3-450. Drug-endangered child

(a) Substance abuse considered during safety determination and family intervention strategy. Addiction to and misuse of alcohol and controlled dangerous substances, including prescription medication may impact the person responsible for the child's (PRFC's) ability to provide child safety. Substance use alone does not directly determine child abuse or neglect; however, it is a factor considered when safety determinations and intervention strategies are considered.

(b) Investigation instead of assessment conducted when report alleges child is drug-endangered. Per Section 1-2-102 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes, when the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) determines a child meets the definition of a "drug-endangered child," as defined in 10A O.S. § 1-1-105, or a child diagnosed with a fetal alcohol spectrum disorder, DHS conducts an investigation of the allegation and does not limit the evaluation of the circumstances to an assessment.

(c) Law enforcement assistance required to initiate investigation of child abuse or neglect alleging methamphetamine production.

The DHS child abuse or neglect investigation involving allegations of methamphetamine production is initiated only with the assistance of law enforcement.

(d) Records regarding infants born exposed to alcohol or other harmful substances. Per Section 1-550.3 of Title 63 of the Oklahoma Statutes (63 O.S. § 1-550.3), DHS maintains up-to-date records of infants born exposed to alcohol or other harmful substances.

(1) "Harmful substances" means an intoxicating liquor or a controlled dangerous substance.

(2) The records detailed in 63 O.S. § 1-550.3 include data necessary for surveys and scientific research and other data that is necessary and proper to further the recognition, prevention, and treatment of infants born addicted to or prenatally exposed to harmful substances.

(3) DHS compiles and evaluates information received from the reports into a report distributed on or before January 1, of each year to the Governor, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and such other persons as DHS deems advisable or necessary.

340:75-3-460. Child death or near-death review

(a) Child death or near-death definitions. The following words and terms shall have the following meanings, when Oklahoma Human Services OKDHS investigates a child death or near-death or is required to disclose certain information after a child death or near-death that does not meet OKDHS criteria for investigation, per Section 1-6-105 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-6-105).

(1) "Abuse" means harm or threatened harm or failure to protect from harm or threatened harm to the child's health, safety, or welfare by a person responsible for the child (PRFC) including, but not limited to, non-accidental physical or mental injury, sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation. However nothing contained in this Section prohibits any parent from using ordinary force as a means of discipline including, but not limited to, spanking, switching, or paddling.

(2) "Near-death" means a child is in serious or critical condition as verified by a physician, registered nurse, or other licensed health care provider. Verification of the child's medical condition may be provided in person, by phone, email, facsimile, or mail.

(3) "PRFC" means, for the purposes of this Statute only:

(A) a PRFC, per 10A O.S. § 1-1-105;

(B) any person who voluntarily accepted the duty of supervising a child; or

(C) any person who was directed or authorized by the PRFC to supervise a child's health, safety, or welfare.

(b) Child death or near-death investigation protocol. The child death or near-death investigation requires a multidisciplinary approach. The protocol used during the child death or near-death investigation is the same protocol used in other in-home and out-of-home investigations but includes additional interviews, coordination with law enforcement and medical professionals, and evaluation of case records, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-3-200.

(c) Child death and near-death investigations subject to program, administrative, or committee review. The child death or near-death resulting from suspected abuse or neglect investigated by OKDHS is subject to evaluation by program, administrative, or committee review.

(d) Public disclosure of OKDHS child death and near-death information. Requests for the release of information concerning the DHS-investigated OKDHS-investigated child death and near-death are processed, per OAC 340:75-1-44.

(e) Death and near-death notice provided to Governor and Legislature. When OKDHS has reasonable cause to suspect the child death or near-death is the result of abuse or neglect, OKDHS notifies the Governor, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the initial investigative findings of the child protective services review, per 10A O.S. § 1-6-105. Notice is communicated securely no later than 24 hours after the determination of reasonable suspicion.

(f) Child maltreatment review. When a child maltreatment medical review is conducted by a child abuse examiner or a child abuse pediatrician regarding a child death, the child maltreatment medical review is considered prior to closing a child death investigation, per 10 O.S. § 1150.6.

PART 5. INVESTIGATIVE FINDINGS AND APPEALS

340:75-3-500. Child Protective Services investigation findings

After completion of the child protective services (CPS) investigation, a finding is made regarding whether there was some credible evidence to constitute child abuse or neglect, per Section 1-1-105 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-1-105) and Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75.

(1) Ruled out. A finding of ruled out means the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS), after an investigation of a report of child abuse or neglect, determined that no child abuse or neglect occurred.

(2) Unsubstantiated. A finding of unsubstantiated means DHS, after an investigation of a report of child abuse or neglect, determined insufficient evidence exists to fully determine whether child abuse or neglect occurred. When child abuse or neglect is unsubstantiated, DHS may recommend, when determined necessary, that the parents or persons responsible for the care of the child obtain child abuse and neglect prevention and intervention-related services.

(3) Substantiated. A finding of substantiated means DHS, after an investigation of a report of child abuse or neglect and based upon some credible evidence, determined that child abuse or neglect occurred. When child abuse or neglect is substantiated, DHS may recommend:

(A) court intervention if DHS finds the child's health, safety, or welfare is threatened; or

(B) child abuse and neglect prevention and intervention-related services for the child, parents, or persons responsible for the care of the child if court intervention is not determined necessary.

340:75-3-510. Reports to the district attorney regarding child abuse or neglect investigations

(a) Sections 1-2-102 and 1-4-101 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-2-102 and 10A O.S. § 1-4-101), provide that a complete written report of the child abuse or neglect assessment or investigation conducted by Oklahoma Department of Human Services be made within 30 calendar days, except as otherwise provided in policy, and that the report, together with its recommendations, be submitted to the appropriate district attorney's office:

- (1) where the child resides, or has resided for six months preceding the filing;
- (2) where the alleged acts of deprivation occurred;
- (3) where a parent or sibling has a deprived action pending; or
- (4) if none of the locations are known, in the county where the child is found.

(b) A petition for a deprived child proceeding is filed within seven judicial days from the date the child is taken into custody unless, upon the district attorney's request at the emergency custody hearing, the court determines there are compelling reasons to grant additional time for the filing of the petition for a period not to exceed 15 calendar days from the assumption of custody, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-205.

340:75-3-520. Closure of the child protective services assessment or investigation

(a) Determination of prevention and intervention-related services.

Per Section 1-2-105 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-2-105), Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS), where appropriate and at its discretion, identifies prevention and intervention-related services available in the community and arranges for services to be provided to the family when an assessment or investigation indicates the family would benefit from services or OKDHS may provide services directly.

(1) Attempts to provide, refer, or arrange voluntary services are documented in the OKDHS record.

(2) OKDHS determines within 60-calendar days whether the family has accessed services directly related to the child's safety.

(3) When the family refuses voluntary services or does not access services directly related to the child's safety, and OKDHS determines that the child's surroundings endanger the child's health, safety, or welfare, OKDHS may recommend the child be placed in protective or emergency custody, or that a petition be filed.

(b) Notification of assessment conclusion or investigative finding to person responsible for the child (PRFC).

(1) Following completion of the assessment, OKDHS notifies each PRFC of the conclusion.

(2) Following completion of the investigation, OKDHS notifies each PRFC of any findings pertaining to the PRFC.

(c) Disclosure of information to reporter of child abuse or neglect.

Per 10A O.S. § 1-6-102, OKDHS may summarize the outcome of an investigation to the person who reported a known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect, or to any person providing services to a child who is, or is alleged to be, a victim of child abuse or neglect.

(d) Disclosure of findings or conclusions and other information to persons or agencies providing professional services.

(1) Per 10A O.S. § 1-2-107, OKDHS may provide information to a person or agency that provides professional services, such as medical examination of, or therapeutic intervention with, a victim of abuse or neglect. This information may include, but is not limited to the:

(A) investigative determination; or

(B) services offered and provided.

(2) OKDHS forwards information, including the investigative determination, the services offered or provided, and such other information deemed necessary by OKDHS, to any hospital or any physician including, but not limited to, doctors of medicine and dentistry, licensed osteopathic physicians, residents and interns, reporting the abuse or neglect of a child, per 10A O.S. § 1-2-101. The information is entered and maintained in the child's medical record.

(e) Notification to Child Care Services (CCS) of a substantiated finding of heinous and shocking abuse by a PRFC.

(1) Child Welfare Services (CWS) is responsible for notifying CCS upon completion of a program review when a finding of heinous and shocking abuse is substantiated.

(2) CCS notifies a child care facility owner or operator and the child care resource and referral organization in writing immediately or not later than one-business day after CWS substantiates a finding of heinous and shocking abuse by a PRFC, per 10 O.S. § 406.

340:75-3-530. Appeal process for substantiated findings of child abuse or neglect

(a) Purpose. The Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CAPTA), Section 5101 et seq. of Title 42 of the United States Code, requires Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) to provide an appeal process for persons who disagree with a substantiated finding of child abuse or neglect. The appeal process:

- (1) provides individuals with a substantiated finding of child abuse or neglect an opportunity for due process;
- (2) serves as a quality assurance mechanism to assess findings compliance with child protective services (CPS) standards, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-3-120 and 340:75-3-130; and
- (3) provides substantiated findings review by Child Welfare Services (CWS) personnel not involved in any other stage of the case.

(b) Eligibility criteria.

(1) An individual may be eligible to request an appeal when the individual is a person responsible for the child's (PRFC) health, safety, or welfare, per OAC 340:75-3-120, in an investigation involving abuse or neglect allegations and the investigation results in a substantiated finding regarding the PRFC.

(2) An eligible individual may request a review through the appeal process when:

- (A) no deprived petition is filed; or
- (B) a deprived petition is filed and the court case is dismissed prior to adjudication.

(3) An individual meeting the requirements in (1) and (2) of this subsection is not eligible for a review through the appeal process when:

- (A) other court action is filed or a court order is issued concerning the alleged child abuse or neglect including, but not limited to:
 - (i) permanent protective orders issued against the PRFC that include the alleged child victim(s); or
 - (ii) pending or concluded criminal court proceedings; or
- (B) another OKDHS program-specific review is pending or was conducted including, but not limited to:
 - (i) a child death or near-death; or
 - (ii) any substantiated finding of an out-of-home care investigation completed by a child welfare (CW) specialist or an Office of Client Advocacy investigator.

(c) Tribal investigations not eligible for OKDHS appeal process.

The OKDHS appeal process applies only to OKDHS-conducted investigations. Child abuse or neglect investigations by a tribal representative or on tribal land are not eligible for the OKDHS appeal process.

(d) Appeal process procedures. Appeal process procedures are outlined in (1) through (4) of this subsection.

(1) PRFC notification. Upon substantiation of abuse, neglect, or both, the CW specialist notifies the PRFC of the finding by sending Forms 04KI019E, Notification Concerning Finding(s) of Child Abuse/Neglect, and 04KI020E, Request for Appeal of Substantiated Findings of Child Abuse or Neglect, provided the criteria in this Section are met. Forms 04KI019E and 04KI020E are not mailed to the PRFC when case records reflect notification may place family members at risk. When sent, Forms 04KI019E and 04KI020E are:

(A) mailed to last known address within 10-calendar days of substantiation of abuse or neglect; or

(B) sent secure to the PRFC's individually owned and operated personal email address that is not shared with other users within 10-calendar days of abuse or neglect substantiation:

(i) Form 04KI019E informs the PRFC of:

(I) any substantiated child abuse or neglect finding in the investigation; and

(II) the date of the abuse or neglect referral, allegation, and finding without identifying the reporting party.

(ii) Form 04KI020E specifies:

(I) the PRFC may file an appeal by emailing a request to CWS Appeals Program Unit at CWS.AppealsProgramReview@okdhs.org within 15-calendar days from the postmark on the envelope containing Form 04KI020E; or

(II) the PRFC may mail a request to CWS Appeals Program Unit within 15-calendar days from the postmark on the envelope containing Form 04KI020E; and

(III) failure to submit the appeal request within 15-calendar days from the postmark on the envelope containing Form 04KI020E results in the finding becoming final, and the PRFC waives any right to appeal this finding in the future, unless good cause is established per this Section.

(2) Conditions of good cause. A PRFC is granted a review despite failure to make a timely response, provided good cause is established including, but not limited to, severe illness or other disabling condition.

(3) Response to appeal request from PRFC. When the PRFC requests a review within the required time, the Appeals Program Unit responds to the PRFC through written notice within 10-calendar days following receipt of the PRFC's request for review. The Appeals Program Unit notifies the PRFC:

(A) of the right to provide additional information through written statements that must be submitted within 30-calendar days from the postmark on the envelope containing the notification that the appeal was accepted for review;

(B) that failure to submit additional information within 30-calendar days results in a waiver of this right, unless good cause is established per this Section; and

(C) that verification of legal representation must be established when the PRFC requests an attorney be notified of the determination results. Verification is established by a statement of representation on the attorney's official letterhead.

(4) Review Procedure. Within 120-calendar days following acceptance of the PRFC's timely request for a review, or a late request for a review when good cause was established per this Section, the CWS Appeals Program Unit determines if the substantiated finding of abuse or neglect meets substantiation protocol, per OAC 340:75-3-120.

(A) The decision to uphold, modify, or reverse the original finding of abuse or neglect is determined by reviewing:

- (i) Form 04KI003E, Report to District Attorney, that includes Form 04KI030E, Assessment of Child Safety, attachments, and relevant CWS information including CW history and referrals; and
- (ii) all written documents submitted by the PRFC.

(B) Per OAC 340:75-3-120, the Appeals Program Unit determines the finding failed to meet the criteria for substantiation based upon a lack of:

- (i) credible evidence to support the allegations of child abuse, neglect, or both; or
- (ii) documentation by the CW specialist.

(I) When a lack of documentation exists, the Appeals Program Unit sends notification to the district director, approving supervisor, and CW specialist that information is missing and requests the information be added to the report or scanned into the KIDS document management system.

(II) After notification by the Appeals Program Unit, the district director reopens and reassigns the investigation.

(III) The assigned CW specialist adds the additional information to the report within 15-calendar days of the reassignment and sends notification to the Appeals Program Unit when completed.

(IV) The Appeals Program Unit reconsiders the PRFC's appeal with the additional information and upholds, modifies, or reverses the finding as appropriate.

(C) The Appeals Program Unit enters a modified finding in KIDS, when appropriate.

(i) When the substantiation finding is appropriate, but the allegation in KIDS is incorrect, the Appeals Program Unit ensures the inappropriate allegation is marked as an improper entry and the correct allegation is added with the substantiated finding.

(ii) Forms 04KI019E, Notification Concerning Finding(s) of Child Abuse/Neglect, and 04KI020E, Request for Appeal of Substantiated Findings of Child Abuse or Neglect, are mailed to the PRFC with the corrected allegations with the substantiated finding.

(D) The Appeals Program Unit provides written notification or secure email notification to the personal email address individually owned and operated by the PRFC and not shared with other users of the final determination of the finding within 120-calendar days following acceptance of the PRFC's request for a review to the:

(i) PRFC who requested the review;

(ii) district director;

(iii) regional deputy director;

(iv) CW supervisor;

(v) CW specialist;

(vi) tribe, when applicable; and

(vii) Child Care Services, when applicable.

(E) When the finding is reversed, the district attorney's office in the county where the finding originated is notified by district staff.

340:75-4-9. Purpose, philosophy, legal base, and authority for family-centered services (FCS)

(a) Purpose. Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) provides FCS that includes appropriate referrals and services for families after completing an assessment or investigation of child abuse or neglect allegations. The purpose of FCS is to:

- (1) focus on the child's safety; and
- (2) preserve and strengthen protective capacities of the person responsible for the child to keep the child safely in the child's own home.

(b) Philosophy. Family preservation and rehabilitation is a priority during the pendency of the FCS case; however, the right to family integrity is limited by a child's right to be protected from abuse and neglect, per Section 1-1-102 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes. FCS emphasizes a commitment to:

- (1) maintain the child safely in his or her own home, when possible;
- (2) focus on the entire family rather than individuals; and
- (3) provide comprehensive services that engage the family and target the family's therapeutic, supportive, and concrete needs.

(c) Legal basis and authority. Preventive and pre-placement services to children and families are mandated by the Promoting Safe and Stable Families Act, Title IV-B, Subparts I and II, Family First Prevention Services Act, Title IV-E, and the OKDHS Child and Family Services Plan.

340:75-4-12.1. Family-centered and community-based services

(a) Safety planning. When a child abuse or neglect investigation is completed, the child welfare (CW) specialist makes determinations that include:

- (1) the investigative finding;
- (2) if the child is safe or unsafe in the home;
- (3) the protective capacities of the person responsible for the child; and

(4) appropriate ongoing service needs for the family. Ongoing service options include:

- (A) a determination that no services are needed;
- (B) a referral for community-based services including Oklahoma Children's Services (OCS); and
- (C) opening an Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) family-centered services (FCS) case.

(b) Safety Plan. The Safety Plan and service planning include the family's involvement and input. The risk of future maltreatment to the child, safety threats, the family's protective capacities, and the level of need within the family determine the intensity of services required to address concerns within the family.

(c) Family service agreement. The family service agreement documents the parent or legal guardian's acceptance of CW services and intervention to assist the family to safely care for the child.

(d) Family service agreement informal supports. With the family's permission, supportive persons, such as kin, extended family members, friends, neighbors, volunteers, tribal representatives, and other culturally-relevant supports may be involved in Safety Plans and service agreements. Supportive persons who agree to be resources for the family commit to involvement in the safety planning and sign the voluntary Safety Plan.

(e) Family meeting (FM). AnFM is a structured, facilitated meeting that includes parents, caregivers, relatives, CW specialists, tribal partners, service providers, and other culturally-relevant supports to collaboratively create plans that address the child's safety, permanency, and well-being.

(f) Family service agreement supports. Family service agreement supports include programs and professional services, such as culturally-relevant, community-based service programs to assist the family with incorporating new behaviors that support safety. OCS is community-based contracted services authorized by Section 1-9-110 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-9-110) and per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-1-151.

(g) Voluntary family care.

(1) Voluntary family care is available as a preventive and protective service to enhance family functioning without court intervention.

(2) Per 10A O.S. § 1-7-112, when the parent with legal custody requests, OKDHS may accept any child into voluntary family care placement. The parent considering voluntary family care is informed:

- (A) he or she may, at any time, request that OKDHS return the child to the parent;
- (B) evidence gathered during the time the child is voluntarily placed may be used at a later time as the basis for a petition alleging the child is deprived or as the basis for a petition seeking termination of parental rights;
- (C) of the timelines and procedures for voluntary family care placement;

(D) a period of voluntary family care placement, per 10A O.S. § 1-7-112, does not exceed 90-calendar days, except as otherwise provided by OKDHS policy;

(E) voluntary family care placement, per the conditions and restrictions of 10A O.S. § 1-7-112, does not constitute abandonment, abuse, or neglect as defined in the Oklahoma Children's Code; and

(F) he or she may be assessed the full or partial cost of the voluntary family care placement.

(3) Voluntary family care requires a written agreement signed by the parent or legal guardian and OKDHS wherein authority is given to OKDHS to place the child in family care and provide for the child's needs.

(4) Family care by voluntary request is approved for an initial 30-calendar day period and may extend to a 90-calendar day maximum when the extension results in family reunification without requiring court intervention.

(5) Court intervention is required when voluntary family care reaches a maximum of 90-calendar days and the parent or legal guardian does not accept the child's return.

(h) Protective and preventive child care. Child care services may be provided to a family when a:

(1) child is at risk of removal from the home due to abuse or neglect; and

(2) family is in the process of reunification, per OAC 340:75-6-91.

(i) SoonerStart services. SoonerStart Early Intervention Program (SoonerStart) is a statewide, interagency, multidisciplinary system of services to families with children birth to 36 months with developmental delays. SoonerStart services may be provided to a child who is:

(1) the victim of substantiated abuse or neglect; or

(2) a party in an open FCS case.

(j) Medical or Dental Treatment. When the parent of a child in a Safety Plan with OKDHS is unavailable, the child's Safety Plan monitor may authorize medical or dental treatment or examinations that are necessary for the child's well-being.

PART 5. SCHOOL-BASED SERVICES

340:75-4-51. Purpose, partnership, goals, scope, and confidentiality requirement of school-based (SB) services

(a) Purpose. SB services is a program that offers preventative and early intervention services to children, adolescents, and families in Oklahoma through community-based partnerships between Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) and local school districts. The program aids students in overcoming barriers which impede educational success and in addressing concerns before they can escalate into a crisis.

(b) Partnership. The SB Services Program is a contractual and collaborative partnership between OKDHS and local school systems. The SB Services Program requires specialists to be competent in a specialized practice area, including knowledge, skills, and abilities necessary for effective service delivery across OKDHS services, schools, and communities. An SB specialist works in a partnering school to:

- (1) increase awareness of, and access to, OKDHS services and community resources for families;
- (2) improve coordination and communication between OKDHS and public schools; and
- (3) increase community education on family issues through agency-school-community collaboration and planning.

(c) Goals. OKDHS expects the SB Services Program to:

- (1) impact a community through improved individual and family health, safety, and functioning;
- (2) give all children the opportunity and resources to succeed academically and socially in a safe and healthy school environment;
- (3) improve community outcomes through SB activities; thus, reducing an array of family risk factors; and
- (4) work with individual families and in collaboration with other community stakeholders.

(d) Scope and applicability. The SB specialist retains the same rights and privileges and the same obligations set forth in OKDHS policy. The SB specialist maintains office hours similar to the school staff members and is expected to work no less and no more than 40 hours per week.

(1) In the event the partnering school:

- (A) is closed, and school staff is not working onsite, the SB specialist is authorized to telework from home provided the SB specialist is generally accessible by phone and email during working hours; and
- (B) deems distance learning is necessary for reasons of health and safety, OKDHS continues to supply the SB specialist to perform the same services using means appropriate to distance learning.

(2) In the event the contractual agreement with the partnering school is cancelled, the immediate supervisor or reviewing supervisor ensures permanent employees are able to return to a position within OKDHS when the contract is discontinued due to actions unrelated to the SB specialist.

(3) The SB specialist maintains records by documenting students' situations and activities on the OKDHS software platform, which is used to evaluate the program's outcomes.

SUBCHAPTER 6. PERMANENCY PLANNING

PART 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

340:75-6-1. Purpose of permanency planning for the child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody or under DHS supervision

(a) Purpose. Permanency planning services are provided to the:

- (1) child in DHS legal custody or under DHS legal supervision as ordered by a court; and
- (2) child's parent, legal guardian, or custodian to assist in changing behaviors and correcting the conditions that led to the child's removal from the home and court involvement.

(b) Guiding principles. The guiding principles of planning for the child in DHS custody or under DHS supervision are:

- (1) safety;
- (2) permanency; and
- (3) well-being.

(c) Outcomes. Addressing the child's needs is critical in attaining the desired safety, permanency, and well-being outcomes.

(1) Permanency planning services are initiated immediately following the child's removal from the home and continue until the child is safely returned to the home or other safe, permanent placement is finalized.

(2) Services are provided on the basis of the individualized needs of the child and family, whenever possible. A full range of community-based program options are provided so the child may remain in his or her own home or community, whenever possible.

(3) When it is not safe for the child to remain in his or her own home, every effort is made to place the child with a suitable relative, per Section 1-4-706 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes.

(4) When siblings are in DHS custody, every reasonable attempt is made to place the siblings together. Guidance on when siblings may be separated is located in Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-6-85.

(5) Children are placed in residential settings only after other less restrictive settings were attempted or considered.

340:75-6-30. Child's visitation with parents and siblings

(a) Visitation is a right. The child and parent have a right to regular visitation when the child is in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody and in an out-of-home placement.

(1) A court may not deny visitation based solely on the failure of a parent to prove that the parent has not used legal or illegal substances or complied with an aspect of the court-ordered individualized service plan per Section 1-4-707 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-707).

(2) When the court determines reunification services are appropriate for the child and parent, the court allows reasonable visitation with the parent or legal guardian from whose custody the child was removed, unless visitation is not in the child's best interests, considering the child's:

(A) physical safety;

(B) need for protection from traumatizing contact with the parent or sibling or contact that could endanger the child's life; and

(C) expressed wishes.

(b) Frequency of parent-child visitation. Per 10A O.S. § 1-7-105, the child has the right to communicate and visit with his or her family, kin, and community on a regular basis, provided the communication or visitation is in the best interests of the child.

(1) Family visitation begins no later than seven-calendar days after the child's removal from the home.

(2) A visitation schedule that considers the child's needs is developed and includes a minimum of one visit per week during the first 90-calendar days from the date of the child's removal and then a minimum of two times per calendar month visitation thereafter until the child is returned or the permanency plan is no longer reunification.

(3) Exceptions to the frequency of visitation, including the termination of visitation are made, when the:

- (A) parent fails or declines to cooperate with visitation arrangements;
- (B) court orders no visitation;
- (C) whereabouts of the parent is unknown despite continuous attempts to locate;
- (D) visitation, even when supervised, endangers or is determined not to be in the child's best interest;
- (E) court orders a different visitation frequency; or
- (F) the permanency plan is not reunification.

(c) Child's mail and phone contacts. Per 10A O.S. § 1-7-105, a child has constant access to writing materials and may send mail without limitation, censorship, or prior reading, and may receive mail without prior reading, except that mail may be opened in the presence of the child, without being read, to inspect for contraband or when authorized by the court for the child's protection.

(1) The child's contact with the child's parent, extended family, and friends through phone calls, email, social media, and mail is encouraged. The child's phone calls, email, social media, and mail are not monitored or restricted unless done so for the child's protection.

(2) Restrictions to mail and phone contact only occur when court-ordered and may be considered when:

- (A) threats are made to the child;
- (B) the contact causes harm to the child's emotional well-being;
- (C) there is an attempt to influence the child's testimony;
- or
- (D) an attempt is made to undermine a present or future placement.

(d) Child's contact with siblings. Per Section 471(a)(31) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. § 671(a)(31)), 10A O.S. §§ 1-4-807 and 1-4-811, and Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-6-85, DHS makes ongoing reasonable efforts to place sibling groups together in both temporary and permanent placements. When joint placement of siblings is unsafe or contrary to the child's well-being, DHS must justify and document the justification for the decision, make monthly efforts to resolve the barriers to joint placement, provide frequent visitation, and arrange for ongoing interaction. Frequent contact, such as face-to-face visitation, phone calls, email, social media, or mail contact between siblings is arranged. DHS must make efforts to resolve barriers to joint placement and visitation a minimum of once a month.

(e) Child's visits and contacts with relatives and others. When a child is in DHS custody, visitation or contact with relatives or other community connections is encouraged whenever it is safe and in the child's best interest.

340:75-6-31. Permanency planning (PP) for the child in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody

(a) Legislative intent. Per Section 1-1-102 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-1-102), whenever it is necessary for a child to be placed outside of the home per the Oklahoma Children's Code, it is the intent of the Legislature that:

- (1) each child be assured of the care, guidance, and supervision in a permanent home or foster home that serves the best interests of the child including, but not limited to, the development of the moral, emotional, spiritual, mental, social, educational, and physical well-being of the child; and
- (2) permanent placement is achieved as soon as possible for the child.

(b) Permanency planning and placement preferences. The purpose of permanency planning is to develop an appropriate plan addressing the child's immediate and long-term needs for safety, permanency, and well-being. Permanency planning begins immediately when a child is placed in OKDHS custody and continues until the child is living in a permanent home and the child welfare (CW) case is closed.

(c) Efforts to place the child with a suitable relative. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-706, every effort is made to place the child with a suitable relative of the child.

(d) Consideration given to child's initial out-of-home placement. Careful planning and consideration is given to the child's initial placement so that in the event reunification fails or is delayed, the first placement made is the best available placement to provide permanency for the child per 10A O.S. § 1-4-706.

(e) Concurrent permanency planning. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-706, when a child is removed from the custody of the child's parent, OKDHS immediately assesses the need for permanency planning with the intention that permanency occurs for the child at the earliest opportunity.

(f) Permanency hearing. Permanency hearings are held as required per 10A O.S. § 1-4-811, and per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-1-18.1.

(g) Permanency plan preferences. The permanency plan indicates the intended or desired outcome for each child and influences the services and interventions used to achieve such outcome. The permanency plan is consistent with each child's legal status and is in his or her best interests.

(1) When a plan is established, careful consideration is given when changing the plan to ensure the child's immediate and long-term needs for safety, permanency, and well-being continue to be met.

(2) In most cases, reuniting the child with his or her parent or legal guardian is the original case plan goal, unless a petition for immediate termination of parental rights is filed or the court makes a finding that reasonable efforts to reunite are not required.

(3) When reunification is not possible, other permanency plan options based on the child's best interests include:

- (A) termination of parental rights resulting in an adoption;
- (B) permanent guardianship; or
- (C) a planned alternative permanent placement provided a child is 16 years of age and older.

(h) Reunification. In most situations, the initial permanency plan is to reunite the child with the family. Per 10A O.S. § 1-7-103, the child may be returned to the home of the parent or legal guardian from whom the child was removed with prior court approval. When the permanency plan is reunification, services are implemented until:

- (1) the child is returned home, the family home has stabilized, and the court case is dismissed; or
- (2) it is determined the conditions that necessitated intervention have not been corrected, although sufficient time and services have been provided.

(i) Exceptions to reunification as the preferred permanency plan.

Exceptions to reunification as the preferred permanency plan include:

- (1) voluntary relinquishment of parental rights by all parents, biological, legal, presumed, and alleged;
- (2) a Petition for Termination of parental rights is filed; or
- (3) the court finds reasonable efforts to reunite the child and family are not required as outlined in 10A O.S. § 1-4-809 and OAC 340:75-1-18.4.

(j) Priority for reunification with the custodial parent or placement with the non-custodial parent. When the child's parents do not live together, the priority for reunification is primarily with the custodial parent; however, a home assessment may be conducted regarding the noncustodial parent to assess the possibility of placement or custody with the noncustodial parent, when appropriate.

(k) Placement with the noncustodial parent. The court may place the child with the noncustodial parent when it is in the best interests of the child per 10A O.S. § 1-4-707. When the child is placed with the noncustodial parent, the court may order the noncustodial parent to assume:

- (1) sole custodial responsibilities for the child; or
- (2) custody of the child under OKDHS protective supervision.

(l) Final permanency order. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-707, when the court orders the noncustodial parent to assume sole custodial responsibilities for the child, the court may also:

(1) order reasonable visitation and the payment of child support by the child's other parent; and
(2) terminate its jurisdiction in the deprived action by entering a final permanency order determining custody, visitation, and child support. The final permanency order:

(A) remains in full force and effect and controls custody or child support orders entered in an administrative or district court initiated prior to, or during the pendency of the deprived action until it is modified by a subsequent court order; and

(B) may be docketed and filed in the prior, existing, or pending administrative or district court action; or

(C) when there is no administrative or district court action in existence, the surviving order may be used as the sole basis for opening a new administrative or district court action.

(m) Adoption. When a child cannot return safely to his or her own home, in most cases adoption is the preferred permanency plan.

(n) Legal guardianship. A guardianship may be the permanency plan for a child, when reunification and adoption have been ruled out.

(1) The court may establish a permanent guardianship between a child and a relative or other adult per 10A O.S. § 1-4-709, when the guardianship is in the child's best interest.

(2) Subject to the availability of funds, financial assistance is available to the legal guardian, provided the eligibility requirements per OAC 340:75-6-31.4 are met.

(o) Planned alternative permanent placement. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-811, a permanency plan of planned alternative permanent placement is limited to a child 16 years of age or older when OKDHS documents a compelling reason for the court to determine returning home, or placement of the child for adoption or guardianship, is not in the child's best interests.

(p) Successful adulthood plan. Every child 14 years of age or older has a transition plan to successful adulthood, per OAC 340:75-6-110.

(q) Notice of rights. Every child 14 years of age or older is provided a notice of rights per OAC 340:75-6-110.

(r) Emancipation. The federal definition of emancipation is the age at which the child reaches majority. In Oklahoma, 18 years of age is the age of emancipation.

340:75-6-31.1. Family meeting (FM) process

The FM's purpose is to facilitate planning, team decision-making, and engaging the family of the child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services custody.

(1) The court may require facilitation of a meeting no later than 30-calendar days prior to a permanency hearing when a child was in out-of-home care for 12 months or longer, per Section 1-4-810 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes and an FM is used for this purpose.

(2) An FM includes parents, caregivers, children, relatives, family friends, child welfare specialists, service providers, community group members, and other appropriate community partners, when appropriate.

340:75-6-31.3. Trial home reunification

(a) Trial home reunification - supervision of child in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody. Per Sections 1-4-806 and 1-7-103 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. §§ 1-4-806 and 1-7-103), the court may order trial reunification by returning the child to the care of the parent or legal guardian from whom the child was removed and setting a date for review within six months. At any time during trial reunification, when reunification appears successful, the court may return legal custody to the parent or legal guardian and relieve OKDHS of legal custody. If the court determines to extend trial reunification, the court sets a new date for review. The child spends no longer than a total of twelve months in trial reunification. During trial reunification , OKDHS:

- (1) retains legal custody of the child, permitting OKDHS to visit the child in the parent's home, at school, in a child care facility, or any other setting OKDHS deems necessary and appropriate;
- (2) continues to provide appropriate services to the parent, when eligible, and the child;
- (3) terminates trial reunification and removes the child to out-of-home placement, without court order or authorization, when necessary to protect the child's health, safety, or welfare; and

(4) advises the court and parties within three-judicial days of the termination of trial reunification when terminated by OKDHS without a court order.

(b) Trial home reunification - supervision of child not in OKDHS custody. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-806:

(1) if the court determines to continue supervision after twelve months of trial reunification period or any extension of trial reunification, the court may award legal custody of the child to the parent or legal guardian with whom the child is reunited and order OKDHS to provide supervision per OAC 340:75-6-48; and
(2) the duration of the extended supervision may not exceed six months except in circumstances the court finds appropriate and necessary to protect the child's health, safety, or welfare.

(c) Report required when trial home reunification terminated.

When trial home reunification is terminated by OKDHS or by court order, OKDHS prepares a report for the court describing the child's circumstances during the trial home reunification period and recommends court orders, when appropriate, to provide for the child's safety and stability, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-806.

(d) Required criminal background check prior to trial home reunification.

Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-806, Prior to trial reunification, OKDHS conducts a criminal background check of any adult in the home who is not a parent, legal guardian, or custodian . The background check includes inquiries into Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation and Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) records for a national criminal history record check, per provisions of 74 O.S. § 150.9. OKDHS notifies the court that the parent received a copy of the national criminal history record check results.

(e) Notice to individual subject to criminal background checks.

OKDHS provides Form 04MP060E, Notice to Individual Being Fingerprinted, per Section 50.12 of Title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations (28 C.F.R. §50.12) to individuals requiring fingerprinting. Form 04MP060E notifies the individual being fingerprinted:

- (1) the fingerprints are used to check the criminal history records of the FBI;
- (2) of a date range in which the individual must get fingerprinted;
- (3) of the individual's right to challenge the accuracy of the information contained in the FBI identification record;
- (4) procedures to obtain a change, correction, or update of an FBI identification record are set forth in 28 C.F.R. §16.34; and
- (5) of the use-and-challenge requirements placed on all records disseminated under the FBI program.

(f) Exception to fingerprinting. Per Section 10A O.S. § 1-7-111, the OKDHS Director or designee may authorize an exception to the fingerprinting requirement and authorize use of an alternative procedure to obtain a national criminal history record check for any adult residing in the home who has a severe condition precluding such individual from being fingerprinted. In limited, case specific circumstances OKDHS may not be able to obtain:

- (1) an individual's fingerprints due to the individual's disability; or

(2) legible fingerprints due to low quality fingerprint characteristics as a result of the individual's age, occupation, or otherwise resulting in the inability for the national crime information databases (NCID) to provide results.

340:75-6-40.3. Permanency Assessments

(a) The Assessment of Child Safety (AOCS) is a tool where all information gathered during in-depth assessments is documented. The AOCS builds upon the information documented in the initial Child Protective Services AOCS, lists all safety threats, and identifies any underlying causes of behavior related to those safety threats that led to the child's removal.

(1) An in-depth family assessment begins as soon as possible and is completed within the first 60-calendar days using the earliest date: after the child's removal, the filing of the petition, or the signing of the family service agreement.

(2) The assessment process identifies and evaluates the family's strengths, resources, protective capacities, and underlying causes of behavior that create the unsafe conditions and then integrates the information into a behaviorally-based individualized service plan.

(3) The assessment process is ongoing as information is gathered, obtained, and added to the assessment document.

(b) Ongoing assessment of child safety. Evaluating child safety is a primary function of all child welfare (CW) specialists during the investigative process and ongoing casework. Safety is assessed by the CW specialist during every contact with the family. The safety evaluation is a continuous process that occurs throughout the life of the case. The ongoing evaluation determines if the behaviors and conditions that led to the child's removal continue to rise to the level of a safety threat and assesses for additional safety threats and for safety as the case progresses and in reunification. This process is documented on Form 04KI030E, Assessment of Child Safety.

(c) Preliminary inquiry. A preliminary inquiry is conducted when the child, in an open permanency planning, trial reunification, Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children, or family-centered services case is reported to have a physical injury and the cause of the injury is unknown, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-3-130.

340:75-6-40.4. Individualized Service Plan (ISP)

(a) Written ISP requirement. Form 04KI012E, Individualized Service Plan (ISP), and Form 04KI013E, Individualized Service Plan (ISP) Dispositional Report, are components of the case plan. Per Section 1-4-704 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-704), Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS):

- (1) prepares and maintains a written ISP for the child who is adjudicated deprived;
- (2) furnishes the plan to the court within 30-calendar days after the adjudication; and
- (3) makes a copy of the ISP available to each party to the case including any applicable tribe or court-appointed special advocate (CASA).

(b) ISP preparation, content, disputes, and modifications. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-704, the ISP is based upon a comprehensive assessment and evaluation of the child and family and is developed with the participation of the child, when appropriate, and the child's parent, legal guardian, legal custodian, attorney, guardian ad litem, and tribe, when applicable. The health and safety of the child is the paramount concern in the ISP development.

- (1) When any part of the ISP is disputed or not approved by the court, an evidentiary hearing may be held and the court determines the content of the ISP in accord with the evidence presented and in the best interests of the child.
- (2) The ISP is signed by:
 - (A) the child's parent or parents or legal guardian;
 - (B) the attorney for the child's parent or parents or legal guardian;
 - (C) the child's attorney;
 - (D) the child's guardian ad litem, when any, that may be a CASA;
 - (E) a representative of the child's tribe, when applicable;
 - (F) the child, when possible; and
 - (G) OKDHS.
- (3) Each ISP is individualized and specific to each child and the child's family.
- (4) The ISP is written in simple and clear English. When English is not the principal language of the child's parent, legal guardian, or custodian, and the person is unable to read or comprehend the English language, the ISP is written, to the extent possible, in the person's principal language.
- (5) The ISP may be modified based on changing circumstances consistent with the correction of the conditions that led to the child's adjudication or other conditions inconsistent with the child's health, safety, or welfare.

(6) The ISP is measurable, realistic, and consistent with other court-ordered requirements.

(c) ISP content for the parent or legal guardian. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-704, the ISP for the parent or legal guardian includes, but is not limited to:

(1) a history of the child and family, including identification of the problems or conditions leading to the deprived child adjudication and changes each parent must make for the child to safely remain in, or return to the home;

(2) the permanency plan for the child, the reason for selection of that plan, and a description of the OKDHS steps to finalize the permanency plan;

(3) identification of time-limited reunification services provided to the parent, legal guardian, legal custodian, stepparent, other adult person living in the home, or other family members;

(4) a schedule of the frequency of services and the means by which delivery of the services is assured or, as necessary, the proposed means by which support services or other assistance is provided to enable the parent or child to obtain the services;

(5) the name of the child welfare specialist assigned to the case;

(6) a projected date for the ISP completion;

(7) performance criteria that measures the child and family progress toward completion of the ISP including, but not limited to, time requirements for achieving objectives and addressing the identified problems;

(8) the sequence and time requirements for services provided to the parent to facilitate the child's return home;

(9) a description of services or resources requested by the child's parent or legal guardian since the date of the child's placement, and if those services or resources were provided and when not, the basis for the denial of the services or resources;

(10) efforts to be made by the child's parent and OKDHS to enable the child to return to his or her home;

(11) a plan and schedule for regular and frequent visitation for the child and the child's parent or legal guardian and siblings, unless the court determined visitation, even when supervised, would be harmful to the child;

(12) provisions for the child's safety, per state and federal law, and clearly defined actions or precautions necessary to provide for the safety and protection of the child;

(13) the statement: TO THE PARENT: THIS IS A VERY IMPORTANT DOCUMENT. ITS PURPOSE IS TO HELP YOU PROVIDE YOUR CHILD WITH A SAFE HOME WITHIN THE REASONABLE PERIOD SPECIFIED IN THE PLAN. IF YOU ARE UNWILLING OR UNABLE TO PROVIDE YOUR CHILD WITH A SAFE HOME OR ATTEND COURT HEARINGS, YOUR PARENTAL AND CUSTODIAL DUTIES AND RIGHTS MAY BE RESTRICTED OR TERMINATED OR YOUR CHILD MAY NOT BE RETURNED TO YOU; and

(14) whenever a child in OKDHS custody or under OKDHS protective supervision is committed for inpatient behavioral health or substance use or abuse treatment pursuant to the Inpatient Mental Health and Substance Abuse Treatment of Minors Act, the ISP is amended as necessary and appropriate including, but not limited to, identification of the treatment and services to be provided to the child and child's family upon the child's discharge from inpatient behavioral health or substance use or abuse treatment.

(d) Voluntary ISP participation. Prior to adjudication, the parent or legal guardian may voluntarily participate in services related to the behaviors and conditions that led to the filing of a deprived petition. Participation in such services is not an admission of guilt and participation itself is not be used as evidence for the purposes of adjudication or disposition.

(e) ISP for adoption or legal guardianship permanency plan. Per federal and state statutes, when the permanency plan is adoption or legal guardianship, OKDHS describes, at a minimum, child-specific recruitment efforts, such as relative searches conducted and the use of state, regional, and national adoption exchanges to facilitate the orderly and timely placement of the child, whether in or outside of the state.

(f) ISP for successful adulthood youth. Federal law requires the initiation of a successful adulthood plan for the youth in OKDHS custody and out-of-home placement upon reaching 14 years of age, Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-6-110. This plan includes a description of how the following objectives will be met:

- (1) education, vocational, or employment planning;
- (2) health care planning and medical coverage;
- (3) transportation including, where appropriate, assisting the child in obtaining a driver license;
- (4) money management;
- (5) planning for housing;
- (6) social and recreational skills; and
- (7) establishing and maintaining connections with the child's family and community.

340:75-6-40.5. Court reports

(a) Review by the court. Per Section 1-4-807 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-807) each case regarding a child alleged or adjudicated deprived is reviewed by the court:

- (1) at a hearing no later than six months from the date of the child's removal from the home and at least once every six months thereafter until permanency is achieved or the court otherwise terminates jurisdiction;

(2) when Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) documents a compelling reason why a petition to terminate parental rights to a child is not in the best interests of the child, based upon consideration that the child is presently not capable of functioning in a family setting. The court reevaluates the status of the child every 90-calendar days until there is a final determination the child cannot be placed in a family setting;

(3) per 10A O.S. § 1-4-811, to determine the child's appropriate permanency goal and to order completion of all steps necessary to finalize the permanent plan. A permanency hearing may be held concurrently with a dispositional or review hearing. The permanency hearing is held no later than six months after placing the child in out-of-home placement and every six months thereafter. A child is considered to have entered out-of-home placement on the earlier of the:

(A) adjudication date; or

(B) date that is 60-calendar days after the date the child is removed from the home; and

(4) 30-calendar days after the court determines that reasonable efforts to return a child to either parent are not required.

(b) Purpose of review or permanency hearing reports. Court reports are a component of the case plan. Progress review reports provided to the court, are based in part on information OKDHS obtains from talking with the family and other key case participants, observing the family, and reviewing progress reports from service providers. The information gathered is reported to the court:

(1) for evaluation of the efficacy of the individualized service plan; and

(2) as a means for recommending changes needed as family service and intervention needs change as families make progress or face setbacks.

(c) Review hearing report requirements. OKDHS prepares a written report concerning each child who is the subject of the review per 10A O.S. § 1-4-808 for each review hearing. The report includes, but is not limited to:

(1) a summary of the child's physical, mental, and emotional condition, the conditions existing in the out-of-home placement where the child was placed, and the child's adjustment thereto;

(2) a report on the child's progress in school and, if the child has been placed outside the child's home, the visitation exercised by the child's parent or other persons authorized by the court;

(3) services provided to the child 16 years of age or older to assist in the transition from out-of-home care or other community placement to independent living;

(4) a description of:

(A) each parent's progress toward correcting the conditions that caused the child to be adjudicated deprived;

(B) changes that still need to occur and the specific actions required to make the changes; and

- (C) services and assistance that were offered to or provided to each parent since the previous hearing and the services that are needed in the future; and
- (5) a description of the child's placements by number and type with dates of entry and exit, reasons for the placement or change in placement, and a statement about the success or lack of success of each placement;
- (6) OKDHS efforts to locate the parent and involve the parent in the planning for the child when the parent is not currently communicating with OKDHS;
- (7) compliance by each parent and OKDHS, as applicable, with the court's orders concerning the individualized service plans, previous court orders, and OKDHS recommendations;
- (8) whether the current placement is appropriate for the child, its distance from the child's home, and whether it is the least restrictive, most family-like placement available;
- (9) a proposed timetable for the child's return to the home or other permanent placement;
- (10) specific recommendations providing reasons whether:
 - (A) trial reunification should be approved by the court;
 - (B) trial reunification should be continued to a date certain as specified by the court;
 - (C) the child should remain in or be placed outside of the child's parent or legal guardian's home; or
 - (D) the child should remain in the current placement when the permanency plan is other than reunification with the child's parent or legal guardian; and
- (11) a plan for ensuring the child's educational stability while the child is in out-of-home placement, including:
 - (A) assurances the child's placement considers the appropriateness of the current educational setting and the proximity to the school in which the child was enrolled at the time of placement; and
 - (B) where appropriate, an assurance that OKDHS has coordinated with appropriate local educational agencies to ensure the child remains in the school in which the child was enrolled at the time of placement; or
 - (C) if remaining in the school in which the child was enrolled at the time of placement is not in the best interests of the child, assurances by OKDHS and the local educational agencies to provide immediate and appropriate enrollment in a new school with all of the child's educational records provided to the school; and
- (12) per 10A O.S. § 1-4-807, all service provider progress and critical incident reports are submitted to the court and delivered to the district attorney, the attorney or attorneys representing the parents, the child's attorney, and when applicable the guardian ad litem and relevant tribe or tribes; and
- (13) for any child placed in a Qualified Residential Treatment Program (QRTP), per 10A O.S. § 1-4-703, OKDHS submits to the court as part of its written report an assessment completed by a qualified individual to support the determination that placement in a QRTP is in the best interests of the child.

(d) Social records. Social records are defined by 10A O.S. § 1-6-101 to mean, "family social histories, medical reports, psychological and psychiatric evaluations or assessments, educational records, or home studies, even if attached to court reports prepared by the Department. 'Social record' shall not include service provider progress reports or critical incident reports as required pursuant to 10A O.S. § 1-4-807."

(1) Social records are submitted to the court, but are not filed in the court file unless ordered by the court.

(2) When filed in the court file, the social records are placed in confidential envelopes in the court file by the court clerk and may only be accessed by the person who is the subject of the records, or the attorney for such person, except as provided by 10A O.S. § 1-6-103.

340:75-6-40.8. Reinstatement of parental rights

(a) Per Section 1-4-909 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-909), a child 14 years of age or older may, by an application signed by the child and the child's attorney, request the court reinstate the child's parent's previously terminated parental rights when the:

(1) child was previously found to be a deprived child;

(2) parent's rights were terminated in a deprived proceeding under Title 10 or 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes; and

(3) at least three years have passed since the final termination of parental rights (TPR) order; and

(A) the child has not achieved his or her permanency plan;

(B) a permanency plan of adoption failed; or

(C) a permanency plan of guardianship failed.

(b) When after a preliminary hearing to consider the parent's apparent fitness and interest in reinstatement of parental rights, the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the best interests of the child may be served by reinstatement of parental rights, the court orders a hearing on the application's merits. The court provides notice of the hearing to the child, the child's attorney, and Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) and orders OKDHS or the child's attorney to give notice to the:

- (1) former parent of the child whose parental rights are the subject of the application;
- (2) current foster parent or the child's relative guardian;
- (3) child's guardian ad litem, if any; and
- (4) child's tribe, when applicable.

(c) In determining whether the child has or has not achieved his or her permanency plan, OKDHS provides information related to any efforts to achieve the permanency plan, including efforts to achieve adoption or a permanent guardianship, to the court for review.

(d) When the court conditionally grants the application for reinstatement of parental rights, the case remains open for six months and a temporary order of reinstatement of parental rights is entered. During this period, the child is placed in the parent's custody. OKDHS develops a permanency plan for the child reflecting the plan for reunification and provides transition services to the family as appropriate.

(e) After the child is placed with the parent for six months, a hearing is held. When the placement with the parent is successful, the court issues a final order of reinstatement of parental rights, which restores all rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations of the parent to the child, including those relating to custody, control, and support of the child. The deprived action is closed and the court clerk's office provides a certified copy of the final order of reinstatement of parental rights to the parent at no cost.

(f) A proceeding to reinstate parental rights is a separate action from the TPR proceeding and does not vacate the original TPR. An order granted through this proceeding reinstates the parental rights to the child and acknowledges the conditions of the parent and child changed since the TPR and reunification is now appropriate.

(g) Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-909, a child's application for reinstatement of parental rights applies to:

- (1) any child who is under the district court's jurisdiction as a deprived child at the time of the hearing to reinstate parental rights regardless of the date when the parental rights were terminated;
- (2) the sibling group of a child when, at the discretion of the court, parental rights to one child of the sibling group were reinstated; and
- (3) the child of a failed adoption or guardianship permanency plan when parental rights of the child's parents were terminated for three or more years at the time of the child's application to reinstate parental rights.

340:75-6-40.9. Termination of parental rights (TPR)

(a) Effect of TPR. Per Section 1-4-906 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-906), TPR terminates the parent-child relationship including the parent's right to:

- (1) custody of the child;
- (2) visit the child;
- (3) control the child's training and education;
- (4) apply for guardianship of the child;
- (5) consent to the child's adoption;
- (6) the child's earnings; and
- (7) inherit from or through the child; although, termination of parental rights does not affect the child's right to inherit from the parent.

(b) Legal grounds for termination of parental rights.

(1) Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-904, a court may not terminate a parent's parental rights unless the child is adjudicated deprived prior to, or concurrent with, TPR proceedings, and the court makes the finding that TPR is in the child's best interests.

(2) Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-901, a TPR petition or motion may be filed by the district attorney (DA) or by the attorney for the child alleged to be or adjudicated deprived.

(3) Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-904, the court may terminate parental rights on the grounds listed in (A) through (Q) of this paragraph.

(A) Consent. The parent may consent to termination of his or her parental rights by signing a voluntary consent form to relinquish parental rights.

(i) The written, voluntary consent signed under oath, recorded before a judge of a court of competent jurisdiction, is not revocable unless the parent can provide clear and convincing evidence that the consent was executed by reason of fraud or duress.

(ii) In any proceeding for a voluntary TPR to an Indian child, the parent's consent may be withdrawn for any reason at any time prior to the entry of a final decree of termination. Any consent given prior to or within 10-calendar days after the birth of the Indian child is not valid.

(B) Abandonment. The court may find that the parent who is entitled to custody of the child has abandoned the child.

(C) Abandonment of an Infant. The court may find that the child, 12 months of age and younger, was abandoned.

(D) Non-compliance with voluntary placement agreement. The court may find that the child's parent:

(i) voluntarily placed physical custody of the child with Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) or a child-placing agency for out-of-home placement;

(ii) has not complied with the placement agreement; and

(iii) during the child's period of voluntary out-of-home placement, has not demonstrated a firm intent to resume physical custody of the child or make other permanent legal arrangements for the child's care.

(E) Failure to correct condition(s). The court may find that the parent failed to correct the condition(s) that led to the child's adjudication as a deprived child although the parent was given at least three months to correct the condition(s).

(F) Same conditions - another child. The court may find that another child of a parent whose parental rights to any other child were terminated and the conditions that led to the prior TPR were not corrected.

(G) Failure to support. The court may find that the non-custodial parent has willfully failed, refused, or neglected to contribute to the child's support for at least six out of the last 12 months immediately preceding the filing of the termination petition or motion:

- (i) as specified by a court order for child support, or
- (ii) according to the parent's financial ability to support the child, when an order for child support does not exist. Incidental or token support is not construed or considered when determining if the parent maintained or contributed to the child's support.

(H) Certain criminal convictions. The court may find a parent has a conviction in a criminal action, in any state, of any of the following acts:

- (i) permitting a child to participate in pornography;
- (ii) rape or rape by instrumentation;
- (iii) lewd molestation of a child younger than 16 years of age;
- (iv) child abuse or neglect;
- (v) enabling child abuse or neglect;
- (vi) causing the death of a child as a result of the physical or sexual abuse , chronic abuse, or chronic neglect of the child;
- (vii) causing the death of the child's sibling as a result of the physical or sexual abuse , chronic abuse, or chronic neglect of the child's sibling;
- (viii) murder of any child or aiding or abetting, attempting, conspiring, or soliciting to commit murder of any child;
- (ix) voluntary manslaughter of any child;
- (x) a felony assault that resulted in serious bodily injury to the child or another child of the parents;
- or
- (xi) murder or involuntary manslaughter of the child's parent or aiding or abetting, attempting, conspiring, or soliciting to commit murder of the child's parent.

(I) Heinous or shocking abuse or neglect. The court may find that a parent has abused or neglected any child or failed to protect any child from abuse or neglect that is heinous or shocking.

(J) Prior abuse or neglect. The court may find that a parent previously abused or neglected the child or the child's sibling, or failed to protect the child or sibling from abuse or neglect and the child or sibling was subjected to subsequent abuse.

(K) Rape by the parent. The court may find the child was conceived as a result of a rape perpetrated by the parent whose rights to the child are sought to be terminated.

(L) Incarceration. While a parent's incarceration in and of itself is not sufficient to deprive a parent of parental rights, the court may find continued parental rights of an incarcerated parent whose rights are sought to be terminated would result in harm to the child based on the consideration of factors including, but not limited to, the:

- (i) duration of incarceration and its detrimental effect on the parent-child relationship;
- (ii) previous convictions resulting in involuntary confinement in a secure facility;
- (iii) history of criminal behavior, including crimes against children;
- (iv) the child's age;
- (v) evidence of abuse or neglect or failure to protect the child or the child's siblings by the parent;
- (vi) current relationship between the parent and child; and
- (vii) manner in which the parent exercised parental rights and duties in the past.

(M) Behavioral health illness or incapacity. The court must find the factors in (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph exist.

- (i) The parent has a diagnosed cognitive disorder, an extreme physical incapacity, or a medical condition, including behavioral health or substance dependency, that renders the parent incapable of adequately and appropriately exercising parental rights, duties, and responsibilities within a reasonable time, considering the child's age. A finding that a parent has a diagnosed cognitive disorder, an extreme physical incapacity, or a medical condition, including behavioral health or substance dependency, does not in and of itself deprive the parent of parental rights.
- (ii) Allowing the parent to have custody would cause the child actual harm or harm in the near future. A parent's refusal or non-compliance with treatment, therapy, medication, or assistance for the condition can be used as evidence.

(N) Prior adjudication of same conditions. The court may find the:

- (i) condition that led to the deprived adjudication was the subject of a previous deprived adjudication of this child or this child's sibling; and
- (ii) parent was given an opportunity to correct the conditions that led to the determination of the initial deprived child.

(O) Substantial erosion of parent-child relationship.

The court may find a substantial erosion of the relationship between the parent and child exists caused at least in part by:

- (i) the parent's serious or aggravated neglect of the child, physical or sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation of the child;
- (ii) a prolonged and unreasonable absence of the parent from the child; or
- (iii) the parent's unreasonable failure to visit or communicate in a meaningful way with the child.

(P) Lengthy foster care of child years of age and older.

- (i) The court may find:
 - (I) a child years of age and older at the time of placement was placed in foster care by OKDHS for 15 of the most recent 22 months preceding the filing of the TPR petition or motion; and
 - (II) at the time of the filing of the TPR petition or motion, the child cannot be safely returned to the home of the parent.
- (ii) A child is considered to have entered foster care on the earlier of the:
 - (I) adjudication date; or
 - (II) date 60-calendar days after the date the child was removed from his or her home.

(Q) Lengthy foster care of a child younger than 4 years of age.

- (i) The court may find a child younger than 4 years of age at the time of placement:
 - (I) was placed in foster care by OKDHS for at least six of the 12 months preceding the filing of the TPR petition or motion; and
 - (II) the child cannot be safely returned to the home of the parent.
- (ii) A child is considered to have entered foster care on the earlier of the:
 - (I) adjudication date; or
 - (II) date 60-calendar days after the date the child was removed from his or her home.
- (iii) The court may consider:

(I) circumstances of the parent's failure to develop and maintain a parental bond with the child in a meaningful, supportive manner; and

(II) if allowing the parent to have custody would likely cause the child actual serious psychological harm or harm in the near future as a result of the child's removal from the substitute caregiver due to the existence of a strong, positive bond between the child and caregiver.

(c) Mandatory petition or motion for TPR. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-902, the DA is required to file a petition or motion to terminate the parent-child relationship and parental rights with respect to a child joins in the petition or motion, when filed by the child's attorney in any of the circumstances detailed in (1) through (4) of this subsection.

(1) The child is in out-of-home care for 15 out of the most recent 22 months. Prior to the end of the fifteenth month, the child was placed in foster care by OKDHS for 15 of the most recent 22 months. The child is considered to have entered foster care on the earlier date:

(A) of adjudication as a deprived child; or

(B) 60-calendar days after the date the child was removed from his or her home.

(2) The child is determined to be an abandoned infant. A petition or motion to TPR is filed no later than 60-calendar days after the child is judicially determined to be an abandoned infant.

(3) Reasonable efforts to reunite are not required due to certain felony convictions of the parent. A TPR petition or motion is filed no later than 60-calendar days after the court determines that reasonable efforts to reunite are not required due to a parent's felony conviction of any of the following acts:

(A) permitting a child to participate in pornography;

(B) rape, or rape by instrumentation;

(C) lewd molestation of a child younger than 16 years of age;

(D) child abuse or neglect;

(E) enabling child abuse or neglect;

(F) causing a child's death as a result of the physical or sexual abuse, chronic abuse, or chronic neglect of the child;

(G) causing the death of the child's sibling as a result of the physical or sexual abuse, chronic abuse, or chronic neglect of the child's sibling;

(H) murder of any child or aiding or abetting, attempting, conspiring in, or soliciting to commit murder of any child;

(I) voluntary manslaughter of any child;

(J) a felony assault that resulted in serious bodily injury to the child or another child of the parent; or

(K) murder or voluntary manslaughter of the child's parent, or aiding or abetting, attempting, conspiring in, or soliciting to commit murder of the child's parent; or

(4) The parent made no measurable progress in correcting conditions. No later than 90-calendar days after the court ordered the individualized service plan, the court may file a TPR petition when the parent has made no measurable progress in correcting the conditions that caused the child to be adjudicated deprived.

(d) DA not mandated to file petition or motion to TPR under certain conditions. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-902, when any of the conditions in (1) through (3) of this subsection exist, the DA is not mandated to file a TPR petition or motion.

(1) At the option of OKDHS or by order of the court, the child is properly cared for by a relative.

(2) OKDHS documents a compelling reason for determining that filing a TPR petition would not serve the child's best interests and may include consideration that the:

(A) parents or legal guardians have maintained a relationship with the child and the child would benefit from continuing the relationship;

(B) child, who is 12 years of age and older, objects to the termination of the parent-child, legal relationship;

(C) child's foster parents are unable to adopt the child because of exceptional circumstances that do not include an unwillingness to accept legal responsibility for the child; but are willing and capable of providing the child with a stable and permanent environment, and the removal of the child from the physical custody of the foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the child because the child has substantial psychological ties to the foster parents;

(D) child is not capable of achieving stability when placed in a family setting; or

(E) child is an unaccompanied, refugee minor and the situation regarding the child involves international legal issues or compelling foreign policy issues.

(3) Reasonable efforts to reunite the child with his or her family are required and OKDHS has not provided services the state deems necessary for the child's safe return to his or her home, which are consistent with the time period in the state case plan.

(e) Parental rights not terminated at trial. When parental rights are not terminated at trial, the court schedules a permanency hearing within 30-calendar days, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-908. TPR failure at trial does not:

(1) deprive the court of its continuing jurisdiction over the child;
or

(2) require the child's reunification with the parent when the child is adjudicated deprived.

(f) Adoption consent authority with TPR. When the court terminates parental rights and the child's custody is placed with OKDHS, the court must vest OKDHS with the authority to place the child, and consent to the child's adoption, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-907.

(g) Duty to provide access to identifying information to the Oklahoma State Department of Health (OSDH). OKDHS provides OSDH with access to the identifying information of all individuals who had their parental rights terminated and the conditions that led to the TPR finding, per 63 O.S. § 1-227.10.

340:75-6-44. Case planning for reasonable efforts not required or heinous and shocking judicial findings

(a) Reasonable efforts not required or heinous and shocking judicial findings.

(1) Per Section 1-4-809 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-809), at any time prior to or following the adjudicatory hearing the court, on its own motion or upon the motion of a party, may find that reasonable efforts to prevent the removal of the child from home or to reunify the child and family are not required if the court determines, based upon a preponderance of the evidence, that the parent or legal guardian subjected any child to aggravated circumstances including, but not limited to the:

(A) parent or legal guardian, of the child, who is an infant age 12 months or younger, has abandoned the child;

(B) child's parent or legal guardian has:

- (i) committed murder or manslaughter of any child;
- (ii) aided or abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit voluntary manslaughter of any child;

(iii) committed a felony assault upon any child that resulted in the child receiving serious bodily injury; or

(iv) subjected any child to aggravated circumstances including, but not limited to, heinous and shocking abuse, or heinous and shocking neglect; or

(C) parental rights of a parent to the child's sibling were involuntarily terminated.

(D) parent was convicted of a sex crime against the child or another child of the parent; or

(E) parent is required to register with a sex offender registry pursuant to Section 113(a) of the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006, 42 U.S.C. Section 16913(A).

(2) A permanency hearing is conducted within 30 calendar days of a determination by the court that any of the conditions in (A) through (E) exists.

(3) Reasonable efforts are made to place the child in a timely manner in accordance with the permanency plan.

(4) Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-904, a court may terminate parental rights if a finding is made that the parent has abused or neglected the child or a sibling of the child or failed to protect the child or a sibling of the child from abuse or neglect that is heinous and shocking.

(b) Permanency planning for the case with heinous and shocking or reasonable efforts not required findings. When the district attorney files a petition or motion to terminate parental rights based on heinous and shocking abuse or neglect or the court makes a finding that reasonable efforts are not required to reunify the child and family, efforts immediately begin to secure an alternative permanent home for the child.

(b) Termination of parental rights due to the parent's incarceration. Section 1-4-904 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes provides that the parental rights of an incarcerated parent can be terminated due to the incarceration and if the continuation of parental rights would result in harm to the child based on consideration of certain factors outlined in statute.

(a) Child visitation required by the Oklahoma Children's Code. Per Sections 1-4-707, 1-7-103, and 1-7-113 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes, DHS:

- (1) visits each child in DHS custody a minimum of one time per calendar month, with no less than two visits per quarter in the home or out-of-home placement; and
- (2) interviews or, when an infant, observes each child alone without the placement provider or parent present at least one time per month in an environment where the child would be able to talk freely about safety, permanency, and well-being. The parent or placement provider identifies a place in the home where this interview with the child can occur privately. Interviews always include discussing or, when an infant, observing the child's safety, permanency, and well-being.

(b) Child visitation requirement following initial placement and subsequent placement changes. The assigned child welfare specialist visits each child in DHS custody in the child's placement on the day the placement is made, and a minimum of two times per month during the child's first and second month in each placement, and one time per calendar month thereafter.

340:75-6-48.1. Appointment and role of the child's attorney, guardian ad litem, and court-appointed special advocate

(a) Appointment of child's attorney. Per Section 1-4-306 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-306), the court may appoint an attorney to represent the child when an emergency custody hearing is held but must appoint an attorney to represent the child when a petition is filed alleging the child to be deprived.

(1) The child's attorney is independent of and not selected by the district attorney, the child's parent, legal guardian, or custodian. The parent, legal guardian, or custodian may not select the child's attorney.

(2) If financially capable, the parent, legal guardian, or custodian reimburses the court fund for the services of the child's court-appointed attorney.

(b) Role and responsibilities of the child's attorney. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-306, the child's attorney:

(1) represents the child and any of the child's expressed interests;

(2) arranges to meet with the child as soon as possible after receiving notification of the appointment.

(3) except for good cause, meets with the child prior to any court proceedings;

(4) speaks with the child by telephone if a personal visit is not possible due to exigent circumstances; and

(5) contacts the custodian or caretaker of the child prior to the hearing when a meaningful attorney-client relationship between the child and attorney is not possible due to the child's age or disability,

(c) Child attorney's access to Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) records. The child's attorney is entitled to access juvenile court and OKDHS records without a court order per 10A O.S. 1-6-103.

(d) Child's attorney may object to court's ruling to release child from state custody. Per 10A O.S § 1-4-801, at any hearing, including hearings where a child is to be released from state custody, the child's attorney or district attorney may give verbal notice of an objection to the court order and intention to seek review of that order based on the grounds that the order of the court releasing the child from state custody creates a serious risk of danger to the health or safety of the child. Upon receiving notice, the court issuing the custody order in question, stays the custody order pending the filing of an application and completion of review. Refer to OAC 340:75-1-16 and OAC 340:75-1-16 Instructions to Staff for additional information and guidance.

(e) Appointment and role of the guardian ad litem or court-appointed special advocate. For the purposes of the Oklahoma Children's Code the court-appointed special advocate and the guardian ad litem have the same function, power, duties, and responsibilities except as otherwise provided by law. After a deprived petition is filed, the court appoints a guardian ad litem upon the request of the child, child's attorney, OKDHS, another party to the action, or upon the court's own motion.

(1) The guardian ad litem is not a district attorney, an employee of the office of the district attorney, the child's attorney, an employee of the court, an employee of a juvenile bureau, or an employee of any public agency having duties or responsibilities towards the child.

(2) The guardian ad litem objectively advocates on behalf of the child and acts as an officer of the court to investigate all matters concerning the best interests of the child. In addition to other duties required or specified by the court the guardian ad litem:

(A) reviews documents, reports, records and other information relevant to the case, meets with and observes the child in appropriate settings, and interviews parents, foster parents, health care providers, child protective services workers and any other person with knowledge relevant to the case;

(B) advocates for the best interests of the child by participating in the case, attending any hearings in the matter, and advocating for appropriate services for the child when necessary;

(C) monitors the best interests of the child throughout any judicial proceeding, and

(D) presents written reports regarding the best interests of the child that include conclusions and recommendations and the facts upon which the conclusions and recommendations are based.

(3) The guardian ad litem is given access to the court and OKDHS records, each document, report, record, and other information relevant to the case and to any records and reports of examination of the child's parent or other custodian, made pursuant to the laws relating to child abuse and neglect including reports generated by service providers.

340:75-6-48.3. Children missing from care

(a) A child or youth missing from care is one who runs away, is abducted, or is otherwise absent from placement.

(b) Per Section 1-9-123 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-9-123) the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) takes appropriate steps when a child or youth in DHS custody or under DHS supervision is missing from care or when DHS has reasonable cause to believe a child or youth is currently, or is at risk of being, a victim of sex trafficking, including a child or youth:

(1) for whom DHS has an open case file, but who was not removed from the home;

(2) who ran away from foster care and has not attained 18 years of age; or

(3) who is not in foster care, but is receiving services.

(c) When notified a child or youth is missing from care, the child welfare (CW) specialist within 24 hours of notification, reports the child's or youth's status to the:

(1) appropriate law enforcement jurisdiction and requests the report be sent to the National Crime Information Center; and

(2) National Center for Missing and Exploited Children.

(d) When a child or youth in DHS custody or under DHS supervision is missing from care, DHS:

(1) immediately takes steps to locate the child or youth;

(2) determines the primary factors that contributed to the child or youth running away or otherwise being absent from placement;

(3) documents and responds, to the extent possible and appropriate, to those factors that contributed to the absence from care or runaway behaviors in the current and subsequent placements of the child or youth; and

(4) determines what the child or youth experienced while missing from care, including an appropriate screening to see if the child or youth is a possible victim of sex trafficking.

(e) The CW specialist reports to appropriate law enforcement jurisdictions immediately and, in no case later than 24 hours, after receiving information on a child or youth who is identified as a sex trafficking victim, per 10A O.S. § 1-1-105.

(f) Runaway juveniles from other states, with or without delinquent status, may be held in a detention facility, per 10A O.S. § 2-3-101 and the Interstate Compact for Juveniles Act, 10A O.S. §§ 2-9-101 through 2-9-116.

340:75-6-50. Education

(a) Education assurance. A child in the custody or care of the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) is provided access to an education including teaching, educational materials, and books, per Section 1-7-105 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-7-105).

(b) Education assurance required for the Title IV-E eligible child. Per 10A O.S. § 1-7-103, DHS is required to ensure that a child who attains the minimum age for compulsory school attendance and is eligible for a Title IV-E foster care payment is:

- (1) enrolled in an institution that provides elementary or secondary education;
- (2) instructed in elementary or secondary education in any legally authorized education program;
- (3) in an independent-study elementary or secondary education program; or
- (4) incapable of attending school on a full-time basis due to a documented medical condition supported by regular updates.

(c) Health and education records provided to court. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-704, the child's most recent available health and educational records are provided to the court at the court's request including, but not limited to:

- (1) the names and addresses of the child's health and educational providers;
- (2) the child's grade-level performance;
- (3) the child's school record;
- (4) the child's immunization record;
- (5) the child's known medical problems including communicable diseases;
- (6) the child's medications; and
- (7) any other relevant health and education information.

(d) Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). The child with disabilities in Oklahoma, including the child in DHS custody, has the statutory right to receive special education and related services from birth through 21 years of age as mandated by Title 70 O.S. Oklahoma School Code and the Education of All Handicapped Children Act, codified at Sections 1400-1461 of Title 20 of the United States Code (20 U.S.C. §§ 1400-1461). IDEA specifies that each child with a disability 3 to 22 years of age receives specialized services to meet the child's needs. The child with disabilities has the basic rights to:

- (1) a Free Appropriate Public Education (FAPE);
- (2) an education in the least restrictive setting possible; and
- (3) an Individualized Education Program (IEP).

(e) Parents' rights regarding educational requests. Parents and surrogate parents, including foster parents acting in place of the parents, have the right to examine the child's complete school records. In addition, the school system is obligated to provide notice to the parent when the school system refuses to take actions requested by the parent. The notice informs the parent of each procedure available to the parent under IDEA and must be written in the parent's native language.

(f) Foster or surrogate parents acting in place of the parents. When the parent is unable, unavailable, or unwilling to participate in the child's school arrangements, foster parents may act in place of the parent to represent the child's educational interests. DHS employees and other public agency employees may not act in place of a parent or sign an IEP. Volunteers, who serve as surrogate parents for children in placements other than foster care, are required to complete training through the Oklahoma State Department of Education.

(g) Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) child welfare (CW) point of contact. Per 20 U.S.C. § 6312, each CW district must:

- (1) designate a point of contact;
- (2) notify each local educational agency in that CW district, in writing, of the designee; and
- (3) create a local educational agency plan to support ESSA guidelines for students in foster care.

(h) Oklahoma's Promise. DHS provides parents, foster parents, and legal guardians of foster youth with information on Oklahoma's Promise, formerly known as the Oklahoma Higher Learning Access Program (OHLAP) including, but not limited to, eligibility, application guidelines, academic requirements, and any other information required by Oklahoma's Promise for participation in the program.

(i) Corporal punishment by school. DHS and the foster parent do not authorize school personnel to administer corporal punishment to a child in DHS custody. The foster parent does not authorize corporal punishment by school personnel, but refers school personnel to the CW specialist to establish alternative discipline methods, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-7-38.

PART 11. PERMANENCY PLANNING AND PLACEMENT SERVICES

340:75-6-85. Placement considerations for the child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody

(a) Legislative intent for the child placed outside the child's home.

Per Section 1-1-102 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-1-102), when a child's placement outside of the home is necessary, per Oklahoma Children's Code, each child is assured care, guidance, and supervision in a permanent home or foster home that serves the child's best interests including, but not limited to, the development of the child's moral, emotional, spiritual, mental, social, educational, and physical well-being. The child is entitled to a permanent home and placement in the least restrictive environment that meets the child's needs.

(b) DHS responsibility for the child's out-of-home placement. DHS has the duty to provide for the care and treatment of each child placed in DHS custody by an order of the court, per 10A O.S. § 1-7-103. DHS:

(1) may place the child in a:

(A) kinship care home or other foster care home;

(B) group home, or children's shelter subject to the Child Welfare Services (CWS) director's or designee's approval; or

(C) any licensed facility established for the care of children when a kinship or foster care home is not available;

(2) gives priority to the child's noncustodial parent unless the placement is not in the child's best interests; and

(3) reviews and assesses the child to determine the type of placement and services consistent with the child's needs in the nearest geographic proximity to the child's home as possible.

(c) DHS authority to determine the child's placement.

(1) DHS has the responsibility to determine if a placement is appropriate for the child in DHS custody and to remove the child from the placement when in the child's best interests, per 10A O.S. § 1-7-103, subject to the provisions of 10A O.S. §§ 1-4-804 and 1-4-805.

(2) A request by a placement provider for immediate removal of the child is examined and assessed to determine if the situation can be resolved to prevent disruption of the child's placement.

(d) Court's authority to approve or disapprove placement. When the court determines it is in the child's best interests, the court may place the child in DHS legal custody. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-803, when the child is placed in DHS custody, the court may not direct DHS to place the child in a specific home or placement, but may approve or disapprove a specific placement when it does not conform to statutory requirements and the child's best interests.

(e) Determining the appropriate placement.

(1) Per 10A O.S. § 1-7-106, a placement is made that meets the treatment needs of the child and supports the permanency plans for the child and family.

(2) Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-204, when determining the appropriate placement for the child, DHS considers, but does not limit consideration to, the:

- (A) person's ability to provide safety for the child including a willingness to cooperate with any restrictions placed on contact between the child and others and to prevent others from influencing the child in regard to allegations of the case;
- (B) person's ability to support DHS efforts to implement the permanency plan for the child;
- (C) person's ability to meet the child's physical, emotional, and educational needs, including the child's need to continue in the same school or educational placement;
- (D) person who has the closest existing personal relationship with the child, when more than one person requests placement;
- (E) person's ability to provide a placement for the child's sibling who is in need of placement or continuation in out-of-home care;
- (F) wishes of the parent, the relative, and the child when appropriate;
- (G) person's ability to care for the child as long as necessary and to provide a permanent home, when needed; and
- (H) child's best interests including placement in a non-family-like setting.

(f) Relative placement preference when not with noncustodial parent. Per 10A O.S. §§ 1-4-204 and 1-7-106, when DHS determines that placement with the noncustodial parent is not in the child's best interests, preference is given to relatives and persons who have a kinship relationship with the child, and who are determined to be suitable, capable, and willing to serve as the child's caretakers.

(1) Per 10A O.S. §§ 1-4-204 and 1-7-106, every effort is made to place the child with a suitable relative.

(2) DHS makes efforts to locate the relative, kinship relation, or resource parent who is best able to meet the child's long-term best interests.

(3) Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-204, DHS reports to the court the diligent efforts made to secure the child's placement.

(4) When applicable to the child, DHS complies with Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) placement preferences, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-19-14, and reports to the court the diligent efforts to secure the child's placement.

(5) When a child is not placed with a relative who was considered for placement, DHS must advise the court why the relative was denied listing the reasons on Form 04MP056E, Notice to the Court of Relative Denied Placement. The written reasons are made a part of the court record, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-204, and documented in the CWS case record.

(g) Sibling placement. Per 10A O.S. §§ 1-4-204 and 1-7-107, when two or more siblings are removed and placed in foster care, every reasonable attempt is made to place the siblings together in the same temporary or permanent placement.

(1) When siblings are separated, the siblings are allowed contact or visitation with each other, when safe.

(2) The safety and best interests of each child determine if joint placement, contact, or visitation is allowed.

(3) When the child is a part of a sibling group, it is presumed that placement of the entire sibling group in the same placement is in the best interests of the child and siblings.

(4) Siblings may be separated when the court and DHS find:

(A) one sibling resided in a resource home for six or more months and established a relationship with the resource family;

(B) the siblings never resided in the same resource together;

(C) there is no established relationship between the siblings; or

(D) it is in the child's best interests to remain in the current placement.

(5) In making a permanent placement, siblings are placed in the same permanent home. When the siblings are separated, they are allowed contact or visitation with other siblings, provided that each child's best interests are the standard for determining if the siblings are placed in the same foster placement or permanent placement, or allowed contact or visitation with other siblings.

(h) Placement in nearest geographic proximity to parent or school.

(1) Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-707, unless the child is placed with relatives or in accordance with federal and state ICWA, the child is placed, when possible, in the parent or legal guardian's county of residence to facilitate family reunification.

(A) When an appropriate placement is not available in the parent or legal guardian's county of residence, the child is placed in an appropriate home in the nearest proximity to the parent or legal guardian's county of residence to facilitate family reunification. The child's placement is not intended to correspond in frequency to the parent or legal guardian's change of residence.

(B) When determining if the child is to be moved, DHS considers the potential harmful effects of disrupting the child's placement and the reason the parent or legal guardian changed residences.

(2) When an appropriate placement is not available in the parent or legal guardian's county of residence, the child is placed in an appropriate home in the nearest proximity to the child's school district to ensure his or her educational consistency.

(i) Child's placement preference. Per 10A O.S. § 1-7-110, when determining placement of a deprived child in foster care, DHS is governed by the child's long-term best interests. The child may express a preference as to placement and the preference may be expressed by the child with or without the parents, foster parents, guardians, or any other parties present. DHS determines if the child's long-term best interests are served by the child's preference, but is not bound by the child's preference and may consider other facts when determining placement.

(j) Former foster parent preferred placement. Per 10A O.S. § 1-9-119, the former foster parent has a right to be considered as a preferred placement option when the foster child who was formerly placed with the foster parent reenters foster care at the same level and type of care, when the placement is consistent with the best interests of the child and other children in the foster parent's home.

(k) Multiethnic Placement Act of 1994. DHS follows the provisions of the Multiethnic Placement Act of 1994 and the Interethnic Provisions of 1996, per OAC 340:75-1-9.

(l) ICWA and placement. DHS follows federal ICWA, Section 1915 of Title 25 of the United States Code, Oklahoma ICWA, 10 O.S. § 40.6, and OAC 340:75-19-14.

(m) Religious consideration in placement decision. Consideration is given to the parent's wishes regarding religious preference in the selection of a placement provider for the child, per OAC 340:75-6-49.

(n) Prescribed requirements for placement provider. Each placement utilized by DHS is approved or licensed by specified procedures and meets prescribed requirements.

(1) The child in DHS custody is not placed in a home prior to the person meeting provider standards, per OAC 340:75-7.

(2) Placement providers must:

(A) provide safety for the child in DHS custody;

(B) have sufficient space in the home to allow the child privacy;

(C) support and participate in the child's permanency plan;

(D) adhere to DHS rules, such as not using physical discipline; and

(E) support the child's preferred religious and cultural choices.

(o) Certain criminal convictions prohibit placement approval. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-705, DHS does not approve potential foster or adoptive parents for placement when the applicant, or any person residing in the potential applicant's home, has a criminal conviction for any of the felony offenses listed in (1) through (5) of this subsection. The felony offenses are:

(1) physical assault, battery, or a drug-related offense within the five-year period preceding the application date;

(2) child abuse or neglect;

(3) domestic abuse;

(4) a crime against a child including, but not limited to, child pornography; or

(5) a crime involving violence including, but not limited to, rape, sexual assault, or homicide, but excluding those crimes specified in (1) of this subsection.

(p) Placement provider's age. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-705, when a prospective placement provider meets the minimum age required, per OAC 340:75-7-12, DHS may not use the age of an otherwise eligible individual as a reason for placement denial.

(q) Placement providers as essential participants.

(1) As placement providers, 10A O.S. § 1-9-119 and OAC 340:75-7-37 recognize foster parents and group home providers as essential participants in the decisions related to the growth, development, care, protection, and treatment of the child placed in the foster parent's home or in the group home with whom they have established a familial relationship.

(2) Per 10A O.S. §§ 1-4-807 and 1-4-811, a placement provider has the right to be heard in a proceeding concerning the child, although the provider is not considered a party to the proceeding, unless allowed to intervene.

(r) Foster parent rights. A statement of foster parent's rights is given to every foster parent annually and found at 10A O.S. § 1-9-119.

(s) Group home rights. A statement of group home provider rights is attached to the group home contract.

(t) Foster parent eligibility to adopt the child. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-812, during any permanency hearing when the court determines the child is to be placed for adoption, the court considers the foster parent eligible to adopt when the foster parent meets established eligibility requirements. When the child has resided with the foster parent for at least one year, the court gives great weight to the foster parent in the adoption consideration unless the child has an existing, loving, emotional bond with a relative, by blood or marriage, who is willing, able, and eligible to adopt the child.

340:75-6-85.2. Diligent search for relatives and kin

(a) Placement preference. When the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) determines placement with the noncustodial parent is not in the child's best interests, preference, per Section 1-7-106 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-7-106), is given to relatives and persons who have a kinship relationship with the child, who are determined suitable, capable, and willing to serve as the child's caretakers.

(1) DHS reports to the court what diligent efforts were made to secure the placement, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-204.

(2) In cases where the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) applies to the child, placement preferences, per 10 O.S. § 40.6; or the child's tribe-specific order, per the Federal Indian Child Welfare Act (FICWA), Section 1915 (c) of Title 25 of the United States Code (25 U.S.C. § 1915 (c)), are followed.

(3) DHS verifies ICWA applicability within three months of taking the child into custody.

(b) Due diligence to identify and notify relatives. Within 30-calendar days of the removal of a child, DHS exercises due diligence to identify the child's relatives, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-203. DHS completes a nationwide relative search within three months of taking the child into custody. Notice is provided by DHS to each grandparent, other adult relatives of the child, and parents of the child's siblings, per 42 U.S.C. § 671(a)(29). Relatives are not notified when notification is not in the child's best interests due to past or current family or domestic violence. The notice advises the relative:

(1) the child was or is being removed from the custody of the child's parent or parents;

(2) of the options under applicable law to participate in the child's care and placement, including any options that may be lost by failing to respond to the notice; and

(3) of the requirements to become a foster family parent and the additional services and supports available for children placed in the home.

(c) Efforts required for children 16 years of age and older with a planned alternative permanent living arrangement placement.

(1) Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-811, DHS documents and presents compelling reasons to the court at each permanency hearing of the intensive, ongoing, and, as of the date of the hearing, unsuccessful efforts made to:

(A) return the child home; or

(B) place the child with a fit and willing relative, including adult siblings, a legal guardian, or an adoptive parent; and

(C) find biological family members for the child utilizing search technology, including social media.

(2) DHS documents at each permanency hearing the steps taken, including inquiry of the child in an age-appropriate manner, to ensure the:

(A) foster family home of the child or facility where the child is placed uses the reasonable and prudent parent standard; and

(B) child has regular, ongoing opportunities to engage in age-appropriate or developmentally-appropriate activities.

(3) When a planned alternative permanent placement is the court-ordered permanency plan for the child, at each permanency hearing the court:

(A) may ask the child about the permanency outcome the child desires; and

(B) makes a judicial determination as of the date of the hearing, why a planned alternative permanent placement is the best permanency plan for the child and provides compelling reasons why it continues to not be in the child's best interests to return home, be placed for adoption with a legal guardian, or placed with a fit and willing relative.

340:75-6-85.4. Adoption as the permanency plan

The preferred permanency plan for the child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services custody who cannot return home is adoption with extended family, foster family, or an approved adoptive resource family. In most cases, the adoptive home is the relative, kin, or Bridge family with whom the child is currently placed.

340:75-6-85.5. Supervision only cases

(a) The court may order, per Section 1-4-707 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes, the child placed under the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) protective supervision:

- (1) in the home of the parent or legal guardian with whom the child was residing at the time the events or conditions arose that brought the child within the jurisdiction of the court; or
- (2) with the noncustodial parent, when available, upon completion of a home assessment.

(b) In supervision only cases, the court may issue written orders specifying:

- (1) when the noncustodial parent assumes custody, reunification services be provided to the parent or legal guardian from whom the child was or is being removed;
- (2) services be provided solely to the parent who is assuming physical custody of the child to allow the parent to later obtain legal custody without court supervision;
- (3) services be provided to both parents, in which case the court at a subsequent hearing, determines which parent, if either, will have custody of the child;
- (4) the alleged father must cooperate with establishing paternity as a condition for the child's continued placement, when the child is ordered into the home of a father whose paternity has not been established;

- (5) a person residing in the home, vacate the child's home indefinitely or for a specified period within 48 hours of the order;
- (6) that the child's parent or legal guardian prevent a particular person from having contact with the child;
- (7) conduct to be followed by any person living in the home that is in the child's best interests;
- (8) the order placing the child under DHS supervision in the child's own home remains in effect for a one-year period with extension or reduction of the supervision period in appropriate circumstances; and
- (9) when a child cannot be placed in the parent's home, placement of the child in a relative's temporary custody.

340:75-6-86. Changes in child's living arrangements

(a) Notification requirement when child in custody is moved from one location to another. Section 1-4-804 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-804) requires when the child in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody is moved from one location to another, within a reasonable time after OKDHS is aware of the need for movement, but in no event less than five-judicial days prior to movement unless an emergency exists, OKDHS notifies the:

- (1) court of jurisdiction;
- (2) child's attorney of the child's specific location;
- (3) district attorney;
- (4) Post Adjudication Review Board;
- (5) court-appointed special advocate, when any, of the child's specific location;
- (6) guardian ad litem of the child, when any, of the child's specific location;
- (7) the tribal representative involved in the case, when any, of the child's specific location; and
- (8) Child Support Services office in the county of jurisdiction.

(b) Emergency movement of the child in custody. "Emergency," as used in 10A O.S. § 1-4-804, means movement of the child that is:

(1) pursuant to a court order including, but not limited to, an order authorizing placement of the child with a parent or sibling;
(2) immediate removal of the child without delay or notice requested by the child-placing agency or child's foster parent;
(3) for emergency medical or mental health treatment;
(4) for substantial noncompliance by the foster parent or child-placing agency with applicable placement standards and agreements such that the child is in imminent danger; or
(5) due to a pending investigation of an allegation of abuse or neglect of a child by the foster parent, child-placing agency, or other person residing in the foster family home. When a Child Protective Services investigation results in removal of a child in OKDHS custody from the home, the child welfare specialist provides:

(A) Form 04MP014E, Notice of Child's Removal from Out-of-Home Placement, to the resource parent; and

(B) Form 04MP031E, Notice of Decision Not to Return Child After Investigation, to the resource parent when a decision is made not to return the child to the home, per OAC 340:75-7-94.

(c) Removal notification when child has resided in foster home or group home for three months or more.

(1) Pursuant to 10A O.S. § 1-4-805, except in an emergency, when the child has resided with the foster parent or in a group home for three months or more, written notice is provided five-judicial days prior to the child's removal from the foster parent or group home to the:

(A) tribal foster parent;

(B) emergency foster parent;

(C) therapeutic foster parent;

(D) Developmental Disabilities Services foster parent;

(E) kinship foster parent;

(F) non-kinship foster parent; and

(G) court.

(2) The length of time applies to placement in each individual therapeutic or contract foster home or group home and not placement with the therapeutic or contract agency.

(d) Objection to removal when child has resided in foster home or group home for more than six months. When the child has resided in the same foster home or group home for more than six months, the foster parent or group home representative has the right to file a written objection to the child's removal from the placement home per 10A O.S. § 1-4-805.

(1) The objection is filed with the court and served on OKDHS within five-judicial days after receipt of the notice to remove the child.

(2) Timely filing and service of the objection stays removal of the child pending review by the court, unless the reason OKDHS stated for removal is due to an emergency, per subsection (b) of this Section.

(e) Hearing on objection to child's removal from the foster home or group home. When the child is being removed from the foster home or group home and any party, the foster parent, or group home representative files an objection, an informal placement review hearing is held within 15-judicial days per 10A O.S. § 1-4-805. The court may order the child remain in, or be returned to, the objecting foster parent's home or group home when the court finds the OKDHS placement decision was arbitrary, inconsistent with the child's permanency plan, or not in the child's best interests.

340:75-6-89. Travel and transportation of children and families

(a) Travel outside Oklahoma. The child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody may travel outside Oklahoma with the placement provider or a DHS-approved person.

(1) Prior DHS approval is not required for the child to accompany the placement provider or DHS-approved person when travel does not involve an overnight stay.

(2) When travel involves an overnight stay, the placement provider contacts DHS for approval prior to the child's travel outside Oklahoma.

(b) Travel outside the United States. DHS and judicial approval is required before the child in DHS custody travels outside the United States.

(c) Transportation of children and families for placement or community-based services. The child welfare specialist is authorized to transport children and families as long as the transportation is part of the specialist's duties and all other transportation options were considered and ruled out, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-1-32.

340:75-6-91. Child care services for parents with a child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody

(a) Preventive child care services. Preventive child care services enable the child to be in a protective environment a specified number of hours per day and days per week as determined by Child Welfare Services (CWS).

(1) Preventive child care services may be provided to the family with an active CWS case when the:

(A) child is determined unsafe due to the existence of present or impending danger; and

(B) family is in the process of reunification in an active permanency planning case.

(2) The family is not required to establish financial eligibility as preventive child care can be provided for income eligible or non-income eligible families.

(b) Child care services for employment, education, and training purposes.

(1) Parents with a child in DHS custody who need child care for education, training, or employment purposes are required to meet the eligibility requirements in Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:40-7.

(2) Parents with a child in DHS custody apply for trial reunification child care services through DHS Adult and Family Services, as a co-payment may be required.

(3) Resource parents requesting child care are required to meet the eligibility requirements in OAC 340:75-7-65.

(c) Child care program options.

(1) The parent may choose a family child care home regardless of star level.

(2) Child care subsidy benefits are not paid by DHS when the:

(A) child care program does not have a valid contract with DHS;

(B) parent, his or her spouse, or child's parent or stepparent, has an ownership interest;

(C) parent works in the child care home during the same hours the child attends child care;
(D) parent chooses more than one child care program to provide service to a child on the same day;
(E) program does not allow parental access during the hours the program cares for children;
(F) program is receiving state or federal funds, such as Head Start or public schools, and is not charging all parents for the hours the subsidy payment is requested. Early Head Start programs are exempt from this rule;
(G) program caring for a school-age child during the regular school day when the student could be attending a public or private school during those hours; or
(H) program is one star, unless there are no programs with a higher star status in the community or special exception criteria are met. Special exception criteria are:

(i) the child was already approved for care at the one star program prior to January 1, 2003, or prior to the program's star status being reduced to one star. The child:

(I) can remain at the one star program, unless the child stops attending the program for more than 30-calendar days; and

(II) may be approved at the same one star program again when the only reason the child did not attend for more than 30-calendar days was due to a school break or circumstances beyond the family's control, such as the child's illness;

(ii) care is requested for the child residing in the same home as a child already approved for care as described in (c)(H)(i) in the same one star child care program; or

(iii) the parent or guardian demonstrates there is no other child care option that meets the family's needs.

(d) Child care subsidy benefits for the child with disabilities. A child with disabilities is potentially eligible for the higher special needs rate for child care subsidy benefits. Each child with disabilities requires a separate and specific certification of the child care program.

(1) The child with disabilities is defined as a child receiving:

(A) Supplemental Security Income (SSI). This includes a child whose SSI payment stops because of financial reasons, but who still meets the medical definition of disability as determined by the Social Security Administration;

(B) SoonerStart early intervention services; or

(C) special education services provided, per an Individualized Education Program (IEP), by the child's school district.

(2) When the child with disabilities is 13 years of age or older, the parent must provide a statement from a licensed health care professional verifying the child is physically or mentally incapable of self-care as age-appropriate before care is approved and annually at review. Subsidized child care benefits are not approved when the licensed health care professional states the child is capable of self-care as age-appropriate.

(e) Overpayment of child care. DHS seeks repayment for any child care that was received or paid in error per OAC 340:40-15-1.

(b) Parenting assistance. When the pregnant youth decides to keep the child, services, including parenting skills training and assistance with accessing community resources are arranged.

(c) Relinquishment of parental rights. When a minor parent decides to relinquish her parental rights, the child's attorney is contacted.

(d) Termination of the pregnancy. OKDHS does not:

- (2) provide payment assistance for a procedure to terminate the youth's pregnancy; or
- (3) prohibit or assist the pregnant youth with an action to terminate the youth's pregnancy when the youth has a method of payment and a resource with which to pursue the procedure.

PART 13. SUCCESSFUL ADULTHOOD

340:75-6-110. Oklahoma Successful Adulthood (OKSA) program

(a) OKSA program eligibility. The OKSA program serves:

- (1) youth 14 through 17 years of age who are in an out-of-home placement; and in:

(A) Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) legal custody; or

- (B) the custody of a federally recognized Indian tribe;
- (2) young adults 18, 19, and 20 years of age, who:
 - (A) were in an out-of-home placement while in OKDHS or tribal custody on his or her 18th birthday; or
 - (B) entered a guardianship or adoption at 16 years of age and older to achieve permanency and who have not yet reached his or her 21st birthday; and
- (3) young adults 21 to 26 years of age who participate for no more than five years in the Education and Training Voucher Program.

(b) Legal authority for OKSA services. Laws that guide OKSA services administered by OKDHS are described in (1) and (2) of this subsection.

(1) Federal successful adulthood law. The Foster Care Independence Act of 1999 enacted as part of Public Law (P.L.) 106-169; Section 475 of the Social Security Act as amended by P.L. 110-351, Fostering Connections to Success and Increasing Adoption Act of 2008; by the Preventing Sex Trafficking and Strengthening Families Act, P.L. 113-183; and the Family First Prevention Services Act, P.L. 115-123:

(A) supports states in the delivery of successful adulthood services to eligible youth and provides them with services that focus on:

- (i) education;
- (ii) career planning;
- (iii) life skills; and
- (iv) aftercare services; and

(B) requires successful adulthood services:

- (i) complement the youth's own efforts to achieve self-sufficiency; and
- (ii) program participants recognize and accept personal responsibility for the transition from out-of-home care to adulthood.

(2) State successful adulthood law. Section 1-9-107 of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. §1-9-107) created the "Successful Adulthood Act," the purpose of which is to ensure eligible youth who, due to abuse or neglect, were or are in the OKDHS foster care program or a federally-recognized Indian tribe with whom OKDHS has a contract or agreement, receive the protection and support necessary to allow them to become self-reliant and productive citizens through the provision of requisite services that include, but are not limited to:

- (A) transitional planning;
- (B) housing;
- (C) medical coverage;
- (D) education; and
- (E) tuition waivers, when eligible, per 70 O.S. § 3230.

(c) OKSA service provision. OKSA services for youth:

- (1) are initiated by the child welfare (CW) specialist according to the youth's age, as outlined in OKDHS Publication No. 94-08, Oklahoma Successful Adulthood Program;
- (2) in OKDHS custody placed in other states, are OKDHS responsibility, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-1-

86;

The plan is developed in consultation with the youth and, at his or her option, with up to two members of the planning team to be chosen by the youth, not including the foster parent and his or her CW specialist, subject to:

(i) the youth's selection of one person that may be designated to be the advisor and his or her advocate, with respect to the application of the reasonable and prudent parent standard to the youth; and

(B) The successful adulthood plan describes the services, supports, and activities the CW specialist, the permanency planning team, and youth identify as necessary for the youth to transition to successful adulthood, and includes the components required by federal and state statutes. At a minimum, the successful adulthood plan is reviewed and updated each month with the youth and placement provider.

- (B) confirming that information was provided to the youth about the importance of designating another individual to make health care treatment decisions on his or her behalf when he or she:

- (i) becomes unable to participate in his or her health care decisions; and
- (ii) does not have, or does not want a relative, who would otherwise be authorized under state or tribal law, to make health care decisions for the youth; and

(C) that the youth was provided with the option of executing a health care power of attorney, health care proxy, or other similar documents recognized under state or tribal law.

(a) Purpose for foster care. Foster care provides 24-hour a day substitute temporary care and supportive services for the child, birth through 17 years of age, who resides in Oklahoma and is in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody. Voluntary foster care is available for the child, birth through 20 years of age, who meets criteria, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-4-12.1 and 340:75-6-110.

(b) Legal basis for OKDHS foster care services.

(1) The Oklahoma Children's Code, Section 1-1-102 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-1-102), acknowledges that the foster parent has a recognizable interest in the familial relationship established with the child placed in the foster parent's care. The law recognizes that the foster parent is an essential participant in the decision-making process related to the care, supervision, guidance, rearing, and other foster care services for the child.

(2) 10A O.S. §§ 1-1-105 and 1-7-109 define and authorize foster care.

(3) Titles IV-B and IV-E of the Social Security Act mandate and provide funding for certain child welfare services, including foster care.

(4) OKDHS implements recruitment and retention activities supporting the:

(A) Multiethnic Placement Act of 1994, as amended by the Interethnic Provisions of 1996 (MEPA/IEP), per OAC 340:75-1-9;

(B) Federal Indian Child Welfare Act, per Section 1901 et seq. of Title 25 of the United States Code (25 U.S.C. §§ 1901 et seq.), and the Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Act, per 10 O.S. §§ 40 et seq.;

(C) Adoption and Safe Families Act of 1997 (ASFA) that amended Titles IV-B and IV-E of the Social Security Act, per 42 U.S.C. §§ 621 through 629i;

(D) Family First Prevention Services Act, Public Law 115-123; and

PART 2. DEVELOPMENT OF RESOURCE FAMILIES

340:75-7-10. Resource family recruitment and retention

(a) Resource family recruitment. Resource family recruitment is a crucial component to provide a safe home environment for a child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody requiring out-of-home placement due to child abuse, neglect, or other circumstances. Diligent and targeted recruitment provides the child access to a resource family, who:

- (1) can meet the child's unique needs;
- (2) allows the child to stay with siblings;
- (3) reflects and understands the racial and ethnic diversity of the child in care; and
- (4) lives in close proximity to the child's family.

(b) Resource family recruitment and retention plan. DHS, in conjunction with resource family partners, impacts the availability and diversity of resource families by implementing recruitment and retention activities defined by each district based on the characteristics and needs of children in DHS custody. Per Section 1-9-114 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes, DHS:

- (1) makes diligent efforts to identify, locate, and engage suitable relatives and kin for the child in DHS custody;
- (2) makes diligent efforts to recruit resource families that reflect the child's ethnic and racial diversity;
- (3) provides individuals the opportunity to become resource parents regardless of race, color, or national origin; or
- (4) does not delay or deny the child's placement based on the race, color, or national origin of the resource or child; and
- (5) uses diligent and targeted efforts to recruit resource families that include, but are not limited to:
 - (A) partnering with tribes;
 - (B) partnering with community and religious organizations;
 - (C) conducting outreach activities; and

(D) utilizing media and local resources.

340:75-7-10.1. Resource parent framework

(a) General. The requirements in Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:110-5 serve as the framework for families and the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) in the mutual assessment process used to select the most suitable home for the child in DHS custody in need of foster care. Each child in DHS custody has the right to a safe, affirming, and family-like placement. As a result, resource parents:

- (1) are responsible, mature, healthy adults capable of meeting the needs of the children in DHS custody;
- (2) apply the reasonable and prudent parent standard;
- (3) demonstrate a capacity for setting realistic expectations for behavior and performance based on the ages, abilities, and unique needs of the children;
- (4) have stable relationships and a living arrangement whether married, single, separated, or divorced; and
- (5) ensure all members of the household are informed of and agree to accept the child into the home.

(b) Age. A resource parent must be at least 21 years of age. Per Section 1-4-705 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-705), when a potential resource parent meets the minimum age required per this Section, DHS may not use the age of an otherwise eligible individual as a reason for denial of placement.

(c) Income and employment. Resource parents must have sufficient income to meet their needs and ensure the security and stability of the household without relying on the foster care maintenance payment.

(d) Foster principles. A resource parent commits to demonstrating to each child in DHS custody basic fostering principles that include:

- (1) understanding and meeting the child's unique needs;
- (2) actively supporting each child's connections and ongoing relationships with family, kin, culture, and community;
- (3) understanding the impact of separation, grief, loss, and trauma the child has suffered;
- (4) partnering with the child's professional team to focus on his or her safety, permanency, and well-being;
- (5) recognizing that foster care is a planned, temporary placement for a child whose goal is family reunification or other permanency plan;
- (6) actively mentoring the parent to help improve the parent's ability to safely care for the child, when safe to do so; and
- (7) recognizing the impact of secondary traumatic stress and the importance of the resource parent's self-care.

(e) Relationship with DHS. The resource parent acknowledges, cooperates, and agrees to abide by applicable statutes and DHS rules regarding the child in care that include, but are not limited to:

(1) DHS, as the legal custodian of the child, has the right to move any child from any resource home at any time, when in the child's best interests and, per statutes governing movement of the child in DHS custody;

(2) the necessity to maintain and respect the confidential nature of all information regarding a child placed in the resource home. A breach of confidentiality may be grounds for resource home closure and termination of the foster care contract; and

(3) the requirement that DHS investigate, in the same manner as any other abuse or neglect investigation conducted by DHS, allegations of abuse, neglect, or maltreatment of any child in DHS custody placed in an approved resource home;

340:75-7-14. Training requirements

(a) Pre-service training. Applicants and adult household members who care for a child in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody are required to complete a prescribed course of training, prior to resource approval. The training incorporates the reasonable and prudent parent standard and addresses the values and guiding principles essential for caring for a child, who is a victim of maltreatment.

(1) Each applicant completes required Child Welfare Services (CWS)-approved training. Additionally, any adult household member, 18 years of age and older, who provides daily care for a child, completes the required training. An exception may be given when an individual is determined to possess required values and guiding principles as a result of prior foster care training and experience.

(2) Kinship applicants may be approved for placement of the kinship child prior to completion of pre-service training.

(3) Kinship applicants complete pre-service training before receiving foster care maintenance payments.

(4) An applicant who is a former resource parent with a break in OKDHS service of less than five years meets the training requirements.

(5) An applicant may request a permanent training waiver. The resource field manager approves or denies a request for a permanent training waiver. The applicant may request a permanent waiver, when:

(A) the equivalent training was completed within the last five years. A list of equivalent training from a tribe, private agency, or another state is included that details subjects addressed in the training; or

(B) he or she has a significant disability that precludes the completion of training. Disability verification is provided by a physician. A person granted a permanent training waiver for disabilities may not be a caregiver for the child in OKDHS custody.

(b) In-service training. Each resource parent completes 12 hours of continuing in-service training per year to enhance his or her skills as a provider.

(1) OKDHS provides free in-service training options for the resource parent.

(2) With CWS approval, other training is accepted as credit toward in-service training requirements. The resource parent provides the resource specialist with the training certificate, when available, from the training source that lists completed, approved hours.

(3) The resource parent selects from training options, such as classes, conferences, reading materials, or other learning opportunities that enhance his or her skills and meet the in-service training requirement. The resource parent receives approval for each training option from the resource specialist.

(4) A resource parent residing in another state and caring for a child in OKDHS custody meets the requirements of his or her state of residence for ongoing training to maintain OKDHS approval as a resource parent.

340:75-7-15. Background information search and assessment of results

(a) Authorization to conduct criminal history records searches. The applicants and adult household members give consent for Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) and Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) criminal histories records searches by signing Form 04AD003E, Request for Background Check.

(b) Background information search for applicants and adult household members. A background information search is conducted regarding each adult in the applicant's home as a safeguard for children placed in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody. Results from the background information searches are obtained, assessed, and documented prior to the applicant's approval. Background information searches are conducted at the time of application and include, but are not limited to:

- (1) an OSBI name and criminal history records search;
- (2) an FBI national criminal history records search, based on fingerprints, per Section 1-7-111 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-7-111);
- (3) a search of the Oklahoma Sex Offender Registry;
- (4) a search of the Mary Rippe Violent Offender Registry;
- (5) a Department of Public Safety (DPS) report;
- (6) a search of the Oklahoma State Courts Network, including Oklahoma District Court Records to determine if the applicant or adult household member is, or was, a party in any court action;
- (7) a search of the Oklahoma Department of Corrections (DOC) offender information;
- (8) a search of all OKDHS records, including child welfare (CW) records;
- (9) a search of the Restricted Registry;
- (10) a search of Nontechnical Services Worker Abuse Registry maintained by the Oklahoma State Department of Health;
- (11) a search of the Community Services Worker Registry;
- (12) a search of all applicable out-of-state child abuse and neglect registries for the applicant or adult household member who has not lived in Oklahoma continuously for the past five years, per 10A O.S. § 1-7-111;
 - (A) when a child abuse and neglect registry is maintained in the applicable state, the potential resource home is not approved without the results for the applicant's and adult household member's registry checks; or
 - (B) when a child abuse and neglect registry is not maintained in the applicable state, OKDHS requests any information that can be provided from the state; and
- (13) a search of Juvenile Online Tracking System (JOLTS) records for any child not in OKDHS custody, 13 through 17 years of age, living in the home.

(c) Background information summary. All background information is documented on Form 04AF007E, Records Check Documentation. A copy of Form 04AF007E is shared with the resource family partner (RFP) or the resource family assessment (RFA) contractor responsible for completing an RFA. The RFP is provided background information only for searches the RFP does not conduct.

(d) Exception to fingerprinting. Per 10A O.S. § 1-7-111, the OKDHS Director or designee may authorize an exception to the fingerprinting requirement and an alternative procedure for obtaining a national criminal history records search for any applicant or adult residing in the home who has a severe condition that precludes him or her from being fingerprinted. In limited, case-specific circumstances, OKDHS may not be able to obtain:

- (1) an individual's fingerprints as a result of the individual's disability; or
- (2) legible fingerprints due to low quality fingerprints, as a result of age, occupation, or other conditions, thereby making it impossible for the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) to provide results.

(e) Out-of-state equivalent records check required based on length of residency. Prior to approval, applicants or adult household members who have lived in Oklahoma for less than five years must provide equivalent background records checks from previous state(s) of residence. Equivalent records checks include, but are not limited to, a state's criminal history search, including Sex Offender registries. Prior to approval, OKDHS obtains the child abuse and neglect registry check from the previous state(s) of residence, when a registry is available. When a child abuse and neglect registry is not maintained in the applicable state, OKDHS requests any information that the state can provide.

(f) Residence time requirement for kinship applicants. Prior to placement, kinship applicants or adult household members who have not lived in Oklahoma continuously for the past five years must submit fingerprints. OKDHS must obtain the child abuse and neglect registry check from the previous state(s) of residence, when a registry is available. Both the national criminal history records search and the child abuse and neglect registry checks must be completed, prior to a child's placement in a kinship home, per 10A O.S. § 1-7-111. When a child abuse and neglect registry is not maintained in the applicable state, OKDHS requests any information that the state can provide.

(g) New household members in the resource home. The resource parent notifies the resource specialist within 24 hours of a new household member in the resource home. A resource family's failure to notify the resource specialist of a new household member, or the refusal of a household member who remains in the home to consent to a background information search, is cause for the foster care child's removal from the resource home, possible closure of the resource home, and cancellation of the foster care contract.

- (1) OKDHS completes a background information search, per this Section, for persons 18 years of age and older residing in the resource home for 30-calendar days or more. The resource parent's child who reaches 18 years of age is considered in this category.

(2) An adult household member that moves into the resource home must consent to a background information search and be fingerprinted immediately after notification to the resource specialist.

(3) The resource parent's child who turns 18 years of age must consent to a background information search and be fingerprinted within 30-calendar days of turning 18 years of age.

(4) Any child 13 through 17 years of age who moves into the home must have a JOLTS check completed immediately.

(h) Kinship applicant criminal history records searches after normal business hours or on a holiday. In determining the suitability of the potential kinship home, OKDHS uses the OKDHS Office of Background Investigations (OBI) to perform a name-based state and federal criminal history records search, per Section 901 et seq. of Title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations. When OBI is not operational, OKDHS may elect to contract or otherwise collaborate with law enforcement agencies to perform a name-based state and federal criminal history records search followed by fingerprint verification. Fingerprint verification must be completed within five-business days immediately after the child entered emergency placement, per 10A O.S. § 1-7-115.

(i) Assessment of background information search results.

(1) Felony convictions. OKDHS denies a resource home application when the applicant, or any person residing in the applicant's home, has a criminal conviction record for any felony offenses listed in (A) through (E) of this paragraph. The criminal conviction of an approved resource parent or any person residing in the resource home of any of the felony offenses listed in (A) through (E) of this paragraph requires the resource home's closure, cancellation of the foster care contract, and removal of every child in OKDHS custody from the home. The felony offenses are:

- (A) physical assault, battery, or a drug-related offense, when the conviction occurs within the five-year period preceding the application date;
- (B) child abuse or neglect;
- (C) spousal abuse or domestic abuse;
- (D) a crime against a child including, but not limited to, child pornography; or
- (E) a crime involving violence including, but not limited to, rape, sexual assault, or homicide, but excluding those crimes specified in (A) of this paragraph. Per 21 O.S. § 692, homicide includes manslaughter. Per Section 16 of Title 18 of the United States Code, a crime involving violence means, an offense that:

- (i) has an element of the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against the person or property of another; or

(ii) by its nature, involves a substantial risk that physical force against the person or property of another may be used in the course of committing the offense.

(2) Sex-related crimes. OKDHS denies the application to become a resource parent when the applicant:

(A) or any person residing in the applicant's home, has a conviction for any crime, felony, or misdemeanor, per 57 O.S. § 582, whether the conviction occurred upon a:

- (i) verdict;
- (ii) plea of guilty; or
- (iii) plea of nolo contendere; or

(B) is subject to, living with, or married to a person who is subject to the Oklahoma Sex Offender Registration Act.

(3) Restricted Registry. OKDHS denies the application to become a resource parent when the applicant is a registrant on the Restricted Registry, per 10 O.S. § 405.3.

(4) Arrests, charges, or other convictions. Approval of an applicant who has, or is, living with a person who has a history of arrests, charges, or convictions for any felony, other than those listed in (1) of this subsection, or a relevant misdemeanor may be approved as a resource parent on a case-by-case basis. A relevant misdemeanor includes:

- (A) assault and battery;
- (B) alcohol- or drug-related offenses;
- (C) domestic violence; or
- (D) other offenses involving the use of physical force or violence against the person or property of another.

(5) Child abuse and neglect investigations. OKDHS determinesthe approval of any resource applicant with a history of child abuse and neglect investigations on a case-by-case basis.

(1) The assessment process is completed and the determination regarding approval or denial is made no later than 60-calendar days after receipt of completed Form 04AF001E.

When the denial pertains to a kinship resource home, the child in OKDHS custody is immediately moved from the applicant's home. Reasons for denying an application may include, but are not limited to:

(1) a lack of stable, adequate income to meet the applicant's own or total family needs, or the poor management of available income;

(2) the physical facility is inadequate to accommodate the addition of the child in OKDHS custody into the home, or presents health or safety concerns;

(3) a household member that has a history of alleged or confirmed child abuse, neglect, or both, per OAC 340:75-7-15;

(9) the home is determined unsuitable for the child requiring placement;

(10) the applicant applied for a child that OKDHS reasonably believes may not be available for placement; or

(11) one or more factors concerning any household member or conditions in the home, as described in the denial letter, renders the applicant or home environment inappropriate as a resource home.

(k) Authority to approve or deny resource home and Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC) assessments.

OKDHS determines the final disposition of each resource home and ICPC assessment completed by OKDHS or RFA contractors.

340:75-7-18.1. Specialized community home

Oklahoma Department of Human Services approves or denies the specialized community home as described in Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-11-286, pursuant to the requirements of OAC 340:75-7-18.

[Source: Added at 29 Ok Reg 635, eff 6-1-12]

340:75-7-19. Joint approval of resource homes

(a) Joint approval of resource home. The Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) resource parent may be jointly-approved to provide foster care services to the child in OKDHS custody while approved by another agency, entity, or tribe. Joint approval occurs after each agency conducts an assessment and determines the child's needs can be met in a jointly-approved home. While the home is jointly-approved, any changes or concerns are shared between each agency involved with the jointly-approved home. Joint-home approval is child-specific and occurs when, the:

- (1) child's need for specialized services, treatment, or placement changes;
- (2) child re-enters the child welfare (CW) system and has a previous relationship with the placement provider;
- (3) placement provider is kin to the child;
- (4) siblings need to be placed together;
- (5) infant of a youth in OKDHS custody requires placement; or
- (6) child in OKDHS custody requires specialized services or treatment in a kinship placement.

(b) Joint approval of a therapeutic foster care (TFC) home. Joint approval of the TFC home as a resource home occurs after an assessment of the child's case and approval by the TFC program staff and the TFC agency.

(c) Joint approval of an OKDHS Developmental Disabilities Services (DDS) home. Joint approval of a DDS home as a Child Welfare Services (CWS) resource home occurs after an assessment of the child's case and approval by the CWS DDS and Education program supervisor and the Resource Unit.

(d) Joint use of CWS resource home by Office of Juvenile Affairs (OJA). Joint use of the CWS resource home occurs after an assessment of the child's case and approval by the Resource Unit.

(e) Joint use of CWS kinship resource home. Use of the kinship resource home as a traditional resource home requires the kinship family continue to meet all the requirements of a CWS resource home.

(f) Joint approval of resource home for Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC). An OKDHS resource parent may be jointly-approved to provide foster care services to a child in another state's custody when the request is received through OKDHS ICPC Unit and approved by another agency, entity, or tribe. Joint approval occurs after each agency conducts an assessment and determines the child's needs can be met in a jointly-approved home. While the home is jointly-approved, any changes or concerns are shared between each agency involved with the jointly-approved home.

(g) Joint use of licensed family child care home. A resource home is considered for joint approval as an OKDHS-licensed family child care home after an assessment and joint approval by the Resource Unit and Child Care Services (CCS). Prior to each child placement, a request for approval is made in writing on Form 07LC099E, Dual Approval Request for Foster Care Placement, based on the recommendation of CCS Licensing staff and resource staff. When a joint consensus is not achieved, CCS or the Resource Unit may request a review by the dual-approval committee, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:110-1-6 for a final decision. The approval decision is based on the number, ages, and specific needs of children potentially eligible for child care and foster care. Receipt of a written agreement from the caregiver is required that states the person(s) from whom the child was removed is not present during child care hours.

(h) Joint approval of resource home by OKDHS and tribes. The OKDHS or tribal resource home may be jointly-approved by both the tribe and OKDHS when the home meets OKDHS standards; however, the total number of children placed in the jointly-approved home cannot exceed the total number of children approved for the home.

340:75-7-24. Kinship placement for the child in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody

(a) Kinship care. Per Section 1-9-106 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-9-106), OKDHS establishes standards for kinship foster care.

(1) Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-204, when determining the placement of a child in OKDHS custody, a preference is given to relatives and persons who have a kinship relationship with the child. OKDHS makes diligent efforts to place the child accordingly and, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-704, reports to the court the efforts made to secure a placement for the child in the least restrictive, most family-like setting, in reasonable proximity to the child's home, and where the child's special needs may be met.

(2) When the child is not placed with a relative who was considered for placement, OKDHS notifies the court in writing the reasons the relative was denied placement and becomes part of the court record, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-204.

(3) When the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) applies, ICWA placement preferences are followed. The Indian child in foster care is placed in the following order of preference, absent good cause to the contrary, with:

- (A) a member of the Indian child's extended family as specified by the child's tribe;
- (B) a foster home licensed, approved, or specified by the Indian child's tribe;
- (C) an Indian foster home licensed or approved by an authorized non-Indian licensing authority; or
- (D) an institution for children approved by an Indian tribe or operated by an Indian organization that has a program suitable to meet the Indian child's needs. If the Indian child's tribe has established by resolution a different order of preference, the tribe's placement preferences must be applied.

(b) Kinship relationships. Kinship relationships are identified in (1) through (5) of this subsection.

(1) Related by blood. Maternal and paternal blood relatives considered as kinship, including half-blood relatives, are:

- (A) siblings;
- (B) grandparents including those denoted by prefixes of great and great-great;
- (C) aunts and uncles including those denoted by prefixes of great and great-great or by degree of relationship;
- (D) nieces and nephews including those denoted by prefixes of grand and great-grand; and
- (E) cousins.

(2) Related by marriage. Relationships created by marriage, as described in (1) of this subsection, whether by common-law or ceremony include:

- (A) step-relations; and
- (B) the previous relationship designation prior to the termination of the marriage by death or divorce.

(3) Related by adoption. Relatives by adoption as described in (1) and (2) of this subsection are considered kinship.

(4) Related by emotional tie or bond. An emotional tie or bond exists when a child or the child's parent acknowledges and accepts a person as part of the extended family or in the family's close network of friends and relationships. The family or child relationship role must exist prior to the necessity for the child's initial out-of-home placement. Individuals with whom a child in OKDHS custody establishes a relationship after the child's out-of-home placement may be considered as a non-relative kinship placement after an assessment of the child's case and an exception to kinship placement is granted.

- (A) When the child is in protective or OKDHS emergency custody, OKDHS gives priority to the child's noncustodial parent for placement, unless the placement is not in the child's best interests.

(B) When the child cannot be placed with the noncustodial parent, the child's placement is made, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-204.

(5) Parent not considered kinship. A kinship placement does not include:

(A) the child's custodial or noncustodial parent with whom the child is placed or to whom the child is returned; or

(B) a parent whose parental rights are terminated.

(c) Residence requirement for kinship applicants. For kinship applicants or adult household members who have not lived continuously in Oklahoma for the past five years, OKDHS must obtain the child abuse and neglect registry checks from the previous state(s) of residence, when a registry is available, prior to the child's placement in a kinship resource home, per 10A O.S. § 1-7-111.

(d) Initial kinship placement. Per 10A O.S. § 1-9-106, a child may be placed in the kinship resource home prior to completion of the resource family assessment, a national criminal history records search, and pre-service training provided:

(1) Form 04AD003E, Request for Background Check, is completed, signed, and results are received for the applicant and each adult household member, other than a foster child, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-7-15;

(2) an OKDHS records search, including Child Welfare Services records, is completed and documented for the applicant and each adult household member on Form 04AF007E, Records Check Documentation. When an applicant or adult household member has not lived continuously in Oklahoma for the past five years, the resource specialist gathers all child welfare (CW) histories from other states where the applicant or adult household member lived within the past five years. The applicant or adult household member submits fingerprints for a national criminal history records search to expedite the initial placement approval process.

(3) Form 04FC001E, Initial Kinship Placement Agreement, is completed and signed;

(4) Form 04AF001E, Resource Family Application, is completed and signed;

(5) Form 04AF004E, House Assessment, is completed;

(6) Form 04MP061E, Water Safety Agreement, is completed and signed;

(7) Form 04AF021E, Verification of Receipt of OKDHS Rules, is completed and signed;

(8) Form 04AF052E, Initial Kinship Safety Evaluation and Assessment Tool, is completed and signed; and

(9) three personal references, only one of whom is a family member, are interviewed.

(e) Kinship resource applicant criminal history records searches after normal business hours or on holidays. In determining the suitability of the prospective kinship home, OKDHS uses the OKDHS Office of Background Investigations (OBI) to perform a name-based state criminal history records search, per procedures set forth in Section 901 et seq. of Title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations. When OKDHS OBI is not operational, OKDHS may elect to contract or otherwise collaborate with local law enforcement agencies to perform a name-based state and federal criminal history records search followed by fingerprint verification, per 10A O.S. § 1-7-115.

(f) Kinship maintenance payment option. The kinship applicant may opt for:

- (1) an OKDHS foster care maintenance payment; or
- (2) a money payment that the child is eligible for, instead of the foster care maintenance payment, when the child lived with the kinship applicant continuously for at least twelve months.
 - (A) The foster care maintenance payment is reduced by the amount of the money payment when the money payment is less than the foster care maintenance payment. Refer to OAC 340:75-7-52.1 for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Social Security Administration (SSA) benefits received for a parent who is deceased or disabled.
 - (B) Payment may include:
 - (i) other financial resources, per OAC 340:75-13-28; or
 - (ii) Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) benefits, per OAC 340:10-9.

(g) Kinship and traditional resource home requirements the same. Each kinship resource home, whether paid or non-paid, meets the same requirements as the traditional non-related resource home.

(h) Kinship start-up and training stipend. The kinship resource family that has not been approved within the preceding five years is entitled to receive, per OKDHS Appendix C-20, Child Welfare Services Rates Schedule, a:

- (1) one-time kinship start-up stipend to assist with initial expenditures for each child placed in the home for 14-consecutive days; and
- (2) training stipend. Half of the total stipend is paid to the kinship resource family after the kinship resource parent(s) enrolls in the pre-service training and the second half of the total stipend is paid to the kinship parent(s) after the kinship resource parent(s) completes the pre-service training when:
 - (A) a child is placed and residing in the home at the time the kinship resource parent enrolls in training; and
 - (B) the child remains in the home until the kinship resource parent completes training.

(i) Foster care maintenance payments begin when requirements satisfied. Per 10A O.S. § 1-9-106, the kinship resource parent is not entitled to any payments for providing foster care until the resource parent receives final approval from OKDHS. Foster care maintenance payments for kinship resource homes begin at the time requirements are met, per OAC 340:75-7-18 and are not retroactive. On a case-by-case basis, the kinship resource parent may be approved for maintenance payments based on an exception to a non-safety requirement, per OAC 340:75-7-10.1.

(j) Kinship resource family transfer to a resource family partner (RFP). When a kinship resource family is already approved as a supported foster home or is in the approval process with an RFP, the RFP may request the kinship resource family case be transferred to the RFP agency.

340:75-7-37.1. Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) resource specialist responsibilities

The resource specialist, per Section 1-9-114 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-9-114) engages in timely activities designed to recruit, assess, approve, support, re-assess, and retain resource families by working cooperatively with internal and external sources to provide a safe environment while the child in DHS custody is placed in a resource home. The resource specialist's primary responsibility is to locate through diligent efforts safe, appropriate, and preferably kinship, placements for the child in DHS custody, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-204 and, Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-6-85, and to coordinate and cooperate with other child welfare specialists to meet the goals for safe and informed resource homes that reflect the ethnic and racial diversity of children for whom resource homes are needed, per 10A O.S. § 1-9-114.

340:75-7-38. Discipline for the child in Oklahoma Human Service (OKDHS) custody placed in foster family care

(a) Discipline. "Discipline" means safe practices or methods of teaching and enforcing acceptable patterns of behavior to ensure proper conduct and does not include corporal punishment. The resource parent assists the child in OKDHS custody placed in the resource home learn behaviors that promote the child's self-regard, personal ability, and socialization skills. The rules governing these efforts are outlined in Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-7-38(b) through (d).

(b) Positive interactions. The resource parent and family interactions with a child:

- (1) protect and nurture the child's physical and psychological well-being;
- (2) advance the child's development;
- (3) meet the child's needs;
- (4) teach the child ways to prevent and solve problems;
- (5) maintain and build the parent and child relationship;
- (6) build the child's self-control and responsibility; and
- (7) comply with OKDHS rules regarding discipline to provide a safe, nurturing environment that allows the child to experience security and positive self-esteem.

(c) Teaching techniques.

(1) Positive behavior management. Positive behavior management techniques include, but are not limited to:

- (A) rewards. Rewards may be small gestures of approval, such as treats or toys, and symbols of recognition, such as stickers, stars, happy faces, or money. Rewards are for the interest, desire, and effort the child displays, not for performance, talent, or ability. This technique must not be used all the time;
- (B) privileges. Privileges allow the child to experience greater freedom or opportunity and an increased responsibility. Privileges are used to encourage the child's interest and talents by supporting the child's efforts in pursuing interests; and

(C) praise. Praise may be communicated by verbal or non-verbal expression of the child's achievements or good qualities.

(2) Self-control. To promote the child's self-control, the resource parent clearly communicates expectations and provides a structured, safe environment. The resource parent's use of planning and preparation prevents confrontation, acting-out, and negative behaviors by:

(A) establishing expectations. The child in out-of-home care experiences varied expectations in each placement setting. Since each placement setting is different, the resource parent must communicate expectations to the child through setting rules, telling the child what to expect, and modeling. Clearly communicated expectations provide structure for the child and a structure for building and maintaining self-control; and

(B) modifying the environment. A structured, safe environment allows the child to succeed at identified tasks. The resource parent structures the environment by removing negative sources of stimulation for the child and establishing routines and consistency in the child's day-to-day schedule.

(3) Direct intervention. When the child does not have sufficient self-control to ensure acceptable behavior, the resource parent uses direct intervention and techniques, per OAC 340:75-7-38(c) (1) and (2). Techniques used are dependent upon the child's developmental needs and anticipated outcomes. Techniques appropriate for responding to lack of self-control include:

(A) rules. Rules are established guidelines that:

(i) allow the child to know what can and cannot be done;

(ii) help the child know right from wrong;

(iii) communicate to the child how something is done and help prevent problems; or

(iv) provide a way to respond to a problem;

(B) time out. Time out provides space between the child and a situation where the child exhibits behavior that is not acceptable or where the situation is dangerous. Recommended time out is one minute per age of the child. Time out is typically used for the younger child;

(C) restricting privileges. Privileges are restricted when a child is not allowed to do something for a specified time period, such as not playing with a particular toy, watching television, playing music or computer games, having phone privileges, or engaging in some other pleasant activity. Talking to parents or siblings is not included in restricting phone privileges;

(D) grounding. Grounding involves imposing restrictions on a child's interaction and involvement with friends or activities outside the placement setting, such as restriction to the house or leaving the premises to attend parties, movies, or visit friends. Grounding is typically used for the older child;

(E) logical consequences. Logical consequences require the resource parent to impose a response to the child's behavior consistent with and connected to the unacceptable behavior exhibited; and

(F) natural consequences. Natural consequences occur in response to the child's behavior. This technique is most appropriately used with adolescents and for the child who tends to get in power struggles. Natural consequences are never allowed when a child's safety or well-being is in question.

(4) Physical discipline. OKDHS prohibits the use of any form of physical discipline for the child in OKDHS custody in an out-of-home placement or any act or omission that would emotionally, physically, or psychologically harm the child.

(A) The resource parent contacts the child welfare (CW) or the resource specialist when the resource parent cannot successfully discipline the child.

(B) OKDHS and the resource parent do not authorize school personnel to administer corporal punishment to the child in OKDHS custody. The resource parent does not, when requested, authorize corporal punishment by school personnel, but refers school personnel to the CW specialist to establish alternative discipline methods.

(C) The developmental needs of the child and the desired outcomes define the discipline techniques used to modify the child's behaviors. Some of the circumstances that may affect the discipline technique used include:

(i) the behavior the child is exhibiting;

(ii) the resource parent's feelings about the behavior;

(iii) the purpose assigned to the behavior;

(iv) where the behavior occurs; and

(v) who is present at the time of the behavior.

(5) Punishment. Unacceptable behavior management methods and techniques promote negative behavior, are punitive, and do not promote self-control. Unacceptable behavior management techniques for the child include, but are not limited to:

(A) the use of the hand or any object, such as a board, fly swatter, paddle, belt, switch, electrical cord, hair brush, or wooden spoon, to hit, strike, swat, or physically discipline the child;

(B) deprivation of food or sleep;

(C) deprivation of family visits;

(D) slapping, pinching, shaking, biting, pushing, shoving, thumping, or rough jerking;

(E) cursing or other verbal abuse;

(F) private or public humiliation or any act that degrades;

(G) derogatory remarks about the child, the child's biological family, race, religion, or cultural background;

- (H) solitary confinement in areas, such as closets, cellars, and rooms with locked doors;
- (I) threatening to move the child from the resource home;
- (J) use of any chemical agent, such as mace, sleeping pills, or alcohol;
- (K) physical force or threat of physical force;
- (L) assuming and maintaining an unnatural position that may include holding arms out-stretched from the body, placing the nose against a wall, or forced squatting;
- (M) tying with a rope, cord, or other object;
- (N) ordering, allowing, or encouraging physical discipline or hitting by other children or anyone else in the home;
- (O) washing the mouth out with soap, eating certain foods that may include peppers, hot sauce, or other food stuff when intended for punishment; and
- (P) forced physical exertion, such as running laps and push-ups.

(d) OKDHS rules. The resource parent must abide by OKDHS rules regarding discipline of the child in OKDHS custody even when there is a difference between OKDHS discipline rules and the methods used to discipline the resource parent's own child.

340:75-7-41. Placement considerations and requirements for the child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody

(a) Placement preferences for the child in DHS custody. Refer to Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-6-85 for additional statutory and DHS requirements regarding sibling placement and placement preferences for the child in DHS custody.

(b) Identification of appropriate placement. Per Section 1-4-204 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-204), when selecting an appropriate placement, preferably kinship placement, for the child in DHS custody, DHS considers the:

- (1) child's best interests;
- (2) preferences of the parent, relative, and child, when appropriate; and
- (3) applicant's ability and willingness to:
 - (A) provide safety for the child;

- (B) cooperate with any restrictions placed on contact between the child and others;
- (C) support DHS efforts to implement the child's permanency plan;
- (D) meet the child's physical, emotional, and educational needs including the child's need to continue in the same school or educational placement;
- (E) provide a placement for the child's sibling(s); and
- (F) care for the child as long as necessary and provide a permanent home, when necessary.

(c) Placement stability. To promote stability and healthy growth of the child in DHS custody, it is the intent of DHS to limit the number of times a child is moved in out-of-home placement.

(1) The placement made is the best available placement to provide permanency for the child.

(2) A request by a placement provider for immediate removal of a child is examined and assessed to determine if the situation can be resolved to prevent disruption of the placement.

340:75-7-51. Foster care claims

(a) Foster care maintenance payments.

(1) A foster care claim for a maintenance payment is approved after:

- (A) the resource family assessment is completed and approved, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-7-18;
- (B) pre-service training is completed by each parent in the resource home unless an exception applies, per OAC 340:75-7-14;
- (C) the results of national criminal history records searches based on fingerprints are received regarding each applicant and each adult household member, per OAC 340:75-7-15;
- (D) a foster care contract is signed by each applicant; and
- (E) a Designated Client Number (DCN) is assigned to the foster care contract.

(2) A maintenance payment may not precede the date of the foster care contract.

(3) The resource parent authorizes direct deposit or obtains a debit card to receive foster care maintenance payments.

(b) Overpayment or underpayment of the foster care maintenance payment. The Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) and the resource parent ensure the accuracy of the foster care maintenance payment upon receipt of the payment. When an error occurs, the procedures for adjustments listed in (1) through (3) of this subsection must be completed.

(1) The resource parent immediately notifies the resource specialist or DHS notifies the resource parent upon discovery of an error in the foster care maintenance payment.

(2) DHS authorizes foster care supplemental payments upon discovery of underpayments. When an overpayment coincides with the underpayment, the overpayment is recouped before the underpayment is paid.

(3) DHS authorizes repayment schedules when resource parents are paid for days the child was not in placement or for an amount greater than authorized.

(A) The resource parent reimburses DHS for any overpayment, regardless of the party responsible for the error. Each monthly payment toward resolving the overpayment must equal at least 10 percent of the overpayment unless an exception was granted.

(B) The resource specialist assigned to the resource home notifies the resource parent of the overpayment and explains the:

- (i) reason for the overpayment;
- (ii) amount of overpayment;
- (iii) resource parent's responsibility for repayment;
- and
- (iv) repayment options.

(C) Repayment options are:

- (i) payment in full by check or money order payable to DHS;
- (ii) a deduction from the monthly foster care maintenance payment while children in DHS custody remain in the home; or
- (iii) extra payments each month to DHS as well as the deduction from the monthly foster care maintenance payment.

(D) When the resource parent:

- (i) closes the home and does not repay the overpayment, the amount of the overpayment remains in the DHS electronic system indefinitely; and
- (ii) reopens the resource home after closure, the overpayment is deducted from the foster care maintenance payment.

340:75-7-52. Foster care contracts and maintenance payments

(a) Foster care contracts. The rules in this Section and the provisions of the foster care contract for services define the resource parent and Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) responsibilities regarding the care of the child in a resource home. The foster care contract is signed when each requirement for approval as a resource parent is satisfied, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-7-18, except for kinship, per OAC 340:75-7-24.

(1) Foster care contracts are perpetually renewed and considered in effect unless a specific action by one of the parties to the contract terminates the contract. The resource parent is eligible for foster care maintenance payments effective the date the home is approved. The kinship resource parent is not paid retroactively to the date of the child's placement.

(2) Foster care maintenance payments are authorized for intervals of care provided to a child in foster care:

(A) placed by DHS; or

(B) by a tribe with an approved Tribal/State Agreement with DHS.

(3) On a case-by-case basis, the kinship resource parent may be approved for maintenance payments based on an exception to a non-safety requirement, per OAC 340:75-7-24.

(4) The kinship resource parent who meets the degree of relationship, per OAC 340:10-9-1, may apply for assistance through Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) at a local DHS office pending resource home approval.

(b) Foster care maintenance payments. When the child is eligible for a benefit payment, the resource family may opt to receive the larger of either the DHS foster care maintenance payment or the benefit payment, per OAC 340:75-7-52.1. The foster care contract authorizes foster care maintenance payments to offset the additional expense of caring for a child in DHS custody.

(1) A foster care maintenance payment is not paid until the home is granted final approval. The foster care maintenance payment is issued the month after the care is provided. No foster care maintenance payment is paid after the effective date of the cancellation or termination of the contract.

(2) The DHS Director authorizes the amount of the foster care maintenance payment and difficulty of care payment rates. Foster care maintenance payment rates are reviewed annually to ensure continued appropriateness, per Section 1356.21(m) of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations. When additional funding is needed, a request is made through the Oklahoma legislative budget process for state agencies.

(3) The foster care maintenance payment is a fixed monthly amount and corresponds to the child's age, per DHS Appendix C-20, Child Welfare Services Rates Schedule. When a change in the child's age qualifies for a new rate, the new rate becomes effective on the first day of the month following the child's birthday.

(4) The foster care maintenance payment is provided to the resource parent to address the costs of room, board, clothing, and incidentals for the child in DHS custody.

(5) The resource parent's monthly foster care maintenance payment includes a clothing allowance for each child in DHS custody, per OAC 340:75-13-45.

(6) The medical expense of the child in foster care is covered through Medicaid (SoonerCare) when private insurance is not available to the child or through state funds when the child is not eligible for Medicaid (SoonerCare), per OAC 340:75-13.

(7) The foster care maintenance payment received through the foster care contract is not considered income, per Section 131 of Title 26 of the United States Code and the resource family does not receive Form 1099 from DHS at year's end. The resource parent consults a tax advisor for advice, as needed.

(8) When a partial month of foster care service is provided, the foster care maintenance payment begins on the child's date of entry to the resource home and concludes on the day before the child's departure from the home. A prorated sum is paid:

- (A) based on the number of days of service provided, multiplied by the daily rate, per DHS Appendix C-20; and
- (B) automatically by KIDS.

(9) When a child is out of the resource home for family reunification purposes, pre-placement visits, or is missing from care for up to seven consecutive days, the resource parent receives a foster care maintenance payment when the child is expected to return to the resource home by the end of the seven consecutive days.

(10) The resource parent is eligible for prorated foster care maintenance payments when the child attends an Indian boarding school, Oklahoma Schools for the Deaf or Blind, or a similar residential program and returns to the resource home for weekends or school vacations.

(A) When the child returns to the resource home for a summer vacation, the monthly rate is used.

(B) The days the child spends in the resource home are documented in KIDS, and the foster care maintenance payment is automatically generated.

(11) The resource parent is eligible for the foster care maintenance payment for up to 10-calendar days during each of the child's health or behavioral health hospitalization events when the child is expected to return to the resource home.

(12) The foster care maintenance payment is generated electronically based on the child's placement episode in KIDS.

(c) Termination of the foster care contract. Termination of the foster care contract occurs, per OAC 340:75-7-94 and results in closure of the resource home.

340:75-7-52.1. Social Security benefits

Resource parent may become payee of certain benefits provided to the child. The resource parent may opt to receive an Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) foster care maintenance payment or a Social Security benefit payment for which the child is eligible. Upon application, the resource parent with whom the child in OKDHS custody has lived continuously for at least twelve months may become the payee to receive the child's Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Social Security Administration (SSA) benefits.

340:75-7-53. Difficulty of care (DOC) payments for the eligible child

(a) DOC payments available for the eligible child in certain types of foster care placements.

- (1) DOC rates are available to reimburse the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS), tribal, supported, or coordinated foster care resource parent for additional care and supervision required due to the child's extraordinary physical, mental, or emotional needs.
- (2) DOC reimbursement is not available to the child in a specialized community home, specialized foster care and agency companion through Developmental Disabilities Services, community-based residential care, inpatient care, or a therapeutic foster care home.
- (3) The resource parent is eligible for pro-rated DOC payments when the child attends an Indian boarding school, Oklahoma Schools for the Deaf or Blind, or a similar residential program and returns to the resource home for weekends or school vacations.
 - (A) When the child returns to the resource home for school vacations the monthly DOC rate is used.
 - (B) The days the child spends in the resource home are documented in KIDS and the DOC payment is automatically generated.
- (4) The resource parent is eligible for the DOC payment for up to 10-calendar days during each of the child's health or behavioral health hospitalization events when the child is expected to return to the resource home.

(b) DOC rates and descriptions. DOC reimbursements are provided for the eligible child in addition to the foster care maintenance or adoption assistance payment, per DHS Appendix C-20, Child Welfare Services Rates Schedule.

(1) The descriptions in DHS Appendix C-20 are used as guidelines from which DHS makes the most appropriate increase recommendation.

(2) Not every situation clearly fits in one rate category.

(3) The child's age is considered when determining the appropriate rate category.

(4) When approved, DOC payments are:

(A) not retroactive unless an exception was approved; and

(B) available the first day of the month the DOC rate is requested.

(c) DOC request. The resource parent or DHS may initiate the request for DOC payments.

(1) The DOC review process is completed within 10-calendar days after receipt of all information necessary to make a determination.

(2) Each DOC authorization is limited to six months.

340:75-7-65. Child care and support services for the resource home

(a) Child care subsidy. Child care subsidy benefits paid by Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) for a child in OKDHS or tribal custody are available, when:

- (1) a foster child attends an Early Head Start (EHS) program contracted with OKDHS to receive child care subsidy payments;
- (2) the resource is a:
 - (A) paid or non-paid resource parent authorized for child care subsidy benefits by Child Welfare Services (CWS);
 - (B) tribal resource family providing care for the child in tribal custody in a paid placement when authorized by the OKDHS tribal program staff;
 - (C) coordinated foster care parent when authorized by the district of service;
 - (D) shelter host home when authorized by the assigned child welfare (CW) specialist in the district of service;
 - (E) supported home when authorized by the assigned OKDHS resource family partner liaison; or
 - (F) therapeutic foster home when authorized by the therapeutic foster care (TFC) program staff; or
- (3) the need for child care is met:
 - (A) when a single resource parent is:
 - (i) employed 20 hours a week or more;
 - (ii) enrolled and attending a formal education program for at least six credit hours per semester. A formal education program is defined as a course of study that leads to the attainment of an associate, bachelor's, or post-graduate degree;
 - (iii) enrolled and attending a training program. A training program is defined as a course of study that when completed, qualifies a person to meet requirements for a job the individual could not have obtained without the certificate of completion, accreditation, or licensure resulting from completion of training;
 - (iv) employed during night hours and needs OKDHS paid child care to allow him or her to sleep during the day. During the night working hours, a feasible alternative is used at no cost to OKDHS. Night working hours are defined as the hours between 11:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m. The maximum amount of child care time the resource specialist approves allows the resource parent eight hours of sleep plus travel time to and from the child care provider; and
 - (v) approved for child care by the resource program staff for reasons other than those listed in this subparagraph. These decisions are made on a case-by-case basis; or

(B) in a two-parent resource home, when:

- (i) both resource parents are employed 20 hours a week or more and have the same working hours;
- (ii) one resource parent works and the other resource parent has a significant disability that precludes providing care for the child;
- (iii) one resource parent works during the same hours the other resource parent is enrolled and attending a formal education or training program as defined in (3)(A) of this subsection;
- (iv) sleep-time child care is needed during the day because one or both resource parents work nights. During the night working hours, a feasible alternative is used at no cost to OKDHS. When one resource parent works nights, the other resource parent must work or need child care for a reason that requires the approval of resource program staff during the hours the other resource parent is sleeping. Night working hours are defined as the hours between 11:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m. The maximum amount of child care time the resource specialist approves allows the resource parent eight hours of sleep, plus travel time to and from the child care provider; or
- (v) one resource parent works during the same hours the other resource parent needs child care for a reason other than those listed in this subparagraph. In this situation, resource program staff approve the need for subsidized child care on a case-by-case basis; or

(4) child care is provided:

(A) in a licensed and contracted child care center with a one star plus or higher star status, unless there are no centers with a one star plus or higher star status in the community or special exception criteria are met. Special exception criteria are:

- (i) the child was already approved for care at the one star center prior to January 1, 2003, or prior to the provider's star status being reduced to one star. The child may remain in this facility, unless the child stops attending there for more than 30-calendar days. The child may be approved at this same facility again when the only reason the child did not attend for more than 30-calendar days was because of a school break or due to circumstances beyond the control of the resource home, such as the child's illness;
- (ii) care is requested for a child living in the same home as a child already approved for care per (3)(A)(i) of this paragraph for the same one star child care provider; or

- (iii) the resource parent demonstrates no other child care option meets the family's needs; or
- (B) in a licensed and contracted child care home regardless of star level; or
- (C) by an approved in-home provider who cares for the child at the resource parent's home, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:40-13-2.

(b) Child care subsidy benefits available through Adult and Family Services (AFS). Child care subsidy benefits may be available through local OKDHS AFS for child care, per OAC 340:40, to:

- (1) resource parents who finalized an adoption of a foster child;
- (2) a child in tribal custody placed by the tribe in a home without a resource case in KIDS; and
- (3) a child in the custody of another state placed in a kinship home in Oklahoma through the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children.

(c) Foster care child care subsidy benefits not paid by OKDHS. Foster care child care subsidy benefits are not paid by OKDHS, when the:

- (1) resource parent has an ownership interest in the chosen child care center;
- (2) foster child attends a family child care home where the child lives, unless:
 - (A) the child care home provided child care to the child immediately prior to the foster care placement; and
 - (B) it is in the child's best interests to remain in the kinship provider's child care home; or
- (3) resource parent works in the child care home during the same hours the child attends child care;
- (4) resource parent chooses more than one child care provider to provide service to a child on the same day;
- (5) resource parent makes informal arrangements for child care;
- (6) provider is receiving state or federal funds, such as Head Start or public schools, and is not charging all parents for the hours the subsidy payment is requested. EHS programs are exempt from this rule; or
- (7) provider is caring for a school-age child during the regular school day when such student could be attending a public or private school during those hours.

(d) Child care subsidy benefits for a child with disabilities. A child with disabilities is potentially eligible for the higher special needs rate for child care subsidy benefits. Each child with disabilities requires a separate and specific certification of the child care provider.

- (1) A child with disabilities is defined as a child receiving:
 - (A) Supplemental Security Income (SSI). This includes those whose SSI payment stops because of financial reasons, but who still meet the medical definition of disability as determined by the Social Security Administration;
 - (B) SoonerStart (Medicaid) early intervention services; or
 - (C) special education services provided per an Individualized Education Program (IEP) by the child's school district.

(2) When the child with disabilities is 13 years of age and older, the resource parent provides a statement from a licensed health care professional verifying that the child is physically or mentally incapable of self-care as age-appropriate before care is approved, and annually at review. Subsidized child care benefits are not approved when a licensed health care professional states that the child is capable of self-care as age-appropriate.

(e) Resource parent's responsibility for electronic benefit transfer (EBT). Refer to OAC 340:40-10 for information regarding the EBT system that includes the manual claim process. Resource parent responsibilities for EBT include:

- (1) watching the EBT training video;
- (2) completing and submitting a signed Form 04MP042E, Application for Child Welfare Child Care Benefits;
- (3) swiping the EBT card every day the child attends child care;
- (4) not swiping the EBT card for any day the child does not attend child care;
- (5) checking the message on the point of service machine for correct times of attendance and approval;
- (6) not giving the EBT card or personal identification number to anyone, including the child care provider; and
- (7) paying for care that OKDHS does not pay because the:
 - (A) EBT card was not swiped for the correct days and times the child attended child care;
 - (B) swipes were denied and not corrected within 10-business days; or
 - (C) provider loses the weekly rate payment for absent days because the correct attendance for every day the child attended that month was not swiped.

(f) Therapeutic child care services. Therapeutic child care services are paid by OKDHS when recommended by a mental health professional and supporting documentation is provided. Prior authorization from the CWS Finance and Business (FB) is required. CWS FB makes the determination of the availability of funds.

(g) Overpayment of child care. OKDHS seeks repayment for any child care subsidy benefit paid in error to a licensed child care center, home, or professional in the resource parent's own home. The resource parent reimburses these costs to OKDHS when the overpayment occurs due to the resource parent's ineligibility.

(h) Informal care arrangements for the foster child. Resource parents may make informal care arrangements with friends, neighbors, or relatives for the foster child's occasional care.

(1) Resource parents apply the reasonable and prudent parent standard when selecting an informal care provider to care for the foster child and ensure he or she possesses the maturity and skills to address the child's needs.

(2) The foster child may stay with a friend, when the resource parent:

- (A) knows the family;

(B) reasonably believes the family, household members, and environment are safe for the child; and

(C) exchanges contact information, including names, addresses, and phone numbers.

(3) The resource parent notifies the resource specialist when using informal care arrangements. The resource parent may not use an informal care provider who the resource specialist determines is unsafe.

(4) The resource parent obtains permission from the foster child's assigned CW specialist before allowing the foster child's relatives to provide informal care for the child.

(5) An informal care provider, living outside of the resource parent's home, must be 18 years of age and older.

(6) A teenager living in the resource parent's home must be 16 or 17 years of age, related to the resource parent, and is limited to providing 12-consecutive hours of informal care. The resource specialist and the resource parent assess the teen's ability and appropriateness to assume responsibility for the foster child and ensure his or her needs and well-being can be met.

(7) The resource parent does not use a child in OKDHS custody to care for a younger child unless approved by the resource specialist.

(8) Informal care providers are notified on how to reach the resource parent and other emergency contacts.

(9) An individual providing care for more than seven-consecutive days must be an approved alternate caregiver.

(i) Alternate caregiver selected by the resource parent. The resource parent is required to identify at least one formal, alternate caregiver, but no more than two, who can fulfill the resource parent's role for the child in OKDHS custody placed in the resource home in case of family emergencies, or when the family needs an extended break for up to 14-consecutive days. The alternate caregiver is limited to providing care only for resource families for which the caregiver is approved.

(1) The alternate caregiver is not used as a placement for the child.

(2) The resource parent identifies and reimburses the alternate caregiver. When funding is available, respite vouchers may be used for reimbursement.

(3) The alternate caregiver is at least 21 years of age.

(4) The alternate caregiver and each adult household member in the alternate caregiver's home must be willing to:

(A) submit to a name-based records search by the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, per OAC 340:75-7-15;

(B) submit to an OKDHS records search including, but not limited to:

(i) CWS history, per OAC 340:75-7-15;

(ii) Restricted Registry; and

(iii) Community Services Worker Registry; and

(C) submit to an Oklahoma State Department of Health Nontechnical Services Worker Abuse Registry search;

- (D) submit to a Juvenile Online Tracking System records search for each child, 13 through 17 years of age, living in the home, per OAC 340:75-7-15;
- (E) engage in an evaluation of the home to assess the location, condition, and capacity to accommodate the child in OKDHS custody;
- (F) provide one reference on Form 04AF026E, Alternate Caregiver Reference Letter;
- (G) comply with discipline policy, per OAC 340:75-7-38, and confidentiality policy, per OAC 340:75-1-42; and
- (H) participate in a yearly update.

(j) Respite care. Respite care may only be provided by an approved resource home. A resource home is not limited to providing respite care to only one resource family.

(k) Resource home insurance. Liability insurance is provided for resource families for damages caused by the child in OKDHS custody per the terms of the policy. Resource families have the right to receive a copy of the liability insurance policy, per Section 1-9-119 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-9-119). Resource parents are responsible for any deductibles.

(l) Foster care associations. OKDHS cooperates with and promotes the development of foster care associations for resource parents in each district. OKDHS provides information to resource families about local foster care associations.

(m) Foster Care and Adoption Support Center. The Foster Care and Adoption Support Center, 1-800-376-9729, is maintained by the Foster Care and Adoption Support Unit and assists with questions and problem resolution.

(n) Foster parents' rights. Foster parents' rights are found in 10A O.S. § 1-9-119 and a copy is given to every resource parent at the annual update.

(o) Shared information. Information shared between CWS employees, resource parents, and parents includes, but is not limited to the:

- (1) child's legal status;
- (2) upcoming court hearings;
- (3) reason for the child's foster care placement;
- (4) child's and parent's prior and present living experiences; and
- (5) child's medical, psychological, and behavioral information, current photographs, and educational records.

(p) Foster care grievance procedures. The resource parent and child in foster care have access to OKDHS grievance procedures through the Office of Client Advocacy, per OAC 340:2-3. Foster parent grievances are confidential and the foster parent has the right to be free from harassment and retaliation, per 10A O.S. § 1-9-119.

(q) Foster care mediation program. The resource parent may access the foster care mediation program through the Oklahoma Commission on Children and Youth (OCCY), per OAC 340:75-7-291.

(r) Resource parent complaints about OKDHS employees. Resource parents may file a complaint with OCCY Office of Juvenile System Oversight about an action of an OKDHS employee involving retaliation or discrimination against a resource parent, per OAC 340:75-7-292.

(s) Training topics relevant to fostering. Pre-service and in-service training is provided to enhance the resource parent's foster parenting skills.

(t) Travel reimbursement for the resource parent.

(1) The resource parent, including a tribal resource parent, may be reimbursed for four trips per month for mileage incurred when providing transportation for the child in OKDHS custody placed in the resource home. When multiple children are included on a trip, the trip is counted as one trip for the group. Travel reimbursement may occur when the:

(A) resource parent provides travel associated with the child's permanency and well-being, limited to:

- (i) visits with parents and any person approved by the child's CW specialist;
- (ii) visits with the child's sibling; or
- (iii) court hearings; and

(B) round trip for a single event is 26 miles or more; and

(C) trips are documented and filed monthly on Form 10AD006E, Travel Claim, provided by a CW specialist, and processed through the Foster Care and Adoption Support Center.

(2) Travel reimbursement may occur when transporting a child to and from the foster placement to Oklahoma Schools for the Blind or Deaf on a bi-weekly basis after all other options are exhausted.

(u) Tax deduction available. An Oklahoma income tax deduction may be available for resource parents who meet requirements, per 68 O.S. § 2358.5-1. A resource parent with tax questions related to the care of a child in OKDHS custody contacts a tax professional.

340:75-7-94. Resource home annual updates, non-compliance or rule violations, investigations, closures, fair hearings, and reassessment to re-open a previously closed resource

(a) Annual update. The resource family assessment is updated annually from the resource home's approval date in KIDS.

(b) Resource home non-compliance or rule violation issues. When non-compliance or rule violation issues in the home require remediation for continued use of the home, a written plan of compliance is developed as a tool to address the safety and stability of the child in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody placed in the home.

(c) Resource home investigation.

(1) When a Child Protective Services investigation results in removal of a child in OKDHS custody from the home:

(A) Form 04MP014E, Notice of Child's Removal from Out-of-Home Placement, is provided by the child welfare (CW) specialist, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-6-86; and

(B) the resource parent receives Form 04MP031E, Notice of Decision Not to Return Child After Investigation, from the CW specialist when a decision is made not to return the child to the home.

(2) Per Section 1-9-119 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes, the resource parent has the right to request and receive a fair and impartial administrative hearing regarding decisions that affect certification, retention, or placement of a child in OKDHS custody in the resource home.

(d) Closure of the resource home. The resource home is closed and the contract is terminated, when:

- (1) resource home services are no longer needed;
- (2) kinship children are no longer placed in the kinship resource home;
- (3) the child leaves a resource home jointly-approved for that specific child;
- (4) the child is no longer placed in the resource home approved for the specific child;
- (5) the resource parent requests closure;
- (6) the resource parent fails to timely implement or maintain compliance with provisions of Form 04AF023E, Written Plan of Compliance, to resolve conditions that present a risk to the child or conditions that do not conform to the contract;
- (7) there are non-compliance issues related to a rule, statute, contract, or a written plan of compliance that are unresolved including, but not limited to, failure of the resource parent or household member to meet or maintain the initial screening and requirements, per OAC 340:75-7-10.1 or maintain compliance with background requirements, per OAC 340:75-7-15; or
- (8) rules, statutes, or contract violations by the resource parent or household member occurred that resulted in OKDHS determining the child to be unsafe in the resource home.

(e) Fair hearing. When the approved resource home is closed, the resource parent has the right to appeal closure through the fair hearing process, per OAC 340:75-1-12.6.

(f) Reassessment to re-open a previously closed resource. When the resource is closed for more than 12 months but less than five years, the resource may be opened with an approved reassessment within 30-calendar days of the disposition date.

(1) A child meets at least one of the following eligibility criteria to receive EFC, the:

- (A) Child and Adolescent Needs and Strengths (CANS) Assessment indicates the child would benefit from EFC. The CANS Assessment is conducted by a third-party qualified person, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-13-16 and 340:75-14-1;
- (B) onset of frequent placement moves from family-based settings due to the provider requesting change of placement or because the provider cannot meet the child's behavioral health needs;
- (C) child has a minimum of two elevated Child Behavioral Health Screeners;
- (D) child has a provisional or primary diagnosis from the most recent edition of "The Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders," except for V codes and adjustment disorders, with a detailed description of the symptoms supporting the diagnosis;
- (E) child's conditions are directly attributed to a primary medical diagnosis of a severe behavioral and emotional health need and may also be attributed to a secondary medical diagnosis of a physical, developmental, intellectual, or social disorder that is supported alongside the mental health needs;
- (F) child's conditions are directly attributed to a mental illness or serious emotional disturbance, a medical issue, or a developmental or intellectual delay;
- (G) evidence the child's presenting problems require full integration of a 24-hour crisis response, behavior management, or intensive clinical interventions from professional staff to prevent the child from having to move from a family-based placement or to transition to a family-based setting from a higher level of care; or
- (H) the child has specific needs or factors that pertain to the child's permanency, safety, and well-being, as approved by the EFC programs administrator.

(2) The resource parent caring for the child agrees to participate in the child's treatment needs and planning actively.

(c) Training. All resource parents receiving EFC services are required to complete a supplemental EFC training determined by OKDHS and any child-specific training dependent on the child's individual needs, in addition to the agency required pre-service training.

(d) EFC homes. EFC homes are approved, per OAC 340:75-7-10.1 through 340:75-7-18, and after:

- (1) undergoing assessment;
- (2) finishing the supplemental EFC training;
- (3) demonstrating a willingness and capacity to provide the level of supervision the child requires or needs on an ongoing basis;
- (4) agreeing to participate in a child's treatment needs and planning actively; and
- (5) receiving approval from the regional field manager.

340:75-7-303. Enhanced foster care (EFC) initial consultation, Service and Support Plan (SSP), and ongoing treatment

(a) Initial consultation for services. The initial consultation is completed with the treatment team within five-business days of determination the child meets EFC criteria. The consultation clearly articulates the child's and family's current needs and identification of services to meet those needs. The treatment team includes:

- (1) the child receiving EFC services, when age appropriate;
- (2) resource parent(s);
- (3) biological parent(s) or guardian, when appropriate;
- (4) child's assigned child welfare (CW) specialist and his or her supervisor;
- (5) resource specialist and his or her supervisor;
- (6) service provider(s);
- (7) regional EFC program staff; and
- (8) other professionals providing support to the child or resource parent(s).

(b) EFC SSP. Thirty-calendar days after the initial consultation, a treatment team meeting is held which includes individuals listed in (a)(1)-(8). EFC program staff completes Form 04EF001E, Enhanced Foster Care Service & Support Plan during the meeting with the treatment team. The EFC SSP outlines the child's and family's individualized needs and the identified service array and supports.

(c) EFC ongoing treatment. A treatment team meeting (TTM) takes place 30-calendar days after the initial consultation and every 60-calendar days from the last TTM. The TTM informs the child's ongoing need and utilization of EFC services. EFC program staff facilitates the meetings and complete Form 04EF004E, Enhanced Foster Care Treatment Team Meeting Documentation. The TTM covers topics regarding the child's progress on treatment goals and objectives, the family's participation and engagement in EFC services, and any additional services or supports needed.

(d) EFC ongoing approval. The regional EFC program staff approves EFC services in six-month increments. Upon request from the child's assigned CW specialist or resource specialist, the regional EFC program staff evaluates service progress, resource family participation, and the child's current eligibility for EFC services.

SUBCHAPTER 8. THERAPEUTIC FOSTER CARE AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES SERVICES

PART 1. THERAPEUTIC FOSTER CARE

340:75-8-1. Purpose, legal basis, and definitions

(a) Purpose.

- (1) Therapeutic foster care (TFC) serves children in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) or tribal custody who are:
 - (A) 4 through 17 years of age; and
 - (B) youth, up to 19 years of age or until completion of high school who have requested extended services, and:
 - (i) meet medical necessity criteria established by the Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA), per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 317:30-5-741;
 - (ii) respond to close relationships within a family setting; and
 - (iii) require more intensive behavioral health services than available in traditional and supported foster care family settings, when additional supports are not available or have failed to stabilize the child in a lesser restrictive placement; and do not require 24-hour supervision by an adult who is not sleeping.
- (2) Intensive treatment family care (ITFC) serves children in OKDHS or tribal custody who are:
 - (A) 6 through 17 years of age; and
 - (B) youth, up to 19 years of age or until completion of high school who have requested extended services, and:
 - (i) meet medical necessity criteria established by OHCA, per OAC 317:30-5-751; and
 - (ii) require more intensive treatment than traditional foster care and TFC settings provide.
- (3) A TFC or ITFC contractor may use contracted foster care (CFC) to provide care to children in the legal custody of, or voluntarily placed with, OKDHS or tribal custody. When funding availability is uncertain, CFC approval may be required. Approval is requested from the TFC field manager or TFC field administrator.

(b) Legal basis.

- (1) Section 1-7-103 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-7-103) mandates OKDHS review and assess each child in OKDHS custody to determine the type of placement consistent with the child's treatment needs in the nearest geographical proximity to the child's home.

(2) OKDHS develops and implements a diversity of community-based services and residential care, as needed, to provide for adequate and appropriate home-based and community-based treatment or rehabilitation of each child in a:

- (A) foster home;
- (B) group home;
- (C) community residential center; or
- (D) non-secure facility consistent with the child's individualized treatment needs and, when possible, in or near the child's home community.

(c) Definitions. The following words and terms, when used in Part 1 of this Subchapter, have the following meaning, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Intensive treatment family care (ITFC)" means residential behavioral management services provided in a specialized foster care setting for a child who:

- (A) meets medical necessity criteria, per OAC 317:30-5-751;
- (B) has severe psychological, behavioral, social, and emotional needs;
- (C) may also present with a secondary physical, developmental, intellectual, or social disorder;
- (D) requires a higher level of care and ITFC helps prevent placement in a more restrictive setting, such as an inpatient setting; and
- (E) receives intensive individualized behavioral health and other support services from qualified staff.

(2) "Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) placement agreement for residential behavioral management services (RBMS)" means the contract entered into between OKDHS and an agency providing TFC services, including all attachments and exhibits.

(3) "OHCA" means the entity designated for administering Title XIX Medicaid reimbursement, including both the responsibility for the establishment of medical necessity criteria for children receiving TFC and ITFC services and prior authorization for the admission and extension of Medicaid or Title XIX reimbursed TFC and ITFC services.

(4) "Therapeutic foster care (TFC)" means residential behavioral management services provided in a specialized foster care setting for a child who:

- (A) meets medical necessity criteria, per OAC 317:30-5-741;
- (B) has special psychological, behavioral, social, and emotional needs;
- (C) accepts and responds to close relationships within a family setting; and
- (D) requires more intensive or therapeutic services than are found in traditional foster care when additional supports are not available or have failed to stabilize the child in a less restrictive setting.

(5) "TFC or ITFC contractor" means a licensed child care agency that meets OKDHS and OHCA requirements to provide residential behavioral management services in a foster care setting. A TFC or ITFC contract agency:

(A) provides direct clinical treatment services to the child placed; and

(B) recruits, trains, certifies, reimburses, and provides supportive services to the TFC or ITFC foster parent.

(6) "Contracted foster care (CFC)" means a traditional level of foster care used through the TFC or ITFC contractor. The contractor may use certified a TFC or ITFC home for a child's placement at a traditional foster care level.

340:75-8-4. Contract procedures for therapeutic foster care (TFC) or intensive treatment family care (ITFC)

(a) Contracts for the provision of TFC or ITFC placements are issued per Section 85 of Title 74 of the Oklahoma Statutes. Prior to issuance of the Oklahoma Health Care Authority Title XIX contract for TFC or ITFC services, the TFC field administrator for TFC or ITFC approves providers as eligible TFC or ITFC contractors.

(b) Contracts for the provision of TFC or ITFC placements are monitored on-site or on a virtual platform at least annually to ensure services provided are in compliance with contract terms as approved by the TFC field administrator.

340:75-8-6. Required protocol for therapeutic foster care (TFC) or intensive therapeutic family care (ITFC) contractors

TFC or ITFC contractors:

- (1) implement and review an individualized treatment plan for each child in placement, with documented input from the child's assigned child welfare (CW) specialist, according to the requirements set forth in the Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) contract;
- (2) accept responsibility for a reasonable knowledge of the child's whereabouts at all times. When a child is unaccounted for, the TFC or ITFC contractor:
 - (A) immediately notifies the assigned CW specialist or CW supervisor. CW staff follows protocol and completes missing from care notifications, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-6-48.3; and
 - (B) submits a written incident report to the child's assigned CW specialist describing the circumstances and files a copy in the child's case record;
- (3) agree to immediately report all emergency medical care to the child's assigned CW specialist and to document the manner of report and response in the child's case record. The contractor ensures CW specialists, parents, and guardians are advised of physician recommendations regarding the use of psychotropic medications and the contractor must comply with OKDHS policy, per OAC 340:75-14-3. Neither OKDHS, a TFC or ITFC parent, nor TFC or ITFC contractor staff may consent to a child in OKDHS custody undergoing an abortion or sterilization procedure, initiating termination of life support, or implementing a "do not resuscitate" order;
- (4) ensure the completion of a clothing and personal item inventory for each child entering and leaving placement and ensure each child leaves the placement with all of his or her clothing and personal items;
- (5) develop and implement written policy for the approval and use of volunteers, per Section 404.1 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes (10 O.S. § 404.1), when the TFC or ITFC contractor uses volunteers that, at a minimum, require criminal history, Restricted Registry, and sex offender registry checks;
- (6) submit written reports to the child's CW specialist or specialists describing the child's stay in placement, progress toward meeting the identified treatment plan, education, and medical care as requested for court hearings, and file a copy of the reports in the child's case record;
- (7) develop and implement written policy and procedures for discipline that comply with OAC 340:75-7-38 and 10A O.S. § 1-7-105;
- (8) develop and implement written policy that prohibits possession or use of tobacco and tobacco products by any child in placement, and prohibits the use of tobacco or tobacco products by employees of the TFC or ITFC contractor in the presence of any child in placement;

(9) afford the TFC or ITFC parent the same rights as all foster parents in Oklahoma, per 10A O.S. § 1-9-119;

(10) plan and coordinate each child's discharge with the child's CWS assigned specialist or specialists, when different, and provide a minimum of 72-business hours' notice to discharge, except in medical emergencies. On-site crisis intervention is provided prior to any emergency discharge;

(11) submit a written discharge summary to the child's CW specialists within 30-calendar days of the child's discharge and file a copy in the child's case record. The discharge summary includes:

(A) a summary of treatment services;

(B) child's progress on the treatment plan;

(C) reason for discharge; and

(D) recommendations for future placements and services for the child's treatment needs;

(12) ensure compliance with:

(A) minimum licensing standards per Child Care Services licensing standards for child-placing agencies; and

(B) staffing requirements per OKDHS Contract Agreement for TFC or ITFC;

(13) develop and implement written policy and operating procedures regarding corrective discipline procedures for employees;

(14) ensure any TFC or ITFC agency staff member responsible for conducting resource family assessments (RFAs) or annual updates attended OKDHS training prior to conducting RFAs or updates. The staff member attends a minimum six hours of mandatory training annually;

(15) develop and implement written policy and operating procedures to govern the TFC or ITFC parent's maintenance and administration of prescription and non-prescription medication to each child in placement, including transporting prescription and non-prescription medication when the child receives medication any place other than the TFC or ITFC home, such as respite placements, family visits, and medication administered during school hours;

(16) develop and implement written policy, operating procedures, and supervision guidelines regarding the use of solitary confinement and separation programs, such as restricting the child to his or her own room for a cooling off period. The duration of room restriction is specified at the time of assignment and is consistent with the child's chronological age; developmental level; behavioral, emotional, and medical needs; and availability of supervision;

(17) for each scheduled review hearing, coordinate with the CW specialist and the TFC or ITFC parent for a youth 14 through 17 years of age to ensure the youth's availability to respond to the court's inquiry, in person, by phone, or by other electronic means, about the youth's plan for skills development and transition to successful adulthood;

(18) assist the CW specialist and TFC parent with ensuring youth in the eighth, ninth, or tenth grades are enrolled in the Oklahoma's Promise, formerly known as the Oklahoma Higher Learning Access Program, and provide TFC or ITFC parents with information on the program's eligibility, application guidelines, and academic requirements; and

340:75-8-7. Contracted therapeutic foster care services

(a) Contractor rules. Therapeutic foster care (TFC) contractors meet Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA) rules as described in Parts 1, 3, and 5 of the Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 317:30-3 and Part 83 of OAC 317:30-5.

(b) TFC services. Contracted TFC services are based on the child's assessed needs and are provided consistent with the goals and objectives of the child's treatment plan (TP) per OAC 317:30-5-241.2 and 317:30-5-742.2 and include:

(1) individual therapy;

(2) family therapy. The TFC contractor:

(A) works with the parent or parents or placement provider to whom a child in TFC will be discharged;

(B) seeks to support and enhance the child's relationship with family members, including siblings;

(C) arranges for and encourages regular contact and visitation between the child and parent or parents and other family members; and

(D) engages the child's parent or parents and siblings in visitation and family therapy with the child, when the case plan is reunification. The TFC contractor provides consultation, support, and technical assistance to the TFC parent in the implementation of the child's TP;

(3) group rehabilitative treatment. Group rehabilitative treatment services may be part of the child's TP to provide needed services, such as basic living skills, social skills redevelopment, independent living services for successful adulthood, self-care, lifestyle change, recovery principles, and other similar services. Thirty minutes of individual therapy, family therapy, or both, may be provided in lieu of one hour of group rehabilitative treatment when group treatment services are part of the child's treatment plan but are temporarily unavailable;

(4) substance use or abuse or chemical dependency therapy, as needed, by a child with behavioral or emotional problems directly related to substance use or abuse. A minimum of two hours of education and prevention therapy per 90-calendar day period is recommended, based on individual needs, for a child who does not have behavioral or emotional problems directly related to substance use or abuse;

(5) basic living skills redevelopment provided by the TFC parent;

(6) social skills redevelopment provided by the TFC parent;

(7) crisis behavior management and redirection services to ensure therapeutic contract staff are available for response 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Response includes providing face-to-face or phone intervention during a crisis to stabilize the child's behavior and prevent placement disruption. Face-to-face intervention must be utilized prior to a child's placement in a higher level of care, unless there is an imminent safety risk. Crisis behavior management and redirection services are consistent with the goals and objectives of the child's TP;

(8) collaboration with Child Welfare Services (CWS) specialists in the completion of the youth's basic life skills assessment and the development of the youth's successful adulthood plan; and

(9) successful adulthood plan services in compliance with the Oklahoma Successful Adulthood program administered by the Oklahoma Department of Human Services, per OAC 340:75-6-110.

(c) TFC contractor requirements. TFC contractors are required to provide services and meet requirements as identified in OAC 340:75, 317:30-5-740, 317:30-5-740.1 and the residential behavioral management services (RBMS).

(1) Specialized treatment services to augment the required services provided by the TFC contractor may be obtained when a child experiences severe functional impairment, exhibiting the need for additional treatment beyond the required TFC services. The specialized treatment services are provided by a Medicaid behavioral health contractor other than the TFC contractor and require prior OHCA authorization.

(2) The CWS specialist is required to participate in the coordination of all requests for additional treatment services for a child in a TFC placement with the TFC contractor. In requesting additional services from a licensed PhD psychologist in private practice, the CWS specialist considers the:

(A) duration, intensity, and frequency of the child's behaviors;

(B) child's specialized treatment needs including, but not limited to, sexual perpetration, long-term substance use or abuse, and highly-sexualized behaviors;

(C) number of crises requiring an on-site response; and

(D) child's progress on his or her TFC treatment plan.

340:75-8-8. Therapeutic foster care (TFC) or intensive therapeutic family care (ITFC) contractor requirements

(a) TFC or ITFC contractors:

- (1) actively recruit prospective TFC or ITFC parents who reflect the racial and ethnic diversity of children requiring placement, in compliance with the Multiethnic Placement Act of 1994 and the Interethnic Provisions of 1996, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-7-10;
- (2) actively recruit prospective TFC or ITFC parents who are receptive and capable of meeting the service needs of all Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody children determined to be eligible for TFC or ITFC placement;
- (3) engage with a family within one-business day of receiving a recruitment lead referral from OKDHS. Upon request, the contractor communicates to Child Welfare Service (CWS) progress on resource development;
- (4) certify TFC or ITFC homes according to rules established by Child Care Services (CCS), CWS, OAC 340:75-7-10 through 340:75-7-19, Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA), and the requirements outlined in the OKDHS placement agreement for residential behavioral management services (RBMS) in TFC or ITFC Settings;
- (5) ensure each TFC or ITFC parent receives the appropriate pre-service training according to CCS and OHCA rules, per OAC 317:30-5-740.1 or OAC 317:30-5-750.1, CWS resource family requirements, and the requirements outlined in RBMS in TFC or ITFC sections, prior to a child's placement in the home;
- (6) ensure the TFC or ITFC home meets all OKDHS certification requirements prior to a child's or youth's placement in the home;
- (7) evaluate the TFC or ITFC parent's ability to provide TFC or ITFC services and meet the needs of children receiving RMBS in a foster care setting, per OAC 340:75-7-94;
- (8) participate in regularly scheduled staffings on all child abuse and neglect referrals with CWS program staff, per OAC 340:75-3-410. Each TFC or ITFC home file a log of all investigations and screened-out referrals for use as a continual assessment of safety and resource home developmental needs;
- (9) ensure that no TFC or ITFC home is used for new placements or respite care while under investigation for child abuse or neglect. CWS has the right to decline or may discontinue the home's use for placement when the TFC or ITFC parent's documented efforts did not resolve the concerns. New placements or respite care cannot resume without specific consent of the TFC liaison and liaison supervisor;
- (10) ensure each TFC or ITFC parent meets the requirements for in-service training as defined in the OKDHS RBMS contract;

(11) ensure the TFC or ITFC parent has training and support to apply reasonable and prudent parent standards, per Section 1-1-105 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes. The reasonable and prudent parent standard is characterized by careful and sensible parental decisions that maintain the child's health, safety, and best interests while at the same time encouraging the child's emotional and developmental growth. This standard is used by the child's TFC or ITFC parent when determining whether to allow a child to participate in extracurricular, enrichment, cultural, and social activities. The TFC or ITFC parent may request consultation with the CWS specialist, biological parent or guardian, TFC or ITFC contractor staff, or other parties to the child's case to assist with decision-making and ensure the child has access to immediate therapeutic response and support when needed. Visitation with the child's family of origin, or with connections identified by OKDHS to have restricted contact with the child, is approved by the child's CWS specialist;

(12) complete Form 04TF006E, Unsupervised Time Assessment, for all TFC or ITFC children, regardless of age, anytime an assessment is made that the child has the ability to have time away from the TFC or ITFC parent's direct supervision for activities other than those included under reasonable and prudent parenting standards, such as the child spending time alone or attending a child care program while the TFC parent works. This assessment includes, but is not limited to, child care utilization and the TFC parent's availability to respond to behavioral needs and all problems when the child is not under his or her direct supervision. The assessment is documented as part of the child's ongoing TFC or ITFC treatment plan with a copy of the finalized plan provided to the TFC or ITFC parent or parents;

(13) request approval from the TFC liaison and liaison supervisor when accessing child care. The written request includes the:

(A) therapeutic justification of daily child care outside of the child's TFC placement home in the child's treatment plan;

(B) justification for the TFC parent's need for child care outside of the child's TFC placement home;

(C) ability of child care staff or the child care provider to meet the child's emotional and behavioral needs and all problems;

(D) availability of the TFC parent and TFC contractor staff to respond to behavioral needs and all problems at the child care environment;

(E) verification of the child care center's licensing status, star ratings, and adult-to child ratio, per OAC 340:75-7-65(a)(4)(A);

(F) proposed weekly schedule for child care utilization; and

(G) planned length of use of child care as a service component of the child's treatment plan;

(14) follow established protocol found in the RBMS, contract for TFC or ITFC services, for managing the transfer of a currently certified foster home from another contracting agency;

(15) do not certify a OKDHS employee as a TFC or ITFC parent without prior written approval from the CWS director or designee. The TFC or ITFC contractor submits the written request to the CWS TFC program staff. The request's review is consistent with OAC 340:75-7-10.1;

(16) do not certify a TFC or ITFC agency employee assigned to the TFC or ITFC program as a TFC or ITFC parent without prior written approval from the TFC field administrator. The request includes a copy of TFC or ITFC agency policy regarding certification of the TFC or ITFC agency employees;

(17) do not accept a TFC or ITFC parent application from a person licensed to provide child care services. Families are not approved as licensed family child care homes and TFC or ITFC homes at their home or in any other location;

(18) establish a procedure to address and document a response to concerns in a TFC or ITFC home that do not warrant a referral for an abuse or neglect assessment or investigation. Examples of these concerns include, but are not limited to, a TFC or ITFC parent's judgment or supervision, disciplinary practices, non-compliance with policy or contract, unacceptable housing standards, inadequate clothing provisions for the child, or a lack of involvement in the child's education or independent living skills. CWS has the right to decline the home's use when the TFC or ITFC parent's documented efforts did not resolve the concerns; and

(19) require all TFC or ITFC parents to immediately report to the TFC or ITFC contractor:

- (A) charges or arrests of any TFC or ITFC parent or household member and any criminal investigation of a TFC or ITFC parent or household member; or
- (B) a proceeding for a protective order filed by, or against any member, of the household. The TFC or ITFC contractor immediately reports these events to the TFC liaison and liaison supervisor and complies with directives given to ensure the safety of children in the home.

(b) TFC or ITFC homes may be jointly-approved, per OAC 340:75-7-19.

340:75-8-9. Placement procedures in therapeutic foster care homes (TFC) or intensive therapeutic family care (ITFC)

(a) TFC is the least restrictive, community-based residential care placement setting. Children in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody or tribal custody served in TFC placements are 4 through 17 years of age, and the Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA) authorized reviewer has determined the children meet the medical necessity criteria for TFC services, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 317:30-5-741.

(1) The child is diagnosed with any Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM) AXIS I primary diagnosis, with the exception of V codes and adjustment disorders, accompanied by a detailed description of the symptoms supporting the diagnosis.

(2) The child's conditions are directly attributed to a mental illness or serious emotional disturbance as the primary need for professional attention.

(3) The inpatient authorization reviewer determines that the child's current disabling symptoms cannot be or were not managed in a less intensive treatment program.

(4) There is evidence that the child's presenting emotional or behavioral problems prohibit full integration in a family or home setting without the availability of 24-hour crisis response, behavior management, and intensive clinical interventions from professional staff.

(5) The child is medically stable and not actively suicidal or homicidal and not in need of substance use or abuse detoxification services.

(6) The parent or the legal guardian of the child in OKDHS custody or tribal custody is afforded the opportunity to actively participate in the child's treatment and planning.

(b) In addition to the above criteria, the following conditions are representative of other factors that may qualify children for ITFC services:

(1) multiple placements in various settings including acute and residential treatment, psychiatric hospitals, group homes, shelter, traditional, and TFC homes;

(2) problematic sexual behavior, a victim of sexual trauma, or both;

(3) extensive physical aggression or causing harm to others, including people and animals;

(4) a variety of self-injurious behaviors including previous suicide attempts;

(5) a history of other difficulties that present a critical risk of harm to self or others;

(6) severely impaired cognitive functioning including hallucinations, affective disorders, and communication deficiencies;

(7) impaired social skills, personal hygiene, and other daily living skills;

(8) a history of substance use, abuse, or exposure;

(9) secondary needs associated with identified developmental or intellectual delays; or

(10) other complex trauma experiences.

(c) The Child Welfare Services (CWS) specialist and supervisor assess each child's treatment needs per OAC 340:75-6-40 and 340:75-6-85. The

CWS specialist seeks TFC or ITFC placement when the:

- (1) child's treatment needs can no longer be met in the child's own home, relative home, or traditional foster family setting;
- (2) child does not require a group home placement; and
- (3) child does not meet the medical necessity criteria for psychiatric treatment.

(d) A child whose behavior requires 24-hour awake supervision or who poses a danger in a family setting is not appropriate for TFC or ITFC placement.

(e) The TFC or ITFC contractor receives child placement referrals from TFC or ITFC placement coordinator, per OAC 340:75-8-12.

(f) The TFC or ITFC contractor requests a TFC or ITFC authorization extension 30-calendar days prior to the expiration of the authorized length of stay. When the OHCA authorized reviewer denies the service extension, the TFC or ITFC contractor provides written notification within one-business day of the denial to the CWS specialist, or the Indian child welfare worker when the child is in tribal custody only, to initiate transition planning.

(g) TFC or ITFC contractors document in writing, an assessment of the agency's ability to serve a child 5 years of age or younger prior to placement. The written documentation is maintained for on-site review during program audits and includes:

- (1) the assessed diagnosis and proposed treatment plan for the child;
- (2) the credentials, experience, and training of the TFC or ITFC contractor's staff documenting the staff's ability to develop an age-appropriate treatment plan and deliver clinical services to children, 5 years of age or younger, with emotional or behavioral problems; and
- (3) a description of the proposed TFC or ITFC parent's:
 - (A) age, availability, experience, and skills;
 - (B) family structure;
 - (C) ability to meet the child's needs, including a child 5 years of age or younger; and
 - (D) parenting responsibilities to other children in the home, children in foster care or TFC or ITFC placement, any adopted children, and any birth children.

(h) The TFC contractor does not place more than two children in a TFC home without prior written approval from the Foster Care and Adoptions Programs deputy director on completed Form 04FT003E, Request for Third Placement. The TFC contractor submits the written request that includes:

- (1) primary treatment needs for the proposed placement of a third child and any subsequent children in the TFC home;
- (2) availability, placement history, skills, completed or planned corrective action, and additional contractor supports of the TFC parent identified for proposed third child placement;
- (3) risk factors considered and compelling reasons for proposed placement of a third child;
- (4) documentation of TFC contractor contact with CWS specialists or supervisors for each child in the home, involved professionals, and each TFC family member regarding the impact of the proposed third child placement;

(5) documentation of TFC contractor's review of any separated siblings placed in the proposed third placement. Guidance on when siblings may be separated is located in OAC 340:75-6-85; and

(6) other information as requested by the Foster Care and Adoptions Programs deputy director.

(i) An ITFC home serves only one child at a time. An exception to this limit is reviewed and approved by the Foster Care and Adoptions Programs deputy director. The ITFC contractor submits the written request on Form 04FT003E that includes:

(1) primary treatment needs for the proposed placement of a second child and any subsequent children in the ITFC home;

(2) availability, placement history, skills, completed or planned corrective action, and additional contractor supports of the ITFC parent identified for proposed placement of a second child;

(3) risk factors considered and compelling reasons for proposed placement of a second child;

(4) documentation of ITFC contractor contact with CWS specialists or supervisors for the child in the home, involved professionals, and each ITFC family member regarding the impact of the proposed placement of a second child;

(5) documentation of ITFC contractor's review of any separated siblings placed in the proposed second placement. Guidance on when siblings may be separated is located in OAC 340:75-6-85; and

(6) other information as requested by the Foster Care and Adoptions Programs deputy director.

(j) A home serving three or more children without prior written approval is subject to denial of payment above the foster care maintenance rate. Email approval from the Foster Care deputy director is considered valid written approval. A child respiting in the home beyond timeframes and processes for extensions, per OAC 340:75-8-11, is considered a placement in the home after 14-calendar days.

(k) Title XIX payments for TFC or ITFC services are not made for TFC or ITFC parents who move out of Oklahoma.

(l) A youth 18 years of age and older may remain in TFC or ITFC placement on a voluntary basis, per OAC 340:75-6-110.

(m) The TFC or ITFC contractor establishes practice modalities to support the placement of all children in OKDHS custody and tribal custody meeting criteria for TFC or ITFC level of care in a fully-certified TFC or ITFC home. Each child in placement receives services based on his or her individualized service plan to meet mental and behavioral health needs. Services provided support the child to move to a less restrictive level of care as quickly as possible.

(n) Children in TFC or ITFC are authorized for placement based on meeting specific criteria. The reimbursement amount paid to the contractor and TFC or ITFC parent are in accordance with Appendix C-20, Child Welfare Services (CWS) Rates Schedule.

(o) Children are supported with TFC or ITFC services to make progressive step downs and maintain stability in placement to reach traditional foster care level or achieve permanency goals.

(p) When the TFC or ITFC placement is not approved by OHCA because the placement need developed outside of OHCA business hours or the business day closed without a return call from OHCA, the contractor may assist with immediate placement of a child OKDHS staff identifies as in need of TFC or ITFC level placement. These placements are documented and paid through the contractor's resource family partners contract for placement of traditional foster care placements or contracted foster care contract. OHCA approval is obtained the following business day after placement. The child is then admitted to TFC or ITFC placement in the same home. When OHCA denies TFC or ITFC approval, the contractor and CWS specialist immediately coordinate to ensure a new placement referral is initiated for placement in the appropriate level of care. The child may not remain in a TFC or ITFC home more than three-business days when OHCA denies them for TFC or ITFC placement.

340:75-8-10. Therapeutic foster care placement in close proximity to child's home community

(a) Placement within the closest geographic proximity. The therapeutic foster care (TFC) contractor places the child in custody:

- (1) in a therapeutic foster home within the closest geographic proximity as possible to the county of residence of the child's parent(s); or
- (2) within the closest geographic proximity as possible to the child's county of court jurisdiction.

(b) Proximity of siblings. The TFC contractor considers the placement and accessibility of the placed child's sibling(s), if the sibling(s) is in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody.

(c) Disruption. If disruption occurs in the TFC placement and the custody child's disrupted placement is not in the closest geographic proximity as possible, the TFC contractor serving the child seeks placement, per (a) and (b) of this Section, in one of the TFC contractor's homes.

- (1) If the TFC contractor cannot place the child, per (a) and (b) of this Section, the TFC contractor contacts other TFC contractors for availability of an appropriate TFC placement.
- (2) If another TFC contractor can appropriately place the child per (a) and (b) of this Section, DHS transfers the child to that TFC contractor for placement.
- (3) When efforts to locate new placement are not successful, the TFC contractor provides notification of discharge to the Child Welfare Services (CWS) specialist per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-8-6 (24).

(4) The CWS specialist arranges for alternate placement and transportation in accordance with the timeframes established by the TFC contractor's notification of discharge.

340:75-8-11. Therapeutic foster care (TFC) or intensive treatment family care (ITFC) placement stability

(a) Placement stability assessment. TFC or ITFC contractors and child welfare (CW) specialists continually assess a child's placement stability. When indications of instability are identified, the TFC or ITFC contractor and CW specialist jointly evaluate the need for additional services and supports to maintain the current placement.

(b) Supporting placement stability. The TFC or ITFC contractor and CW specialist review the child's current treatment plan and determine the need for modifications including, but not limited to:

- (1) the need for further evaluation;
- (2) specialized treatment services;
- (3) increased communication between team members;
- (4) wraparound services;
- (5) additional supports for the TFC or ITFC parents;
- (6) use of disruption prevention staffing; and
- (7) behavior redirection and crisis management services.

(c) Foster

(i) home insurance. Liability insurance is provided for TFC or ITFC families for damages caused by the child in Oklahoma Human Services or tribal custody according to the policy terms. TFC or ITFC families have the right to receive a copy of the liability insurance policy, per Section 1-9-119 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes. TFC or ITFC parents are responsible for deductibles.

(d) Placement disruption. Disruption is an unplanned change in a child's placement and occurs when a child is removed from a TFC or ITFC home and will not return to the same TFC or ITFC home due to the home or contractor being unable or unwilling to continue to serve the child. Disruptions include all placement changes that are not related to a planned movement toward the child's identified permanency goal. Unless an emergency exists, the TFC or ITFC contractor does not move children in TFC or ITFC placement without CWS approval.

(e) Disruption staffing. A disruption staffing occurs for all unplanned placement changes. When possible, the staffing occurs prior to providing discharge notice to support the TFC or ITFC parent and child, prevent disruption, or assist with transition. When prior planning is not possible, the staffing occurs within the 72-business hours' notice of discharge period. The staffing occurs within 72-business hours following immediate discharge, such as into an inpatient setting. The staffing includes at least the TFC or ITFC therapist, TFC or ITFC parent, CW specialist or supervisor, and tribal worker or supervisor. The child may participate, when able. The staffing may be conducted by conference call or other virtual means. The contractor's TFC or ITFC program director reviews all disruptions and includes copies with the contractor's monthly report to TFC program staff.

(f) Respite care. Respite care provides reprieve and support for the TFC or ITFC parent, child, or both. Respite for children in TFC is only provided in certified therapeutic homes. Respite for children in ITFC is only provided in certified ITFC homes. Reprieve for the TFC or ITFC parent with whom a child is placed includes a defined timeframe, not to exceed 14-calendar days, and specifies the date for the child to return. When the need arises to extend the 14-calendar day respite, the TFC or ITFC contractor obtains prior approval from the TFC field manager.

(g) Respite placement notification. The TFC or ITFC contractor notifies, via Form 04FT004E, Notice of Child's Location, the CW specialists involved in the placement and the TFC liaison and liaison supervisor of all placement changes, including respite, for each child in TFC or ITFC placement.

(h) TFC or ITFC contractor. The TFC or ITFC contractor:

- (1) ensures the respite TFC or ITFC parent is informed of the child's current treatment issues; behavioral, medical, and physical needs; and any child-specific supervision or safety plans;
- (2) pre-approves the respite after assessing both the requesting and receiving resources to ensure safety, bed space, and compatibility of children, and ensures the respite home is not on a written plan of compliance or any other disciplinary action; and
- (3) supervises the respite TFC or ITFC parent in implementing in-home treatment strategies identified in the TFC or ITFC contractor's individualized treatment plan for the child.

340:75-8-11.1. Contracted foster care (CFC) in therapeutic foster care (TFC) or intensive therapeutic family care (ITFC) homes

(a) Purpose. A TFC or ITFC contractor may use certified TFC or ITFC homes to provide CFC to children in the legal custody of, or who are voluntarily placed with, Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS), or a child in an Indian tribe's custody with an OKDHS tribal agreement. TFC or ITFC contractor CFC placements are submitted for approval to the TFC field manager or field administrator prior to admission to CFC placement in a specified home. Approval may be contingent upon funding availability.

(b) Population served. Children may be considered for CFC placement in a TFC or ITFC home on a case-by-case basis. The TFC or ITFC contractor determines a designated timeframe when a child:

- (1) placed in TFC or ITFC, no longer requires TFC or ITFC level of care and steps down to a traditional foster care level in the current placement;

(2) needs traditional foster care placement in the same home with a sibling, who is placed in the home on TFC or ITFC level of care;

(3) needs placement in traditional foster care in the same home with his or her parent, who is in OKDHS or tribal custody, and is placed on a TFC or ITFC level of care;

(4) needs to return to a home where he or she was previously placed, following an unsuccessful permanency effort, such as trial adoption or trial reunification;

(5) appears to meet criteria for placement in TFC or ITFC and needs immediate placement when Oklahoma Healthcare Authority (OHCA) approval is not available because the placement need developed outside OHCA business hours or the business day closed without a return call from OHCA. The contractor may assist with the child's immediate placement. This placement is documented and reimbursed through the contractor's resource family partnership (RFP) contract for traditional foster care placements or by placement in CFC. OHCA approval is obtained the following business day after placement. When OHCA approval is obtained, the child is admitted to TFC or ITFC.

(A) When OHCA denies TFC or ITFC placement and when the family agrees to keep the child, the child may remain in the CFC home.

(B) When the family does not agree to keep the child, the contractor and child welfare (CW) specialist immediately coordinate to ensure a new placement referral is initiated for placement in the appropriate level of care; or

(6) a child needing traditional foster care level is placed with a specific TFC or ITFC home due to the home's unique characteristics that meet the child's needs. This placement requires prior approval of the TFC or ITFC contractor and the TFC field manager or field administrator. Examples of unique characteristics include the ability to communicate with the child in a language other than English, specialized medical training, and wheelchair accessible housing and transportation. When funding availability is uncertain, CFC approval may be required. Approval is requested from the TFC field manager or TFC field administrator.

(c) CFC admission procedure.

(1) The TFC or ITFC contractor notifies the child's CW specialist and CW supervisor when the child is determined to no longer meet TFC or ITFC level of care criteria and is appropriate to step down to traditional foster care. The TFC or ITFC contractor and CWS staff, and tribal staff for a child in tribal custody, determine the most appropriate placement option for the child, including possible CFC placement in the current TFC or ITFC placement.

(2) OKDHS may request the TFC or ITFC contractor consider a CFC placement for the child meeting criteria as sibling to a TFC or ITFC child, a child of a parent placed in TFC or ITFC, or a child returning to placement after failed permanency placement.

(3)

() At the time of CFC placement, the TFC or ITFC contractor provides written notification of the placement date to the TFC liaison and liaison supervisor and the CW specialist by submitting Form 04FT004E, Notice of Child's Location.

(4) The TFC liaison documents the child's CFC placement in KIDS.

(d) The CFC discharge procedure.

(1) Discharge planning is coordinated between TFC or ITFC contractor staff and the child's CW specialist and tribal worker.

(2) Discharges from CFC are reported to the TFC liaison and liaison supervisor and the child's CW specialist within five-business days from the date of discharge by submitting Form 04FT004E.

(3) The contractor averts disruption, when possible, through the use of additional services, respite, disruption prevention meetings, and other identified methods to stabilize placement. The child must meet CFC criteria for placement in a new TFC or ITFC home.

(4) The CW specialist is notified immediately of all changes in the child's location, including respite, within one-business day of the date of the change in location by submitting Form 04FT004E.

(e) CFC respite. The TFC or ITFC contractor ensures resource homes have access to both planned and unplanned respite care providers for children placed in CFC. Respite care may be used for the same reasons and time periods specified, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-8-11, for respite care for a child in TFC or ITFC placement. Any respite provider is fully informed of a child's special needs and has skills or training to meet those needs, prior to assuming care of the child, while ensuring the safety and well-being of all children in the home. Respite for children placed in CFC may be provided by accessing:

(1) a CFC bed within the TFC or ITFC home in compliance with all certification requirements;

(2) identification and approval of an alternate caregiver, per OAC 340:75-7-65; or

(3) a traditional foster care resource, when available, by coordinating with the child's CWS resource staff. When utilizing a traditional foster care resource for respite, the contractor is responsible for paying the daily board rate directly to the foster family providing care for the child. The payment rate is the same daily rate as a traditional foster care maintenance payment per Appendix C-20, Child Welfare Services (CWS) Rates Schedule, including any difficulty of care (DOC) rate in effect for the child.

(f) TFC or ITFC contractor requirements for CFC.

(1) The TFC or ITFC contractor:

(A) provides 24-hour support services to homes providing CFC placements including crisis intervention, consultation, training, and referral to services as needed;

(B) complies with policies and procedures established for TFC or ITFC placements regarding management of a CFC placement child's property, allowance, funds, and Life Books;

(C) ensures the TFC or ITFC contractor or subcontractor staff, CFC foster parents, respite providers, and alternate caregivers comply with OKDHS policy regarding discipline, behavior management, and corporal punishment, per OAC 340:75-7-38;

(D) provides written reports to the child's CW specialist or tribal worker on a quarterly basis, or more frequently when OKDHS or the court requests. The report includes:

(i) a summary of progress and overall adjustment made in the placement, during or following visitation with the child's parents, siblings, and important connections;

(ii) the child's strengths and behavioral concerns;

(iii) medical or psychological appointments and outcomes; and

(iv) the child's identified need for additional services;

(E) coordinates with the child's CW specialist to make referrals and obtain needed services for the child; and

(F) participates in all OKDHS initiated staffings or meetings regarding the child and may choose to attend court proceedings for the child. The court may mandate TFC or ITFC contractor attendance to some court proceedings.

(2) The TFC or ITFC contractor staff:

(A) immediately reports to the Oklahoma Abuse and Neglect Hotline (Hotline) at 1-800-522-3511, any allegations or suspicions of abuse or neglect of a child, per Section 1-1-105 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-1-105) and OKDHS policy. The TFC or ITFC contractor ensures CFC foster parents understand and acknowledge failure to report is a misdemeanor offense, failure to report with prolonged knowledge is a felony, and upon conviction, is punishable, per 10A O.S. § 1-2-101, and may result in discontinued use of the home to provide placement for children in OKDHS custody;

(B) cooperates with CWS on any referral regarding alleged abuse or neglect assessed or investigated per OKDHS policy and state law. No new placements are assigned to the home until the assessment or investigation is completed and a finding is made regarding the allegations. CWS program staff notifies the TFC or ITFC contractor of the assessment conclusion or investigation finding and jointly determines if a written plan of compliance, training, or assessment is needed prior to the home's continued use; and

(C) establishes a procedure to address and document a response to concerns in a CFC foster home that do not warrant a referral for an abuse or neglect assessment or investigation. Examples of this type of concern include, but are not limited to, a foster parent's judgment or supervision, disciplinary practices, non-compliance with policy or contract, unacceptable housing standards, inadequate clothing provisions for the child, or a lack of involvement in the child's education or independent living skills. When documented efforts to address these issues do not remove the concerns, CWS has the right to decline the use of the home.

(3) TFC or ITFC contractor makes the child's records and resource file available for review by CW specialists, CWS TFC program staff, or tribal worker assigned to the child.

(g) Foster parent supports for CFC.

(1) Child care. OAC 340:75-7-65 provides for the availability of child care subsidy benefits for a child placed in a CFC foster home while the foster parent is employed outside of the home for at least 20 hours weekly.

(2) Travel reimbursement. OAC 340:75-7-65 provides for CFC parent reimbursement for a child's transportation that meets specific criteria.

(3) DOC reimbursement. OAC 340:75-7-53 provides for the availability of DOC reimbursement for a child in CFC placement based on the child's extraordinary physical, mental, or emotional needs, per Appendix C-20.

(h) Foster home insurance. Liability insurance is provided for TFC, ITFC, and CFC foster families according to the policy terms. Foster families have the right to receive a copy of the liability insurance policy, per 10A O.S. § 1-9-119. Foster parents are responsible for deductibles.

(i) Child safety.

(1) The TFC or ITFC contractor ensures:

(A) the foster parent takes all necessary steps to provide for the safety of children in placement;

(B) the foster parent knows where the child is at all times. The TFC or ITFC contractor and foster parent immediately follow protocol in OAC 340:75-8-6(4) to notify CWS staff and law enforcement in the event a child:

(i) is removed by anyone without authorization;

(ii) is taken into custody by law enforcement officials;

(iii) leaves without authorization or runs away; or

(iv) cannot otherwise be located;

(C) Child Welfare Services is notified of any changes in the coordinated foster family circumstances that may affect the child's safety or stability in placement, including changes in finances, location, health, relationships, or household members;

(D) the CFC home and TFC or ITFC contractor comply with OAC 340:75-7-18 to immediately complete assessment of new household members; and

(E) the CFC, TFC, or ITFC home is not providing routine child care as a licensed or unlicensed child care provider.

(2) The TFC or ITFC contractor, the foster parent, or both obtain CWS permission before taking a child in OKDHS custody out-of-state for an overnight stay.

(3) CW specialist reports all concerns for abuse or neglect in a CFC home to the Hotline at 1-800-522-3511.

(4) The TFC or ITFC contractor participates in regularly scheduled staffings on all child abuse and neglect referrals with CW program staff, per OAC 340:75-3-410. Each foster care resource file must contain a log of all investigations and screened-out referrals for use as a continual assessment of safety and resource home developmental needs.

(5) TFC program staff reports to the TFC or ITFC contractor for evaluation and response, all contract and policy violations, and concerns for child safety and well-being that do not meet criteria for abuse or neglect referral. The TFC or ITFC contractor reports resolution of the concerns to the TFC liaison supervisor within 15-calendar days of the report of violations or concerns.

PART 17. CONTRACTED COMMUNITY-BASED RESIDENTIAL CARE PROVIDERS

340:75-11-230. Purpose, legal basis, and definitions

(a) Purpose.

(1) The community-based residential care (CBRC) program serves children in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody or tribal custody whose treatment needs cannot be met in a family setting, but whose treatment needs do not require inpatient psychiatric care.

(2) OKDHS contracts for different levels of CBRC placements that vary according to the intensity and individualized treatment needs of children.

(b) Legal basis.

(1) Section 1-7-103 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-7-103) requires OKDHS review and assess each child in OKDHS custody to determine the type of placement consistent with the child's treatment needs in the nearest geographic proximity as possible to the child's home.

(2) 10A O.S. § 1-9-110 requires OKDHS, to the extent of funds available, directly, or by grant or contract, to implement a diversity of CBRC for children who are alleged or adjudicated deprived. When a child is placed with a non-custodial parent, the non-custodial parent's home is construed to be the child's home community. CBRC is care in a:

- (A) qualified residential treatment program;
- (B) group home;
- (C) community residential center; or
- (D) similar non-secure facility consistent with the child's individualized treatment needs and provided, whenever practical, in or near the child's home community.

- (B) in the case of a specific child, activities or items that are suitable for that child based on the developmental stages attained by the child with respect to the cognitive, emotional, physical, and behavioral capacities of the specific child, per 10A O.S. § 1-1-105.

(2) "Behavioral health" means mental health, substance use or abuse, or co-occurring mental health and substance use or abuse diagnoses, and the continuum of mental health, substance use or abuse, or co-occurring mental health and substance use or abuse treatment.

(3) "Community-based services" or "community-based programs" mean services or programs, which maintain community participation or supervision in their planning, operation, and evaluation. The FSP includes all CAPs, FASs, notices to comply, and written plans of compliances related to the specific facility.
- (8) "Family-style living program" means a residential program providing sustained care and supervision to residents in a home-like environment not located in a building used for commercial activity, per 10A O.S. § 1-1-105

(B) Each CBRC provider must ensure that at least one employee is designated and authorized to apply the reasonable and prudent parent standard to decisions involving the participation of a child in age-appropriate or developmentally-appropriate activities. 340:75-11-233. Placement of children into more restrictive community-based residential care (CBRC) placements

(a) Sections 1-1-102 and 1-7-103 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes require children in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody be served in the least restrictive setting that meets each child's treatment needs in the closest geographic proximity as possible to the child's home, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-6-85.

(b) CBRC placements are more restrictive placement settings than the child's own home, relative's home, or foster family home. The request and referral for the placement of a child in OKDHS custody in a CBRC placement is made through the Child Welfare Services (CWS) Specialized Placements and Partnerships Unit (SPPU).

(c) Children 12 years of age and younger in OKDHS custody are not placed in CBRC placements, except when maintaining sibling groups together in placement, maintaining a OKDHS custody parent and child together in placement, or in CBRC placements that provide services to a younger age population due to the child's treatment needs, when an exception is received.

(d) A child in OKDHS custody residing in a CBRC placement on his or her 18th birthday may receive voluntary care in his or her CBRC placement after 18 years of age per OAC 340:75-6-110.

(e) The child's case assignment remains in the county of jurisdiction.

(f) CBRC placements must:

(1) be licensed by OKDHS, or another approved licensing body, and are either operated by, or under formal contract with OKDHS; and

(2) provide appropriate treatment interventions for children that improve the child's functioning level, resulting in a successful discharge to a less restrictive placement, such as his or her own home, relative home, foster family home, therapeutic foster care, adoptive home, or successful adulthood.

(g) CBRC placements are subject to the availability of funds in the OKDHS budget. CWS SPPU maintains the waiting list for children requiring CBRC placements when the need for CBRC exceeds the availability of CBRC resources.

340:75-11-233.1. Placement services

The purpose of Child Welfare Services Specialized Placement and Partnerships Unit is to:

(1) ensure that children in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody or tribal custody are placed in the least restrictive community-based residential care (CBRC) placement that most appropriately meets their treatment needs;

(2) ensure equal access to CBRC placement resources by children in DHS custody or tribal custody statewide; and

(3) maintain the waiting list of children in DHS or tribal custody who need CBRC placements when the need for CBRC exceeds the availability of CBRC placements.

340:75-11-234. Community-based residential care (CBRC) placement contracts

(a) Contracts for provision of CBRC placements are issued according to rules and procedures, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:2-13, established by statutory requirements found in Section 85.1 et seq. of Title 74 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

(b) Contracts are monitored on-site, at least annually by the Child Welfare Services Contract Performance Review team, to ensure the:

- (1) contractor's compliance with all contract terms;
- (2) services provided are in compliance with contract terms; and
- (3) clients receive the maximum benefit from the contractual services.

340:75-11-236. Child welfare (CW) facility liaisons

A CW specialist from the Specialized Placements and Partnerships Unit is assigned to each community-based residential care (CBRC) provider as the CW facility liaison. CW facility liaison duties are in accordance with the type of CBRC provider per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-11-239.

340:75-11-237. Rights of a child in community-based residential care (CBRC)

(a) Child's rights.

(1) A child is not subjected to unreasonable silence rules, group punishment for inappropriate individual acts, profanity, verbal abuse, or threats of unnecessary or unauthorized physical force by staff, or "make work"; provided that nothing herein prevents a child from performing routine housekeeping tasks or maintenance work directly related to a vocational program, such as specific skill training.

(2) Except in situations that pose a serious threat to the child's life or health, a child has the right to refuse medications. Refused medications cannot be administered unless a court order is obtained authorizing forcible administration. Necessary medication a physician prescribes may be forcibly administered by staff trained in medication administration and who are familiar with the child's condition.

(2) Outside employment. The SCH contractor is not allowed other employment outside of the operation of the SCH contract and is not eligible for paid day care.

(3) Alternate caregiver. During the mutual family assessment process, the SCH contractor identifies a Child Welfare Services

(CWS) approved alternate caregiver, per OAC 340:75-7-65, to provide respite care when the SCH provider takes leave from his or her SCH contract responsibilities.

- (i) must be at least 21 years of age; and
- (ii) is not a DHS foster parent, a CWS employee, or an Office of Juvenile Affairs (OJA) employee, as the alternate caregiver must be available on short notice when the contractor takes leave.

(B) When the SCH contractor takes leave, the contractor selects one of the three options listed in (i) through (iii).

(i) The approved, alternate caregiver utilizes the SCH to provide respite care. Prior to approving the alternate caregiver, the CWS resource specialist in the region where the SCH home is located:

(I) makes personal contact with the alternate caregiver and conducts a personal assessment of the provider to determine his or her ability and willingness to provide alternate care;

(II) discusses SCH policy, per OAC 340:75-11-286 through 340:75-11-289, and foster care policy, per OAC 340:75-7, with the respite care provider;

(III) contacts two references for, and completes the background investigation of the alternate caregiver, including an Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) name search, OSBI records search, a Federal Bureau of Investigation records search, and fingerprinting per OAC 340:75-7-15; and

(IV) files the personal assessment of the alternate caregiver in the SCH resource record.

(ii) The children go to the home of the approved alternate caregiver for alternate care.

(iii) The children go to their own homes or relative homes on planned leave approved by the child's assigned CW specialist.

(C) The SCH contractor is:

(i) encouraged to take two weeks, planned time away from the home each year;

(ii) responsible for reimbursing the alternate caregiver from the contractor's salary; and

(iii) responsible for training the alternate caregiver.

(4) Mandatory training for SCH contractors. All SCH contractors must:

- (A) complete all training requirements for DHS foster parents prior to placement of children in the home, per OAC 340:75-7-14;
- (B) be certified in a behavior management system directed at managing aggressive and non-aggressive acting out behavior per OAC 340:75-11-237. Spouses or significant others must also be certified;
- (C) obtain 21 hours of training each calendar year geared toward working with the children served in the SCH contract;
- (D) attend the annual mandatory meetings for SCH contractors scheduled by CWS Specialized Placements and Partnerships Unit that provide training hours; and

PART 2. TITLE IV-E ELIGIBILITY AND REIMBURSABILITY

340:75-13-11. Title IV-E of the Social Security Act

(a) Legal base. Title IV-E (IV-E) was originally enacted as part of the Adoption Assistance and Child Welfare Act of 1980, and later amended by the Adoption and Safe Families Act, (ASFA) of 1997, Public Law 105-89, Sections 620 through 679 of Title 42 of the United States Code. ASFA was enacted to address the nationwide problem of children remaining removed from their homes and in out-of-home care for many years with no permanent plan.

(1) These laws require that a child be removed from his or her home only when continuation in the home is contrary to the child's welfare and, unless an emergency exists, reasonable efforts be made to prevent the child's removal.

(2) When a child is removed, reasonable efforts must be made to finalize the permanency plan adopted by the court.

(3) Judicial determinations or findings must be made on a case-by-case basis and reflect the actions and efforts by the State. In those cases where reasonable efforts to prevent removal or reunify are not required, the court must hold a permanency hearing within 30 days of such finding.

(b) Purpose. To assist states in compliance with federal law, funds were made available through IV-E of the federal Social Security Act to reimburse the states for a percentage of the cost of:

(1) certain administrative and training activities;

(2) room, board, and basic supervision for children in out-of-home care; and

(3) recurring and non-recurring adoption assistance for eligible children.

340:75-13-13. Title IV-E eligibility criteria

A child is determined eligible for Title IV-E when paragraphs (1) and (2) are present.

(1) Legal status. The child's removal or placement is the result of a:

(A) court finding, determined on a case-by-case basis documented in a court order that:

(i) continuation in the home is contrary to the child's welfare, or that the placement is in the child's best interests, or language to that effect, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-3-300.

(I) The finding is made in the first court order that sanctions the child's removal from the home.

(II) Failure to include this finding in the first court order results in a determination of ineligibility for Title IV-E foster care reimbursement for the duration of the child's stay in out-of-home care; and

(ii) prior to the placement of the child in out-of-home care, reasonable efforts were made to prevent the removal from the home, or reasonable efforts were not required due to an emergency, per Section 1-4-201 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes and OAC 340:75-1-16.

(I) The determination is made no later than 60-calendar days from the date of the child's removal from the home.

(II) Failure to include this finding within 60-calendar days of the child's removal results in a determination of ineligibility for the duration of the child's stay in out-of-home care; or

(B) voluntary consent with a signed written agreement between Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) or a tribe and the child's parent or legal guardian that is binding on the parties to the agreement and specifies the child's legal status, the rights and obligations of the parent or legal guardian, and the rights and responsibilities of OKDHS or the tribe. A court order with required Title IV-E findings and custody to OKDHS or the tribe is necessary when the child is in out-of-home care more than 90-calendar days, per OAC 340:75-4-12.1.

(2) Relationship to Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC). The Title IV-E determination is made based on the child's circumstances in the month of the initiation of court proceedings that led to the removal. The child must have been categorically related to the AFDC program using the AFDC rules in effect as of July 16, 1996, per OKDHS:10-1-1. To qualify for Title IV-E, a child is:

(A) removed:

(i) physically and legally from the parent; or

(ii) constructively from the parent or specified relative, per OKDHS:10-1-21, regardless of whether the child was physically moved from the current relative or non-relative caregiver's home. The child must have been living with the parent or specified relative and AFDC eligible in that home:

(I) in the month of the initiation of court proceedings; or

(II) within six months of the initiation of court proceedings and would have been eligible in the month court proceedings were initiated if the child was living in that home; and

(B) a citizen of the United States or having an alien status that qualifies for Title IV-E;

(C) deprived of parental support or care, per 1996 AFDC policy;

(D) the household's countable income is below the 1996 AFDC need standard; and

(E) Title IV-E, Section 472 of the Social Security Act allows a resource value of $10,000 for Title IV-E eligibility.

340:75-13-16. Title IV-E reimbursement and eligibility re-determination

(a) Title IV-E eligibility re-determination. When the child is determined eligible for Title IV-E, an eligibility re-determination is conducted by the custody specialist at least once every 12 months to determine whether the cost of the child's out-of-home care is reimbursable by Title IV-E funds. The review determines:

(1) legal responsibility for the child. To continue to receive Title IV-E reimbursement, a court order is required verifying the child is in the legal custody of Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) or an Indian tribe; and

(2) if the child's placement is a Title IV-E reimbursable qualifying placement. A qualifying placement is any placement that is Title IV-E reimbursable, such as:

(A) an OKDHS or tribally approved foster home of an individual, per Section 1-1-105 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes;

(B) a private child care institution;

(C) a public child care group home; or

(D) child care facility licensed for no more than 25 children.

(3) if subparagraphs (B) through (D) of paragraph (2), collectively referred to as child care institution (CCI), may claim foster care maintenance payment (FCMP), per Section 475(4) of the Social Security Act (42 United States Code (U.S.C.) § 675(4)).

(A) Title IV-E agencies may claim for Title IV-E foster care maintenance payments to be paid on behalf of an eligible child placed in a child care institution for up to two weeks.

(B) Title IV-E agencies may continue to claim administrative costs for the duration of the period in the CCI regardless of whether the CCI meets the restrictions in 42 U.S.C. § 672(k).

(C) After two weeks, Title IV-E FCMP for a child placed in a CCI are only available if that CCI is a:

(i) qualified residential treatment program (QRTP), as defined in 42 U.S.C § 672(k)(4) and per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC):340:75-11-230 that require:

(I) completion of a Child and Adolescent Needs and Strengths assessment within 30-calendar days of the child's placement in a QRTP, per 42 U.S.C. § 675A(c)(1)(A) and OAC 340:75-14-1; and

(II) court approval within 60-calendar days of the child's placement in a QRTP, per 42 U.S.C. § 675A(c)(2);

(ii) setting specializing in providing prenatal, post-partum, or parenting supports for youth;

(iii) in the case of a youth who attained 18 years of age, a supervised setting in which the youth is living independently;

(iv) setting providing high-quality residential care and supportive services to children and youth who were found to be, or are at risk of becoming, sex trafficking victims; or

(v) licensed residential family-based treatment facility for substance abuse, per 42 U.S.C. § 672(j) and OAC 340:75-14-4.

(b) When Title IV-E funds not available. Title IV-E funds are not available when a court assumes responsibility for ordering the placement of a child and orders such with a specific placement provider without consideration of the recommendation by OKDHS or the tribe. Title IV-E funds are available if the child is later placed in accordance with OAC 340:75-13-16(a)(1) and (2).

(c) Title IV-E payment date. Title IV-E reimbursement payments may begin the date the child:

(1) is determined eligible; and

(2) enters a qualified placement.

340:75-13-17. IV-E annual eligibility re-determination review

(a) Title IV-E (IV-E) eligibility re-determinations. Title IV-E eligibility is re-determined:

(1) no less than 12 months from the date of the most recent court order used to establish or maintain Title IV-E eligibility; or

(2) at the time the custody specialist becomes aware of a change in circumstances that may affect the Title IV-E eligibility.

(A) At the time of the eligibility re-determination, the custody specialist reviews all court orders issued after the date of the court order used to update the previous Title IV-E re-determination in KIDS.

(B) An annual Title IV-E eligibility re-determination review is not required for adoption assistance cases, as the annual review of the Adoption Assistance Agreement serves that purpose, per OAC 340:75-15-128.2.

(b) Ongoing IV-E eligibility factors. Ongoing Title IV-E eligibility factors include the child's:

(1) continued out-of-home placement;

(2) age;

(3) school attendance, when applicable;

and

(4) financial resources.

(c) Judicial determinations for ongoing Title IV-E eligibility.

(1) Per Section 1-4-811 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-811) a judicial determination that Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) made reasonable efforts to finalize the permanency plan in effect at the time of the hearing must be made no later than:

(A) six months from the child's date of entry into out-of-home care; and

(B) at least once every six months thereafter while the child is in out-of-home care.

(2) When a judicial determination is not made the child becomes ineligible for Title IV-E from the end of the:

(A) twelfth month following the child's date of entry into out-of-home care; or

(B) twelve months from the date of the most recent judicial determination of reasonable efforts to finalize a permanency plan, and remains ineligible until such a judicial determination is made.

(3) When a judicial determination is made that OKDHS has not made reasonable efforts to finalize a permanency plan, Title IV-E eligibility ends that month and the child remains ineligible until the court makes the finding that reasonable efforts have been made to finalize a permanency plan.

- (1) the cost of the minor parent's child residing in the same placement is reimbursed through Title IV-E; and
 - (2) the cost of the minor parent and child is reimbursed through one payment monthly to the foster parent.
- (b) When the child is removed from the minor parent's custody and placed in another foster home, the child may be determined Title IV-E eligible if all eligibility criteria are met.

(b) Tribal responsibilities related to Title IV-B and Title IV-E. The tribe :

- (1) develops and implements policies and practices that ensure compliance with federal regulations related to Titles IV-B and Title IV-E of the Social Security Act. Child Welfare Services (CWS) monitors tribal compliance with the regulations through annual on-site visits, per OAC 340:75-19-32; and 340:75-13-26. Child support

(a) Legal basis. Federal regulations require the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) to pursue child support payments on Title IV-E foster care cases where federal funding is involved. Section 454 of Title IV-D of the Social Security Act requires a referral to the state's child support enforcement agency for child support services. Section 1-4-702 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. §1-4-702) requires the court to address paternity and child support issues for every child alleged or adjudicated deprived. Child Support Services (CSS) carries out the provisions of these regulations based on information provided by Child Welfare Services (CWS) staff. Benefits to the child include:

- (1) locating an absent parent(s);
- (2) establishing paternity;
- (3) obtaining previously unavailable child support; and
- (4) exploring, on behalf of the child, eligibility for benefits through:

- (A) the Social Security Administration;
- (B) Veterans Affairs; or
- (C) other government programs.

(b) Use of child support monies. Support monies collected while the child is in DHS custody and out-of-home placement are used to reimburse:

- (1) the federal government for Title IV-E expenditures; and
- (2) DHS for monies expended to meet the child's needs.

(c) Paternity. Within six months after the deprived petition is filed, CWS staff recommend the court either:

- (1) establish paternity; or
- (2) defer the issue of paternity to the appropriate administrative or district court.

(d) Child support orders. After paternity is established, CWS staff recommends the court address the issue of current child support. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-702, within six months after the deprived petition is filed, the court must either:

- (1) address the issue of child support; or
- (2) defer the issue of establishment and enforcement of child support to the appropriate administrative or district court. CSS proceeds with the establishment and enforcement of child support orders for any case deferred in this manner.

(A) Each parent must be individually ordered to pay his or her percentage of the total monthly child support obligation, including parents who reside together.

(B) 43 O.S. § 118 and 119 require the court to follow child support guidelines in determining each parent's support obligation.

(C) Deviation from the child support guidelines is permitted when it is determined necessary in order for the parent to meet the obligations of an individual treatment and service plan or for other reasons the court deems appropriate. When the court deviates from the amount of support indicated by the guidelines, specific findings of fact supporting such action are required to be documented in the child support computation form.

(D) The child support order must:

- (i) be filed on a standard child support order form, as prescribed by CSS;
- (ii) be filed as a separate document from the individual treatment and service plan or court minute and is therefore not confidential;

(iii) direct a parent to provide for the child per 43 O.S. § 118F and Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:25-5-168:

- (I) health care coverage insurance;
- (II) an alternative health care coverage plan; or
- (III) make application for health care coverage through a government medical assistance program, such as SoonerCare (Medicaid);

(iv) include each parent's contribution towards actual employment or education related child care expenses per 43 O.S. § 118G and Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:25-5-178;

(v) include an immediate income assignment provision pursuant to 43 O.S. § 115;

(vi) include a reimbursement judgment for time periods when Title IV-E, non-Title IV-E eligible foster care and Temporary Assistance to Needy Families benefits have been paid and a monthly judgment payment amount per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:25-5-179.1;

(vii) include a provision for an address of record for service of process per 43 O.S. § 112A;

(viii) include a provision for payments to be paid to the Oklahoma Centralized Support Registry per 43 O.S. § 413; and

(ix) include, as an attachment, a child support computation form signed by the judge, per 43 O.S. § 120.

(E) The duty to pay child support continues after parental rights are terminated and until the child is adopted pursuant to 10A O.S. § 1-4-906 and 10 O.S. § 7503-2.3. Parents may be obligated to pay child support arrears even after adoption.

(F) After a deprived action is dismissed, the most recent child support order entered in the deprived action must remain in full force and effect, unless the judge presiding over the deprived action orders otherwise.

(G) All child support payments must be paid, per 43 O.S. § 413, through the Oklahoma Centralized Support Registry, PO Box 268849, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73126-8849.

(H) The child welfare specialist verifies each parent's compliance with his or her child support obligation.

340:75-13-28. Social Security Administration and Veterans Affairs benefits

(a) Benefits. Social Security Administration (SSA) benefits are based on the child's wage earner's work record and are paid due to the wage earner's death, retirement, or disability. Entitlement to Veterans Affairs (VA) benefits may be due to a deceased, disabled, or retired parent's service connected or nonservice connected military record.

(b) Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) as payee for a child's benefits. When a child who receives or may be eligible to receive SSA or VA benefits, and for whom DHS is paying the full amount of the child's cost of care, is placed in DHS custody and out-of-home placement, Child Welfare Services (CWS) Finance and Business Operations (FBO) applies to become payee for these benefits.

(1) To ensure the application for, and transfer of SSA or VA benefits, the:

- (A) child welfare (CW) specialist within 10-business days after the child's placement or when potential eligibility is recognized, emails notification to the FBO Social Security specialist requesting an initial eligibility determination for a child in out-of-home placement;
- (B) assigned custody specialist, within 10-business days after the child's placement, emails notification to the FBO Social Security specialist to request that the payee be changed to DHS; and
- (C) CW specialist, within 10-business days, emails the FBO Social Security specialist when the:
 - (i) child's placement type changes; or
 - (ii) child is released from DHS custody or DHS paid care.

(2) The youth who remains in school beyond 18 years of age to complete his or her high school education remains eligible for SSA and VA benefit payments until he or she turns 19 years of age or graduates when still in high school. If the youth is not competent to manage his or her money and pay for his or her cost of care, DHS remains the payee for benefits. The CW specialist:

- (A) receives, from the FBO Social Security specialist, Forms SSA-1372, Advance Notice of Termination of Child's Benefits, and Form SSA-4164, Student Statement Regarding School Attendance, and a letter that allows DHS to remain the payee. The CW specialist returns the completed forms to the FBO Social Security specialist;
- (B) assists the youth in applying for a Disabled Adult Child case with SSA; or

(C) discusses alternatives to DHS paid care that are consistent with self-support and self-sufficiency goals, when the youth does not want to make the benefit payments available to DHS to defray the cost of care.

(c) Placement provider as payee for a child's benefits. The kinship, paid, or non-paid placement provider submits completed Form 04FC011E, Placement Agreement for Out-of-Home Care, to the local SSA office to apply as the eligible child's payee. The CW specialist assists the placement provider complete the form.

(1) Benefits. When the SSA benefit is:

(A) equal to or greater than the foster care payment, the placement provider receives the full benefit and no payment from DHS for the child's care; or

(B) less than the foster care payment, the placement provider may receive a partial foster care payment that is reduced dollar-for-dollar based on the amount of the SSA benefit.

(2) Eligibility for paid placement provider. The DHS paid placement provider may apply as representative payee for a child when the child is an SSA recipient placed with the placement provider continuously for nine or more months.

(d) Beneficiary as payee for a child's benefits. The youth who remains in school beyond 18 years of age to complete his or her high school education remains eligible for SSA and VA payments until he or she turns 19 years of age or graduates from high school.

(1) If the youth is capable of managing money, the CW specialist or placement provider:

(A) submits Form SSA-1372, Student Statement Regarding School Attendance, to the local SSA office;

(B) explains to the youth that he or she must pay the placement provider at the current rate;

(C) explores alternative placements with the youth that are consistent with the goals of self-support and self-sufficiency if he or she does not want to pay the cost of care; and

(D) notifies the placement provider that DHS may pay a foster care payment reduced dollar-for-dollar based on the SSA benefit when the benefit is less than the foster care payment.

(2) If the youth is not capable of managing money and DHS is not paying the full cost of care, the placement provider works with SSA to determine the payee for his or her benefits.

340:75-13-29. Supplemental Security Income (SSI) - Disabled Children's program

(a) SSI program. SSI is a federal program for which recipients must qualify based on disability criteria, household income, and resource criteria designated by the Social Security Administration (SSA).

(1) To remain eligible for SSI, recipients may not accrue more than the maximum allowed by SSA.

(2) Some children in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody receive, or may be eligible to receive, SSI benefits on the basis of physical, mental, or emotional criteria.

(3) The SSI recipient remains eligible for SSI when his or her income, resources, and disability continue to meet SSI program criteria.

(b) DHS as payee for a child's benefits.

(1) The initial application is made by Child Welfare Services Finance and Business Operations (FBO) for a child who receives, or may be eligible to receive, SSI when the child:

(A) is in DHS custody and DHS is paying the total cost of the child's care; and

(B) appears eligible for SSI based on disability.

(2) To ensure the application for, and transfer of benefits, the:

(A) child welfare (CW) specialist completes and emails the FBO Social Security specialist, within 10-business days after the child's placement or as soon as the child's disabling condition is identified, using Form 04MP029E, Report of Social Security and Veterans Benefits for Children in Out-of-Home Placement, to request an initial eligibility determination;

(B) custody specialist emails the FBO Social Security specialist, within 10-business days after the child's placement to request the payee be changed to DHS; and

(C) CW specialist, within 10-business days, emails the FBO Social Security specialist when the child's placement type changes or the child is released from DHS custody or out-of-home placement.

(3) DHS receives and monitors the child's benefits.

(A) DHS receives the child's benefits until the child leaves DHS out-of-home placement when DHS is paying the full cost of the child's care.

(B) FBO monitors each child's accrued funds and notifies the CW specialist by a KIDS-generated email when the limit is approached to give specific instructions regarding the spenddown of that child's money. Purchases made with the child's accrued benefits must be items that benefit the child and are specifically for that child. These items must follow the child to all subsequent placements.

(c) Placement provider as payee for a child's benefits. The kinship, paid, or non-paid placement provider must be the child's established home for nine-consecutive months or longer before applying to be the child's payee. The CW specialist contacts the FBO Social Security specialist to assist the placement provider in completing the form.

(1) Benefits. When the SSI benefit is:

(A) equal to or greater than the foster care payment, the placement provider receives the full benefit and no payment from DHS for the child's care.

(B) less than the foster care payment, the placement provider may receive a partial foster care payment that is reduced dollar-for-dollar based on the SSI benefit amount.

(2) Eligibility for paid placement provider. The DHS-paid placement provider may apply as representative payee for a child when the child is an SSI recipient placed with the placement provider continuously for nine or more months.

(d) Beneficiary as payee for a youth's benefits. For a youth who remains in school beyond 18 years of age, the youth or the placement provider must apply as the eligible payee.

(1) When the youth is capable of managing money, the CW specialist or placement provider:

(A) explains to the youth that he or she must pay the placement provider at the current rate;

(B) explores alternative placements with the youth that are consistent self-support and self-sufficiency goals, when he or she does not want to pay the cost of care; and

(C) notifies the placement provider that DHS may pay a foster care payment reduced dollar for dollar based on the SSI benefit if the benefit is less than the foster care payment.

(2) When the youth is not capable of managing money and DHS is not paying his or her full cost of care, the placement provider works with SSA to determine the payee for the youth's benefits.

(e) Referrals. Section 1615 of the Social Security Act provides for the referral by SSA of SSI recipients younger than 18 years of age to a designated state agency for provision of services to improve the child's disability. The Omnibus Reconciliation Act of 1981, Public Law 97-35, authorizes Oklahoma to operate a program for these children as a component of the Maternal and Child Health Block Grant. DHS is designated to administer this program in Oklahoma.

(1) The purpose of SSI-Disabled Children's Program (DCP) is to ensure that all available services and resources are used, as necessary, to assist each eligible child to become a self-sustaining and self-supporting adult.

(2) The Department of Rehabilitation Services Disability Determination Unit determines SSI eligibility for SSA and refers every SSI recipient, younger than 18 years of age, to Adult and Family Services Health-Related and Medical Services to maintain a control on all referrals.

340:75-13-30. Special needs trust

When a child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody does not use all of the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) received, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-13-29, the accrued funds may be transferred into a special needs trust (SNT), per OAC 317:35-5-41.

(1) The assets in an SNT do not count toward the Medicaid or SSI resource limits when:

- (A) the trust established is irrevocable and may only be amended with DHS agreement;
- (B) the trust beneficiary is disabled and younger than 65 years of age when the trust is created and funded;
- (C) the trust beneficiary meets the SSI definition of a disabled person;
- (D) the trust is created by the beneficiary's parent, grandparent, legal guardian, or a court; and
- (E) Medicaid is reimbursed after the beneficiary dies, to the extent of Medicaid funds spent on the beneficiary.

(2) The child welfare (CW) specialist contacts DHS Legal Services for assistance to create an SNT. The Finance and Business Operations Social Security specialist is notified and SNT approval or denial is requested.

PART 5. CLOTHING PURCHASES

340:75-13-45. Clothing purchases for children

(a) Clothing accompanies child. The Child Welfare (CW) worker obtains the child's clothing, and any other items that have personal meaning to the child, from the parent(s) at the time of initial placement in out-of-home care. Clothing purchased for or accompanying the child belongs to that child. The CW worker and placement provider ensure the clothing accompanies the child when the child moves from one placement to another.

(b) Clothing purchase authorization amounts. The amounts designated as clothing authorizations are set out in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) Appendix C-20, Child Welfare Services Rates Schedule, as amended from time-to-time, as approved by the DHS Director.

(c) Use of Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Social Security Administration (SSA) funds before clothing authorizations. A child who is a recipient of SSI or SSA benefits is not eligible to receive clothing authorizations. Instead a spend-down must be completed against the child's trust account or the payee must supply the clothing with the SSI or SSA benefits.

(d) Types and uses of clothing authorizations.

(1) One-time startup authorization.

- (A) A one-time startup authorization may be issued for a child at initial placement into a kinship home that is not receiving foster care maintenance payments.

(B) Another one-time startup authorization may be issued when DHS subsequently places a child into another kinship home that is not receiving foster care maintenance payments.

(2) Emergency clothing authorizations. Authorized staff in each county may provide emergency clothing authorizations not more than four times in any twelve-month period. An emergency clothing authorization may not be issued within 90-calendar days of the issuance of a one-time startup authorization or a previous emergency clothing authorization.

(A) The child's CW specialist requests an emergency clothing authorization four times a year for a child placed in a:

- (i) non-paid kinship home;
- (ii) non-funded group home; or
- (iii) psychiatric facility, such as an acute or residential treatment center, in-state or out-of-state.

(B) Emergency authorizations may be provided for a child:

- (i) residing in youth services shelters without adequate clothing;
- (j)
- (ii) who lost clothing as a result of being absent without leave or due to a disaster, such as fire, flood, and similar natural disasters;
- (iii) residing in a DHS operated group home and, when applicable, her child;
- (iv) placed directly from inpatient psychiatric care into a Developmental Disabilities Services (DDS) home prior to the availability of SSI benefits;
- (v) placed in maternity residential services; and
- (vi) on a case-by-case basis for exigent circumstances and with prior approval by the Child Welfare Services Operations and Business Processes Section Financial Operations administrator.

(3) Clothing authorization process. The designated staff at the local DHS office processes clothing authorizations through the AS400 Finance Division system. The authorization is provided to the placement provider who purchases the clothing through a vendor who accepts DHS authorizations. The vendor submits the authorization to DHS for payment.

(4) Clothing.

(A) The foster parent is responsible for providing adequate clothing for the child based on the child's needs, such as a minimum of a week's worth of clothing that is appropriate for the season and well-fitting. The foster parent maintains an inventory of clothing utilizing Form 04FC004E, Clothing Inventory. The clothing allowance is included in the monthly foster care maintenance payment for a child who is in DHS custody and placed in a:

- (i) foster family home;
- (ii) paid kinship home; or
- (iii) specialized community home.

(B) The clothing allowance is included in the daily foster care maintenance payment rates per the DHS contract for:

- (i) TFC; and
- (ii) funded DHS group homes and maternity homes.

(C) Clothing is purchased with SSI or SSA benefits for a child who is in DHS custody and placed in a DDS foster home or non-paid kinship home.

(5) Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC) placements. The clothing allowances for a child in DHS custody placed in foster care out-of-state through ICPC are included in the receiving state's monthly reimbursement.

(6) Allowable clothing purchases. Allowable purchases must meet the child's needs and include:

- (A) clothing;
- (B) shoes; and
- (C) disposable diapers.

(7) Disallowable clothing purchases. The items not appropriate to purchase with clothing authorizations are any non-clothing item, such as:

- (A) any food item;
- (B) athletic equipment;
- (C) cosmetics or personal grooming supplies;
- (D) hair accessories;
- (E) haircuts;
- (F) jewelry;
- (G) non-prescription medication or supplies;
- (H) school supplies; and
- (I) toys.

340:75-13-61. Medical services to children in placement

Children in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody and out-of-home placements have fee-for-service medical cases. The Oklahoma Health Care Authority pays for each medical service provided at the Medicaid allowable rate. The child welfare specialist:

- (1) ensures medical services are provided, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-14-3;
- (2) applies for SoonerCare (Medicaid) for a child following execution of a court order to remove the child by entering the child's removal and placement information into KIDS as soon as possible, but no later than two-business days after the child was physically placed in OKDHS custody per OAC 340:75-3-300 ITS 10(6).
 - (A) When the child's removal information is entered into the KIDS Removal screen, a KIDS assignment is generated to the custody specialist.
 - (B) The KIDS assignment to the custody specialist is considered the referral for:
 - (i) Title XIX medical benefits; and
 - (ii) Title IV-E eligibility determination; and 340:75-13-62. Medical services to children in own home

- (a) The child welfare (CW) specialist and parent(s) have a joint responsibility to:
 - (1) ensure the medical needs of the child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody are met; and
 - (2) share all information to maximize the child's health and well-being.
- (b) The parent(s) is responsible for his or her child's medical expenses when the child resides with the parent(s), regardless of legal custody.
 - (1) The CW specialist informs the parent(s) of available medical resources and refers the parent(s) to SoonerCare to apply for medical assistance. Application for children receiving Supplemental Security Income must be made in the local DHS office.
 - (2) At the time the parent(s) applies for medical assistance, the parent(s) must notify the person taking the application of the child's legal status to ensure proper coding in the medical case.
 - (3) If the family qualifies for medical assistance, the child in DHS or tribal custody remains fee-for-service on the medical case until the child is released from DHS or tribal custody.
 - (4) The child in his or her own home eligible for a medical card is eligible for Early Periodic, Screening, Diagnosis and Treatment (EPSDT) services. Eligibility, based on the parent(s)' income and resources, varies with the specific circumstances of each family.

340:75-13-63. Prior authorization and claims procedures for medical services

Prior authorization is required for medical services, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 317:30-3-82. Procedures and guidelines for prior authorization are outlined in OAC 317:30-3-82, available to all healthcare providers at www.oklahoma.gov/ohca.

(1) Contact Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA). For services, supplies, or equipment requiring prior authorization, the healthcare provider contacts the OHCA-contracted agency for specific instructions and assistance.

(2) Contact Child Welfare Services (CWS) Finance and Business (FB). When CWS staff or placement providers are referred to a collection agency for nonpayment of a medical bill for a child in Oklahoma Human Services custody, CWS staff contacts CWS FB for guidance regarding payment procedures. Any medical payments made from state funds are paid at rates no greater than established Oklahoma Medicaid rates.

340:75-13-64. Sources of funding for medical services

Medical services for children in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody are paid through a variety of funds.

(1) Title XIX Medicaid and Children's Special Health Care Needs program. Title XIX Medicaid, a combination of state and federal money, is administered through Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA). Medicaid claims are paid from the OHCA budget through a designated fiscal agent. The Medicaid program:

(A) has specific eligibility requirements;

(B) covers specific services as determined by Oklahoma's State Plan; and

(C) does not pay for experimental procedures.

(2) Child Welfare Services (CWS) medical - special approval. CWS has limited funds, state monies that are utilized when the needed service, excluding experimental procedures, is not covered by other medical programs. Utilization of these funds is considered for approval by CWS Finance and Business Operations (FBO) after Title XIX and OHCA denial. Only services for children in DHS custody and out-of-home placement are eligible for payment from these funds. All expenditures paid from state funds are paid at the Oklahoma Medicaid compensable amount.

(3) Child abuse examinations. When a child abuse examination is warranted, the reimbursement process is dependent upon the child's medical assistance case status on the date of the examination. When the child is:

(A) not a Medicaid recipient and the parent(s) is unable or unwilling to pay for the examination, state funds pay for the examination at established Medicaid rates. The provider completes claims, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 317:30-3-1. The claim is routed to CWS FBO with an explanation for using state funds; or

(B) a Medicaid recipient and is designated eligible for:

(i) fee-for-service, OHCA reimburses for these services at the established rates; or

(ii) SoonerCare, OHCA reimburses for these services at the established rates.

340:75-13-75. Out-of-state Medicaid coverage

(a) Title IV-E eligible. A child certified for Title IV-E in Oklahoma is eligible for Title XIX Medicaid coverage in the child's state of residence when the child is placed in an out-of-state Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children placement, receiving state, with relatives or non-relatives.

(1) The child continues to receive Title XIX Medicaid coverage from the state of residence when the Title IV-E foster care eligibility remains in effect.

(2) A medical plan that provides necessary and expected medical services and payment for those services must be in place before the child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) custody is sent to reside out-of-state.

(b) Medicaid and Title IV-E ineligible child. A child ineligible for Title IV-E may be eligible for Medicaid from the receiving state, depending on that state's eligibility criteria.

(1) When the receiving state does not provide Medicaid for a child in OKDHS custody who is ineligible for Title IV-E:

(A) the Oklahoma medical case remains open; and

(B) the placement provider in the receiving state locates all medical providers the child may need who:

- (i) are Oklahoma Medicaid providers; or
- (ii) may become Oklahoma Medicaid providers.

(2) The Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA) assists providers from other states to become Oklahoma Medicaid providers.

(c) Out-of-state medical services. A child in OKDHS custody requiring medical attention while traveling through or vacationing in another state must receive the needed emergency care. When the medical provider is:

- (1) an Oklahoma Medicaid provider, the provider files a claim;
- (2) not an Oklahoma Medicaid provider, but is willing to become one, the provider is referred to the OHCA Provider Contract; or
- (3) not an Oklahoma Medicaid provider and is not willing to become one, the CW specialist contacts Operations and Business Processes Section for assistance to pay for the medical service provided to the child.

(d) Medical expenses when a child is placed with a parent. When a child in OKDHS custody is placed with a parent, the parent is responsible for the child's medical expenses.

- (1) The parent may apply for medical assistance for the child in the parent's state of residence.
- (2) The child may receive medical coverage from the receiving state when the family meets that state's eligibility requirements.

340:75-13-77. Potential payment from third party sources

Section 447.20 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations requires that the Oklahoma Department of Human Services take all reasonable measures to ascertain liability of a third party, for example, private insurance, to pay for care and services.

(1) Third party liability is treated as a resource if payment by a third party has been made on behalf of the recipient.

(A) In instances where such liability is found to exist after medical assistance has been made available, the Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA) seeks reimbursement to the extent of such legal liability.

(B) If the applicant or recipient has already received payments from a third party, Form 08AD050E, Third Party Liability Resource, is completed and submitted to the OHCA Third Party Liability Unit.

(2) The Child Welfare worker is responsible for identifying and providing all insurance information for each child. Private insurance information is provided to the custody specialist and the custody specialist is kept current on any changes in the private insurance. OHCA accesses private insurance for payment of medical claims before Medicaid pays on the claims.340-75-13-78. Third party liability, accident, or injuryWhen medical services are provided to a recipient of Medicaid as the result of an accident or injury, the Child Welfare (CW) worker determines if there has been or may be monetary settlements that affect eligibility. The Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA), Third Party Liability Unit checks all paid claims for potential accident or trauma related diagnosis codes and follows up on those directly with the recipient.

(1) If the recipient fails to cooperate or does not respond to requests from OHCA, OHCA may request the local office to submit Form 08AD050E, Third Party Liability Resource.

(2) If a recipient continues to not respond to requests for information or fails to cooperate with the CW worker, the worker suspends further benefits until the recipient has supplied the necessary information to OHCA.

340:75-13-78. Third party liability, accident, or injury

When medical services are provided to a recipient of Medicaid as the result of an accident or injury, the Child Welfare (CW) worker determines if there has been or may be monetary settlements that affect eligibility. The Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA), Third Party Liability Unit checks all paid claims for potential accident or trauma related diagnosis codes and follows up on those with the recipient directly. If the recipient fails to cooperate or does not respond to requests from OHCA, OHCA may request the local office to submit Form ADM-50, Third Party Liability Resource. If a recipient continues to not respond to requests for information or fails to cooperate with the CW worker, the worker suspends further benefits until the recipient has supplied the necessary information to OHCA.

340:75-13-79. Transportation and travel expenses for necessary medical services outside the child's community

(a) Transportation for medical services outside the child's community. Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA) ensures that necessary transportation is available to a child approved for Medicaid who is in need of medical services that are unavailable in the child's community.

(1) Community-based residential care contractors providing transportation do not receive transportation reimbursement.

(2) Placement providers are responsible for transporting the child to routine medical appointments.

(3) Placement providers who must travel out of the community for necessary and non-routine medical services for the child use the SoonerRideNon-Emergency Transportation (NET) service.

(A) NET is used for transportation for routine medical services and must be scheduled by appointment at least three business days prior to the child's health care appointment, but may be scheduled up to 14 business days in advance.

(B) Standing transportation appointments for the child with NET may be scheduled beyond the 14-day time requirements, not to exceed 30 days.

(C) When scheduling SoonerRide transportation, the placement provider identifies himself or herself as the child's foster parent.

(D) The placement provider has the option of receiving gasoline reimbursement for providing transportation when the provider chooses not to use public transportation or when public transportation is not available.

(b) Transportation for urgent care. When the child's condition requires urgent care, the placement provider must attempt to schedule NET services through SoonerRide.

(1) SoonerRide must be contacted on or before the date of service to allow for assignment of a trip number and mailing of a reimbursement form to the placement provider. The reservation center is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

(2) When SoonerRide cannot provide transportation or the placement provider chooses not to use NET for urgent care, the placement provider may receive gasoline reimbursement.

(c) Transportation by commercial airline. When a child requires out-of-state medical care that involves the use of a commercial airline, approval and flight arrangements must be secured by contacting OHCA, Care Management Unit.

(d) Ambulance services. Ambulance service is compensable for the child when other forms of transportation do not meet the medical needs of the child. Arrangements must be secured by contacting OHCA SoonerRide coordinator.

(e) Reimbursement for transportation and travel expenses. Travel expenses may be reimbursed only when necessary medical services are unavailable in the community where a child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) custody and out-of-home placement resides.

(1) Travel, lodging, and meals are paid with Title XIX funds for the child and one essential person when travel outside the child's community is necessary to secure necessary medical services.

(2) Any associated travel expense claimed on Form 10AD006E, Travel Claim, must be documented with receipt and is initially processed through the local OKDHS office. Completed Form 10AD006E, is sent to OHCA Finance Division Travel Claims.

340:75-13-80. Determination of medical eligibility

(a) Determination of medical assistance eligibility. Determination of eligibility for the state's medical assistance programs is required when a child:

(1) is removed from home and placed in the custody of Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) or a federally recognized Indian tribe when the state is paying for the Indian child's care; or

(2) enters state-paid care by signed parental agreement.

(b) Unqualified alien child. A child who is an undocumented or unqualified alien is not eligible for medical assistance except in emergency medical situations, regardless of custody status until the child was lawfully determined to be a permanent resident for five years or otherwise meets federal requirements as a qualified alien per Oklahoma Administrative Code 317:35-5-25.

(c) Child or youth not in OKDHS or tribal custody and medical assistance. An application for medical assistance may be made on behalf of a child or by a youth not in OKDHS or tribal custody.

(1) The child in a family-centered services case meets eligibility requirements based on the family income to qualify for medical assistance.

(2) A youth leaving OKDHS or federally recognized tribal care who is 18 years of age may receive medical assistance. Per the 2014 Affordable Care Act, a youth in OKDHS or tribal custody and out-of-home placement on his or her 18th birthday may be eligible to receive medical benefits until his or her 26th birthday. The youth:

(A) meets eligibility criteria to maintain continuous coverage;

(B) who loses medical coverage may apply online with SoonerCare and receive medical coverage until his or her 26th birthday provided all eligibility requirements are met. OKDHS does not pay for services not covered by the Oklahoma Health Care Authority medical program for the youth; and

(C) receiving Supplemental Security Income applies in the local OKDHS office.

(3) A pregnant youth 18 years of age or older may apply for pregnancy-related services covered under Title XXI.

340:75-13-81. Withdrawal of life support, withholding, or withdrawal of hydration and nutrition, resuscitation efforts, and organ donation

(a) Decisions for a child in OKDHS custody. When a child is in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) legal custody of, regardless of custody status, the court must be involved and make any decision regarding:

- (1) withdrawal or withholding of life support systems;
- (2) hydration;
- (3) nutrition; and
- (4) approval of a Do Not Resuscitate Order.

(b) Withdrawal of life support. Any medical procedure or intervention administered to a child in OKDHS custody that serves only to prolong the process of dying or maintain the child's condition of persistent unconsciousness is considered life-sustaining treatment. This does not include the administration of medication or the performance of any medical treatment deemed necessary to alleviate pain or the normal consumption of food and water. The withdrawal of life support systems is generally considered only for a patient who suffers from an incurable and irreversible condition, death within six months, or who is persistently unconscious, per Section 3101.1 et seq. of Title 63 of the Oklahoma Statutes (63 O.S. § 3101.1 et seq.).

(c) Withholding or withdrawal of hydration and nutrition. Hydration and nutrition may be withheld or withdrawn only if the impending death would result from the underlying terminal illness or injury and not from dehydration, starvation, or both, per 63 O.S. § 3080.1.

(d) Resuscitation efforts. A Do Not Resuscitate Order is an order issued by a licensed physician that cardiopulmonary resuscitation must not be administered. Cardiopulmonary resuscitation includes those measures used to restore or support cardiac or respiratory function in the event of cardiac or respiratory arrest. As a result of such an order for a child in OKDHS custody, no efforts are made to restore or support the cardiac or respiratory system.

(e) Organ donation during the life of a child in OKDHS custody. During the life of a child in OKDHS custody, OKDHS may not consent to the anatomical gift of the body or organs of the child regardless of the child's custody status. An anatomical gift of a donor's body or part may be made during the life of the donor for the purpose of transplantation, therapy, research, or education pursuant to 63 O.S. § 2200.4A by:

- (1) the donor, if the donor is an adult or if the donor is a minor and is:
 - (A) emancipated; or
 - (B) authorized under state law to apply for a driver license because the donor is at least 16 years of age;
- (2) an agent of the donor, unless the power of attorney for health care or other record prohibits the agent from making an anatomical gift;
- (3) a parent of the donor, if the donor is an unemancipated minor; or
- (4) the donor's guardian.

(f) Organ donation after the death of a child in OKDHS custody.

When the potential donor child is in OKDHS custody at the time of death, nine classes of persons supersede OKDHS and have the right to consent to the donation of the decedent's body or part. When none of the nine classes of persons is reasonably available, OKDHS may consent to an anatomical gift of the decedent's body or part when:

- (1) the child donor was in OKDHS permanent custody at the time of the child's death; and
- (2) all other classes of persons listed in 63 O.S. § 2200.9A, who supersede OKDHS, have been given a reasonable opportunity to consent or object to the donation and have not done so.

340:75-13-82. Funeral expenses for children

(a) The Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) is responsible for funeral and burial expenses and related costs for a child in permanent DHS custody.

(b) When the child is in emergency or temporary DHS custody and in out-of-home placement, DHS determines the parent(s)' or next of kin's ability to assume the cost. When the parent(s) or next-of-kin is unable or unwilling, DHS assumes the responsibility. A maximum reimbursement limit of $4,500 is allowed for the funeral and burial. The parent(s) is responsible for all funeral and burial expenses when the child resides with the parent(s).

(c) When a child in permanent DHS custody has a documented terminal medical diagnosis at the time of adoption finalization, a maximum reimbursement limit of $4,500 is allowed for the funeral and burial.

340:75-13-83. Child Welfare Targeted Case Management

Oklahoma's Medicaid State Plan was amended August 1, 1997 to include Targeted Case Management (TCM). Under the plan, the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) is designated as a TCM provider for children under the age of 18 who are in the voluntary, emergency, temporary, or permanent custody of OKDHS and who are in out-of-home care or trial adoption. Specific TCM services are those that assist these children to access needed medical, educational, social, and other services. The Child Welfare (CW) worker:

- (1) selects TCM services when completing the child's placement plan; [OAC 340:75-6-40.1]
- (2) provides TCM services during contacts with the child or with other persons on behalf of the child; and [OAC 340:75-6-48]

SUBCHAPTER 14. WELL-BEING

340:75-14-1. Purpose, definitions, and assessment

(a) Purpose.

- (1) A child's well-being is comprised of four basic domains:
 - (A) cognitive functioning;
 - (B) physical health and development;
 - (C) behavioral/emotional functioning; and
 - (D) social functioning.
- (2) A child's well-being is dependent upon the caretaker's ability to meet the child's physical health, learning and development, behavioral health, and the child's ongoing opportunities to engage in age- or developmentally-appropriate activities following the reasonable and prudent parent standard.
- (3) The child welfare (CW) specialist assesses:
 - (A) child functioning that includes the specific indicators of child well-being. An assessment of child functioning is the basis for understanding how the caregiver addresses any specific child needs and is a central component of promoting well-being for children who have experienced abuse or neglect; and
 - (B) a child's needs in these areas throughout the case process and addresses identified needs as part of case planning activities.
- (4) Children and families are meaningfully engaged in all aspects of the service process to build and maintain a trusting, supportive working relationship.
- (5) A trauma-informed framework of well-being puts together assessments, interventions, actions, and supports that are intentional and inclusive of a deeper understanding of the four basic domains of a child's well-being through a trauma-informed lens.
- (6) Children engaged by the CW system, especially those who were removed from their birth families, have likely experienced traumatic events in their lives, thereby impacting their development and overall well-being.
 - (A) A removal leading to the separation of the family, in and of itself, can cause trauma.
 - (B) Children's relationships, behaviors, and sense of self may all be impacted.
 - (C) Adverse effects of trauma may be immediate or have a delayed onset.
 - (D) Not all children who are involved in or witness traumatic events develop traumatic stress responses. Some children are able to adapt and cope with trauma better than others, especially when intervention is early.

(b) Equal access. Children engaged by the CW system have the right to fair and equal access to all available services, placement, care, treatment, and benefits, and to not be subjected to discrimination or harassment on the basis of actual or perceived race, ethnic group identification, ancestry, national origin, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, mental or physical disability, or Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) status.

(c) Definitions. Per Section 1-1-105 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-1-105) the following words and terms, when used in this Subchapter shall have the following meanings, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Age-appropriate" or "developmentally-appropriate" means:

(A) activities or items that are generally accepted as suitable for children of the same age or level of maturity or that are determined to be developmentally-appropriate for a child, based on the development of cognitive, emotional, physical, and behavioral capacities that are typical for an age or age group; and

(B) in the case of a specific child, activities or items that are suitable for that child based on the developmental stages attained by the child with respect to the cognitive, emotional, physical, and behavioral capacities of the specific child.

(2) "Behavioral health" means mental health, substance use or abuse, or co-occurring mental health and substance use or abuse diagnoses, and the continuum of mental health, substance use or abuse, or co-occurring mental health and substance use or abuse treatment.

(3) "Child behavioral health screener" means a brief measuring tool designed to screen for the presence of behavioral and trauma-related symptoms that may be negatively impacting child function in children ages birth through 17 years old. It additionally has questions geared to track counseling progress and psychotropic medication management.

(4) "Child with disability" means any child who has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of the child's major life activities or who is regarded as having such impairment by a competent medical professional.

(5) "Infant" means a child 12 months of age and younger.

(6) "Psychotropic medications" means medications with well-demonstrated efficacy in the treatment of mental disorders through the modification of behavior, mood, and emotions.

(7) "Reasonable and prudent parent standard" means the standard characterized by careful and sensible parental decisions that maintain the child's health, safety, and best interests while at the same time encouraging the emotional and developmental growth of the child. This standard is used by the child's caregiver when determining whether to allow a child to participate in extracurricular, enrichment, cultural, and social activities. For purposes of this definition, the term "caregiver" means a foster parent with whom a child in foster care was placed, a representative of a group home where a child was placed, or a designated official for a residential child care facility where a child in foster care was placed.

(8) "Trauma" means what happens to a child that results from an event, series of events, or set of circumstances experienced by an individual as physically or emotionally harmful or life threatening and that has lasting adverse effects on the individual's functioning and mental, physical, social, emotional, or spiritual well-being.

(9) "Successful adulthood program" means a program specifically designed to assist a child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody or tribal custody in developing and enhancing the skills and abilities necessary for successful adult living, per 10A O.S. § 1-9-107.

(10) "Youth" means a child 13 through 17 years of age.

(d) Child functioning.

(1) Description. Child functioning is concerned with describing the child's general behavior, emotions, temperament, development, academic status, physical capacity, and health status. It addresses how a child functions from day-to-day and their current status rather than focusing on a specific point in time. An assessment of child functioning must take into account the child's age and/or any special needs or developmental delays.

(2) Child functioning indicators.

(A) Emotion/trauma. The degree to which, an adequate pattern of appropriate self-management of emotions is displayed, consistent with the child's age, ability, and developmental level.

(B) Behavior. The degree to which, an appropriate coping and adapting behavior is displayed, consistent with the child's age, ability, and developmental level.

(C) Developmental/early learning. Consistent with age and ability expectations, the child is achieving milestones based on his or her age and developmental capacities.

(D) Academic status. The child, according to age and ability, is:

- (i) actively engaged in instructional activities and reading at grade level or an Individualized Education Program (IEP) expectation level; and
- (ii) meeting requirements for annual promotion and course completion leading to a high school diploma or equivalent or vocational program.

(E) Positive peer/adult relationships. The child, according to age and ability, demonstrates adequate positive social relationships.

(F) Family relationships. The child demonstrates age and developmentally-appropriate patterns of forming relationships with family members.

(G) Physical health. The child is achieving and maintaining positive health status that includes physical, dental, audio and visual assessments and services. When the child has a serious or chronic health condition, he or she is achieving the best attainable health status given the diagnosis and prognosis.

(H) Cultural identity. Important cultural factors, such as race; class; ethnicity; religion; gender, gender identity, and sexual orientation; and other forms of culture are appropriately considered in the child's life.

(I) Substance awareness. The assessment of substance awareness is multi-dimensional. The assessment:

- (i) includes the child/youth's awareness of alcohol and drugs, and his or her own use; and
- (ii) for children who have experienced the negative impacts of parent/caregiver substance use or abuse within their home, includes their awareness of alcohol and drugs and treatment/recovery for their parent/legal guardian(s), as age appropriate.

(J) Preparation for adult living skills development.

The child, according to age and ability, is gaining skills, education, work experience, long-term relationships and connections, income, housing, and other capacities necessary for functioning upon adulthood; and includes access to age-appropriate, medically-accurate information about reproductive health care, pregnancy prevention, and the prevention and treatment of sexually-transmitted infections at 12 years of age and older.

(e) Screenings and functional assessments. Screening and functional assessment tools are used to inform decisions about appropriateness of evidence-informed services. All children, birth through 17 years of age, engaged with Child Welfare Services have access to screening and functional assessments for the early and ongoing identification of well-being needs, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-208.

PART 2. ADOPTION SERVICES PROGRAM LEGAL AUTHORITY AND SCOPE

340:75-15-5. Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) adoption services program legal authority and scope

(a) Legal authority. Every child has the right to be raised in a secure, loving home and when the child's biological parents are unable or unwilling to provide for the child's care, the child's interests are best served by providing the child with a permanent family through adoption, per the Oklahoma Adoption Code, Section 7501-1.2 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes (10 O.S. § 7501-1.2).

(b) Adoption and Safe Families Act (ASFA). Per Public Law 105-89, ASFA mandates that OKDHS:

- (1) identify an appropriate adoptive home for the legally-free child when adoption is the child's permanency plan;
- (2) provide for the interjurisdictional placement of children; and
- (3) provide post-adoption services as a component of family preservation services.

(c) Multiethnic Placement Act of 1994 (MEPA).

(1) MEPA as amended by the Interethnic Adoption Provisions of 1996 (IEP), is designed to:

- (A) eliminate discrimination on the basis of race, color, or national origin of the child or the prospective foster or adoptive parent;
- (B) decrease the length of time that children wait to be adopted;
- (C) facilitate the identification, recruitment, and retention of foster and adoptive parents who can meet the distinctive needs of children awaiting placement; and
- (D) prohibit states or agencies that receive federal funds from delaying or denying any child's placement on the basis of the child's or prospective foster or adoptive parent's race, color, or national origin.

(2) Any decision to consider the use of race as a necessary element of a placement decision is based on concerns arising out of the circumstances of the individual case and based on the child's best interests. Only the most compelling reasons may serve to justify consideration of race and ethnicity as part of a placement decision. Such reasons are likely to emerge only in unique and individual circumstances.

(3) Occasions where race or ethnicities are lawfully considered in a placement decision are very rare. MEPA/IEP does not prohibit a preference for placing a child with relatives.

(4) Children who meet the definition of an Indian child, per the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA), Section 1903(4) of Title 25 of the United States Code are placed according to the placement preferences found in ICWA.

(5) Resource family recruitment reflects the ethnic and cultural diversity of children in OKDHS custody who need foster and adoptive homes. A comprehensive recruitment plan is developed and updated annually by the field administrator.

(d) Privacy rights of each party to the adoption. The privacy rights of each party to an adoption are protected by clarifying when and to whom information is released, per 10 O.S. § 7501-1.2.

(e) OKDHS adoption services for the eligible child. Each child with a permanency goal of adoption is referred for adoption services that include:

- (1) identifying an appropriate adoptive home;
- (2) preparing the child for adoptive placement; and
- (3) providing supportive services to the child and adoptive family.

(f) Adoption records maintained by OKDHS. Adoption records finalized in Oklahoma are maintained for 99 years by the child-placing agency, attorney, entity, or person arranging or facilitating the adoption. Child-placing agencies, attorneys, entities, or persons arranging or facilitating adoptions that cease to operate or to practice in Oklahoma transfer the child-placing agency's, attorney's, entity's, or person's adoption records to the OKDHS Resource Unit or, after notifying OKDHS, to a transferee that assumes responsibility for those records.

340:75-15-6. Adoption services

(a) Adoption services. Adoption services are provided to the child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody when reunification efforts with the parent or legal guardian failed or are not in the child's best interests, and permanency may be achieved through an adoptive placement. Adoption is considered for each child in DHS custody who cannot return home regardless of the child's age or special needs.

(b) Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC) adoption services. ICPC is an agreement between states to provide protection and services to the child placed across state lines for adoption.

(1) The ICPC deputy compact administrator (DCA) is authorized to conduct the necessary investigation of the proposed placement to assure all statutorily mandated adoptive home-assessment requirements are met.

(2) After the DCA approves the placement, the DCA is administratively responsible for overseeing the placement until the adoption is finalized or, when applicable disrupts, and the child is moved from the placement. DCA administrative oversight includes:

- (A) processing supervisory reports from the receiving state;
- (B) facilitating communication between the states or parties involved; and
- (C) notifying the agency or individual of an adoption finalization or disruption, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-1-86.

(c) Inter-country adoption. DHS does not complete adoptive home assessments for persons requesting to adopt a foreign national child through inter-country adoption. DHS refers inquiries regarding inter-country adoptions to licensed child-placing agencies in Oklahoma that provide inter-country adoption services.

(d) Private adoptive home study. DHS is not required to make a home study and report to the court on adoptive placements made by private adoption agencies or persons providing private adoption services, per Section 7505-5.4(D) of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

340:75-15-41.1. Adoption placement considerations

(a) Sibling placement. Every reasonable attempt is made to place siblings together who were removed together whether in temporary or permanent placement. When separated, siblings are provided frequent contact or visitation, when appropriate. Each child's best interests determine if joint placement, contact, or visitation is allowed. When the child is a part of a sibling group, placement of the entire sibling group in the same placement is in the child's and siblings' best interests. Guidance on when siblings may be separated is found in Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-6-85.

(b) Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) and placement. The federal ICWA, Section 1915 of Title 25 of the United States Code, Oklahoma (ICWA), Section 40.6 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes (10 O.S. § 40.6), and OAC 340:75-19-14 define placement preferences for Indian children, unless the child's tribe established a different preference order by tribal resolution.

(c) Multiethnic Placement Act (MEPA) of 1994. The Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) follows the MEPA provisions and the Interethnic Provisions of 1996, per OAC 340:75-1-9, unless the court finds that ICWA applies to the child.

(d) Potential adoptive parent age. When a potential adoptive parent meets the minimum age required, per OAC 340:75-7-12, DHS may not use the age of an otherwise eligible individual as a reason for denial of placement, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-705.

(e) Child's placement preference. In determining placement of a deprived child in foster care, DHS is governed by the child's long-term best interests. The child may express a preference as to placement and the preference may be given with or without the parents, foster parents, guardians, or any other parties being present. DHS determines if the child's best interests are served by his or her preference. DHS is not bound by the child's preference and may consider other facts in determining the placement, per 10A O.S. § 1-7-110.

(f) Bars to placement.

(1) Per Section 1356.30 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, does not approve potential adoptive parents as resource parents when the applicant, or any person residing in the potential applicant's home, has a criminal conviction record for any of the felony offenses listed in (A) through (E). The felony offenses are:

- (A) physical assault, battery, or a drug-related offense within the five-year period preceding the date of the petition;
- (B) child abuse or neglect;
- (C) domestic abuse;
- (D) a crime against a child including, but not limited to, child pornography; or
- (E) a crime involving violence including, but not limited to, rape, sexual assault, or homicide, but excluding those crimes specified in paragraph (A) of this Subsection. Per Section 16 of Title 18 of the United States Code, a crime involving violence means an offense that:

- (i) has as an element the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against the person or property of another; or
- (ii) by its nature, involves a substantial risk that physical force against the person or property of another may be used in the course of committing the offense.

(2) Per 10 O.S. 7505-6.3, the court may choose to accept an individual as a potential adoptive parent for placement who has a felony conviction listed in (1)(A) and (C) of this subsection, when an evaluation of the individual considers the:

- (A) crime's nature and seriousness in relation to the adoption;
- (B) time elapsed since the crime's commission;
- (C) circumstances under which the crime was committed;
- (D) degree of rehabilitation;
- (E) number of crimes committed; and
- (F) showing by clear and convincing evidence that the child will not be at risk by such placement.

(3) DHS denies the application to become a resource parent, when, the applicant:

- (A) or any person residing in the applicant's home has a conviction for any crime, felony or misdemeanor, specified in 57 O.S. § 582, whether the conviction occurred upon a:
 - (i) verdict;
 - (ii) plea of guilty; or
 - (iii) plea of nolo contendere; or
- (B) is subject to, living with, or married to a person who is subject to the Oklahoma Sex Offender Registration Act.

(g) Eligibility of foster parent to adopt the child. Per 10A O.S. § 1-4-812, during any permanency hearing, when the court determines the child is to be placed for adoption, the court considers the foster parent eligible to adopt, when the foster parent meets established eligibility requirements. When the child has resided with the foster parent for at least one year, the court gives great weight to the foster parent in the adoption consideration unless there is an existing, loving, emotional bond with a relative of the child, by blood or marriage, who is willing, able, and eligible to adopt the child.

340:75-15-41.2. Adoption consultation

The adoption and permanency planning specialists participate in the adoption consultation meeting no later than 10-calendar days after:

- (1) the child's name first appears on Report YI602, Adoption Permanency Plan Case Goal Report, listing the child with a permanency plan of adoption; or
- (2) an in-person, email, or phone notification from the permanency planning specialist or supervisor is received.

340:75-15-41.3. Adoption criteria staffing

(a) The adoption criteria staffing determines the type of adoptive placement that meets the child's long-term needs and best interests. The adoption criteria staffing does not constitute agency approval or authorization for an adoptive placement.

(b) Every effort is made to place the child with suitable relatives, per Section 1-4-706 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes (10A O.S. § 1-4-706).

(c) A prospective adoptive parent who has the ability to meet the child's needs may be identified during the adoption criteria staffing.

(d) Factors in paragraphs (1) through (10) of this subsection are considered when identifying the placement that meets the child's long-term needs and best interests.

(1) Siblings. Siblings are:

(A) placed together when possible, unless a joint placement is contrary to the safety or well-being of any of the siblings; or

(B) separated for purposes of adoptive placement only in certain circumstances, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-6-85.

(2) Attachment. The nature and degree of the child's attachment to the siblings, foster family, and significant others is assessed and considered as an indicator of the child's ability to attach to an adoptive family.

(3) Age. Age is evaluated as a factor in relation to the adoptive applicant's ability to parent the child into the child's adult years, provided age is not used as the basis to deny an applicant.

(4) Health. The adoptive applicant's health records are evaluated to determine if he or she has the:

(A) health to participate with the child in normal developmental activities; and

(B) ability to parent the child beyond the child's age of majority.

(5) Culture. Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) does not:

(A) rely on generalizations about the child's cultural identity needs based on a particular race or ethnicity; or

(B) presume from the adoptive applicant's race or ethnicity that the applicant is able or unable to maintain the child's ties to another racial, ethnic, or cultural community.

(6) Indian child.

(A) A child who is an Indian child as defined by the federal and state Indian Child Welfare Acts (ICWA), Section 1901 et seq. of Title 25 of the United States Code (25 U.S.C. §§ 1901 et seq.) and 10 O.S. §§ 40 through 40.9, is placed according to ICWA placement preference order or the Indian child's tribe's preference order as established by tribal resolution, per OAC 340:75-19-23.

(B) Prior to placing the Indian child outside ICWA preference order or the child's tribe's preference order, the CW specialist assigned to the child requests the court conduct a hearing to determine if good cause exists to allow placement of the Indian child outside ICWA- or tribal-specified placement preference order. ICWA requires that:

- (i) a good cause hearing be held when a child's placement is outside the ICWA- or tribal-specified placement preference order;
- (ii) prior notice of the good cause hearing is given to all parties, including the tribe; and
- (iii) the court makes a finding as to whether good cause exists to not follow the ICWA- or tribal-specified placement preference order.

(7) Religion. The child in OKDHS custody is provided an opportunity for spiritual and moral development. When the child has made a religious commitment or the parent made a specific religious request, OKDHS makes reasonable efforts to find an adoptive family of like religious faith.

(8) Language. When the child's primary language is not English or is sign language, special consideration is given to identifying an adoptive family fluent in his or her language.

(9) Education. The child is provided the opportunity to develop his or her potential and is not subjected to unrealistic academic expectations.

(10) Resources. The adoptive family must have adequate resources to meet the child's financial, medical, health, educational, shelter, and emotional needs. Adoption assistance is a resource for the child who meets eligibility criteria, per OAC 340:75-15-128.

340:75-15-47. Inter-jurisdictional fair hearing

The Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) does not deny or delay a child's adoptive placement when an approved adoptive family is available outside of Oklahoma.

(1) The potential adoptive parent can request a fair hearing when placement by DHS with the approved adoptive family in another state was denied or is unreasonably delayed.

(2) The out-of-state potential adoptive parent completes and files Form 13MP005E, Resource Family Request for a Fair Hearing, to request a fair hearing, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-1-12.6(a)(2)(C).

PART 10. FAMILY ASSESSMENT AND PREPARATION PROCESS

340:75-15-82. Adoptive family recruitment

(a) The Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) recruits and develops adoptive families for children in DHS custody who are legally-free for adoption and recognizes each child has unique life experiences that require adoption service components to be child focused.

(1) DHS seeks an adoptive parent that meets the child's needs rather than seeking a child that meets the adoptive parent's needs.

(2) Potential adoptive family assessments are completed, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-15-82 through 340:75-15-89.

(b) Recruitment program. Adoptive family recruitment is an ongoing, proactive adoption services component. A comprehensive recruitment plan consisting of general, child-specific, and targeted recruitment is used.

(c) Minority adoption recruitment. As part of the Multiethnic Placement Act of 1994 (MEPA), as amended by the Interethnic Provisions of 1996 (IEP), efforts are made to recruit potential adoptive families who reflect the ethnic and racial diversity of children in DHS custody for whom adoptive families are needed.

(d) Adoptive family recruitment through adoption exchanges.

(1) When funds are available for such purposes, DHS contracts with or joins the Oklahoma Children's Adoption Resource Exchange or other in-state, out-of-state, or national adoption exchange (adoption exchange) for purposes of increasing and promoting the placement and adoption of children in DHS custody, per Section 7510-2.1 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes (10 O.S. § 7510-2.1).

(2) DHS provides certain, specified information to the adoption exchange.

(e) Photographs and descriptions provided to the adoption exchange. DHS, per 10 O.S. §§ 7510-2.1 and 7510-2.2, provides a recent photograph and description of each child who is legally free for adoption and for whom no adoptive family has been found:

(1) to the adoption exchange specified by DHS; and

(2) within 90-calendar days of the date the child became legally free for adoption or as otherwise required by the adoption exchange.

(f) Exemptions to utilizing an adoption exchange. Children who are exempt from 10 O.S. §§ 7510-2.1 through 7510-2.5 provisions, include those:

(1) 12 years of age and older who choose not to be adopted, per the Oklahoma Adoption Act;

(2) for whom permanent placement plans were made that do not include adoption, such as permanent placement with relatives or long-term foster care;

(3) who, because of medical or psychological reasons as determined by a licensed psychiatrist, psychologist, or physician, are not ready for adoption;

(4) who is missing from care and whose present location is unknown; and

(5) who are currently in an adoptive placement, per 10 O.S. § 7505-6.3.

(g) Child's status change reported to adoption exchange. DHS reports any change in the child's status to an adoption exchange, per 10 O.S. § 7510-2.4 within 20-business days of the change.

(h) Withdrawing a child from an adoption exchange. When a child is placed with an adoptive family, DHS notifies the adoption exchange that the child is no longer available, per 10 O.S. § 7510-2.5.

340:75-15-84. Adoption application process

(a) Child-focused adoption. The Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) adoption program is child focused. An adoptive family is selected for the child in OKDHS custody that is the closest match to the child's long-term best interests and needs.

- (1) An application requesting a child of a certain age, race, or characteristic is not generally considered.
- (2) An application, including one by a foster parent or relative, does not guarantee a child's placement in the applicant's home.
- (3) There are no OKDHS service fees to applicants applying to adopt a child in OKDHS custody.

(b) Adoption eligibility. Section 7503-1.1 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes (10 O.S. § 7503-1.1) states that a person is eligible to adopt a child when he or she is at least 21 years of age, and:

- (1) is not married;
- (2) married and the husband and wife, as a couple, adopt;
- (3) is married, but legally separated from his or her spouse; or
- (4) the spouse of the child's parent or relative.

(e) OKDHS employee applications. OKDHS employees may apply to adopt children in OKDHS custody.

(f) Out-of-state applications. OKDHS does not process applications from out-of-state applicants.

- (1) OKDHS does accept certified resource family assessments from licensed private or public adoption agencies in other states and may consider the approved adoptive family for a child in OKDHS custody.
- (2) The Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC) Unit coordinates placement and supervision with the licensed private or public adoption agency in the state where the adoptive family resides.
- (3) Each provision of the ICPC is followed, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-15-82 and 340:75-1-86.

(g) Reapplication to adopt. When an adoptive parent applies to OKDHS to adopt again subsequent to a prior completed adoption, his or her information is updated.

(h) Application withdrawal or denial.

- (1) The applicant may voluntarily withdraw the application.
- (2) The application is denied when the applicant does not meet requirements, per OAC 340:75-15-84.
- (3) Reasons for denying the application are explained to the applicant and are also stated in a letter to the applicant.
- (4) The applicant desiring to adopt a child of a certain age, race, or other characteristic that OKDHS reasonably believes may not be available for adoption in the foreseeable future is referred to licensed child-placing agencies that are more likely to place children matching the request.

340:75-15-84.1. Background information search

(a) Background checks.

(1) Mandate to conduct background searches.

- (A) Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) is mandated to conduct a criminal background and child abuse and neglect information system (CANIS) search for OKDHS and private adoptive applicants and adult household members, 18 years of age and older, per Section 7505-5.3 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes (10 O.S. § 7505-5.3).
- (B) The background search for OKDHS adoptive applicants and adult household members includes a search of:
 - (i) Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) name and criminal records histories;
 - (ii) the Oklahoma Sex Offender Registry;
 - (iii) the Mary Rippey Violent Crime Offender Registry;
 - (iv) the Oklahoma Department of Corrections (DOC) offender information;
 - (v) Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI) national criminal history records based on the applicant's and each adult household member's fingerprints;
 - (vi) the applicant's or adult household member's involvement as a party in any court action found on the:
 - (I) Oklahoma State Courts Network (OSCN); or
 - (II) Oklahoma District Court Records (ODCR);

(vii) Oklahoma Department of Public Safety records;

(viii) OKDHS records including child welfare records involving the applicant and each adult household member; and

(ix) applicable out-of-state child abuse and neglect registries when the applicant or adult household member has not lived continuously in Oklahoma for the past five years.

(I) When a child abuse and neglect registry is not maintained in the applicable state, the resource specialist requests any information that can be provided.

(II) The applicant is not approved without state-maintained child abuse and neglect registry searches when a registry is maintained in the applicable state;

(x) the Restricted Registry;

(xi) the Oklahoma State Department of Health Nontechnical Services Worker Abuse Registry;

(xii) the Community Services Worker Registry; and (xiii) Juvenile Online Tracking System (JOLTS) records for any child not in OKDHS custody, 13 through 17 years of age, living in the home.

(2) CANIS and the private adoptive applicant. The private adoptive applicant, adoption agency, or another person authorized to conduct home study investigations:

(A) completes a written request for a CANIS search using Form 04AN028E, Request for Child Abuse and Neglect Information System Search; and

(B) submits Form 04AN028E, with verification of impending adoption, to the Child Protective Services Programs Unit as directed on the form.

(3) Exception to fingerprinting. The OKDHS Director or designee may authorize an exception to the fingerprinting requirement and authorize use of an alternative procedure for obtaining a national criminal history records search for any OKDHS and private adoptive applicant or adult household member, who has a severe condition that precludes him or her from fingerprinting, per 10A O.S. § 1-7-111. In limited, case-specific circumstances, OKDHS may not be able to obtain:

(A) an individual's fingerprints as a result of his or her disability; or

(B) legible fingerprints due to low quality, as a result of age, occupation, or other conditions, making it impossible for the National Crime Information Center to provide results.

(b) Felony convictions.

(1) Per Section 1356.30 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, OKDHS does not approve prospective adoptive parents as resource parents when the applicant or any person residing in the prospective applicant's home has a criminal conviction record for any of the felony offenses listed in (A) through (E) of this paragraph. The felony offenses are:

- (A) physical assault, battery, or a drug-related offense, when the conviction occurs within the five-year period preceding the petition date;
- (B) child abuse or neglect;
- (C) spousal abuse or domestic abuse, per 10A O.S. § 1-4-705;
- (D) a crime against a child including, but not limited to, child pornography; or
- (E) a crime involving violence including, but not limited to, rape, sexual assault, or homicide, but excluding physical assault or battery. Per Section 16 of Title 18 of the United States Code, a crime involving violence means an offense that:

- (i) has an element of the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against the person or property of another; or
- (ii) by its nature, involves a substantial risk that physical force against the person or property of another may be used in the course of committing the offense.

(2) Per 10 O.S. § 7505-6.3, the court may choose to accept an individual as a prospective adoptive parent for placement who has a felony conviction listed in (1)(A) and (1)(C) of this subsection, when an evaluation of the individual considers the:

- (A) crime's nature and seriousness in relation to the adoption;
- (B) time elapsed since the crime's commission;
- (C) circumstances under which the crime was committed;
- (D) degree of rehabilitation;
- (E) number of crimes committed; and
- (F) showing by clear and convincing evidence that the child will not be at risk by such placement.

(c) Sex-related crimes. OKDHS denies the application to become a resource parent, when an applicant:

(1) or any person residing in the applicant's home has a conviction for any crime, felony or misdemeanor, specified in 57 O.S. § 582, whether the conviction occurred upon a:

- (A) verdict;
- (B) plea of guilty; or
- (C) plea of nolo contendere; or

(2) is subject to, living with, or married to a person who is subject to the Oklahoma Sex Offender Registration Act.

(d) Restricted Registry. OKDHS denies the application to become an adoptive parent, when the applicant is a registrant on the Restricted Registry, per 10 O.S. § 405.3.

340:75-15-87. Assessing the adoptive applicant

(a) Resource family assessment (RFA). Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) or the RFA contractor conducts an assessment into the adoptive applicant's and each household member's background and other circumstances and conditions to determine if the home is suitable and can provide a safe environment for the child in OKDHS custody available for adoption, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-7-18.

(b) Photographs. The adoptive applicant provides recent photographs of himself or herself as a component of the assessment summary.

(c) Required pre-service training. The adoptive applicant must complete required pre-service training designed to evaluate the strengths, needs, and challenges associated with parenting a child and meeting his or her special needs, per OAC 340:75-7-14.

340:75-15-88. Resource Family Assessment (RFA) disposition

(a) Adoptive applicant approval or denial. Upon completion of the RFA, a decision regarding approval or denial is made after assessing the information gathered. The Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) may approve or deny the adoptive applicant when he or she does or does not meet requirements, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-15.

(b) Exceptions to assessment guidelines. Upon the applicant's or child welfare specialist's request, DHS may, at its discretion, grant an exception of specific rules or standards that do not compromise a child's safety and do not violate federal or state statutes. Exceptions may be granted, provided adequate standards affording protection for the child's health, safety, and welfare exist and will be met in lieu of the exact requirements of the rule or standard in question.

(c) Adoptive applicant denial. Denial reasons may include, but are not limited to:

- (1) poor management of available income or a lack of stable, adequate income to meet the applicant's or household needs;
- (2) a home environment that is inadequate to accommodate the addition of children into the applicant's home or that presents health or safety concerns;
- (3) the applicant or any person residing in the home with a history of:
 - (A) alleged or confirmed child abuse or neglect; or
 - (B) arrests or convictions;
- (4) the applicant who has, or is living with a person with a criminal history for any felony, a relevant misdemeanor, or pending charges;
- (5) unstable and unsatisfactory relationships in the household;
- (6) the applicant's health or any other condition that would impede his or her ability to parent, provide age-appropriate activities, and care for a child on a permanent basis into the child's adult years;
- (7) the applicant's or household member's behavioral health that would impede the applicant's ability to care for a child;
- (8) references that are guarded or have reservations in recommending the applicant;
- (9) the applicant, who does not complete the required pre-service training within one year of application;
- (10) the applicant, who applied to adopt a child of a certain age, race, or other characteristic that DHS reasonably believes may not be available for adoption in the foreseeable future, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-15-84; or
- (11) one or more factors regarding the applicant or household members or conditions in the home, renders the applicant or home environment inappropriate as an adoptive resource.

340:75-15-93. Centralized Paternity Registry

The Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) is required by Section 7506-1.1 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes to maintain a Centralized Paternity Registry (CPR) to protect the parental rights of an alleged or presumed father who may wish to affirmatively assume responsibility for a child(ren) he may have fathered. It is also maintained to expedite adoptions of children whose biological fathers are unwilling to assume responsibility for their children by registering with the CPR or otherwise acknowledging their children.

(1) Notice of Plan for Adoption per Section 7503-3. 1 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes. Form 04AN018E, Notice of Plan for Adoption, may be used by OKDHS, a licensed child-placing agency, or attorney to notify an alleged or presumed father of a child born out of wedlock that the birth mother is considering adoptive placement for the child. The notice may be served personally or sent by certified mail, before or after the birth of the child. Whether personally served or sent by certified mail, the notice may not be delivered to, or signed for, by anyone other than the alleged or presumed father.

(A) The notice must include:

- (i) the identity of the mother;
- (ii) a statement that the mother is pregnant and the estimated date of birth;
- (iii) that the notified person may be the father of the child; and
- (iv) that a plan for the adoption of the child is being considered by the mother.

(B) The notice must include Form 04AN019E, Form Enclosed with Notice of Plan for Adoption, to be completed and signed by the alleged or presumed father indicating his acknowledgment or denial of paternity of the child.

(C) The notice must also inform the alleged or presumed father that failure to file Form 04AN019E within 30 calendar days of service constitutes waiver of right to receive further notice of adoption proceedings or proceedings to terminate parental rights and a denial of interest in the minor child can result in termination of parental rights and adoption without his consent. If Form 04AN019E is returned to OKDHS, the attorney, or child-placing agency within 30 calendar days, indicating the alleged or presumed father's interest in the child, he has a right to notice of any adoption or termination of parental rights proceedings regarding the child. The return of the form within 30 calendar days is the only action by which the alleged or presumed father retains the right to notice of any adoption or termination of parental rights proceedings regarding the child.

- (i) Filing Form 04AN019E alone does not establish parental rights or constitute the bearing of parental responsibilities.

(ii) Filing or failing to file the form does not affect the duty of the alleged or presumed father to support the mother and child during the pregnancy or after the child's birth.

(iii) If a petition to adopt the child is not filed within 12 months of the placement of the child for adoption, failure to mail Form 04AN019E does not affect the alleged or presumed father's parental rights and responsibilities.

(iv) Failure to give such notice is not grounds available to the alleged or presumed father to establish that he was denied knowledge of the pregnancy.

(v) Receipt by the alleged or presumed father of Form 04AN018E, Notice of Plan for Adoption, or return by the alleged or presumed father of Form 04AN019E does not obligate the mother to place the child for adoption.

(D) If Form 04AN019E is not received by CPR within 30 calendar days from the date Form 04AN018E is served, it constitutes waiver of the alleged or presumed father's right to receive further notice of any adoption or termination of parental rights proceedings regarding the child, and further constitutes a denial of interest in the minor which shall result in a termination of parental rights and approval for adoption without his consent.

(2) Notice of filing of paternity action by alleged or presumed father. Per Section 7503-3.2 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes, if an alleged or presumed father files a paternity action after receiving notice of or having knowledge of a potential adoption from OKDHS, an attorney, or child-placing agency, he notifies the attorney for the petitioner for adoption, OKDHS, or the child-placing agency that the paternity action has been filed.

(A) This notice includes:

- (i) the name of the court;
- (ii) the case number; and
- (iii) the date of filing.

(B) If the name or location of the attorney for the petitioner for adoption or the child-placing agency placing the child for adoption cannot be ascertained by the alleged or presumed father, the alleged or presumed father notifies the petitioner for adoption. If the petitioner for adoption is also unknown to the alleged or presumed father, the alleged or presumed father notifies CPR of OKDHS.

(C) Upon a motion of the prospective adoptive parent, the court having jurisdiction over the paternity action, if it is filed in Oklahoma, allows the prospective adoptive parent to intervene in the paternity action and have the opportunity to be heard and seek custody or visitation. If a proceeding for adoption or for termination of parental rights of the alleged or presumed father and a paternity action by the alleged or presumed father regarding the same minor are both pending in the courts of this state, upon motion of any party, the court having jurisdiction over the paternity action transfers the paternity proceeding to the court in which the adoption or termination proceeding is pending, whereupon the two proceedings may be considered.

(3) Alleged or presumed father per Sections 7506-1. 1 through 7506-1.2 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes. CPR protects the parental rights of an alleged or presumed father who may wish to affirmatively assume responsibility for a child(ren) he may have fathered.

(A) The father or alleged or presumed father of a child born out of wedlock may file Form 04AN016E, Centralized Paternity Registry, indicating:

- (i) a notice of desire to receive notification of an adoption proceeding concerning the child he has fathered;
- (ii) a notice of intent to claim paternity of the child he has fathered;
- (iii) an instrument acknowledging paternity of the child he has fathered;
- (iv) a waiver of interest concerning the child he has fathered; or
- (v) any other claim for acknowledging or denial of paternity as authorized by law.

(B) The CPR is also available to any person who:

- (i) has been adjudicated by a court of another state or territory of the United States to be the father of a child by filing a certified copy of the court order with the CPR; or
- (ii) has been adjudicated by a court of Oklahoma to be the father of a child born out of wedlock.

(C) A person filing a notice of desire to receive notification of an adoption proceeding concerning the child, a notice of intent to claim paternity of a child, or an acknowledgment of paternity provides his current address and notifies the CPR of any change of address. If the alleged or presumed father does not have an address where he is able to receive notice of an adoption, the alleged or presumed father may designate another person as an agent for the purpose of receiving notice of adoption. The alleged or presumed father must provide OKDHS with the agent's name and the address at which the agent may be served. Service of notice upon the agent constitutes service of notice upon the alleged or presumed father. If the agent cannot be served at the address provided by the alleged or presumed father, as provided in this subparagraph, and if the alleged or presumed father cannot be served because his whereabouts are unknown, the alleged or presumed father may be served by publication.

(D) An unrevoked notice of intent to claim paternity of a child or an instrument acknowledging paternity may be introduced in evidence in any proceeding in which it may be relevant.

(E) An alleged or presumed father may waive his right to notice of termination of parental rights proceeding on Form 04AN019E filed with the CPR or by failing to register with the CPR after receiving a Notice of Plan for Adoption.

(F) An alleged or presumed father may waive his right to notice of adoption proceedings by waiving notice on a form filed with the CPR or by failing to register with the Paternity Registry after receiving Form 04AN018E.

(G) OKDHS, upon request, provides the names and addresses of persons listed with the CPR to any court, authorized agency, or other persons deemed necessary to receive such information by OKDHS. OKDHS provides CPR information to attorneys or licensed child-placing agencies upon request. The information is not divulged to any other person except upon order of a court for good cause shown.

PART 12. ADOPTION PLACEMENT SERVICES

340:75-15-103. Pre-adoption placement services

(a) Pre-adoption services. Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) pre-adoption services assist the prospective adoptive family to incorporate the child into the adoptive family during the trial-adoption (TA) placement period, prior to the legal finalization of the adoption.

(1) Disclosure of identifying or non-identifying background information. OKDHS provides medical, psychological, educational, and social history including the child profile, to the adoptive parent authorized to adopt the specific child.

(2) Counseling services. The adoptive family is fully informed of the child's history of psychological counseling and referred for services at the time of TA placement, when needed. Under Medicaid, all outpatient psychological services except for the first hour of psychological evaluation must have prior authorization.

(3) Medical services. Children in a TA may be eligible to receive Medicaid (SoonerCare) services.

(4) Pre-finalization adoption assistance. Adoption assistance may be provided to the adoptive family at the time the child enters the adoptive home as a legal-risk or legally-free adoptive placement, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-15-128 through 340:75-15-128.6. Adoption assistance may include a monthly payment, Medicaid (SoonerCare), or both.

(5) Child care. Employment-related child care is available for children in trial- adoptive placement, per OAC 340:75-7-65.

(6) Comprehensive Home-Based Services (CHBS). CHBS are available to assist trial-adoptive and post-adoptive families who are experiencing difficulty and are at risk of a placement disruption, per OAC 340:75-1-151.

(7) Family assessment and service plan. A written service plan is completed for Quadrant 1 children in TA placement more than 30-calendar days; or Quadrant 2 children prior to TA placement.

(8) Adoptive parent support groups. Adoptive parent support groups provide social and emotional support to the adopted child and his or her parent. The resource specialist informs the adoptive parent of support group benefits.

(9) Notice to pre-adoptive parent of deprived court hearing. The adoption or resource specialist provides the pre-adoptive parent, who is providing care for the child, with notice of reviews or deprived court hearings that are held regarding the child, and the court provides an opportunity for the pre-adoptive parent to be heard.

(b) TA period. When the child has no prior relationship with the adoptive family, the TA period is usually six months. When the child is being adopted by a relative or foster family with whom the child has resided for the preceding six months, the TA period may be reduced when the child and family have successfully adjusted to the placement. The adoptive parent is advised to retain the services of an attorney or those of an OKDHS Legal Services attorney when the child is placed in the adoptive home to complete the legal finalization of the adoption by the court.

(c) Pre-finalization disruption. The TA placement may disrupt prior to finalization when the adoptive parent requests the child be moved from the adoptive home or OKDHS determines the placement poses a risk to the child.

340:75-15-115. Relative contact agreement

(a) Post-adoption relative contact agreement. When a child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody is placed for adoption, the adoptive parents may voluntarily enter into a written agreement with the child's birth relatives, including the birth parents, for post-adoption contact with the child, per Section 1-4-813 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes. The post-adoption relative contact agreement is issued by the court in a separate instrument at the time the adoption decree is entered, when the court finds the relative contact agreement:

- (1) is voluntary;
- (2) does not pose a threat to the safety of the child; and
- (3) is in the child's best interests.

(b) Definition of birth relative. Birth relative means a parent, stepparent, grandparent, great-grandparent, sibling, uncle, or aunt of a minor adoptee. This relationship may be by blood or marriage. A sibling relationship may be by whole or half-blood, marriage, or affinity through a common legal or biological parent. For an Indian child, birth relative includes members of the extended family as defined by the laws or customs of the Indian child's tribe or, in the absence of laws or customs, is a person who is 18 years of age, and who is the Indian child's great-grandparent, grandparent, aunt, uncle, brother, sister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, niece, nephew, first or second cousin, or stepparent, per the Indian Child Welfare Act, Section 1903 of Title 25 of the United States Code.

(c) Visitation and contact with siblings. When a child, who is separated from a sibling, is placed for adoption, DHS facilitates ongoing sibling contact or visitation by providing the adoptive parents with:

- (1) information about the importance of sibling relationships to the child placed for adoption;
- (2) methods to maintain sibling relationships;
- (3) information about the child's siblings; provided, the address where the siblings reside is not disclosed unless authorized by a court order for good cause shown; and
- (4) encouragement to continue post-adoption contact between the child and the child's siblings.

(d) Post-adoption relative contact agreement terms. The post-adoption relative contact agreement terms are limited. When the child does not have an existing relationship with the birth relative, the contact is limited to the sharing of information about the child. When the child has an existing relationship with the birth relative, the relative contact agreement may include provisions for:

- (1) visitation between the child and the birth relatives;
- (2) contact between the child or an adoptive parent and the birth relatives, or both;
- (3) the adoptive parent to facilitate sibling contact or visitation; and
- (4) sharing information about the child.

(e) Post-adoption relative contact agreement requirements. A post-adoption relative contact agreement is not legally enforceable, unless the:

- (1) child is represented by an attorney for purposes of consent to the post-adoption relative contact agreement;
- (2) terms of the post-adoption relative contact agreement are contained in a written court order entered in accordance with the statute;
- (3) court order is filed in the adoption action by separate instrument at the time the adoption decree is entered; and
- (4) terms of the post-adoption relative contact agreement were approved in writing by the adoptive parents, the birth relative who desires to be a party to the agreement, the child, when 12 years of age and older, and, when the child is in the custody of DHS, a DHS representative.

(f) Approved post-adoption relative contact agreement. The adoption specialist provides a copy of the post-adoption relative contact agreement approved by the court to the adoptive parent, foster parent, relative caretaker, the child's legal guardian, the child's siblings, or others as necessary to facilitate the relative contact or visitation.

(g) Failure to comply with post-adoption relative contact agreement. Failure to comply with the post-adoption relative contact agreement as ordered by the court is not grounds for:

- (1) setting aside an adoption decree;

(2) revocation of a written consent to an adoption after the consent becomes irrevocable; or

(3) preventing the child's adoptive parent from changing residence within or outside of the state.

(h) Post-adoption relative contact agreement jurisdiction. The enforcement of a court-ordered post-adoption relative contact agreement continues under the jurisdiction of the court granting the petition for adoption.

(i) Compliance with post-adoption relative contact agreement. The court may not order compliance with a post-adoption relative contact agreement unless the court finds that the party seeking the enforcement participated in good faith in mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceedings regarding the conflict prior to the filing of the enforcement action and, that the enforcement is in the child's best interests. Documentary evidence or offers of proof may serve as the basis for the court's decision regarding enforcement.

(j) Attorney fees and costs. The prevailing party may be awarded reasonable attorney fees and costs. All mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceeding fees and costs are borne by each party, excluding the child.

(k) Modification or termination of post-adoption relative contact agreement. The post-adoption relative contact agreement may be modified or terminated when the court finds the modification or termination is necessary to serve the child's best interests and is agreed to by all parties, including the child, when he or she is 12 years of age and older.

PART 14. POST-ADOPTION SERVICES

340:75-15-124. Post-adoption services

Post-adoption services are an essential component of the adoption program. The Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) provides post-adoption services to assist the adoptive family, maintain the child in the home, and support adult adoptees and birth family members coping with the lifelong impact of adoption. DHS post-adoption services include:

- (1) Adoption assistance. DHS administers federal and state adoption assistance programs to assist with the adoption of children with special needs, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-15-7 and 340:75-15-128.
- (2) Comprehensive Home-Based Services (CHBS). DHS provides CHBS for adoptive families through Oklahoma Children's Services, per OAC 340:75-1-151.
- (3) Medicaid (SoonerCare) services. Children who are approved for adoption assistance may be eligible for services within the scope of the Medicaid (SoonerCare) program. The adoptive family is responsible for any medical services provided to the child that are not within the scope of the Medicaid (SoonerCare) program.
- (4) Respite vouchers. Adoptive families may request respite vouchers.
- (5) Information disclosure after finalization.
 - (A) Adoptee and birth family. DHS provides upon request, a copy of Form 04AN347E, Medical and Social History Report for Adoption, and any additional medical and social history information in its possession to:
 - (i) the adoptive parent or legal guardian of the minor adopted child;
 - (ii) an adoptee 18 years of age and older; or
 - (iii) an individual 18 years of age and older, whose biological parents' parental rights were terminated and who was never adopted.
 - (B) Direct descendant. DHS provides medical information, only upon request, to:
 - (i) an adult direct descendant of a deceased adopted person;
 - (ii) an adult direct descendant of a deceased person whose biological parents' parental rights were terminated and who was never adopted;
 - (iii) the parent or guardian of a minor direct descendant of a deceased adopted person; or
 - (iv) the parent or guardian of a minor direct descendant of a deceased person whose biological parents' rights were terminated and who was never adopted.

(C) Genetic information. DHS provides upon request, a copy of supplemental genetic information about an adopted person, or about a person, whose parental rights were terminated that became available after the issuance of the final decree of adoption, or the termination order to a biological parent or biological relative of:

- (i) an adopted person; and
- (ii) a person whose biological parents' rights were terminated and was never adopted.

(D) Post-finalization. Additional information received about an adopted child, the adopted child's biological parents, or the adopted child's genetic history is submitted to DHS after the adoption is finalized and retained in the adoption record as long as the records are maintained. A copy is filed with the clerk of the court that issued the decree of adoption and made a part of the court's permanent record.

(E) Tribal information. DHS may not provide identifying information directly to an adult adoptee to establish tribal rights or membership, but will provide identifying information to the tribe, the court, or Secretary of the Interior for purposes of establishing Native American heritage.

(F) Inheritance. Termination of parental rights does not terminate the child's right to inherit from the biological parent. DHS assists biological parents with locating heirs and acts as an intermediary, upon request.

(6) Mutual-Consent Voluntary Registry. The Mutual-Consent Voluntary Registry allows adult adoptees and persons separated from birth family members to receive assistance locating birth family members, when parental rights were terminated, per OAC 340:75-15-132.

(7) Confidential Intermediary Search Program. A person may request the services of a confidential intermediary to search for members of his or her birth family, per OAC 340:75-15-133.

340:75-15-126. Insurance coverage

Section 6059 of Title 36 of the Oklahoma Statutes provides that health insurance benefits applicable for any natural child of an insured or subscriber must be payable regarding an adopted child of the insured or subscriber from the date of placement of the child in the custody of the insurer or subscriber, provided the insurer is notified in writing within 31 days.

(1) Coverage includes the necessary care and treatment of medical conditions existing prior to the date of placement of the child in the adoptive home.

(2) Placement is defined as the assumption of physical custody and the financial responsibility for the support and care of the adopted child.

340:75-15-128. Adoption Assistance Program

(a) The Adoption Assistance Program secures and supports safe and permanent adoptive families for children with special needs, as defined in Public Law 96-272 in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody. Adoption assistance provides adoptive families of any socio-economic status with social services and medical and financial support to care for children considered difficult to place. The Adoption Assistance Program supplements the adoptive family's resources, as adoptive parents are responsible for the child's support.

(b) OKDHS promotes the availability of adoption assistance for eligible children with special needs by providing information to families who apply for adoption assistance through OKDHS.

(1) OKDHS provides information to licensed, in-state, child-placing agencies and federally-recognized Indian tribes about the availability of adoption assistance for eligible children with special needs.

(2) OKDHS is not responsible for seeking out and informing individuals who are unknown to OKDHS about the possibility of adoption assistance for children with special needs who are also unknown to OKDHS.

(c) The federal adoption assistance program provides assistance to eligible children with special needs. When the child is not eligible for federally-funded adoption assistance, he or she may be eligible for state-funded assistance, per the Oklahoma Adoption Assistance Act, Section 7510-1.3 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

340:75-15-128.1. Adoption assistance benefits

(a) Adoption assistance benefits. Adoption assistance benefits may include Medicaid Medical coverage, a monthly assistance payment, child care, reimbursement of non-recurring adoption expenses, or any combination thereof. Children eligible for Title IV-E assistance are also eligible for available Title XX services.

(1) Medicaid. The Title IV-E child may be eligible for the Oklahoma Medicaid program or the Medicaid program in the state of his or her residence. All necessary medical and dental care under the scope of the Title IV-E program is compensable at usual and customary charges, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-15-129.

(2) Monthly adoption assistance payments. A child who is considered difficult to place may be eligible for a monthly adoption assistance payment. The standard monthly adoption assistance payments set out in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) Appendix C-20, Child Welfare Services Rates Schedule, correspond to the child's age.

(3) Difficulty of care (DOC). The DOC descriptions set out in OKDHS Appendix C-20, are guidelines from which the most appropriate DOC rate is determined for the eligible child. Every situation is not clearly defined in a DOC rate category and OKDHS, when determining the appropriate rate category:

- (A) considers the child's age;
- (B) requests documentation from the adoptive family and professional sources outside of the adoptive family that verify the child's needs, conditions, or behaviors as they correspond to a rate category; and
- (C) requires updated documentation annually to establish a child's ongoing DOC eligibility.

(4) Child care.

(A) OKDHS may pay for child care services as a part of adoption assistance for the child who is in foster care, per Section 1355.20 of Title 45 Chapter XIII of The Code of Federal Regulations, at the time of approval for adoption assistance; provided, a child determined eligible, will retain eligibility in any subsequent adoption. The child is eligible, when:

- (i) the child is 5 years of age and younger;
- (ii) the child is adopted through OKDHS or a federally-recognized Indian tribe as defined by the Federal and Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Acts;
- (iii) the child was adopted by the parent applying for benefits;
- (iv) the adoptive parent applying for benefits has fully executed Form 04AN002E, Adoption Assistance Agreement, that lists child care as an adoption assistance benefit for the child and includes Form 04AN033E, Post-Adoption Child Care Referral, when the child resides in Oklahoma; and

(v) employment or formal training is verified and child care is approved for only the days and hours the adoptive parent works or is attending formal training; however, in a two-parent family, care may be approved for sleep time when one parent works or attends school during the day and the other parent works during normal night time sleep hours.

(B) Child care is:

(i) negotiated between OKDHS and the adoptive parent, but cannot exceed the one star child care center rate as listed on OKDHS Appendix C-4-B, Child Care Provider Rate Schedule, for a child residing outside of Oklahoma;

(ii) approved by Post-Adoption Services;

(iii) included in Form 04AN002E;

(iv) paid from Child Welfare Services funds when the child resides outside of Oklahoma; and

(v) not available when the adoptive family negotiated its Oklahoma adoption assistance rate payment to take into consideration another state's payment rate.

(5) Non-recurring adoption expenses. Certain non-recurring adoption expenses incurred by, or on behalf of, the adoptive parent in connection with the adoption of a child with special needs may be reimbursed.

(A) Reimbursable non-recurring adoption expenses are:

(i) the reasonable and necessary adoption fees, court costs, attorney fees, and other expenses directly related to the legal adoption of a child with special needs;

(ii) not incurred in violation of federal or state law; and

(iii) not reimbursed from other sources or funds.

(B) Financial reimbursement is available to the adoptive parent of a child with special needs for:

(i) adoption fees;

(ii) court costs;

(iii) attorney fees;

(iv) an adoptive home study fee;

(v) costs incurred for family members to obtain health and psychological reports;

(vi) supervision of the adoptive placement by another agency;

(vii) transportation, food, and lodging for the adoptive parent and child during the placement process; and

(viii) the cost of fingerprinting paid for by the adoptive parent.

(6) Non-recurring adoption expense reimbursement amounts. When siblings are placed together with the same adoptive family, separate reimbursement for non-recurring expenses is considered for each child and may be approved for each eligible child, per OAC 340:75-15-128.1.

(A) When the adoption is finalized, non-recurring adoption expense reimbursement does not exceed the documented actual expense incurred, up to a $1,200 maximum per child, without Post-Adoption Services approval.

(B) When the trial adoption disrupts prior to finalization, the prospective adoptive parent may be eligible for a reimbursement of up to $500 per child.

(7) Non-recurring adoption expense approval and payment. Prior to adoption finalization, the reimbursement request for non-recurring adoption expenses is approved by Post-Adoption Services and the adoptive parent and OKDHS designee must sign Form 04AN002E. Payment is made directly to the adoptive parent for approved amounts shown on the itemized statement as paid in full after adoption finalization. Payment is made directly to a vendor, such as an attorney or private adoption agency when the itemized statement indicates the adoptive parent did not pay the fee in full.

(8) Interstate adoption reimbursements. OAC 340:75-15-128.5(b) provisions apply to reimbursement of non-recurring adoption expenses in interstate adoptions.

(9) Adoption assistance overpayments. Post-Adoption Services notifies the adoptive parent when an overpayment occurs. The adoptive parent is responsible for repayment, even when he or she is not responsible for the overpayment.

(A) Post-Adoption Services contacts the adoptive parent regarding an overpayment and discusses the amount to be automatically deducted from the monthly adoption assistance payment, when applicable.

(i) The adoptive parent is notified of the overpayment agreement plan by certified mail. When the adoptive parent receives the overpayment agreement plan, he or she signs the plan and returns it to OKDHS.

(ii) The overpayment agreement plan does not exceed 30 months from the date of receipt of the written notification of the plan.

(iii) The minimum monthly payment toward the overpayment is not less than $150, with the exception of the final payment.

(B) Post-Adoption Services notifies OKDHS Legal Services when the adoptive parent does not respond to the written notification or fails to comply with the overpayment agreement plan.

(C) A referral is made to Office of Inspector General when fraud is suspected.

(10) Adoption assistance agreement modification. Form 04AN002E may be modified and the adoption assistance payment amount readjusted periodically when warranted by a change in circumstances and with the adoptive parent's agreement.

(A) The adoption assistance payment amount may not be automatically adjusted without the adoptive parent's agreement except when an across-the-board reduction or increase in OKDHS foster care reimbursement or DOC rates occurs.

(B) Form 04AN002E modification is prospective only and is not retroactive.

(C) When the parties cannot come to an agreement, OKDHS establishes the payment amount.

(D) The adoptive parent must inform OKDHS of circumstances that make the child ineligible for adoption assistance payments or eligible for payments of a different amount. OKDHS may require:

(i) the adoptive parent to provide updated documentation of the child's ongoing eligibility for the payment amount received; and

(ii) a licensed or certified examiner's evaluation of the child when the child's eligibility is in question.

(E) The agreement may be extended and the child may continue to receive assistance until the day of his or her 19th birthday or high school graduation, whichever comes first. The request to extend adoption assistance beyond 18 years of age includes:

(i) a statement from school personnel documenting the child's high school attendance and anticipated graduation date;

(ii) a statement documenting the child's pursuit of a General Educational Development (GED); or

(iii) medical or psychological assessments, signed by a licensed physician, psychiatrist, or clinician describing the child's conditions including diagnosis, treatment, and prognosis conducted and dated within one year preceding the child's 18th birthday.

(11) Adoption assistance agreement termination. When Form 04AN002E is signed and in effect, adoption assistance terminates when one of the conditions in (A) through (E) of this paragraph occurs.

(A) The child reaches 18 years of age. The child may continue to receive assistance until the day of his or her 19th birthday, or high school graduation, whichever comes first.

(B) The adoptive parent fails to submit a request for adoption assistance to extend beyond 18 years of age.

(C) OKDHS determines the adoptive parent is no longer legally responsible for the child's support.

(D) OKDHS determines the adoptive parent is no longer providing financial support to the child. When a child is placed in out-of-home care, including psychiatric, residential, therapeutic, or foster family care, and the adoptive parent continues to provide financial support for the child, adoption assistance may continue. The payment rate may be renegotiated.

(E) The child's adoptive parents are deceased.

(12) Death of adoptive parents or adoption dissolution. A child who was Title IV-E eligible, met the criteria for special needs, and was receiving adoption assistance at the time of the death of the child's adoptive parents or at the time the adoption dissolved may be eligible for federally-funded or state-funded adoption assistance when adopted again. For the child to be eligible for adoption assistance, the child at re-application must meet the special needs criteria and all requirements in (A) through (D) of this paragraph are completed.

(A) The prospective adoptive parent applies on Form 04AN001E, Adoption Assistance Application.

(B) The prospective adoptive parent provides a district or tribal court copy of a file-stamped:

(i) Petition for Adoption, when requesting pre-finalization adoption assistance for children in state or tribal custody; or

(ii) Final Decree of Adoption, when requesting adoption assistance to begin after adoption finalization.

(C) OKDHS documents the child was receiving federally-funded or state-funded assistance at the time of the death of the adoptive parent or at the time the adoption dissolved.

(D) OKDHS receives documentation that the new adoptive parent is not the biological parent.

(13) Adoptive-family relocation to another state. When OKDHS uses Form 04AN002E, all subsequent adoption assistance agreement modifications remain under the control and authority of OKDHS regardless of the adoptive parent's state of residence.

(14) Federally-funded adoption assistance eligibility. To be considered eligible for federally-funded adoption assistance, the child must meet criteria, per OAC 340:75-15-128.2, and be placed for adoption in accordance with applicable state and local laws.

(c) The adoptive parent. There is no means test for the prospective adoptive parent to determine eligibility for adoption assistance. Title IV-E adoption assistance benefits are not available when a prospective adoptive parent has a felony conviction for:

- (1) physical assault, battery, or a drug-related offense when the conviction occurs within the five-year period preceding the application date;

340:75-15-128.3. State-funded adoption assistance eligibility requirements

(a) Per Section 7510-1.3 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes, the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) establishes and administers an ongoing program of adoption assistance for the eligible, special needs child in DHS custody or a federally-recognized Indian tribe, as defined by the federal Indian Child Welfare Act and the Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Act, who is not eligible for federally-funded adoption assistance benefits.

(1) Adoption assistance benefits under this program are provided out of funds appropriated to DHS for the maintenance of the child in foster care or made available to DHS from other sources.

(2) Adoption assistance benefits under this program may include Medicaid (SoonerCare) coverage, a monthly adoption assistance payment, reimbursement of non-recurring adoption expenses, child care, or any combination of benefits.

(3) To comply with Section 471(a)(14) of the Social Security Act and Section 1356.21(n) of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, DHS limits the number of children under its responsibility, who remain in substitute care for over 24 months, to no more than 30 percent of the children in care during any fiscal year.

(b) DHS may determine a child eligible for state-funded adoption assistance when he or she does not meet Title IV-E adoption assistance eligibility requirements and, at the time of adoptive placement:

(1) is not 18 years of age;

(2) was in court-ordered DHS custody or a federally-recognized Indian tribe as defined by the federal and Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Acts; and

(3) met the definition of a child with special needs, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-15-128.4.

(c) OAC 340:75-15-128.1 addresses the adoption assistance benefits an eligible child may receive. When DHS determines a child is eligible for an adoption assistance payment, DHS sets the payment amount within the range of payments in Appendix C-20, Child Welfare Services Rates Schedule, based on the child's needs and the adoptive parent's circumstances. The other provisions of OAC 340:75-15-128.1 regarding overpayments, termination or modification, death of adoptive parent, or dissolution of the adoption, and relocation by adoptive parent to another state also apply to state-funded adoption assistance.

(d) OAC 340:75-15-128.5 applies to state-funded adoption assistance except as specifically indicated otherwise.

(e) A child may be eligible for state-funded adoption assistance, as determined on a case-by-case basis in consultation with Post-Adoption Services and DHS Director or designee approval, when either potential adoptive parent has a felony conviction, per OAC 340:75-15-88.

(f) The only exception to the requirement in OAC 340:75-15-128.5 is that Form 04AN002E, Adoption Assistance Agreement, must be signed by the adoptive parent and DHS before adoption finalization, when the child is determined to have a causative, pre-existing condition not identified or known prior to adoption finalization that resulted in a severe medical or psychiatric condition requiring extensive treatment, hospitalization, or institutionalization. The child must also meet the definition of a child with special needs, per OAC 340:75-15-128.4.

(1) The application procedure is the same as that for Title IV-E applications made after adoption finalization, per OAC 340:75-15-128.5. There is no requirement that the adoptive parent prevail at a fair hearing.

(2) The benefits are the same as those for state-funded adoption assistance approved prior to adoption finalization.

(3) When a child is eligible for a monthly adoption assistance payment, he or she may also be entitled to receive retroactive payments for the two months prior to the date the adoption assistance was approved, when requested, and documentation is produced that shows the child was receiving treatment or assessment during those two months.

340:75-15-128.4. Special needs determination

A child is determined to have special needs by meeting all criteria in (A) through (C) of this subsection and, to be eligible for:

(1) federally-funded adoption assistance, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-15-128.2;

(2) state-funded adoption assistance, per OAC 340:75-15-128.3; or

(3) reimbursement of non-recurring adoption expenses, per OAC 340:75-15-128.1.

(A) The child cannot return home. When Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) recommends the child not return to his or her parent's home, it is documented with:

(i) a Petition for Termination of Parental Rights;

- (ii) an Order of Termination of Parental Rights from a court of competent jurisdiction;
- (iii) a signed Relinquishment of Parental Rights, when the child is under the jurisdiction of the court;
- (iv) other official documentation when a child can be adopted per state or tribal law without parental rights termination or relinquishment; or
- (v) verification of the parent's death, when the child is orphaned.

(B) Special factors or conditions exist. OKDHS determines that one or more of the factors or conditions listed in (i) through (vii) of this subparagraph exists, and that the child may not be placed with the adoptive parent without adoption assistance.

(i) Physical disability. The child has a physical condition that adversely affects his or her day-to-day motor functioning.

(ii) Intellectual disability. The child has significantly sub-average, general cognitive capacity, motor-functioning, or both existing concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior, manifested during the developmental period adversely affecting a child's or youth's socialization and learning.

(iii) Age and type of placement. Eligibility based on the child's age and type of placement is determined according to (I) and (II) of this unit.

(I) Kinship placement. There is no age requirement when the child is placed with a relative who meets the specified degree of relationship per OAC 340:10-9-1.

(II) Non-related placement. When no other special needs are determined and the child is 8 years of age and older.

(iv) Sibling relationship.

(I) A child of any age and at least one sibling are placed in trial adoption status in the same home.

(II) A child younger than 3 years of age, not determined eligible to receive an adoption assistance payment at the time of the adoption assistance application, becomes eligible when there is a sibling relationship.

(III) When an adoptive child was not adoption-assistance eligible at the time of adoption and the adoptive parent accepts a sibling's placement within one year of the original child's adoption finalization date, the original child becomes eligible for an adoption assistance payment.

(IV) The effective date the adoption assistance payment begins for the original child is the eligibility date for the sibling.

(v) Emotional disorder. A child with an emotional disorder exhibits one or more of the characteristics in (I) through (IV) of this unit over an extended period of time and to a marked degree:

- (I) an inability to build or maintain satisfactory interpersonal relationships;
- (II) inappropriate types of behavior or feelings under normal circumstances;
- (III) a general pervasive mood of unhappiness or depression; or
- (IV) a tendency to develop physical symptoms or fears associated with personal problems.

(vi) Racial or ethnic factor. The child is American Indian, Hispanic or Latino, Asian, or African American and 3 years of age and older.

(vii) High risk of emotional disorder or physical or intellectual disability. The child who has a high risk of emotional disorder or physical or intellectual disability for conditions not currently being treated may qualify for adoption assistance. When no other special factors or conditions exist, a monthly payment is not approved until there are documented symptoms of emotional disorder or physical or intellectual disability. Indicators of high risk for emotional disorder or physical or intellectual disability are:

- (I) social and medical histories, such as the biological parents' or family member's emotional disorder;
- (II) events or life experiences, such as severe sexual abuse; or
- (III) prenatal exposure to drugs or alcohol.

(C) Unsuccessful efforts to place the child without assistance. A reasonable, but unsuccessful effort is made to place the child without adoption assistance, except where it is not in the child's best interests due to factors, such as a strong emotional tie to a foster parent who plans to adopt the child or placing the child with a relative.

(i) Documentation of efforts to place the child without adoption assistance is required and includes specific recruitment efforts for an adoptive parent who can meet the child's special needs.

(ii) Per OAC 340:75-15-128.5, Form 04AN001E, Adoption Assistance Application, states why the child may not be placed in an adoptive home without adoption assistance and include the:

- (I) specific factors that make it difficult to place the child;
- (II) efforts made to place the child without assistance; and
- (III) reasons it is not in the child's best interests to attempt to place the child for adoption without assistance.

340:75-15-128.5. Adoption assistance application process

(a) Adoption assistance application process. To apply for adoption assistance, the prospective adoptive parent, child-placing agency, or tribe completes Form 04AN001E, Adoption Assistance Application, for the child and family and submits it to Post-Adoption Services for approval.

(b) Interstate adoptive placements and adoption assistance. The adoption assistance program's provisions in the state where the application is made govern the terms of an adoption assistance agreement including, but not limited to, adoption assistance payment rates.

(1) Federally-funded adoption assistance applications for interstate adoptions are submitted to:

- (A) Oklahoma, when the child is in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) or tribal custody, receiving Title IV-E foster care, and placed for adoption in another state;
- (B) the other state, when an Oklahoma child is placed by any other entity;
- (C) the other state, when a child is placed in Oklahoma by another state's public child welfare agency or a tribal child in Title IV-E foster care of another state; or
- (D) Oklahoma, when a child is placed in Oklahoma from another state by any other entity and there is compliance with the provisions of the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children.

(2) State-funded adoption assistance applications for interstate adoptions are submitted to Oklahoma only when the child is in the legal custody of OKDHS or an Oklahoma tribe at the time of adoption, regardless of the adoptive parent's residence, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-15-128.3.

(3) A child placed in Oklahoma from another state is not eligible for Oklahoma's state-funded adoption assistance.

(c) Adoption assistance determination.

(1) Each Form 04AN002E, Adoption Assistance Agreement, is based on the case and its circumstances and not on predetermined guidelines.

(2) The adoption specialist advises adoptive parents of adoption assistance components including child care, coverage under Title

XIX Medicaid, reimbursement of non-recurring adoption expenses, and monthly assistance payments.

(A) When the child is eligible for Title IV-E adoption assistance, the:

(i) payment amount, if any, is agreed to by the adoptive parent and OKDHS.

(I) The adoption specialist considering the circumstances of the adopting parent and the child's needs, negotiates with the adoptive parent to reach an agreement on the adoption assistance amount.

(II) When the parties cannot agree, OKDHS establishes the payment amount;

(ii) payment amount is within the range of adoption assistance rates in OKDHS Appendix C-20, Child Welfare Services Rates Schedule; and

(iii) maximum amount cannot exceed the equivalent of the foster care maintenance payment that would have been paid during the period if the child had been in a foster family home. Therapeutic foster care (TFC) and intensive treatment family care (ITFC) do not constitute a foster family home in the context of adoption assistance rates.

(B) When the child is eligible for state-funded adoption assistance:

(i) OKDHS determines the payment amount within the range of rates in OKDHS Appendix C-20 based on the child's needs and the adoptive family's circumstances; and

(ii) the maximum adoption assistance amount cannot exceed the foster care maintenance payment that would have been paid during the period if the child was in a foster family home. TFC and ITFC do not constitute a foster family home in the context of adoption assistance rates.

(C) Federally-funded or state-funded adoption assistance, may have a zero payment agreement at the time Form 04AN002E is signed.

(i) The zero payment agreement applies, when:

(I) a risk of an emotional disorder or physical or intellectual disability exists, but is not manifested;

(II) no other special factor or condition exists; and

(III) the criteria in OAC 340:75-15-128.4 are met, documenting that the child cannot return home; and reasonable, but unsuccessful, efforts were made to place the child without adoption assistance.

(ii) When documented symptoms of an emotional disorder or physical or intellectual disability manifest, Form 04AN002E may be modified by agreement of the adoptive parent and Post-Adoption Services.

(D) When the child is eligible for a difficulty of care (DOC) rate, the DOC rate is the maximum monthly assistance payment for federally- or state-funded adoption assistance that would have been paid during the same period if the child was in a foster family home.

(E) OKDHS may require updated, supporting documentation from the adoptive parent at any time to determine continuing adoption assistance eligibility.

(F) The OKDHS Director or designee may approve adoption assistance payments on behalf of a child subject to Oklahoma's jurisdiction and residing in another state, up to the maximum foster care reimbursement allowable in the state of residence for regular foster care, per Section 7510-3.2 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

(d) Adoption Assistance Agreement. OKDHS and the adoptive parent sign Form 04AN002E prior to adoption finalization for Title IV-E federally-or state-funded adoption assistance, and non-recurring assistance.

(1) Adoption assistance is approved and the initial agreement signed prior to the child's 18th birthday.

(2) When OKDHS determines the child is eligible for adoption assistance, adoption assistance may commence at the time of adoptive placement or at the time of the adoption finalization.

(e) Adoption disruption.

(1) When a disruption occurs and there is an open line of service, the payment is end-dated for the disruption date on the child that disrupted from the placement.

(2) A closure letter is sent to the family terminating the agreement.

(3) The adoption specialist submits a new adoption assistance application for any child remaining in the TA placement. The new application reviews the special factor criteria for the child to determine if he or she continues to meet eligibility to receive adoption assistance benefits.

(4) The adoptive parent signs a new agreement after the application's approval.

(f) Annual adoption assistance reviews. When adoption assistance continues for more than one year, OKDHS:

(1) reviews Form 04AN002E, Adoption Assistance Agreement, annually;

(2) sends Form 04AN014E, Adoption Assistance Annual Review, annually to the adoptive parent to complete and return within the time requirement specified on the form; and

(3) reviews Form 04AN014E to determine if the adoptive parent is fulfilling the Adoption Assistance Agreement terms. The adoptive parent is required to:

(A) inform OKDHS when circumstances occur that make the child:

- (i) ineligible for adoption assistance payments; or
- (ii) eligible for adoption assistance payments in a different amount; and

(B) provide annual assurance that the child, who has attained the minimum age for compulsory school attendance under state law of the child's state of residence is:

- (i) enrolled in elementary or secondary education as determined under the law of the state or other jurisdiction in which the institution is located;
- (ii) instructed in elementary or secondary education at home in accordance with a home school law or other jurisdiction in which the home is located;
- (iii) in an independent study elementary or secondary education program in accordance with the law of the state or other jurisdiction in which the program is located, administered by the local school or school district; or
- (iv) incapable of attending school on a full-time basis due to a documented medical condition supported by regular updates.

(g) State-funded adoption assistance application after adoption finalization. Refer to OAC 340:75-15-128.3 for state-funded adoption assistance application provisions after adoption finalization.

(h) Title IV-E federally-funded adoption assistance application after adoption finalization. Section 1356.40(b)(1) of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations requires that Form 04AN002E is signed and effective at the time of, or prior to, the final adoption decree.

(1) Fair hearing when post adoption assistance benefits are denied. When the adoptive parent, who applied for Title IV-E adoption assistance after adoption finalization, believes benefits on behalf of the adopted child were wrongfully denied, the adoptive parent may request a fair hearing. When a fair hearing determines that the child was wrongfully denied benefits, OKDHS:

(A) determines if the child met all eligibility requirements at the time of the placement in the adoptive home and at finalization of the adoption; and

(B) may reverse the earlier decision to deny benefits.

(2) Post-adoption assistance eligibility. A child is eligible for Title IV-E post-adoption assistance, when:

(A) he or she met all eligibility requirements, per OAC 340:75-15-128.2 and 340:75-15-128.4 at the time of the placement in the adoptive home, and at finalization of the adoption; and

(B) the adoptive parent prevails in a fair hearing and proved a circumstance existed, such as:

- (i) relevant facts regarding the child, or the child's background were known, but not presented to the adoptive parent prior to the adoption finalization;

- (ii) denial of assistance was based upon a means test of the adoptive parent;
- (iii) an adoptive family disagrees with ineligibility determination; or
- (iv) OKDHS was required and failed to advise the adoptive parent of the availability of the Title IV-E adoption assistance program.

(3) Post-adoption assistance benefits. Post-adoption assistance benefits are the same as the benefits listed in OAC 340:75-15-128.1.

(4) Post-adoption assistance payments. When OKDHS approves post-adoption assistance payments, the payment period begins on the date of approval, which is either the finalization or placement date. OKDHS considers retroactive payments on a case-by-case basis; however, not for a period exceeding 18 months from the approval date or from the date the initial application for assistance was denied, whichever is less.

(5) Title IV-E or state-funded post-adoption assistance application procedures. The application for Title IV-E post-adoption assistance includes:

- (A) a court order documenting the child's removal from the home and that continuation in the home is contrary to the child's welfare;
- (B) Form 04AN001E;
- (C) Form 04AN038E, Post-Adoption Services Health Benefits Application;
- (D) a description of the child's special needs that meet the eligibility criteria;
- (E) documentation of the special needs from physician(s), licensed social worker(s), or other professionals, as required; and
- (F) criminal background search results.

(6) Title IV-E or state-funded post-adoption assistance application submission and review. The adoptive parent submits the application for Title IV-E and state-funded, post-adoption assistance to Post-Adoption Services. The Adoption Assistance Review Committee reviews the application.

340:75-15-128.6. Denial and fair hearing

(a) Notice of intent to deny adoption assistance. The application for adoption assistance may be denied when the child does not meet eligibility criteria. Form 04AN003E, Notice of Intent to Deny Adoption Assistance, is sent to the adoptive parent by certified mail.

(b) Additional review. The adoptive parent is given 30-calendar days from receipt of notice of intent to deny to provide additional information or documentation that might affect the approval of the original application. When the adoptive parent provides additional information, the application is reviewed by the Adoption Assistance Review Committee (Committee). When the Committee denies the application, the parent is notified on Form 04AN004E, Final Notice of Denial of Adoption Assistance, by certified mail.

(c) Fair hearing request.

(1) A fair hearing may be requested, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:2-5-91, by any adoptive parent, whose:

(A) application for adoption assistance was:

(i) denied or not acted upon with reasonable promptness; or

(ii) approved in an amount less than requested; or

(B) Form 04AN002E, the Adoption Assistance Agreement, was:

(i) modified without the adoptive parent's concurrence; or

(ii) terminated by the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS).

(2) The adoptive parent may request a fair hearing, when he or she received Form:

(A) 04AN003E and does not have additional information or documentation to submit for further consideration; or

(B) 04AN004E.

(3) The request for a fair hearing is submitted in writing to DHS using Form 13MP005E, Resource Family Request for a Fair Hearing, within 30-calendar days of the date of receipt of Form:

(A) 04AN003E; or

(B) 04AN004E, when a review of denial process is requested.

340:75-15-129. Interstate Compact on Adoption and Medical Assistance (ICAMA)

ICAMA strengthens protections for and provides assurances and procedures to promote the delivery of medical and other services when a child receiving adoption assistance moves to another state other than the one committed to make adoption assistance payments. Sections 7510-3.1 through 7510-3.3 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes provide that the Oklahoma Department of Human Services administers ICAMA. An adoptive family receiving adoption assistance that moves to another state continues to receive the assistance. When the move is between states who are ICAMA members, assistance is provided in locating medical or educational resources as needed.

(1) Services. The maintenance payments are made by the state that approved the adoption assistance. Medical payments provided through Medicaid may be paid by the approving state or residence state, depending on the Medicaid program in the residence state. Children who receive Title IV-E adoption assistance are eligible for Medicaid in their state of residence when that state has a Medicaid program. When an adoptive family receiving adoption assistance moves to Oklahoma, they are referred to the medical services eligibility worker in the county where they reside.

(2) Procedures. All ICAMA cases are processed by the Deputy Compact Administrator. Referrals are made to adoption specialists for assistance in locating community resources and to medical services for Medicaid (SoonerCare) eligibility determinations.

340:75-15-132. Mutual-Consent Voluntary Registry

Section 7508-1.2 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes (10 O.S. § 7508-1.2) requires the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) to administer, directly or through a contractor, a Mutual-Consent Voluntary Registry where the eligible person, who was separated from birth family members through adoption or termination of parental rights, may indicate a willingness to have his or her identity and whereabouts disclosed to birth family members, per 10 O.S. §§ 7508-1.1 through 7508-1.3.

(1) Persons eligible to register. The following persons may register with the Oklahoma Mutual-Consent Voluntary Registry:

- (A) an adult adopted person;
- (B) an adult person whose biological parents' parental rights were terminated;
- (C) the adoptive parent or guardian of an adopted person, who is under 18 years of age or who was declared mentally incompetent;

(D) when adopted person is deceased, the legal parent or guardian of any minor child or mentally-incompetent minor of the adopted person;

(E) when the adopted person is deceased, any adult descendant of the adopted person;

(F) the legal parent or guardian of a minor or a person who was declared mentally incompetent whose biological parent's parental rights were terminated;

(G) the legal parent or guardian of any minor or mentally-incompetent child of a deceased person whose biological parent's parental rights were terminated;

(H) the adult descendant of a deceased person whose biological parent's parental rights were terminated;

(I) a parent whose parental rights were voluntarily terminated by court order subsequent to the parent's consent or relinquishment, or involuntarily terminated by court order in an adoption, juvenile, guardianship, or domestic relations proceeding; or

(J) an adult biological relative of an adopted person.

(2) Persons ineligible to register. Persons ineligible to register are:

(A) an adult adopted person who has a minor biological sibling in the same adoptive family or in an adoptive or foster family or other placement whose location is known to the adult adopted person;

(B) an adult whose biological parent's parental rights were terminated and who has a biological sibling in the same family or in an adoptive or foster family or other placement whose location is known to that adult; or

(C) a person whose adoption or termination of parental rights proceedings did not occur in Oklahoma.

(3) Registration. An eligible person may register by submitting a notarized affidavit completed on DHS Form 04CI002E, Oklahoma Mutual Consent Voluntary Registry.

(4) Nondisclosure affidavit. When a biological relative, other than a biological parent registers, a DHS Mutual-Consent Voluntary Registry administrator ascertains from the State Registrar of Vital Statistics if an affidavit of nondisclosure by a biological parent is on file. When an affidavit of nondisclosure is on file with the State Registrar of Vital Statistics and has not been revoked, the DHS Mutual-Consent Registry administrator does not process a match with any biological relative of the parent who filed the affidavit of nondisclosure.

(5) Matching registrant with eligible persons.

(A) A DHS Mutual-Consent Voluntary Registry administrator processes each eligible person's affidavit on completed Form 04CI002E to attempt to match the registrant with other registered eligible persons who consented to have their identifying information released to the registrant. The processing may include, but is not limited to:

- (i) research from DHS records, when available; and
- (ii) from court records to determine conclusively if registrants match, when agency records are not available.

(B) When a match occurs, the Mutual-Consent Voluntary Registry administrator:

- (i) notifies each registrant, by the registrant's designated method only; and
- (ii) obtains the registrant's consent to an exchange of identifying information before any identifying information is released.

(C) DHS is not allowed to solicit consent for the release of identifying information from someone who has not registered. A confidential intermediary may invite an unregistered person to register when a registered person has expressed an interest in contacting the unregistered person.

(6) Record retention. Any affidavits filed and other information collected is retained for 22 years following the registration date.

340:75-15-133. Confidential-Intermediary Search Program

Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) administers the Confidential-Intermediary Search Program, which is limited to adoptions and termination of parental rights proceedings completed in Oklahoma, as required by Section 7508-1.3 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes. The Confidential-Intermediary Search Program permits a confidential search for certain adult members of an individual's birth family, with whom contact was lost through adoption or parental rights termination proceedings. Persons contacted under this program are directed to the Mutual-Consent Voluntary Registry where exchange of identifying information can be authorized.

(1) Confidential Intermediaries. Confidential intermediaries who conduct searches, are certified by, and can be contracted through OKDHS. Confidential intermediaries are subject to OKDHS criteria establishing:

- (A) eligibility standards;
- (B) training requirements;
- (C) standards of conduct and search procedures; and
- (D) fees paid by persons requesting assisted searches.

(2) Persons eligible for the Confidential-Intermediary Search Program. Persons who may request a search or be the subject of a search, are:

- (A) an adopted individual, 18 years of age and older (adult);
- (B) an adult person whose biological parent's parental rights were terminated;

- (C) the legal parent or guardian of a minor or mentally-incompetent minor of a deceased-adopted person;
- (D) an adult descendant of a deceased-adopted person;
- (E) the legal parent or guardian of a minor or mentally-incompetent minor of a deceased person whose biological parents' parental rights were terminated;
- (F) an adult descendant of a deceased person whose biological parents' parental rights were terminated;
- (G) a biological parent whose parental rights were voluntarily or involuntarily terminated by court order in an adoption, juvenile, guardianship, or domestic relations proceeding;
- (H) an adult biological sibling or biological grandparent of an adult-adopted person or of an adult person whose parents' parental rights were terminated; and
- (I) the sibling of a deceased-biological parent whose parental rights were voluntarily or involuntarily terminated by court order in an adoption, juvenile, guardianship, or domestic relations proceeding.

(3) Persons not eligible for the Confidential-Intermediary Search Program. Persons who are not eligible for a search are listed in (A) - (E) of this paragraph.

(A) Anyone who has not previously registered with the Mutual-Consent Voluntary Registry at least six months prior to submission of the application for the Confidential-Intermediary Search Program services.

(B) An adult adopted person who has a minor-biological sibling in the same adoptive family or in an adoptive or foster family or other placement whose location is known to the adult-adopted person.

(C) An adult whose biological parents' parental rights were terminated and who has a minor-biological sibling in the same family or in an adoptive or foster family or other placement, whose location is known to that adult.

(D) Anyone who previously initiated a search for a biological parent that refused to share identifying information, communicate, or meet, and who initiates a subsequent search for a biological relative of that biological parent.

(E) A birth relative, other than a birth parent, who applies to initiate a search or is the subject of a search, in which case the Confidential-Intermediary Search Program administrator ascertains from the State Registrar of Vital Statistics if an affidavit of nondisclosure by a birth parent of the adopted person is on file. When an affidavit of nondisclosure is filed and was not revoked, the Confidential-Intermediary Search Program administrator must decline to initiate a search at the request of or for any birth relative of the birth parent who filed the affidavit of nondisclosure, unless the person initiating the search can provide satisfactory proof that the birth parent who filed the affidavit of nondisclosure is deceased.

(4) Requirements of the confidential intermediary. Each potential confidential intermediary signs Form 04CI010E, Confidential Intermediary Oath of Confidentiality, which must be signed under penalty of perjury, prior to receiving OKDHS certification.

(5) Eligibility competencies and standards for confidential intermediaries. Persons contracting with OKDHS to perform searches must:

- (A) be 21 years of age and older;
- (B) complete a minimum of two years at an accredited college or university;
- (C) demonstrate a minimum of two years' experience, either professional or volunteer, in legal or psychological aspects of adoption and adoption search;
- (D) demonstrate expertise, through written references, approved training, and personal interviews, regarding:
 - (i) sensitivity to adoption-related issues;
 - (ii) an ability to maintain confidential files and information;
 - (iii) an ability to work within established legal, administrative, and ethical boundaries;
 - (iv) listening and communication skills, written and verbal;
 - (v) an ability to work with persons from diverse backgrounds and cultures;
 - (vi) personal attitudes toward adoption, search, and reunion to maintain professional neutrality; and
 - (vii) general and specific knowledge of search procedures and techniques utilized to successfully locate sought after parties;
- (E) provide a criminal background search with no record of arrests or convictions; and
- (F) attend continuing education and applicable training as required by OKDHS to maintain confidential intermediary certification, in the areas of adoption, search, and reunion.

(6) Procedures to initiate search by confidential intermediary. The eligible person described in paragraph (2) must:

- (A) complete an application to initiate a search;
- (B) provide satisfactory proof of identity to the Confidential-Intermediary Search Program administrator with a copy of a:
 - (i) birth certificate;
 - (ii) current driver license; or
 - (iii) Social Security Administration card; and
- (C) pay the OKDHS-established fee for initiating a search.

(7) Procedures for search by confidential intermediary.

- (A) The Confidential-Intermediary Search Program administrator assigns the search to a confidential intermediary. The confidential intermediary is permitted to inspect:

- (i) all court records relevant to the adoption or termination of parental rights proceedings;
- (ii) the original birth certificate, or other sealed adoption records, and other relevant records, when any, in the possession of the State Registrar of Vital Statistics; and
- (iii) all relevant records in OKDHS possession.

(B) The confidential intermediary:

- (i) presents documentary proof of the intermediary's certification and the referral form from the Confidential-Intermediary Search Program administrator to records custodians, prior to obtaining access to any of these records;
- (ii) may also inspect records in the possession of a private adoption agency or attorney, but only when the private agency or attorney voluntarily agrees to cooperate and permits the examination; and
- (iii) keeps all information obtained during the course of the investigation confidential, except when disclosure is permitted by the procedures described in search policy.

(C) When the confidential intermediary is able to locate the subject of the search, the confidential intermediary makes a discreet and confidential inquiry as to whether the person who is the subject of the search will consent to share identifying information, communicate, or meet with the person who initiated the search. The inquiry is made without disclosing the identifying information about the person who initiated the search.

- (i) When the person, who is the subject of the search, is willing to share identifying information, communicate, or meet with the person who initiated the search, the confidential intermediary must obtain this consent in a written document that is dated and signed by the subject of the search.
- (ii) When the person who is the subject of the search is not willing to share identifying information, communicate, or meet with the person who initiated the search, the confidential intermediary must attempt to obtain any non-identifying medical or social history information requested by the person who initiated the search.
- (iii) When the confidential intermediary discovers the subject of the search is deceased, the confidential intermediary includes this information in a written report. When the deceased subject is a biological parent, his or her identity is included.

(D) Any written consent and non-identifying information obtained by the confidential intermediary, along with a written report of the results of the intermediary's search and inquiry, is transmitted to the Confidential-Intermediary Search Program administrator.

(E) When the confidential intermediary is unable to locate the subject of the search, the confidential intermediary reports this to the Confidential-Intermediary Search Program administrator in writing and includes a description of the search efforts.

(F) When the confidential intermediary discovers that the identity of the biological father was unknown or not revealed by the biological mother, the confidential intermediary includes this information in a written report.

(8) Confidential-Intermediary Search Program

confidentiality. All searches done through the Confidential-Intermediary Search Program are confidential.

(A) Any information obtained by a confidential intermediary during the course of the investigation is kept strictly confidential and is disclosed and utilized only in the manner permitted by this Section.

(B) 10 O.S. § 7508-1.3 states that any person who discloses information obtained during the course of a search performed, per this Section in violation of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined up to $5,000 or imprisoned for a period of six months or both.

(9) Search records. Search records are examined, retained, and maintained as outlined in (A) - (D) of this paragraph.

(A) The OKDHS-contracted confidential intermediary may examine children's Child Welfare Services records maintained by the OKDHS State Office.

(B) No original file contents or copies of confidential documents are removed from OKDHS files.

(C) Any reports and other information collected as a result of a search performed, per this Section are retained by the Confidential-Intermediary Search Program administrator for 22 years following the date of the initial search application.

(D) During a confidential intermediary search, the intermediary maintains records of all actions and furnishes copies of those records to the Confidential-Intermediary Search Program administrator.

(10) Confidential-Intermediary Search Program fees. Each application for a search through a confidential intermediary must be accompanied by a fee, per 10 O.S. § 7508-1.3. Once application is made for the search and is initiated by the confidential intermediary, any fees paid are non-refundable under any circumstances, including unsuccessful location or reunion. All fees are waived for siblings who were separated through OKDHS adoptions. Each application for a search must be accompanied by a:

(A) $20 fee to register on the Mutual-Consent Voluntary Registry, six months prior to application for a search;
(B) $400 fee for an initial search for one eligible person. Of this fee, $100 is used for search program administrative costs and $300 is the fixed rate for the search, paid to the confidential intermediary; and
(C) $200 fee for subsequent searches for eligible persons by the same requester. Of this fee, $50 is for search program administrative costs and $150 is the fixed rate for the subsequent search, paid to the confidential intermediary.

(2) Authorization and denial. Authorization for the length of services is approved at the time of admission for treatment. When OHCA or its designated agent denies inpatient behavioral health treatment for the child, the assigned child welfare (CW) specialist may request OHCA reconsideration of the decision.

(3) Admission. When OHCA or its designated agent authorizes inpatient behavioral health treatment based on the facility assessment, the child is admitted to an inpatient behavioral health treatment facility on an emergency basis.

(C) The inpatient facility submits a proposed individualized treatment plan to the court 24-hours in advance of the scheduled hearing.

(5) Hearing. At the hearing, the court determines whether by clear and convincing evidence the child is a minor in need of treatment. When the court:

(A) finds the child is not a minor in need of treatment, the court dismisses the commitment case;

(B) finds the child is a minor in need of treatment, but does not require inpatient treatment, the court may order behavioral health treatment or services through a less restrictive alternative;

(C) finds the child is a minor in need of treatment and requires inpatient treatment in an inpatient behavioral health treatment facility, the court orders the commitment of the child to a behavioral health treatment facility for not more than 30-calendar days; or

(D) commits a child to a behavioral health treatment facility for inpatient treatment, the court sets the case for review every 30-calendar days from the date of the commitment hearing provided the child receives inpatient treatment.

(1) The court reviews the case every 30-calendar days as long as the child receives inpatient treatment. The assigned CW specialist ensures the court receives a written report from the facility regarding the child's progress within three-calendar days prior to any review hearing.

(2) The assigned CW specialist has on-site, face-to-face interaction with the child in acute and residential inpatient behavioral health treatment, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-6-48.

340:75-16-36. Out-of-state inpatient behavioral health services

(a) A child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody admitted to inpatient behavioral health service facilities out-of-state must meet the same medical necessity criteria for inpatient behavioral health services required in Oklahoma.

(1) A child in DHS custody is only admitted to a facility that is an Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA) approved, Title XIX provider under formal contract with OHCA and Child Welfare Services Specialized Placements and Partnerships Unit.

(2) Admission of a child in DHS custody to an out-of-state, inpatient behavioral health service facility requires prior approval through the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children and facilitation via OHCA.

(b) The assigned child welfare specialist visits a child in an out-of-state behavioral health service facility every six months.

(c) A child who is admitted to an inpatient behavioral health service facility in Oklahoma by another state does not have to meet Oklahoma Medicaid requirements.

340:75-16-37. Child who no longer meets medical necessity criteria for inpatient behavioral health services

When the Oklahoma Health Care Authority or its designated agent determines a child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services custody no longer meets medical necessity criteria for inpatient behavioral health services and when the attending physician agrees to discharge, the child is discharged and placed in an appropriate placement with consideration of the inpatient behavioral health services staff's recommendation.

340:75-16-38. Rights of a child in an inpatient behavioral health service facility

(a) Child's rights.

(1) A child is not subjected to unreasonable silence rules, group punishment for inappropriate individual acts, profanity, verbal abuse, or threats of unnecessary or unauthorized physical force by staff, or "make work"; provided nothing herein prevents a child from performing routine housekeeping tasks or maintenance work directly related to a vocational program, such as specific skill training.

(2) Except in situations that pose a serious threat to a child's life or health, a child has the right to refuse medications. Refused medications cannot be administered unless a court order is obtained authorizing its forcible administration. Necessary medication, prescribed by a physician, may be forcibly administered by staff trained in the administration of medication who are familiar with the child's condition.

(b) The facility strictly prohibits all forms of corporal punishment, abuse, neglect, or other maltreatment of a child as required by state law and Oklahoma Department of Human Services ((DHS) policy. The facility agrees to comply with the terms of DHS policy on maltreatment investigations per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:2-3-32 through 340:2-3-37, and immediately reports as provided in policy any abuse, neglect, or maltreatment of a child to the DHS Child Abuse and Neglect Hotline.

(c) The facility agrees to cooperate in any investigation made pursuant to a report of abuse, neglect, or maltreatment, and makes available to the investigator all records pertaining to an incident of abuse, neglect, or maltreatment, including personnel records when needed.

(d) The facility operates a system for the resolution of grievances by a child regarding the application of any written or unwritten policy or rule of the facility, or any decision, behavior, or action by the facility, its agents, or employees. The grievance system used by the facility complies with the DHS grievance policy for private and public agencies per OAC 340:2-3-45 through 340:2-3-47 and 340:2-3-49, and is approved by the Office of Client Advocacy (OCA). The facility submits to OCA, on a monthly basis, a copy of any grievance filed during that month by children who are in DHS custody.

(e) The facility provides, whether on or off-campus, education and training for each child that conforms with the course of instruction approved by the State Board of Education, per Section 11-103 of Title 70 of the Oklahoma Statutes (70 O.S. § 11-103). The facility ensures educational opportunities are available that satisfy each child's special educational requirements, per 70 O.S. §§ 13-101 et seq., and all applicable federal laws. Services are provided or arranged for by the facility for a child who the facility, the school system, or DHS deems is in need of services.

(f) A child's religious preferences are respected and each child has reasonable opportunity to practice the religion of his or her choice.

(g) The facility allows a child visitation with parents, other family members, and legal guardians, unless otherwise ordered by the court of jurisdiction. In emergencies, based upon demonstrable evidence, the child's physician may disapprove visitation by specific family members and legal guardians. The facility involves the child's assigned child welfare (CW) specialist in the decision to disapprove visitation and in determining the need for subsequent denials. Disapproval of visitation is not extended beyond the next court review of the child's case without a court order. In every instance of disapproved visitation, the facility fully documents the reasons for disapproval and promptly notifies and informs the child's assigned CW specialist of the reasons. The facility maintains a written schedule of reasonable visiting days and hours, a copy of which is provided to each child's parent or legal guardian. The visitation schedule accommodates the special needs of working family members. Attorneys are permitted to visit privately with a child during business hours and at all other reasonable times by arrangement with facility administration. The facility may ask attorneys to verify the existence of an attorney-client relationship. In no case is attorney visitation denied when visitation was requested by the child. A child is permitted reasonable access to an unmonitored telephone to make or receive calls from attorneys, family members, and legal guardians who were not denied visitation by the court or the child's physician.

(h) The facility allows a child to send and receive written correspondence. The facility ensures delivery of incoming mail and posting of outgoing mail within 24 hours, excluding weekends and holidays. Written correspondence is not read or censored, but may be inspected for contraband. When mail is opened for inspection of contraband, it is done by the resident in the presence of facility staff. Correspondence may be denied, based upon demonstrable evidence by the child's physician in specific instances where it is clearly documented the correspondence is from someone whose continued relationship poses, or may pose, a decided detriment to the child's care and treatment. In each case involving the denial of written correspondence, the facility physician fully documents reasons, promptly notifies and informs the child's assigned CW specialist of the reasons. The facility actively involves the child's assigned CW specialist in the decision of subsequent denial. In cases where correspondence is denied, the facility promptly returns the correspondence to the sender.

(i) Medications, such as stimulants, tranquilizers, or psychotropics, may be administered only as a part of a program of medically approved therapy, are included in the child's individual plan of care, and are listed in the facility's formulary. Prior to the implementation of the order of such medication, the child's assigned CW specialist and the child are informed of the benefits and hazards of the medication. When the child's assigned CW specialist cannot be located, the facility informs the assigned CW specialist's supervisor or district director or his or her designee. The administration or dispensing of such drugs is monitored by a licensed psychiatrist according to accepted medical standards. The use of medication for punishment, experimentation and research, staff convenience, control, or program management is prohibited.

340:75-16-39. Victim's protection order

When family members are threatened with imminent physical harm by their child, age 13 years or older, the parent(s) contacts the local county court clerk's office and requests a Victim's Protection Order (VPO) petition form. The court clerk then files the petition requesting a hearing be set placing the child in the custody of the Office of Juvenile Affairs (OJA), per Section 60.1 et seq. of Title 22 of the Oklahoma Statutes. OJA is responsible for placement of the child.

PART 3. OUTPATIENT BEHAVIORAL HEALTH CARE SERVICES

340:75-16-45. Outpatient behavioral health services

(a) The child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody is eligible to receive a behavioral health assessment once per local community mental health center services provider or other outpatient Medicaid approved provider, without prior authorization. The behavioral health service plan development may also be provided without prior authorization.

(b) Prior authorization from the Oklahoma Health Care Authority is required for the child in DHS custody to receive outpatient behavioral health rehabilitative services beyond the initial assessment and service plan development.

(1) The child's assigned child welfare specialist refers the child for services to the local community mental health center or Medicaid approved provider in the county where the child resides.

(2) The mental health professional develops an assessment and service plan to indicate strengths, needs, and potential services.

(a) Systems of care is a framework through Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services per Section 5-521 of Title 43A of the Oklahoma Statutes and offers a comprehensive array of behavioral health and other support services organized into a coordinated network to meet the multiple and changing needs of children with serious emotional disturbances and their families. Counties are selected based on an evaluation of community readiness and the intensity of children's behavioral health needs within a community.

(b) Systems of care is individualized to each child, family, and community, and includes services that are:

- (1) child-centered;
- (2) family-focused;

- (3) local control of services enhanced through:
 - (A) the wraparound service philosophy;
 - (B) flexible funds;
 - (C) respite care;
 - (D) case management; and
 - (E) transitional services.

(d) Expected outcomes of systems of care are:

- (1) an improved level of functioning;
- (2) improved school attendance and performance;
- (3) fewer encounters with the juvenile justice system;
- (4) a reduced number of out-of-home placements; and
- (5) parent and child satisfaction.

SUBCHAPTER 18. CONTINUOUS QUALITY IMPROVEMENT

340:75-18-1. Purpose of Continuous Quality Improvement (CQI)

CQI is an on-going process of identifying, describing, and analyzing Child Welfare Services (CWS) program and system strengths and problems, and then testing, implementing, learning from, and developing solutions to the problems.

(1) Evaluating achievement of outcomes for children and families. An annual Child and Family Services Review (CFSR) is conducted by the CQI program to review CWS performance.

(A) Desired outcomes include that:

- (i) children are first and foremost protected from abuse and neglect;
- (ii) children are safely maintained in their own homes when possible and appropriate;
- (iii) children have permanency and stability in their living situations;
- (iv) continuity of family relationships and connections is preserved for children;
- (v) the person responsible for the child's health, safety or welfare (PRFC) has enhanced capacity to provide for the child's needs;
- (vi) children receive appropriate services to meet their educational needs; and
- (vii) children receive adequate services to meet their physical and mental health needs.

(B) Systemic factors identified as essential to effective service provision are reviewed, such as the:

- (i) Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS system), commonly known as KIDS;
- (ii) CWS case review system;
- (iii) training for CWS staff and providers;
- (iv) availability of services and resources;
- (v) DHS response to the community;
- (vi) quality assurance system; and
- (vii) foster and adoptive home recruitment and approval process.

(2) Facilitating ongoing feedback and adjustment to programs and processes. CQI is a process that promotes circular feedback and communication among staff and stakeholders. Feedback loops permit an ongoing, bi-directional information exchange across DHS that in turn impact the change process. Sharing data with staff, consumers, and external stakeholders is equally important. Through data-based decision-making, the CQI process is subject to continued examination, evaluation, and refinement to address needs.

(3) Providing ongoing support and training. The training is designed to provide time-intensive, small group, or one-on-one guidance to CWS staff to enhance child welfare practice as outlined by the CWS practice standards and the practice model.

(4) Assessing and ensuring contractor compliance. As part of the CQI process, DHS conducts performance reviews of the CW service provider's contract with DHS and assesses the contractor's performance annually. Those providers include, but are not limited to:

- (A) therapeutic foster care;
- (B) psychiatric acute and residential treatment centers;
- (C) group homes;
- (D) specialized community homes;
- (E) residential maternity and infant homes; and

- (B) cooperate fully with Indian tribes in Oklahoma to ensure the intent and provisions of the federal Indian Child Welfare Act are enforced.

(b) Applicability of the Federal and State Indian Child Welfare Acts.

(1) Per 10 O.S. § 40.3, the Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Act applies to all state voluntary and involuntary child custody court proceedings involving the Indian child, regardless of whether the child involved is in the physical or legal custody of an Indian parent or Indian custodian at the time state proceedings are initiated.

The tribal court shares concurrent jurisdiction with the state court in state court proceedings for foster care placement of, or termination of parental rights to, an Indian child not residing within the reservation of the Indian child's tribe. 340:75-19-9. Child Protective Services reports of abuse or neglect regarding the Indian child

(a) State jurisdiction does not extend to the Indian child who resides on tribal land. Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) reports child abuse or neglect that occurs on tribal land involving an Indian child victim and an Indian or non-Indian perpetrator as addressed in the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for Reporting and Investigating Child Abuse Criminal Offenses in Indian Country between the OKDHS, tribal law enforcement and Child Protective Services (CPS) agencies, BIA, United States Attorney's offices for the Western, Northern, and Eastern Districts of Oklahoma, Federal Bureau of Investigation, and Indian Health Services.

The court may, for good and sufficient cause shown, extend the emergency custody order for an additional 60 calendar days.

(a) Per Section 1912 of Title 25 of the United States Code (25 U.S.C. § 1912) no foster care placement or termination of parental rights may be ordered without the testimony of a qualified expert witness that the continued custody of the Indian child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage or harm to the child.

(b) A qualified expert witness has specific knowledge of the Indian tribe's culture and customs. Persons with the following characteristics, in descending order, meet the requirements for a qualified expert witness, a:

(1) member of the Indian child's tribe recognized by the tribal community as knowledgeable in tribal customs as they pertain to family organizations and child rearing practices;

(2) member of another tribe recognized to be a qualified expert witness by the Indian child's tribe based on his or her knowledge of the delivery of child and family services to Indians and the Indian child's tribe;

(3) layperson recognized by the Indian child's tribe as having substantial experience in the delivery of child and family services to Indians, and knowledge of prevailing social and cultural standards and childrearing practices within the Indian child's tribe; and

(4) professional person with substantial education and experience in the area of his or her specialty who can demonstrate knowledge of the prevailing social and cultural standards and childrearing practices within the Indian child's tribe.

340:75-19-14. Placement preferences for the Indian child

(a) Statutory authority for placement preferences for the Indian child. The Federal and State Indian Child Welfare Acts (ICWA) per Section 1915 (a) and (b) of Title 25 of the United States Code (25 U.S.C. § 1915 (a) and (b)) and Section 40.6 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes (10 O.S. § 40.6) establish an order of placement preferences for foster care, pre-adoptive, and adoptive placement for Indian children. The placement preferences are in order of most preferable to least preferable. The order of placement preferences for foster and pre-adoptive placements differs from the order of placement preferences for adoptive placements. The court, when appropriate, considers the preferences of the extended family or siblings, the Indian child, or parent.

(b) Foster care or pre-adoptive placement preferences for the Indian child. The Indian child in foster care or pre-adoptive placements is placed:

- (1) in the least restrictive, most family-like setting;
- (2) in reasonable proximity to the child's home, extended family, or siblings;
- (3) where the child's special needs, when any, may be met; and
- (4) in the following descending order of preference, absent good cause to the contrary, with:

- (A) a member of the Indian child's extended family;
- (B) a foster home licensed, approved, or specified by the Indian child's tribe whether on or off the reservation, Indian country, or tribal land;
- (C) an Indian foster home licensed or approved by an authorized non-Indian licensing authority; or
- (D) an institution for children approved by an Indian tribe or operated by an Indian organization that has a program suitable to meet the Indian child's needs.

(c) Adoptive placement preferences for the Indian child. The Indian child in an adoptive placement is placed in the following descending order of preference, absent good cause to the contrary, with:

- (1) a member of the child's extended family;
- (2) other members of the Indian child's tribe; or
- (3) other Indian families.

(d) Tribal authority to establish tribe-specific placement preferences. Per 25 U.S.C. § 1915 (c) of the Federal Indian Child Welfare Act (FICWA), the child's tribe may establish a different order of preference by resolution and the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) follows the tribe's order when the placement is the least restrictive setting appropriate to the child's needs.

(e) Utilization of the child's tribe to secure placement. Per 10 O.S. § 40.6, in the placement of the Indian child, DHS must utilize, to the maximum extent possible, the services of the child's Indian tribe in securing placement consistent with the provisions of the Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Act.

(f) Good cause to modify placement preference. The state court must find, by clear and convincing evidence, that good cause exists to deviate from the placement preferences. The determination must be based on one of the following considerations, the:

- (1) request of the parents, when both parents attest they reviewed the placement options that comply with the order of preference;
- (2) request of the child, when the child is able to understand and comprehend the decision being made;
- (3) extraordinary physical or emotional needs of the child, such as specialized treatment services that may be unavailable in the community where families who meet the criteria live, as established by testimony of a qualified expert witness; provided that extraordinary physical or emotional needs of the child does not include ordinary bonding or attachment that may have occurred as a result of a placement or the fact that the child has, for an extended amount of time, been in another placement that does not comply with FICWA; or

(4) unavailability of a placement after a showing by the applicable agency and a determination by the court that active efforts were made to find placements meeting the preference criteria, but none were located.

(g) Indian child's placement records. A record of each placement of an Indian child is maintained by DHS, evidencing the efforts to comply with the order of preference specified in 25 U.S.C. § 1915, and is made available at any time upon request of the Secretary of the Interior or the Indian child's tribe.

340:75-19-18. Permanency planning for Indian children

The Federal and State Indian Child Welfare Acts (ICWA) and OAC 340:75-6 provide information regarding services to Indian children and families. The ICWA requires active efforts be made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family per Section 1912 of Title 25 of the United States Code (25 U.S.S. § 1912).

340:75-19-19. Termination of parental rights to the Indian child

Proceedings to terminate parental rights to the Indian child, pursuant to the Federal Indian Child Welfare Act, per Section 1912(f) of Title 25 of the United States Code require:

- (1) evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, supported by testimony of a qualified expert witness that continued custody by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical harm or damage to the child; and
- (2) a showing that active efforts were made to provide remedial and rehabilitative services designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that these efforts proved unsuccessful.

340:75-19-20. Special procedures for placement of the Indian child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (DHS) custody in a tribal-certified foster home or residential placement

(a) Placement of the Indian child in DHS custody in tribal-certified foster home. The Indian child in DHS custody may be placed in a tribal-certified foster home with permission of the applicable tribal child welfare program.

(b) Placement of the Indian child in DHS custody in residential placement. Section 1915 of Title 25 of the United States Code provides as a last placement preference for the Indian child in foster care or pre-adoptive placement who is in DHS custody, placement in an institution for children approved by an Indian tribe or operated by an Indian organization that has a program suitable to meet the Indian child's needs.

340:75-19-21. Reports of abuse or neglect of the child in Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) or tribal custody placed in tribal foster resource care

(a) Reports of abuse or neglect in a tribal foster care resource. The report of abuse or neglect of either the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) or tribal custody child placed in a tribal foster home is processed in accordance with OAC 340:75-3-410.

(b) Tribal decisions regarding the child in tribal custody. Tribes make decisions regarding the removal from or the return to the tribal foster home for the child in tribal custody.

(c) OKDHS decisions regarding the child in OKDHS custody. OKDHS makes each decision regarding the removal from or return to the tribal foster home for the child in OKDHS custody.

340:75-19-23. Adoptive placement of the Indian child

(a) Adoptive placement preference for the Indian child. Adoptive placements are defined by the Federal Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) as the permanent placement of the Indian child for adoption, including any action resulting in a final decree of adoption. ICWA establishes an order of placement preference for the Indian child in an adoptive placement. Unless the court finds good cause to deviate from the ICWA-specified, placement preference, or the Indian child's tribe has established by resolution a different order of specified preference, Section 1915 of Title 25 of the United States Code (25 U.S.C. § 1915) requires that Indian children in adoptive placement are placed in descending order:

- (1) a member of the child's extended family;
- (2) other members of the Indian child's tribe; or
- (3) members of other Indian families.

(b) Standards applied to adoptive placement preference. The criteria for the placement of the Indian child, per 25 U.S.C. §1915(d) includes consideration of the prevailing social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the parent or extended family resides or in which the parent or extended family members maintain social and cultural ties. The court, where appropriate, considers the preference of the Indian child or parent.

(c) Adoptive placement with non-Indian family. Adoptive placement in a non-Indian resource is considered only after the Oklahoma Department of Human Services determines, no:

- (1) extended family are available for adoptive placement;
- (2) Indian families of the child's tribe are available for adoptive placement; and
- (3) Indian families of other tribes are available for adoptive placement.

(d) Good cause hearing required prior to placement in non-family or non-Indian resource. Prior to the adoptive placement of the Indian child in a placement that deviates from the preference order, the court must conduct a hearing to determine if good cause exists to deviate from the adoptive placement preference order.

340:75-19-24. Voluntary consent to adoption by the Indian parent or custodian

(a) Withdrawal of the Indian parent or custodian's voluntary consent to adoption. Per Section 1913 of Title 25 of the United States Code (25 U.S.C. § 1913), the parent or Indian custodian of the Indian child may withdraw consent to termination of parental rights or adoption at any time before an entry of final decree of voluntary termination or adoption.

(b) Time requirement for invalidation of adoption. An adoption in effect for at least two years may not be invalidated under the provisions of 25 U.S.C. § 1913, unless otherwise permitted under state law.

340:75-19-25. Records of adoption

(a) Final decree of Indian child's adoption. Per Section 1951 of Title 25 of the United States Code, the state court provides a copy of the final decree of adoption of the Indian child to the Secretary of Interior (Secretary). Additional information accompanying the final decree, when not included in the final decree, includes the:

- (1) child's name and tribal affiliation;
- (2) biological parent's names and addresses;
- (3) adoptive parent's names and addresses; and
- (4) identity of any agency having files or information relating to the adoptive placement.

(b) Confidentiality affidavit. When the court records contain an affidavit of the biological parent or parents requesting that the parent's or parents' identity remain confidential, the court includes the affidavit with the other information accompanying the final decree of adoption. The Secretary ensures that confidentiality is maintained and not subject to the Freedom of Information Act per 5 U.S.C. § 552).

340:75-19-26. Foster care maintenance payment for the child in tribal custody

(a) Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) provides foster care maintenance payment to approved tribal-certified foster homes for the placement of the child in tribal custody when OKDHS has a contractual agreement with the child's tribe for the payment of foster care and the tribe submitted Form 04TB004E, Indian Child Welfare Program Referral, along with a copy of the court order and case plan to the assigned OKDHS tribal program staff.

(b) The tribe sends copies of updated case plans and current court orders to tribal IV-E program staff. The Indian child's tribe immediately notifies tribal IV-E program staff via Form 04TB003E, Indian Child Welfare Program Update, of any change in the child's placement or custody.

(c) The child's tribe provides services and supervises the child's placement when the child is in tribal custody.

(d) The child's tribe makes application on behalf of the child for any financial benefits, such as Social Security, to which the child is entitled. When the child is determined eligible, the child's tribe immediately notifies tribal IV-E program staff by submitting Form 04TB003E with updated information. The foster care maintenance payment is reduced by the dollar amount of the benefit.

(e) Each tribe develops and implements policies and practices per federal regulations related to Titles IV-B and IV-E. Tribes may request technical assistance from OKDHS regarding:

- (1) federal law, policy, and regulation;
- (2) accountability for fiscal and program operations;
- (3) reporting procedures; and
- (4) compliance with the terms and conditions of tribal and OKDHS agreements.

(f) When OKDHS identifies questionable foster care practices or circumstances that may jeopardize continued federal funding, the situation is reviewed and reconciled by a panel of tribal and OKDHS officials on a case-by-case basis. When reconciliation is not possible, both parties may present views to the OKDHS Director who determines if continued payment is made on behalf of the cases affected.

340:75-19-26.1. Therapeutic foster care (TFC) or intensive treatment family care (ITFC) for the child in tribal custody

TFC or ITFC is the least restrictive, community-based residential care placement setting. Children in Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody or tribal custody served in TFC placements are 4 through 17 years of age, and the Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA) authorized reviewer determines whether they meet the medical necessity criteria for TFC or ITFC services, per Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 317:30-5-741 or 317:30-5-751.

- (1) When the child in tribal custody requires TFC or ITFC, per Part 1 of OAC 340:75-8, the tribal Indian child welfare (ICW) worker:
 - (A) requests an interview for TFC or ITFC application by completing the TFC Coversheet and emailing it to TherapeuticFosterCare@okdhs.org; and
 - (B) provides accurate and complete information regarding the child's behavior to the TFC program staff completing the application over the phone.
- (2) Upon the application's completion, TFC program staff sends it to OHCA for the request's approval or denial.
- (3) TFC program staff enters and updates the placement recommendation screens in KIDS according to OHCA approval or denial.

340:75-19-28. Difficulty of care payments for the child in tribal custody

- (a) Difficulty of care (DOC) payments are available to reimburse tribal foster parents for the care of the child in tribal custody.
- (b) The Indian child welfare (ICW) worker submits a written request for DOC to tribal IV-E program staff when the ICW worker determines the child meets DOC criteria. Tribal IV-E program staff approves or denies the written request within 10-calendar days from the date the request is received.
- (c) The written request details the child's special needs, including statements from medical or psychological reports that describe the child's condition and diagnosis, utilizing the rate descriptions per Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) Appendix C-20, Child Welfare Services Rates Schedule, as amended from time to time.
 - (1) The effective date of DOC approval is the first day of the month in which Child Welfare Services receives the request.
 - (2) No retroactive payments are made prior to the date of the request.
- (d) The ICW worker:
 - (1) reviews the child's DOC rate increase every six months;
 - (2) one month prior to the end date of DOC approval, submits notification to tribal IV-E program staff for continuation of DOC or that DOC is no longer needed;
 - (3) notifies tribal IV-E program staff when the Indian child's placement changes to a placement other than tribal foster care or the child returns to his or her own home; and
 - (4) when the child's special needs change, requiring a DOC rate change, prepares a detailed request and submits the request to tribal IV-E program staff. tribal IV-E program staff terminates the original request.

340:75-19-29. Voluntary foster care for the child in tribal custody younger than 18 years of age

- (a) Purpose of voluntary foster care. The Indian child may be placed in voluntary foster care with either Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) or the tribe at the parent's or legal guardian's request. Voluntary foster care:
 - (1) is available as a preventive and protective service to enhance family functioning without court intervention, per Oklahoma Administrative Code 340:75-4-12.1; and
 - (2) may be approved for tribal children who are placed within the tribe in a tribal foster care home for up to 90-calendar days for children younger than 18 years of age. Voluntary foster care placements that extend beyond 90-calendar days require a judicial determination to the effect that continued voluntary foster care is in the child's best interest.

(b) Tribe's responsibilities for voluntary foster care.

(1) When the Indian child welfare (ICW) worker places the child in voluntary foster care, the tribe obtains a written voluntary foster care agreement.

(A) The agreement does not require court action, and the child is returned to the parent or guardian upon request. When the parent or guardian fails to meet the terms of the agreement or cannot be located, court involvement is required.

(B) The tribe submits Form 04TB004E, Indian Child Welfare Program Referral, and a memo requesting approval for voluntary foster care to tribal IV-E program staff.

(2) The child's tribe notifies tribal IV-E program staff when:

(A) the child leaves the placement; or

(B) court action is initiated.

(c) Evidence gathered during the Indian child's voluntary foster care episode. The ICW worker or child welfare specialist advises the parent, Indian custodian, or legal guardian at the time of the child's placement that any evidence gathered during the time the child is placed in voluntary foster care may be used as a basis for court action, per Section 1-7-112 of Title 10A of the Oklahoma Statutes.

340:75-19-30. Voluntary foster care for the youth in tribal custody after 18 years of age

(a) The tribe may continue to provide foster care services on a voluntary basis to a youth in tribal custody who turns 18 years of age prior to completing his or her:

(1) high school education; or

(2) General Educational Development (GED).

(b) The youth:

(1) remains eligible for voluntary foster care until he or she completes high school or GED requirements or reaches his or her 21st birthday. When the youth stops pursuing an education, the youth is no longer eligible for voluntary foster care; and

(2) agrees to:

(A) participate in the development of an successful adulthood plan outlining the steps to achieve self-sufficiency;

(B) participate in successful adulthood services and activities; and

(C) abide by the successful adulthood plan.

340:75-19-31. Oklahoma Successful Adulthood (OKSA) program services for youth in tribal or Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) custody

(a) John H. Chafee Foster Care Program for Successful Transition to Adulthood (Chafee Program). The Chafee Program supports states in providing independent living services for both state and tribal youth in custody, focusing on:

- (1) career planning;
- (2) emergency housing; and
- (3) aftercare.

(b) Requirements for eligible Indian youth. Federal regulations and state statutes require that eligible youth receive:

- (1) an OKSA assessment, which is a comprehensive evaluation of the youth's readiness for successful adulthood and identification of the services and supports required for the youth to achieve a maximum level of self-sufficiency;
- (2) an OKSA plan, which describes the services supports and activities the child welfare specialist and youth identify as necessary for the youth to transition to independence, and includes the components required by federal and state statutes;
- (3) a judicial determination made at each dispositional and review hearing as to whether:

- (A) the OKSA services needed to assist the youth in making the transition from custody to self-sufficiency are provided or are not appropriate;
- (B) during the 90-day period immediately prior to a youth's 18th birthday, OKDHS and, as appropriate, the youth's representatives, are providing the youth with assistance and support in developing an appropriate personalized transition plan based upon the youth's input, and as detailed as the youth elects, that includes specific options regarding:
 - (i) housing;
 - (ii) health insurance;
 - (iii) education;
 - (iv) local opportunities for mentors and continuing support services; and
 - (v) employment supports and services;

(C) information is provided to the youth about the importance of designating another individual to make health care treatment decisions on the youth's behalf if the youth:

- (i) becomes unable to participate in his or her health care decisions; and
 - (ii) does not have, or does not want a relative, who would otherwise be authorized under state or tribal law, to make health care decisions; and
- (D) the youth is provided with the option of executing a health care power of attorney, health care proxy, or other similar documents recognized under state or tribal law;

and

(4) a variety of services, resources, and youth development funds are provided to facilitate successful transition into adulthood. Each service, resource, and youth development fund category has distinct eligibility requirements that are found at Oklahoma Administrative Code (OAC) 340:75-6-110.

(c) Community contracts. Youth in tribal custody are eligible for services provided through community contracts, including educational, vocational, supplemental assistance, resource materials, teen conferences, OKSA seminars, technical assistance, and training. The Indian child welfare (ICW) worker enrolls eligible youths at 14 years of age by contacting the OKSA Program via the OKSA email, oksa@ou.edu.

(d) Contingency funds. Contingency funds are designed as supportive services for youths in preparation for living on their own and for emergencies encountered after leaving care while learning to live independently. The ICW worker accesses the funds per OAC 340:75-6-110 by contacting the OKSA Program via the OKSA email, oksa@ou.edu.

(e) Incentive payment. Youths in tribal custody are eligible for a one-time monetary incentive payment when exiting tribal custody from an out-of-home placement to reunification, adoption, guardianship, or independence. The incentive payment is accessed when the youth completes an intake and exit interview process with the OKSA aftercare program by contacting the Yes I Can toll free number at 1-800-397-2945. The KK case remains open when the child in tribal custody is enrolled in OKSA, is in a non-paid placement, and the case type is changed to OKSA.

340:75-19-32. Agreements for foster care

(a) The Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) Section 40.7 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes authorizes Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS) to enter into contractual agreements with Indian tribes for the care and custody of Indian children and jurisdiction over child custody proceedings which provide for orderly transfer of jurisdiction on a case-by-case basis and provide for concurrent jurisdiction. The objective of the agreements is to enhance coordination and cooperation between the tribes and OKDHS in providing appropriate foster care and related services to Indian children in both OKDHS and tribal custody.

(b) OKDHS pays the costs of foster care to tribally approved foster homes for the placement of Indian children in OKDHS or tribal custody.

(c) Tribes develop and implement tribal foster home standards according to each tribe's culture and standards. The tribe's foster home standards are submitted in writing to OKDHS tribal program staff and the tribe uses these standards to certify tribal foster homes. Tribal-certified foster families may serve as placement resources for the Indian child in OKDHS or tribal custody.

(d) The foster care maintenance payment to the tribal-certified foster home is initiated only after the tribe submits the tribal-certified foster resource home study. Maintenance payments are not provided to any tribal foster home prior to the tribe's approval date and OKDHS' receipt of all required documentation including all required background checks. The tribe mails or faxes each completed tribal-certified foster resource home study and re-assessment to Child Welfare Services (CWS) tribal IV-E program staff. The Indian child welfare (ICW) worker sends documentation of the effective date and reason for closure of tribal foster homes to CWS tribal IV-E program staff.

(e) Confidentiality is addressed in each contractual agreement for foster care. The tribe agrees to exercise confidentiality and provide information only to those persons who need the information in order to exercise the tribes' rights under the federal and state ICWA.

(f) Federal and Oklahoma laws and regulations regarding review hearings, permanency hearings, case plans, and recordkeeping are applicable to the Indian child placed in tribal custody and a tribal foster home.

(g) Each contractual agreement for foster care includes OKDHS responsibilities for placement of the Indian child in tribal custody.

(h) The tribe agrees to abide by the placement preferences of the federal and state ICWA unless the tribe establishes a different order of preference by resolution. The tribe submits any changes in the tribe's placement preference order, in writing, within 10-calendar days, to OKDHS tribal program staff.

(i) The Plan of Operation is a binding part of each contractual agreement for foster care and sets forth tribal foster home procedures and protocols for the placement and services of the Indian child in tribal custody.
